Matt.13.2. Luke 8.4.

AND * hee began againe to teach by the sea side, and there gathered vnto him a great multitude, so that hee entred into a ship, and sate in the sea, and all the people was by the sea side on the land.

2 And hee taught them many things in parables, and sayde vnto them ‖ in * his doctrine,

‖ Or, as he taught.

3 Hearken: Beholde, there went out a sower to sowe.

4 And it came to passe as he sowed, that some fell by the way side, and the fowles of the heauen came and deuoured it vp.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth, and by and by sprang vp, because it had not depth of earth.

6 But assoone as the sunne was vp, it caught heate, and because it had not roote, it withered away.

7 And some fell among the thornes, and the thornes grewe vp and choked it, so that it gaue no fruite.

8 And some fell in good ground, & did yeelde fruite that springe vp, and yee we, and brought fourth, some thirtie folde, some sixtie folde, some an hundreth folde.

9 Then he said vnto them, He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelue, asked him of the parable.

11 And he said vnto them, Vnto you it is giuen to know the mystery of the kingdome of God: but vnto them that are without, all things be done in parables, 12 * That they seeing, may see, and not perceiue: and they hearing, may heare, and not vnderstand, lest at any time they should turne, and their sinnes should be forgiuen them.

13 Againe he said vnto them, Perceiue ye not this parable? how then shall yee vnderstand all other parables?

14 The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they that receiue the seede by the wayes side, in whome the worde is sowen: but when they haue heard it, Satan commeth immediately, and taketh away the worde that was sowen in their hearts.

16 And likewise they that receiued seede in stony grounde, are they, which when they haue heard the word, straight waies receiue it with gladnesse, 17 Yet haue they no roote in themselues, and endure but a time: for when trouble and persecution ariseth for the word, immediatly they be offended.

18 Also they that receiue the seed among the thornes, are such as heare the word:

19 But the cares of this world, and the * deceitfulnesse of riches, and the lustes of other things entering in, choke the worde, and it is vnfruitfull.

20 But they that haue receiued seede in good ground, are they that heare the word, and receiue it, and bring fourth fruite, one corne thirtie, another sixtie, and some an hundreth.

21 ¶ And he sayde vnto them, * Is the candle lighted to be put vnder a bushell, or vnder the table, and not to be put on a candlestick?

22 † For there is nothing hid, that shall not be opened: neither is there a secrete, but that it shall come to light.

23 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare.

24 And he sayde vnto them, Take heede what yee heare. * With what measure yee mete, it shall be measured vnto you: and vnto you that heare, shall more be giuen.

25 * For vnto him that hath, shall it be giuen, and from him that hath not, shall be taken away, ‖ euen that he hath.

26 ¶ Also he sayd, So is the kingdome of God, as if a man should ‖ cast seede in the ground, 27 And should sleepe, and rise vp night and day, and the seede should spring and grow vp, he not knowing how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruite of her selfe, first the blade, then the eare, after that full corne in the eare, 29 And assone as the fruite is brought forth, anon he putteth in the sickle, because the harueste is come.

30 ¶ * He said moreouer, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdome of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a graine of mustard seede, which when it is sowen in the earth, is the least of all seedes that be in the earth:

32 But after that it is sowen, it groweth vp, and it is greatest of all herbes, and beareth great branches, so that the foules of heauen may builde vnder the shadowe of it.

33 And * with many such parables he preached the word vnto them, as they were able to heare it.

34 And without parables spake he nothing vnto them, but he expounded all things to his disciples apart.

35 ¶ * Moreouer the same day when euen was come, he sayde vnto them, Let vs passe ouer vnto the other side.

36 And they left the multitude, and tooke him as he was in the ship: and there were also with him other ships.

37 And there arose a great tempest of winde, and the waues beat vpon the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the sterne asleepe vpon a pillow: and they awoke him, and sayd to him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose vp, and rebuked the winde, and sayd vnto the sea, Peace, and be still. So the winde ceased, and it was a great calme.

40 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye so fearefull? how is it that ye haue no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What is this, that both the winde and the sea obey him?

The Argument.

1 Then ᵃ gathered vnto him the Pharises, ‖ and certaine of the Scribes which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eate meate with ‖ common ᵇ hands,

(that is to say, vnwashed) they ‖ reproued.

3 (For the Pharises and all the Iewes, except they ‖ diligently wash their hands, eate not, holding the traditions of the Elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they ‖ wash, they eate not: & many other things there bee, which they haue receiued to obserue, as the washing of cups, and ᵒ pots, and of brasen vessels, and of tables.)

5 Then asked him the Pharises and Scribes, ᵖ Why walke not thy disciples according to the tradition of the Elders, but eate ‖ meate with vnwashen handes?

6 Then he answered & sayde vnto them, ᵠ Esaye ʳ hath well prophesied of you, hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lippes, but their heart is farre away from me.

7 But they worship me in vaine, teaching for doctrines the ˢ commandements of men.

8 For ye lay the commandement of God apart, and obserue the traditions of men: as the washing of pots and of cups, and many other such like things ye doe.

9 And he sayd vnto them, ᵗ Well ye reiect the commandement of God, that ye may obserue your owne tradition.

10 For ᵘ Moses sayd, ˣ Honour thy father and thy mother: and, ʸ Whosoeuer shall curse father or mother, let him ‖ die the death.

12 Ye suffer him no more to doe any thing for his father, or his mother, 13 ᶻ Making the word of God of none authoritie, by your tradition which ye haue deliuered: and ye doe many such like things.

15 There ᵃ is nothing without a man, that can defile him, when it entreth into him: but the things which proceede out of him, are they which defile the man.

19 Because it entreth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught which is the purging of all meates?

20 Then he sayd, ᶜ That which commeth out of man, that defileth man.

26 (And the woman was a Greeke, a Syrophenitian by nation) and ſhe beſought him that he would caſt out the deuill out of her daughter.

27 But Jeſus ſayde vnto her, Let the [h] children firſt be fed: for it is not good to take the childrens bread, and to caſt it vnto [i] whelpes.

2 The miracle of the ſeuen loaues. 11 The Phariſes aske a ſigne. 15 The leauen of the Phariſes. 22 The blinde receiueth his ſight. 29 He was knowen of his diſciples. 33 He reproueth Peter, 34 And ſheweth how neceſſarie perſecution is.

IN [*] thoſe dayes when there was a very great multitude, and had nothing to eate, Jeſus called his diſciples to him, and ſayde vnto them,

2 I haue compaſſion on the multitude, becauſe they haue now continued with mee three dayes, and haue nothing to eate.

3 And if I ſend them away faſting to their owne houſes, they would faint by the way: for ſome of them came from farre.

4 Then his diſciples anſwered him, [‖] How can a man ſatiſfie theſe [b] with bread here in the wilderneſſe?

5 And hee aſked them, Howe many loaues haue ye? And they ſayd, Seuen.

6 Then he commaunded the multitude to ſit downe on the ground: and he tooke the ſeuen loaues, and gaue thanks, brake them, and gaue to his diſciples to ſet before them, and they did ſet them before the people.

7 They had alſo a few ſmall fiſhes: and when he had giuen thanks, he commaunded them alſo to be ſet before them.

8 So they did eat, and were ſufficed, and they tooke vp of the broken meate that was left, ſeuen baſkets full,

9 (And they that had eaten, were about foure thouſand) ſo he ſent them away.

10 ¶ [*] And anon he entred into a ſhippe with his diſciples, and came into the partes of [c] Dalmanutha.

11 [*] And the Phariſes came forth, and began to diſpute with him, ſeeking of him a ſigne from heauen, and tempting him.

12 Then he [d] ſighed deeply in his ſpirit, and ſayd, Why doth this [e] generation ſeeke a ſigne? verily I ſay vnto you, [‖] [f] a ſigne ſhal not be giuen vnto this generation.

13 ¶ So he left them, and went into the ſhip againe, and departed to the other ſide.

14 ¶ [*] And they had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ſhippe with them, but one loafe.

15 And he charged them, ſaying, Take heed, and beware of the [g] leauen of the Phariſes, and of the leauen of Herod.

16 And they thought among themſelues, ſaying, It is, becauſe we haue no bread.

17 And when Jeſus knewe it, hee ſayde vnto them, Why reaſon you thus becauſe ye haue no bread? perceiue ye not yet, neither vnderſtand? haue yee your hearts yet hardened?

18 Haue yee eyes and ſee not? and haue ye eares and heare not? and doe ye not remember?

19 [*] When I brake the fiue loaues among fiue thouſand, how many baſkets full of broken meate tooke ye vp? they ſayde vnto him, Twelue.

20 And when I brake ſeuen among foure thouſand, how many baſkets of the leauings of broken meate tooke ye vp? and they ſayd, Seuen.

21 Then he ſayd vnto them, [h] How is it that ye vnderſtand not?

22 ¶ And hee came to Bethſaida, and they brought a blinde man vnto him, and deſired him to touch him.

23 Then he tooke the blinde by the hand, and led him out of the towne, and ſpit in his eyes, and put his hands vpon him, and aſked him, if he ſaw ought.

24 And he looked vp, & ſayd, I ſee men: for I ſee them walking like trees.

25 After that, he put his handes againe vpon his eyes, and made him looke againe. And he was reſtored to his ſight, and ſawe euery man afarre off clearely.

26 And hee ſent him home to his houſe, ſaying, Neither goe into the towne, nor tell it to any in the towne.

27 ¶ [*] And Jeſus went out, and his diſciples into the townes of Cæſarea Philippi. And by the way he aſked his diſciples, ſaying vnto them, Whom doe men ſay that I am?

2 * And fiue dayes after, Iesus tooke Peter, and James, and John, and brought them vp into an high mountaine out of the way alone, and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment did b shine, and was very white as snowe, so white as no fuller can make vpon the earth.

4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moses, and they were talking with Iesus.

5 Then Peter answered, and said to Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to bee here: let vs make also three Tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 * For he knewe not what hee sayd: for they were afeard.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them, and a voyce came out of the cloud, saying, * This is my beloued Sonne: d heare him.

8 And suddenly they looked round about, and saw no more any man saue Iesus onely with them.

9 * And as they came downe from the mountaine, he charged them that they should tell no man what they had seene, saue when the Sonne of man were risen from the dead againe.

10 So they kept that matter to themselues, e demanded one of another what the rising from the dead againe should meane.

11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes, That * Elias * must first come?

12 And he answered, and said vnto them, Elias verily shall first come and restore all things: and * as it is written of the Sonne of man he must suffer many things, and bee set at nought.

13 But I say vnto you, that f Elias is come, (& they haue done vnto him, whatsoeuer they would) as it written of him.

14 ¶ * And when he came to his g disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes disputing with them.

15 And straightway al the people, when they beheld him were amased, and ranne to him and saluted him.

16 Then hee asked the Scribes, What dispute you among your selues?

17 And one of the companie answered, and sayd, Master, I haue brought my sonne vnto thee, which hath a dumbe spirit:

18 And whersoeuer he taketh him, hee h teareth him, and he foameth, and gnasheth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 Then he answered him, and saide i O faithles generation, howe long now shall I be with you? Howe long now shall I suffer you? Bring him vnto me.

20 So they brought him vnto him: and assoone as the spirit saw him, he tare him, and he fel downe on the ground, wallowing and foming.

21 Then he asked his father, Howe long time is it since he hath bene thus? And hee sayd, Of a childe.

22 And oft times he casteth him into the fire, and into the water to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, help vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Iesus sayd vnto him, If k thou canst beleeue it, all things are l possible to him that beleeueth.

24 And straightway the father of the childe cryed with teares, sayde, Lord, I beleeue: helpe my m vnbeliefe.

26 Then the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out, and [a] hee was as one dead, in so much that many sayd, He is dead.

27 But Iesus tooke his hand, and lift him vp, and he rose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him secretely, Why could we not cast him out?

29 And hee sayd vnto them, This kinde can by no other meanes come forth, but by [o] prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ [*] And they departed thence, and went through Galile, and he would not that any should haue knowen it.

31 For hee taught his disciples, and sayd vnto them, The sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, but after that hee is killed, hee shall rise againe the third day.

38 ¶ [*] Then Iohn answered him, saying, Master, wee sawe one casting out deuils by thy Name, which followeth not vs, and wee forbade him, because hee followeth vs not.

19 Thou knowest the commandements, * Thou shalt not commit aduoutrie. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steale. Thou shalt not beare false witnesse. Thou shalt hurt no man. Honour thy father and mother.

22 But hee was sad at that saying, and went away sorowfull: for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and sayd vnto his disciples, How hardly doe they that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God!

24 And his disciples were astonied at his wordes. But Jesus answered againe, and sayd vnto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdome of God!

49 Then Jesus stood still, and commanded him to bee called: and they called the blinde, saying vnto him, Bee of good comfort: arise, he calleth thee.

50 So hee threwe away his cloke, and rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered, and sayd vnto him, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And the blinde sayd vnto him, Lord, that I may receiue sight.

52 Then Jesus sayd vnto him, Goe thy way: thy faith hath saued thee. And by and by he receiued his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

Matth.21.1. Luke 19.29.

ALnd * when they came neere to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethania vnto the mount of Oliues, hee sent foorth two of his disciples,

2 And said vnto them, * Go your wayes into that towne that is ouer against you, and assoone as ye shall enter into it, ye shall finde a colt bound, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say vnto you, Why doe ye this? Say that the Lord hath neede of him, and straightway hee will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found a colte tyed by the dore without, in a place where two wayes mette, and they loosed him.

5 Then certaine of them that stood there, sayd vnto them, What doe yee loosing the colte?

6 And they said vnto them, as Jesus had commanded them. So they let them goe.

Iohn 12.14.

7 ¶ * And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sate vpon him.

8 And * many spread their garments in the way: other cut downe branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cryed, saying, ‖ Hosanna: Blessed be hee that commeth in the name of the Lord.

10 Blessed bee the kingdome that commeth in the * Name of the Lord of our father * Dauid: Hosanna, O thou which art in the highest heauens.

11 * So Jesus entred into Jerusalem, and into the Temple: and when hee had looked about on all things, and now it was euening, he went forth vnto Bethania with the twelue.

12 * And on the morow when they were come out from Bethania, hee was * hungrie.

13 And seeing a figge tree afarre off, that had leaues, hee went to see if he might finde any thing thereon: but when he came vnto it, he found nothing but leaues: for the time of figs was not yet.

14 Then Jesus answered, and said to it, ‖ Neuer man eate fruite of thee hereafter while the world standeth: and his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ And they came to Jerusalem, and Jesus went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seates of them that sold doues.

16 Neither would he suffer that any man should carry a vessell through the Temple.

17 And hee taught, saying vnto them, Is it not written, * Mine house shall bee called the house of prayer vnto all nations? * but you haue made it a denne of thieues.

18 And the Scribes & hie Priests heard it, and sought how to destroy him: for they feared him, because the whole multitude was astonied at his doctrine.

19 But when euen was come, Jesus went out of the citie.

20 ¶ * And in the morning as they passed by, they sawe the figge tree dryed vp from the roote.

Mat.21.19,20.

21 Then Peter remembred, & sayd vnto him, Master, beholde, the figge tree which thou cursedst, is withered.

22 And Jesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Haue * faith in God.

23 For verely I say vnto you, that whosoeuer shall say vnto this mountaine, Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, and shall not wauer in his heart, but shal beleeue that those things which he saith shall come to passe, whatsoeuer he saith, shall be done to him.

24 * Therefore I say vnto you, ‖ whatsoeuer yee desire when ye pray, beleeue that ye shall haue it, and it shall be done vnto you.

Matt.7.7. Luke.11.9.

25 * But when ye shall stand, and pray, forgiue, if yee haue any thing against any man, that your Father also which is in heauen, may forgiue you your trespasses.

26 For if you will not forgiue, your Father which is in heauen, will not pardon you your trespasses.

26 ¶ * Then they came againe to Jerusalem: & as he walked in the Temple, there came to him the hie Priests, & the Scribes, and the Elders, 28 And sayd vnto him, By what authoritie doest thou these things? and who gaue thee this authoritie, that thou shouldest doe these things?

29 Then Jesus answered, and sayd vnto them, I will also aske of you a certaine thing, and answere yee me, & I will tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

30 The ‖ baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men? answere me.

31 And they thought with themselues, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, hee will say, Why then did ye not beleeue him?

32 But if wee say, Of men, we feare the people: for all men counted Iohn, that hee had beene a very Prophet.

33 Then they answered, and sayd vnto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answered and sayde vnto them, ‖ Neither will I tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

AND hee began to speake vnto them in * parables, * A certaine man planted a vineyard, and compassed it with an hedge, and digged a pit for the * winepresse, and built a towre in it, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a straunge country.

Isa.5.1 Ier.2.21. mat.21.33. Luke 20.9.

2 And at a time, he sent vnto the husbandmen a seruant, that hee might receiue of the husbandmen of the fruits of the vineyard.

h Christ taketh occasion to instruct them of the vertue of faith.

i Hee teacheth vs not hereby to aske whatsoeuer seemeth good in our fantasies: for our prayer must be grounded on faith, and our faith vpon the word of God. Matth 6.14. Matth.21.23. Luke 20.1,2.

k He comprehendeth his whole office and ministerie.

l They came of malice, and not to learne: therefore Christ thought them vnworthy to be taught.

a The Greeke word signifieth the vessell or fat, which standeth vnder the winepresse to receiue the iuyce or liquour.

3 But they tooke him, and beat him, and sent him away emptie.

4 And againe, he sent vnto them another seruant, and at him they cast stones, and brake his head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And againe, hee sent another, and him they slewe, and many other, beating some, and killing some.

6 Yet had he one sonne, his deare beloued: him also he sent the last vnto them, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

7 But the husbandmen sayde among themselues, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 So they tooke him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall then the Lord of the vineyard doe? Hee [b] will come and destroy these husbandmen, and giue the vineyards to others.

10 Haue yee not read so much as this scripture? * The stone which the builders did refuse, is made the head of the corner.

11 This [c] was done of the Lord, and it is marueilous in our eyes.

12 Then they went about to take him, but they feared the people: for they perceiued that he spake that parable against them: therefore they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ * And they sent vnto him certaine of the Pharises, and of the Herodians that they might take him in his talke.

14 And when they came, they sayde vnto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou considerest not the [d] person of men, but teachest the [e] way of God truely. Is it lawfull to giue tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shoulde wee giue it, or should wee not giue it? But he knewe their hypocrisie, and sayd vnto them, [f] Why tempt ye me? Bring me a peny, that I may see it.

16 So they brought it, and he sayde vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription? and they sayd vnto him, Cesars.

17 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, * Giue to Cesar the things that are Cesars, and to God, those that are Gods: and they marueiled at him.

18 ¶ * Then came the Sadducees vnto him, (which say there is no reuerrection) and they asked him, saying, 19 Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue his wife, and leaue no children, that [g] his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

20 There were seuen brethren, & the first tooke a wife, and when he died, left no issue.

21 Then the second tooke her, and he died, neither did he yet leaue issue, & the third likewise.

22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.

23 In the reuerrection then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall shee be of them? for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Are yee not therefore deceiued, because yee know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men marry, nor wiues are married, but are [h] as the Angels which are in heauen.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue yee not read in the booke of Moses, how in the bush God spake vnto him, saying, I * am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob?

27 Hee is not the God of the dead, but the God of the [i] liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceiued.

28 ¶ * Then came one of the Scribes, that had heard them disputing together, and perceiuing that hee had answered them well, hee asked him, Which is the first commandement of all?

29 Iesus answered him, The first of all the commandements is, * Heare, Israel, the Lord our God is the onely Lord.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, & with all thy minde, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandement.

31 And the second is [k] like, that is, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. There is none other commandement greater then these.

32 Then the Scribe sayde to him, Well Master, thou hast sayd the trueth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he.

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is more then all burnt [l] offrings and sacrifices.

34 Then, when Iesus saw that hee answered discreetely, he sayd vnto him, Thou [m] art not farre from the kingdome of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

35 ¶ * And Iesus answered and said teaching in the Temple, How say the Scribes that Christ is the sonne of Dauid?

36 For Dauid himselfe sayd by the [n] holy Ghost, * The Lord sayd to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footestoole.

37 Then Dauid himselfe calleth him Lord: by what meanes is he then his sonne? and much people heard him gladly.

38 * Moreouer he sayd vnto them [o] in his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes, which loue to go in long [p] robes, and loue salutations in the markets,

1 The destruction of Ierusalem. 10 The Gospell shall be preached to all. 9. 22. The persecutions and false prophets which shall be before the comming of Christ, whose houre is vncertaine. 33 He exhorteth euery one to watch.

AND * as hee went out of the Temple, one of his disciples sayd vnto him, Master,see what stones, and what buildings are here.

2 * Then Iesus answered and sayd vnto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone vpon a stone, that shall not be throwen downe.

3 And as he sate on the mount of olines, ouer against the Temple, Peter, & James, and Iohn, and Andrew asked him secretly, 4 Tell vs, when shall these things be, and what shall bee the signe when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Iesus answered them, & began to say, * Take heede lest any man deceiue you.

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceiue many.

7 Furthermore when yee shall heare of warres, and rumours of warres,be yee not troubled: for such things must needs be: but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome, and there shal be earthquakes in diuers quarters: & there shall be famine and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorowes.

9 But take ye heede to your selues: for they shal deliuer you vp to the Councils, and to the Synagogues: ye shall be beaten, and brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a c testimonall vnto them.

10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 * But when they leade you, and deliuer you vp, take yee * no thought afore, neither premeditate * what yee shall say: but whatsoeuer is giuen you at the same time, that speake: for it is not ye that speake, but the holy Ghost.

12 Yea, and the brother shall deliuer the brother to death, and the father the sonne, and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.

13 And yee shalbe hated of all men for my Names sake: but whosoeuer shall endure vnto the ende, he shall be saued.

14 * Moreouer, when ye shall see the abomination of desolation (spoken of by * Daniel the Prophet) ‖ standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth, consider it) then let them that bee in Iudea, flee into the mountaines, 15 And let him that is vpon the houle, not come downe into the houle, neither enter therein, to fetch any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the fielde, not turne backe againe vnto the things which he left behinde him, to take his clothes.

17 Then woe shalbe to them that are with d childe, & to them † that giue sucke in those daies.

18 ‖ Pray therefore that your flight bee not in the winter.

19 For there shall bee in those dayes such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created vnto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those dayes, no ‖ flesh should bee saued: but for the elects sake, which he hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

21 Then * if any man say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or, Lo, he is there, beleeue it not.

22 For false Christs shal arise, & false prophets, and shal shew signes and wonders, to deceiue, if it were * possible, the very elect.

23 But take yee heede: beholde, I haue shewed you all things ‖ before.

24 ¶ Moreouer * in those dayes, after that tribulation, the Sunne shall waxe darke, and the Moone shall not giue her light, 25 And the * starres of heauen shall fall: & the powers which are in heauen, shall shake.

26 And then shall they see the Sonne of man comming in the cloudes, with great power and glory.

27 * And hee shall then send his Angels, and shall gather together his elect from the foure windes, and from the vtmost part of the earth to the vtmost part of heauen.

28 Now learne a parable of the figge tree. When her bough is yet tender, and it bringeth forth leaues, yee know that sommer is neere.

29 So in like maner, when yee see these things come to passe, know ye that the kingdome of God is neere, euen at the doores.

30 Verely I say vnto you, † this * generation shal not passe, till all these things be done.

31 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

32 But of that * day and houre knoweth no man, no, not the Angels which are in heauen, neither the † Sonne himselfe, saue the Father.

33 * Take heede: watch, and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Sonne of man is as a man going into a strange countrey, and leaueth his house, and giueth authoritie to his seruants, and to euery man his worke, and commandeth the porter to watch.

35 † Watch therefore, (for yee know not when the master of the house will come, at euen, or at midnight, at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning)

37 And those things that I say vnto you, I say vnto all men, Watch.

26 And when they had ſung a Pſalme, they went out to the mount of Oliues.

30 Then Jeſus ſaid vnto him, Verely I ſay vnto thee, this day, euen in this night, before the cocke crowe twiſe, thou ſhalt denie me thriſe.

31 But hee ſayde more earneſtly, If I ſhould die with thee, I will not denie thee: likewiſe alſo ſayd they all.

34 And ſayd vnto them, My ſoule is very heauy, euen vnto the death: tary here and watch.

35 So hee went forward a litle, and fell downe on the ground, and prayed, that if it were poſſible, that houre might paſſe from him.

36 And hee ſayde, m Abba Father, all things are poſſible vnto thee: take away this cup from mee: Neuertheleſſe, not that I will, but that thou wilt, be doone.

38 ¶ Watch yee, and pray, that yee enter not into tentation: the ſpirit indeede is redy, but the fleſh is weake.

39 And againe he went away, and prayed, and ſpake the ſame wordes.

40 And he returned, and found them aſleepe againe: for their eyes were heauy: neither knewe they what they ſhould anſwere him.

41 And he came the third time, and ſayde vnto them, * Sleepe henceforth, and take your reſt: it is enough: the houre is come: behold, the Sonne of man is deliuered into the handes of ſinners.

43 * And immediately, while he yet ſpake, came Iudas that was one of the twelue, and with him a great multitude with ſwordes and ſtaues from the hie Prieſtes & Scribes, and Elders.

Matth.26.47. luke 22.47. iohn 18.3.

44 And he that betrayed him, had giuen them them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kisse, that is he, take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And assoone as he was come, he went straightway to him, and sayde, r Master, Master, and kissed him.

46 Then they layd their handes on him, and tooke him.

47 And t one of them that stood by, drew out a sworde, and smote a seruant of the high Priest, and cut off his eare.

48 And Jesus answered and sayde vnto them, Be ye come out as vnto a theefe with swordes and with staues to take me?

49 I was daily with you teaching in the Temple, and yee tooke me not: but this is done that the Scriptures should be fulfilled.

50 Then they all forsooke him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certaine yong man, clothed in linnen vpon his bare body, and the yong men caught him.

52 But he left his linnen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 * So they led Jesus away to the high Priest, and to him came all the u high Priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes.

54 And Peter followed him x afarre off, euen into the hall of the high Priest, and sate with the seruants, and warmed himselfe at the ‖ fire.

55 And the * high Priestes and all the Councill sought for witnesse against Jesus, to put him to death, but found none.

56 For many bare false witnesse against him, but their witnesse ‖ agreed not together.

57 Then there arose certaine, and bare false witnesse against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, * I y will destroy this Temple made with handes, and within three dayes I will build another, made without handes.

59 But their witnesse yet agreed not together.

60 Then the z high Priest stood vp amongst them, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these beare witnesse against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Againe the z high Priest asked him, and sayde vnto him, Art thou Christ the Sonne of the * Blessed?

62 And Jesus sayde, I am he, * and yee shall see the a Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen.

63 Then the high Priest rent his clothes and sayde, What haue we any more need of witnesses?

64 Ye haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke yee? And all they condemned him to be worthy of death.

65 And some began to spet at him, and to couer his face, and to beate him with fists, and to say vnto him, Prophesie. And the b sergeants smote him with their rodes.

66 * And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the maydes of the high Priest.

67 And when she saw Peter warming himselfe, she looked on him, and sayde, thou wast also with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denyed it, saying, I knowe him not, neither wote I what thou sayest. Then he went out into the ‖ d porch, and the cocke crew.

69 * Then a mayd saw him againe, and began to say to them that stoode by, This is one of them.

70 But he denyed it againe: and anon after they that stood by, sayd againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galile, and thy speach is like.

71 And he began to curse, and sweare, saying, I knowe not this man of whome yee speake.

72 * Then the second time the cocke crew, and Peter remembred the word that Jesus had sayd vnto him, Before the cocke crow twise, thou shalt denie me thrise, and ‖ waying that vpon himselfe, he wept.

CHAP. XV.

1 Jesus is led to Pilate. 15 He is condemned, mocked, led to death. 46 And is buried by Ioseph.

AND * anon in the morning, the high Priests held a counsell with the Elders, and the Scribes, and the whole councill, and bound Jesus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.

2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And he answered, and sayd vnto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the high Priest accused him of many things.

4 * Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing? beholde, howe many things they witnesse against thee.

5 But Jesus answered no more at all, so that Pilate marueiled.

6 Now at the feast Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whomsoeuer they would desire.

7 Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bound with his fellowes, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.

8 And the people cryed aloude, and began to desire that he would doe as he had c euer done vnto them.

9 Then Pilate answered them, and said, Will ye that I let loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

10 For he knew that the high Priestes had accused him of enuie.

11 But the high Priests had mooued the people to desire that he would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and sayde againe vnto them, What will ye then that I doe with him, whom ye call the king of the Iewes?

13 And they cryed againe, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate sayde vnto them, But what euill hath he done? And they cryed the more earnestly, Crucifie him.

15 So Pilate * willing to content the people,

16 Then the souldiers led him away into the hall, which is the ‖common hall, and called together the whole band.

17 And clad him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, saying, Haile, King of the Iewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reede, and spet vpon him, and bowed the knees, and did him reuerence.

20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke the purple off him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

25 And it was the thirde houre when they crucified him.

26 And the title of his cause was written aboue, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theeues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, ‡ And hee was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, * Hey, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three dayes, 31 Likewise also euen the high Priestes mocking, sayde among themselues with the Scribes, He saued other men, himselfe he cannot saue.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the ghost.

38 ¶ And the vaile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

CHAP. I.

5 Of Zacharias, and Elisabet. 11 The Angel sheweth him of the nativity of Iohn Baptist. 20 His incredulitie is punished. 28 The salke of the Angel and Mary. 46 Her song. 57 The birth, circumcision, and grosse of Iohn. 68 Zacharias giueth thanke to God, and prophesieth.

FOrasmuch as many haue take in hand to set forth the ‖ storie of those things whereof we are fully perswaded,
2 * As they haue deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning saw them ‖ with their eies, & were ministers of the * word,
3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) ‖ diligently to haue searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point,
4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certaintie of those things, wherein thou hast ben instructed.
5 In the time of * Herode King of Iudea, there was a certaine Priest named Zacharias, of the * course of Abia: and his wife was of the * daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabet.
6 Both were ‖ iust before God, and walked in all the commandements and ordinances of the Lord, without reproofe.
7 And they had no childe, because that Elisabet was barren: and both were well stricken in age.
8 And it came to passe, as he executed the Priests office before God, as his course came in order, 9 According to the custome of ‖ Priests office, his lot was to * burne incense, when he went into the ‖ Temple of the Lord.
10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, * while the incense was burning.
11 Then appeared vnto him an Angell of the Lord standing at the right side of the altar of incense.
12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and feare fell vpon him.
13 But the Angel said vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabet shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name * Iohn.
14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnes, and many shall reioyce at his birth.
15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, & shal neither drinke wine, nor ‖ strong drinke: and he shall be filled with the holie Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.
16 * And many of the children of Israel shall he turne to their Lord God.
17 * For he shall go ‖ before him in the spirite and power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the * fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisedome of the iust men, to make readie a people prepared for the Lord.
18 Then Zacharias said vnto the Angel, Whereby shall I know this? For I am an olde man, and my wife is of a great age.
19 And the Angel answered, & said vnto him, I am * Gabriel that stand in the presence of God, and am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shew thee these good tidings.
20 And behold, thou shalt be dumbe, and not be able to speake, vntill the day that these things bee done, because thou beleeuedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 Nowe the people waited for Zacharias, and marueiled that he tarried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speake vnto them: then they perceiued that he had seene a vision in the Temple: for he made signes vnto them, and remayned dumme.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes, his wife Elisabet conceiued, and hid her selfe fiue moneths, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with mee, in the dayes wherein he looked on mee, to take from me the rebuke among men.

26 ¶ And in the sixt moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a citie of Galile, named Nazaret, 27 To a virgin affianced to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Marie.

28 And the Angel went in vnto her, and sayde, Haile thou that art freely beloued: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she sawe him, she was troubled at his saying, and thought what manner of salutation that should be.

30 Then the Angel said vnto her, Feare not Marie: for thou hast founde fauour with God.

31 For lo, thou shalt conceiue in thy wombe, and beare a sonne, and shalt call his name IESVS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Sonne of the most High, and the Lorde God shall giue vnto him the throne of his father Dauid.

33 And he shall reigne ouer the house of Iacob for euer, and of his kingdome shall be none ende.

34 Then sayde Marie vnto the Angell, How shall this bee, seeing I know not man?

35 And the Angel answered, and sayd vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the most High shall ouershadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be borne of thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.

36 And beholde, thy cousin Elisabet, she hath also conceiued a sonne in her olde age: and this is her sixt moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall nothing bee impossible.

38 Then Mary said, Beholde, the seruant of the Lord: be it vnto me according to thy word. So the Angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Marie arose in those dayes, and went into the hill countrey with haste to a citie of Iudah, 40 And entred into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabet.

41 And it came to passe, as Elisabet heard the salutation of Marie, the babe sprang in her belly, and Elisabet was filled with the holy Ghost.

42 And she cried with a loud voyce, and sayd, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruite of thy wombe.

43 And whence commeth this to me, that the mother of my Lorde should come to me?

44 For lo, assone as the voyce of thy saluation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my belly for ioy.

45 And blessed is she that beleeued: for those things shall bee performed, which were tolde her from the Lord.

46 Then Mary said, My soule magnifieth the Lord,

47 And my spirite reioyceth in God my Sauiour.

48 For he hath looked on the poore degree of his seruant: for behold, from henceforth, shall all ages call me blessed.

49 Because he that is mighty, hath done for me great things, and holy is his Name.

50 And his mercie is from generation to generation on them that feare him.

51 He hath shewed strength with his arme: he hath scattered the proude in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put downe the mighty from their seates, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent away.

54 He hath holpen Israel his seruant, being mindefull of his mercie, 55 (As he spake to our fathers) to Abraham, and his seede for euer.

56 ¶ And Marie abode with her about three moneths: after, she returned to her owne house.

57 ¶ Now Elisabets time was fulfilled, that she should be deliuered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours, & cousins heard tell how the Lorde had shewed his great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it was so, on the eight day they came to circumcise the babe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered, and sayd, Not so, but he shall be called John.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kinred, is named with this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how he would haue him called.

63 So he asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is John, and they marueiled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake and praysed God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt neere vnto them, and all these words were noysed abroad throughout all the hill countrey of Iudea.

3 Therefore went all to bee taxed, euery man to his owne citie.

4 And [] Ioseph also went vp from Galile out of a citie called Nazaret, into Iudea, vnto the citie of [] Dauid, which is called Beth-lehem (because hee was of the house and linage of Dauid,)

6 ¶ And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished that she should be deliuered.

7 And she brought forth her [d] first begotten sonne, and wrapped him in swadling clothes, and layd him in a [e] cratch, because there was no rome for them in the Inne.

8 ¶ And there were in the same countrey shepheards abiding in the fielde, and keeping watch by night because of their flocke.

9 And lo, the Angel of the Lorde came vpon them, and the glorie of the Lord shone about them, and they were sore afraid.

10 Then the Angel sayd vnto them, Bee not afraid: for beholde, I bring you tidings of great ioy, that shall be to all the people:

16 So they came with haste, and found both Marie and Ioseph, and the babe layde in the cratch.

17 And when they had seene it, they published abroad the thing, which was tolde them of that childe.

18 And all that heard it, wondered at the things which were tolde them of the shepheards.

19 But Mary kept all those sayings, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepheardes returned, glorifying & praysing God, for all that they had heard & seene, as it was spoken vnto them.

16 *And he came to Nazaret, where he had bene brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stoode vp to reade.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Esaias: and when he had opened the booke, he found the place, where it was written,

18 *The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath anoynted me, that I should preach the Gospel to the poore: he hath sent me, that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliuerance to the captiues, and recouering of sight to the blind, that I should set at libertie them that are bruised, 19 And that I should preach the [h] acceptable yeere of the Lord.

20 And hee closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sate downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then hee beganne to say vnto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all [i] bare him witnesse, and wondered at the gracious wordes, which proceeded out of his mouth, and sayd, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then he sayd vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto mee this prouerbe, Physition, [k] heale thy selfe: Whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

24 And he sayd, Verely I say vnto you, *No [l] Prophet is accepted in his owne countrey.

25 But I tell you of a trueth, many widowes were in Israel in the dayes of *Elias, when heauen was shut three yeeres and sixe moneths, when great famine was throughout all the land, 31 ¶ *And came downe into Capernaum a citie of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 [p] And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his word was [r] with authoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a [q] spirit of an vncleane deuill, which cryed with a loude voyce, 34 Saying, Oh, what haue wee to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret? art thou come to destroy vs? I know who thou art, euen the holy one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselues, saying, What thing is this: for with authoritie and power he commaundeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spread abroad throughout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 ¶ *And hee rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house. And Simons wiues mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

39 Then he stoode ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediatly she arose, and ministred vnto them.

8 Nowe when Simon Peter sawe it, hee fell downe at Iesus knees, saying, Lorde, goe from me: for I am a sinfull man.

9 For hee e was vtterly astonied, and all that were with him, for the draught of fishes which they tooke.

10 And so was also Iames and Iohn the sonnes of Zebedeus, which were companions with Simon. Then Iesus saide vnto Simon, Feare not: from f henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought the ships to land, they forsooke all, and followed him.

12 ¶ *Nowe it came to passe, as hee was in a certaine citie, beholde, there was a man full of leprosie, and when hee sawe Iesus, hee fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lorde, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 So hee stretched foorth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, bee thou cleane. And immediatly the leprosie departed from him.

14 And hee commanded him that hee should tell it no man: but goe, (sayeth he,) and shewe thy selfe to the g Priest, and offer for thy cleansing, as *Moses hath commanded, for a witnesse vnto them.

15 But so much more went there a fame abroade of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to bee healed of h him of their infirmities.

16 But hee kept himselfe apart in the wildernesse, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, on a certaine day, as hee was teaching, that the Pharises and doctours of the Lawe sate by, which were come out of every towne of Galile, and Iudea, and Ierusalem, and the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.

18 *Then beholde, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palsie, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they coulde not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the presse, they went vp on the house, and let him downe thorough the tiling, bed and all, in the middes before Iesus.

20 And when he sawe their faith, hee said vnto him, Man, thy i sinnes are forgiuen thee.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharises began to thinke, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgiue sinnes, but God onely?

22 But when Iesus perceiued their thoughts, he answered, and saide vnto them, What thinke you in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy i sinnes are forgiuen thee, or to say, Rise and walke?

24 But that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath authoritie to forgiue sinnes in earth, (he said vnto the sicke of the palsie) I say vnto thee, Arise: take vp thy bed, and goe to thine house.

25 And immediatly hee rose vp before them, and tooke vp his bed whereon hee lay, and departed to his owne house, praysing God.

26 And they were all amased, and praysed God, and were filled with feare, saying, Doubtlesse wee haue seene k strange things to day.

27 ¶ *And after that hee went foorth and sawe a Publicane named l Leui, sitting at the receite of custome, and sayde vnto him, Follow me.

28 And hee left all, rose vp, and followed him.

29 Then Leui made him a great feast in his owne house, where there was a great company of Publicanes, and of other that sate at table with them.

30 But they that were Scribes & Pharises among them, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why eate ye and drinke yee with Publicanes and sinners?

31 Then Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, They that are whole, needs not the Physician, but they that are sicke.

32 *I came not to call the k righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ *Then they said vnto him, Why doe the disciples of Iohn fast often, and l pray, and the disciples of the Pharises also, but thine eate and drinke?

34 And hee said vnto them, Can ye make the m children of the wedding chamber to fast, as long as the bridegroome is with them?

35 But the dayes will come euen when the bridegroome shall bee taken away from them: then shall they fast in those dayes.

36 Againe hee spake also vnto them a parable, No man putteth a piece of a new garment into an olde vesture: for then the newe rendeth it, & the piece taken out of the newe, agreeth not with the olde.

37 *Also no man powreth new wine into olde vessels: for then the newe wine will breake the vessels, and it will runne out, and the vessels wil perish.

38 But newe wine must bee powred into new vessels: so both are preserued.

39 Also no man that *drinketh olde wine, straightway desireth newe, for hee saith, The olde is better.

6 ¶ *It came to passe also on another Sabbath, that hee entred into the Synagogue and taught, and there was a man, whose right hand was dried vp.

7 And the Scribes and Pharises watched him, whether hee would heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But hee knewe their thoughts, and sayde to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, and stand vp in the mids. And he arose and stood vp.

9 Then sayd Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, Whether is it lawfull on the Sabbath dayes to doe good or to doe euill? to saue a life, or to destroy it?

10 And hee beheld them all in compasse, and sayd vnto the man, Stretch foorth thine hand. And he did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled full of madnesse, and commoned one with another, what they might doe to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, that hee went into a mountaine to pray, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 *And when it was day, hee called his disciples, and of them hee chose [c] twelue, which also he called [d] Apostles.

14 (Simon whom hee named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip, and Bartlemew:

15 Matthewe, and Thomas: James the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon called Zelotes:

16 Iudas Iames brother, and Iudas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 Then he came downe with them, and stood in a [e] plaine place, with the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea, and Ierusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyrus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to bee healed of their diseases,

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ *And he lifted vp his eyes vpon his disciples, and sayd, Blessed be ye [e] poore: for yours is the kingdome of God.

21 *Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall bee satisfied: Blessed are yee that *weepe now: for ye shall laugh.

22 *Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when [f] they separate you, and reuile you, and put out your name as euill, for the Sonne of mans sake.

23 Reioyce ye in that day, and be [g] glad: for behold, your reward is great in heauen: for after this manner their fathers did to the Prophets.

24 *But woe be to you that are [h] rich: for ye haue receiued your consolation.

25 *Woe be to you that are full: for ye shal hunger. Woe be to you that now [i] laugh: for ye shall waile and weepe.

26 Woe be to you when all [k] men speake well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ *But I say vnto you which heare, Loue your enemies: doe well to them which hate you.

28 Blesse them that curse you, and pray for them which hurt you.

29 *And vnto him that [l] smiteth thee on the one cheeke, offer also the other: *and him that taketh away thy cloke, forbid not to take thy coate also.

30 Giue to euery man that asketh of thee: and of him that taketh away thy goods, [m] aske them not againe.

31 *And as yee would that men should doe to you, so doe ye to them likewise.

32 *For if yee loue them which loue you, what thanke shal ye haue? for euen the *sinners loue those which loue them.

33 And if yee doe good for them which doe good for you, what thanke shal ye haue? for euen the sinners doe the same.

34 *And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receiue, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the sinners lend to sinners, to receiue the like.

35 Wherefore loue ye your enemies, [g] doe good, [g] lend, [o] looking for nothing againe, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of *the most High: for he is kinde vnto the vnkind, and to the euill.

36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 ¶ *Iudge not, and ye shal not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgiue, and ye shall be forgiuen.

38 Giue, and it shalbe giuen vnto you: *a good measure, pressed downe, shaken together, & running ouer shal men giue into your bosome: for with what measure yee mete, with the same shal men mete to you againe.

40 *The disciple is not aboue his master: but whosoeuer will be a perfite disciple, shall be as his master.

41 ¶ *And why [p] seest thou a mote in thy brothers eye, and considerest not the beame that is in thine owne eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou seest not the beame that is in thine owne eye? Matt.8.5.

WHen *he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

a It might be that this captaine did lie with his garison in Capernaum.

2 And a certaine *Centurions seruaunt was sicke and ready to die, which was deare vnto him.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, hee sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that he would come and heale his seruant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying that hee was woorthy that he should do this for him,

5 For he loueth our nation, and *he hath built vs a Synagogue.

b In building them a temple for their assemblies, he shewed his zeale towards the true seruice of God.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when hee was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, *saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not woorthy that thou shouldest enter vnder my roofe.

c The friends speake to Iesus in the captains name.

7 Wherefore, I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but *say the word, and my seruant shalbe whole.

d Or, command by a word onely that it so be.

8 For I likewise am a man set vnder authoritie, and haue vnder me souldiers, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he commeth: and to my seruant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, hee marueiled at him, and turned him, and sayd to the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so *great faith, no not in Israel.

e He commendeth this his heathen captaine because he adhereth himselfe vpon Christs word alone.

10 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they found y seruant that was sicke, whole.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called *Nain, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

f Which was a towne of Galile in the tribe of Issachar, not far from Tiberias.

12 Now when hee came neere to the gate of the citie, behold, there was a dead man caried out, who was the onely begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widow, and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, hee had compassion on her, and said vnto her, Weepe not.

14 And hee went and touched the p coffin, (and they that bare him, stood still) and hee sayd, a Yong man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

g Christ calleth those things that are not, as if they were, and giueth life to them that be dead.

15 And hee that was dead, sate vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath *visited his people.

h That is, to establish and restore them.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certaine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we waite for another?

i To wit, the Messias, and redeemer.

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they said, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we waite for another?

21 And at that time hee cured many of their sicknesses and plagues, and of euill spirites, and vnto many blind men hee gaue sight.

k He declareth by the vertues & power that were in him, that he was the Christ.

22 And Iesus answered and sayde vnto them, Go your wayes and shew Iohn *what things ye haue seene and heard: that *the blind see, the halt goe, the Lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise again, & the *poore receiue the Gospell.

*Or, the Gospell is preached to the poore.

23 And blessed is he, that shall not be *offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, hee began to speake vnto the people of Iohn, What went ye out into the wildernesse to see? A *reed shaken with the wind?

n Read Matth. 11.7. *Mal.3.1.

*Or, Angels.

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and liue delicately, are in kings courts.

*Or, borne.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say vnto you, and greater then a Prophet.

o They prayed him as iust, faithfull, good and mercifull, so that the fruit of their baptisme appeared in them.

27 This is hee of whom it is written, *Behold, I send my *messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

p This word comprehendeth the whole doctrine that Iohn taught.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are *begotten of women: neuertheless, he that is the least in the kingdom of God, is greater then he.

29 Then all the people that heard, & the Publicanes *iustified God, being baptized with the *baptisme of Iohn.

30 But the Phariſes and the expounders of the Law deſpiſed the counſell of God q againſt themſelues, and were not baptized of him.

36 ¶ *And one of the Phariſes deſired him that he would eate with him: & he went into the Phariſes houſe, and ſate downe at table.

37 And behold, a woman in the citie, which was a ſinner, when ſhee knew that Ieſus ſate at table in the Phariſes houſe, ſhe brought a box of ointment.

38 *And ſhe ſtood at his feete behind him weeping, and began to waſh his feete with teares, and did wipe them with the haires of her head, and kiſſed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Phariſe which bade him, ſaw it, he ſpake within himſelfe, ſaying, If this man were a prophet, he would ſurely haue known who, and what maner of woman this is which toucheth him: for ſhe is a ſinner.

40 And Ieſus anſwered, and ſayd vnto him, Simon, I haue ſomewhat to ſay vnto thee. And he ſaid, Maiſter, ſay on.

41 There was a certaine lender which had two debters: the one ought fiue hundreth pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothing to pay, hee forgaue them both. Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him moſt?

43 Simon anſwered, and ſayd, I ſuppoſe that hee, to whom hee forgaue moſt. And he ſayd vnto him, Thou haſt truly iudged.

44 Then hee turned to the woman, and ſayd vnto Simon, Seeſt thou this woman? I entered into thine houſe, and thou gaueſt me no water to my feete: but ſhe hath waſhed my feete with teares, and wiped them with the haires of her head.

45 Thou gaueſt me no kiſſe: but ſhe ſince the time I came in, hath not ceaſſed to kiſſe my feete.

46 Mine head with oyle thou didſt not anoint: but ſhe hath anointed my feete with ointment.

47 Wherefore I ſay vnto thee, Many ſinnes are forgiuen her: for ſhe *loued much. To whom a little is forgiuen, he doeth loue a little.

48 And he ſaid vnto her, Thy ſinnes are forgiuen thee.

49 And they that ſate at table with him, began to ſay within themſelues, Who is this that euen forgiueth ſinnes?

50 And he ſaid to the woman, Thy faith hath ſaued thee: go in x peace.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Chriſt with his Apoſtles goe from towne to towne, and preach. 3 The women miniſter vnto them of their goods. 5 He ſheweth the parable of the ſeed. 21 He telleth who is his mother and his brother. 24 He ſtilleth the raging of the lake. 27 He deliuereth the poſſeſſed. 33 The deuils enter into the herde of ſwine. 41 Hee healeth the ſicke woman, and Iairus daughter.

AND it came to paſſe afterward, that hee himſelfe went through euery city & towne, preaching, and publiſhing the kingdome of God, and the twelue were with him.

4 *Now when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of al cities, he ſpake by a parable.

5 A ſower went out to ſowe his ſeed, and as he ſowed, ſome fell by the way ſide, and it was troden vnder feet, & the foules of heauen deuoured it vp.

7 And ſome fell among thornes, and the thornes ſprang vp with it, and choked it.

8 And ſome fel on good ground, & ſprang vp and bare fruit, an hundreth fold. And as he ſayd theſe things, he cried, Hee that hath eares to b heare, let him heare.

9 Then his diſciples aſked him, demanding, what parable that was.

10 And hee ſayd, Vnto you it is giuen to know the ſecrets of the kingdom of God, but to other in c parables, that when *they ſee, they ſhould not ſee, and when they heare, they ſhould not vnderſtand.

11 *The parable is this, The ſeed is the word of God.

12 And they that are beſide the way, are they that heare: afterward commeth the deuil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, leaſt they ſhould beleeue, and be ſaued.

13 But they that are on the ſtones, are they which when they haue heard, receiue the word with ioy: but they haue no roots, which for a while d beleeue, but in the time of tentation goe away.

14 And that which fell among thornes, are they which haue heard, and e after their departure are choked with cares, and with riches, & voluptuous liuing, and bring foorth no fruit.

22 ¶ * And it came to passe on a certaine day, that he went into a shippe with his disciples, and he sayd vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 And as they sailed, he fell i asleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in ieopardie.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. And he arose, and rebuked the winde, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then he said vnto them, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondred among themselues, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the windes & water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ * So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile.

27 And as hee went out to land, there mette him a certaine man out of the citie, which had a deuill long time, and bee ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graues.

28 And when he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell downe before him, and with a loud voice sayd, What haue I to doe with thee, Jesus the sonne of God, the most high? I beseech thee k torment me not.

29 For he commanded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for ‖ oft times he had caught him: therefore hee was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but he brake the bandes, and was l carried of the deuill into wildernesses.)

30 Then Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he sayd, m Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him, that he would not command them to go out into the n deepe.

32 And there was there by, a heard of many swine, feeding on an hill, and the deuils besought him, that he would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: & the heard was carried with violence from a steepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the heardmen sawe what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they told it in the citie and in the country.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Jesus, clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afrayd.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuill, was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country about the Gadarenes, besought him, that hee would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship, and returned.

38 Then the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, besought him that hee might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 * Returne into thine owne house, and shew what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached throwout all the o citie, what great things Jesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶ And it came to passe when Jesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 ¶ * And beholde, there came a man named Jairus, and he was the ruler of the p Synagogue, who fell downe at Jesus feet, and besought him that hee would come into his house.

42 For hee had but a daughter onely, about twelue yeeres of age, and shee lay a dying. (And as he went, the people thronged him.

43 And a woman hauing an issue of blood, twelue yeeres long, which had spent all her substance vpon physicians, and could not be healed of any:

44 When she came behinde him, she touched the q hemme of his garment, and immediatly her issue of blood stanched.

45 Then Jesus sayd, Who is it that hath touched mee? When euery man denied, Peter sayde and they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, and tread on thee, and sayest thou, Who hath touched me?

46 And Jesus sayd, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman sawe that she was not hidde, shee came trembling, and fell downe before him, and told him before all the people, for what cause shee had touched him, and howe shee was healed immediatly.

48 And he sayd vnto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy r faith hath made thee whole: go in peace.)

50 When Iesus heard it, hee answered him, saying, Feare not: beleeue onely, and she shalbe made whole.

51 And when he went into the house, hee suffered no man to go in with him, saue Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and the father and mother of the mayd.

52 And all wept, and sorowed for her: but he sayd, Weepe not: for she is not [u] dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laught him to scorne, knowing that she was dead.

54 So he [x] thrust them all out, & tooke her by the hand, and cried, saying, Mayd, arise.

55 And her spirit came againe, and shee rose straightway: and he commanded to giue her meat.

56 Then her parents were astonied: but he commanded them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

1 He sendeth out the twelue Apostles to preach. 7 Herod heareth tell of him. 12 Hee feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues, & two fishes. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 28 Hee transfigureth himselfe vpon the mount. 42 He deliuereth the possessed, 47 and teacheth his disciples to be lowly. 54 They desire vengeance, but he reproueth them.

THen [a] called he the twelue disciples together, and gaue them power and authority ouer all deuils, and to heale diseases.

2 [b] And he sent them to preach the kingdome of God, and to cure the sicke.

3 And he sayd to them, [a] Take nothing to your iourney, neither [1] staues, nor scrippe, neither bread, nor siluer, neither haue two coats.

4 And whatsoeuer house ye enter into, there abide, and [2] thence depart.

5 And whosoeuer will not receiue you, when ye go out of that citie, [c] shake off the very [c] dust from your feete for a testimony against them.

6 And they went out, and went thorow euery towne preaching the Gospel, and healing euery where.

7 [d] Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he doubted, because that it was sayd of some, that Iohn was risen againe from the dead:

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and of some, that one of the olde Prophets was risen againe.

9 Then Herod sayd, Iohn haue I beheaded: who then is this of whom I heare such things? and he desired to see him.

10 [e] And when the Apostles returned, they told him what great things they had done. [f] Then he tooke them, and went aside into a solitarie place, neere to the citie called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knew it, they followed him: and he receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had need to be healed.

12 [g] And when the day began to weare away, the twelue came, and sayd vnto him, Send the people away, that they may go into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meat: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But hee sayde vnto them, [h] Giue yee them to eate. And they sayde, We haue no moe but fiue loaues and two fishes, except we should goe, and buy meate for all this people.

14 For they were about fiue thousand men. Then he sayd to his disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then he tooke the fiue loaues, and the two fishes, & looked vp to heauen, and [i] blessed them, and brake, & gaue to the disciples, to set before the people.

17 So they did all eate, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelue baskets full of broken meat.

18 [k] And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answered, and sayde, Iohn Baptist: and others say, Elias: and some say, that one of the olde Prophets is risen againe.

20 And he sayd vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answered, and sayd, The Christ of God.

21 And he warned, & commanded them, that they should tell [l] that to no man, 22 Saying, [m] The sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reproued of the elders, & of the high Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and the third day rise againe.

23 [n] And he sayd to them all, If any man will come after me, let him denie himselfe, and take vp his crosse [o] dayly, and follow me.

24 [p] For whosoeuer will saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall saue it.

25 For what aduantageth it a man, if he win the whole world, and destroy himselfe, or lose himselfe?

26 [q] For whosoeuer shalbe ashamed of me, and of my wordes, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed when hee shall come in his glory, and in the glory of the Father, and of the holy Angels.

27 [r] And I tell you of a suretie, there be some standing heere, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the [s] kingdome of God.

28 [t] And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those wordes, that he tooke Peter and Iohn, and Iames, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment was white and glistered.

30 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias, 31 Which appeared in glory, and tolde of his [3] departing, which he should accomplish at Ierusalem.

33 And it came to passe as they departed from him, Peter said vnto Jesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs therefore make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wist not what he said.

34 While hee thus spake, there came a cloud, and k ouershadowed them, & they feared when they were entring into the cloud.

35 * And there came a voyce out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

36 And when the voyce was past, Jesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and told no man in l those dayes any of those things which they had seene.

37 ¶ And it came to passe, on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, much people met him.

38 * And behold, a man of the company cryed out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, behold my sonne: for he is all that I haue.

39 And lo, a spirit taketh him & suddenly he crieth, and he teareth him, that hee foameth, and with much paine departeth from him, when he hath bruised him.

40 And I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Jesus answered and said, m O generation faithlesse, and crooked, how long now shal I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy sonne hither.

42 And whiles he was yet comming, the deuill rent him, and tare him: and Jesus rebuked the vncleane spirite, and healed the child, and deliuered him to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amased at the mightie power of God: and while they all wondred at all things, which Jesus did, he said vnto his disciples, 44 † Marke these words diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they n vnderstood not the word: for it was hid from them, to that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that word.

46 ¶ * Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should bee the greatest.

47 When Jesus sawe the thoughtes of their hearts, hee tooke a litle childe, and set him by him, 48 And said vnto them, Whosoeuer receiueth this litle childe in my Name, receiueth me: and whosoeuer shall receiue me, receiueth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, he shall be great.

49 ¶ * And Johu answered and sayde, Master, we sawe one casting out deuils in thy Name, and wee forbad him, because hee followeth thee not with vs.

50 Then Jesus sayd vnto him, Forbid ye him not: for he that is not against vs, o is with vs.

51 ¶ And it came to passe, when the p dayes were accomplished, that hee should be receiued vp, he setled himselfe fully to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritaines, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they would not receiue him, because his q behauiour was, as though hee would goe to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and John sawe it, they sayd, Lord, wilt thou that we commaund that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as * Elias did?

55 But Jesus turned about, and rebuked them, and sayd, Ye know not of what r spirite ye are.

56 For the sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 ¶ And it came to passe that as they went in the way, * a certaine man said vnto him, I will follow thee, Lord, whithersoeuer thou goest.

58 And Jesus sayd vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birdes of the heauen haue nests, but the Sonne of man hath not wherevpon to lay his head.

59 But he sayd vnto another, Follow me. And the same sayd, Lord, suffer me first to go and t bury my father.

60 And Jesus sayd vnto him, * Let the dead bury their dead: but goe thou & preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another said, I will follow thee, Lord: but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at mine house.

12 For I say to you, that it shall be easier in that day for them of Sodome, then for that citie.

13 * Woe be to thee, Chorazin: woe be to thee, Bethsaida: for if the miracles had beene done in Tyrus and Sidon, which haue beene done in you, they had a great while agone repented, sitting [k] in sackcloth and ashes.

14 Therefore it shall be easier for Tyrus, and Sidon at the iudgement, then for you.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heauen, shalt bee thrust downe to hell.

16 ¶ * He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that despiseth you, despiseth me: and hee that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seuenty turned againe with ioy, saying, Lord, euen the deuils are subdued to vs through thy name.

18 And he said vnto them, I saw * Satan, like lightning, fall downe from heauen.

19 Behold, I giue vnto you power to tread on serpents, and scorpions, and ouer all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall hurt you.

20 Neuertheless, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in heauen.

21 ¶ That same houre reioyced Iesus [n] in the spirit, and said, I confesse vnto thee, Father, Lord of heauen and earth, that thou hast hidde these things from the * wise and learned, and hast reuealed them to babes: euen so, Father, because it so pleased thee.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are * giuen mee of my Father: and [o] no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: neither who the Father is, saue the [q] Sonne, and hee to whom the Sonne will reuelle him.

23 ¶ And he returned to his disciples, and said secretly, * Blessed are the eyes, which see that ye see.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets and Kings haue desired to see those things which ye see, and haue not seene them: and to heare those things which ye heare, and haue not heard them.

25 ¶ * Then beholde, a certaine expounder of the Law stood vp, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I doe, to inherit eternall life? Matth.22.35. mark.12.28.

26 And he said vnto him, What is written in the Law? how readest thou?

27 And he answered, & said, * Thou shalt loue thy Lord God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy strength, and with all thy thought, * and thy neighbour as thy selfe. Deut.6.5. Leuit.19.18.

28 Then hee said vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this doe, and thou shalt liue.

29 But hee willing to [p] iustifie himselfe, saide vnto Iesus, Who [r] is then my neighbour?

30 And Iesus answered, and said, A certaine man went downe from Ierusalem to Iericho, and fell among theeues, and they robbed him of his rayment, and wounded him, and departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by [s] chance there came downe a certaine [t] Priest that same way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise also a Leuite, when hee was come neere to the place, went and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certaine * Samaritane, as he iourneyed, came nere vnto him, and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound vp his woundes, and powred in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beast, and brought him to an Inne, and made prouision for him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, hee tooke out [x] two pence, and gaue them to the host, and said vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompense thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the theeues?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Iesus vnto him, Go, & [y] do thou like wise.

38 ¶ Now it came to passe as they went, that he entred into a certaine towne, and a certaine woman named Martha, receiued him into her house.

39 And shee had a sister called Marie, which also sate at Iesus feete, and heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was combred about much seruing, and came to him, and said, Master, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serue alone? bid her therefore, that she helpe me.

41 And Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou carest and art * troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needfull, Mary hath chosen the good part, * which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAP. XI.

1 He teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 He driveth out a devil. 15 And rebuketh the blasphemous Pharises. 28 He preferreth the spirituall vsefulnes. 29 They require signes and tokens. 37 How he eateth with the Pharise, & reproueth the hypocrisie of the Pharises, Scribes and hypocrites.

AND so it was, that as hee was praying in a certaine place, when he ceased, one of his Disciples sayde vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

2 * And he sayd vnto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name: Thy kingdome come: Let thy will be done euen in earth, as it is in heauen:

3 Our dayly bread giue vs * for the day:

4 And ‖ forgiue vs our sinnes: for euen we forgiue euery man that is indebted to vs: And leade vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

5 ¶ Moreouer he said vnto them, b Which of you shall haue a friende, and shall goe to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loaues:

6 For a friende of mine is come ‖ out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before him:

7 And he within should answere and say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with me in bed: I cannot rise and giue them to thee.

8 I say vnto you, Though he would not arise, and giue him because he is his friende, yet doubtlesse because of his ‖ importunitie, hee would rise, and giue him as many as hee needed.

9 * And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shall be giuen you: seeke, & ye shall find: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shalbe opened.

11 * If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a stone? or if he aske a fish, will hee for a fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he aske an egge, will he giue him a scorpion?

13 If ye then which are euill, can giue good giftes vnto your children, howe much more shall your heauenly father giue c the holy Ghost to them, that desire him?

14 ¶ Then he cast out a deuill which was dumbe: and when the deuill was gone out, the dumbe spake, and the people wondered.

15 But some of them sayd, Hee casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

17 But he knewe their thoughts, & sayde vnto them, * Euery kingdome diuided against it selfe, shall be desolate, and a house deuided against an house, falleth.

18 So if Satan also bee deuided against himselfe, how shall his kingdome stand, because ye say that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whome doe your d children cast them out? Therefore shall they bee your iudges.

20 But if I by the e finger of God cast out deuils, doubtlesse the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his f palace, the things that he possesseth are in ‖ peace.

22 But when a stronger then he commeth vpon him, and ouercommeth him, hee taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and deuideth his spoyles.

23 He that is not g with me, is against mee: and hee that gathereth not with mee, scattereth.

24 * When the vncleane spirit is gone out of a man, hee walketh through drie places, seeking h rest: and when he findeth none, he saith, I will returne vnto mine house whence I came out.

25 And when he commeth, hee findeth it swept and i garnished.

26 Then k goeth hee, and taketh to him l seuen other spirites, worse then himselfe: and they enter in & dwell there: * so the last state of that man is worse then the first.

27 ¶ And it came to passe, as hee sayde these things, a certaine woman of the company lift vp her voyce, and sayde vnto him, Blessed is the wombe that bare thee, and the pappes which thou hast sucked.

28 But he sayd, m Yea, rather blessed are they that heare the worde of God and keepe it.

29 ¶ And when the people were gathered thicke together hee began to say, This is a wicked generation: they seeke a signe, and there shall no signe be giuen them, but the signe of * Ionas the prophet.

30 For as Ionas was a signe to the Niniuites, so shall also the sonne of man bee to this generation.

31 * The Queene of the South shall rise in iudgement, with the men of this generation, and shall condemne them: for she came from the vtmost parts of the earth to heare the wisedome of Solomon, and beholde, a greater then Solomon is here.

23 The life is more then meate: and the body more then the raiment.

53 The father shall bee deuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in lawe against her daughter in lawe, and the daughter in lawe against her mother in lawe.

54 ¶ * Then said he to the people, When yee see a cloud rise out of the West, straightway yee say, A shower commeth: and so it is.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The cruelties of Pilate. 2 We ought not to condemne all to bee wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 He healeth the wrooked woman. 15 Answereth to the matter of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes he declareth what the kingdome of God is. 23 Also that the number of them which shall bee saued, is small. 33 Finally hee sheweth that no worldly policie or force can let the worke and counsell of God.

THere were certaine men present at the 1 same season, that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Suppose yee, that these Galileans were [b] greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except [c] ye amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eighteene, vpon whom the tower in [d] Siloam fell, and slew them, were ‖ sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable, A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard: and hee came and sought fruite thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Beholde, [e] this three yeeres haue I come and sought fruite of this figge tree, and finde none: [f] cut it downe: why keepeth it also the ground barren?

8 And he answered, and sayd vnto him, Lorde, let it alone this yeere also, till I dig rounde about it, and dong it.

9 And if it beare fruite, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a [g] spirite of infirmitie eighteene yeeres, and was ‖ bowed together, and could not lift vp her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus saw her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, thou art ‖ loosed from thy disease.

13 And he layde his handes on her, and immediatly she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and sayde vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come & be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lorde, and sayde, Hypocrite, doeth not euery one of you on the Sabbath day loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, and leade him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, lo, eighteene yeeres, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things that were done by him.

18 ¶ * Then said he, What is the [k] kingdome of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustard seede, which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree, and the fowles of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe he saide, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke, and hid in three peckes of floure, till all was leauened.

22 ¶ * And hee went through all cities and townes, teaching, and iourneying towards Ierusalem.

23 Then said one vnto him, Lorde, are there few that shall be saued? And he sayde vnto them, 24 * [l] Striue to enter in at the straite gate: for many, I say vnto you, will seeke to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, and yee begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, and he shall answere and say vnto you, I knowe you not whence yee are;

26 * Then shal ye begin to say, We haue eaten and dronke in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streetes.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I knowe you not whence yee are: * depart from mee, all ye workers of iniquitie.

28 There shal be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham & Isaac and Iacob, & all the Prophets in the kingdome of God, and your selues thrust out at doores.

29 Then shal come many from the [n] East, and from the West, and from the North and from the South, and shall sit at table in the kingdome of God.

30 * And beholde, * there are last, which shall be first, and there are first, which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certaine Pharises, and sayd vnto him, Depart, and goe hence: for Herode will kill thee.

32 Then sayd he vnto them, Goe ye & tell that fore, Beholde, I cast out deuils, and will heale still, to day, and to morowe, and the third day I shall be [p] perfected.

33 Neuerthelesse I must walke to day, and to morowe, and the day following: for it cannot bee, that a Prophet should perish out of Ierusalem.

34 * O Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent to thee, howe often would I haue gathered thy children together, as the hen gathereth her broode vnder her wings, and yee would not!

35 Beholde, your [r] house is left vnto you

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Iesus eateth with the Pharise, 4 Healeth the dropsie vpon the Sabbath, 8 Teacheth to be lowly, and to bid the poore to our table. 15 He telleth of the great Supper. 28 Hee warneth them that will follow him, to lay their accounts before, what it will cost them. 34 The salt of the earth.

He taketh his occasion,

AND it came to passe, that when he was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharises on the Sabbath day, to eate bread, they watched him.

2 And beholde, there was a certaine man before him which had the dropsie.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the expounders of the Lawe, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then he tooke him, and healed him, and let him go,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall haue an asse, or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straight way pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answere him again to those things.

7 ¶ Or spake also a parable to the ghests, when hee marked howe they chose out the chiefe roomes, and sayd vnto them, a He reprooueth their ambition, which desire to be in the highest places.

8 a When thou shalt bee bidden of anie man to a wedding, set not thy selfe downe in the chiefest place, least a more honourable man then thou, be bidden of him,

9 And hee that bade both him and thee, come, and say to thee, Giue this man roome, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest roomt.

10 * But when thou art bidden, goe, and sit downe in the lowest roome, that when he that bade thee, commeth, he may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp higher: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

Prou. 29.23. Matth. 23.12. Luke 18.14.

b Christ reprehendeth onely the blinde affection of man, which regardeth nothing but a worldly recommendation.

11 * For whosoeuer exalteth himselfe, shall be brought low, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then b sayd he also to him that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, cal not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor the rich neighbors, least they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

Prou. 3.9, 27, 28. Iob 42.7. Matth. 22.2. Luke 19.9.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blind, 14 And thou shalt bee blessed, because they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt bee recompensed at the resurrection of the iust.

15 ¶ Nowe when one of them that sate at table, heard these things, hee sayd vnto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the kingdome of God.

16 Then sayd he to him, * A certaine man made a great supper, and bade many,

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now readie.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: The first sayde vnto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must needes go out and see it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another sayd, I haue bought fiue yoke of oxen, and I goe to proue them: I pray thee haue me excused.

20 And another sayd, I haue married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So the seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the good man of the house angry, and sayd to his seruant, Goe out quickly into the places and streetes of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

22 And the seruant sayd, Lord, it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is roome.

23 Then the master sayd to the seruant, Goe out into the * hie wayes, and hedges, and d compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 Nowe there went great multitudes with him, and he turned and sayde vnto them, 26 * If any man come to me, and e hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his owne life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 * And whosoeuer beareth not his crosse, and commeth after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you minding to build a tower, sitteth not downe before, and f counteth the cost, whether he haue sufficient to perfourme it,

31 Or what king going to make warre against another King, sitteth not downe first and taketh counsell, whether he be able with tenne thousand, to meete him that commeth against him with twentie thousand?

32 Or els while he is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoeuer hee be of you that g forsaketh not all that he hath, hee can not be my disciple.

CHAP. XV.

1 The Pharises murmure because Christ receiueth sinners. 4 The losing sheepe of God is openly set foorth in the parable of the hundreth sheepe. 7 Ioy in heauen for one sinner. 11 Of the prodigall sonne.

Then

THen resorted vnto him al the Publicanes and sinners, to heare him.

2 There ore the Pharises and Scribes murmured, saying, He receiueth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 Then spake hee this parable to them, saying,

Matth. 18. 12.

4 What man of you hauing an hundreth sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wildernesse, and goe after that which was lost, vntill he finde it?

5 And when hee hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when hee commeth home, hee calleth together his friends and his neighbours saying, vnto them, Reioyce with mee: for I haue found my sheepe, which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine a iust men, which needе none amendement of life.

8 Either what woman hauing tenne b pieces of siluer, if she lose one piece, doeth not light a candle, and sweepe the house, and seeke diligently till shee finde it?

9 And when shee hath found it, she calleth her friendes, and neighbours, saying, Reioyce with mee for I haue found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

11 ¶ He sayd moreouer, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the younger of them sayd to his father, Father, giue me the c portion of the goods that falleth to me. So he diuided vnto them his substance.

13 So not long after, when the younger sonne had gathered all together, hee tooke his iourney into a farre countrey, and there he wasted his goods with d riotous liuing.

14 Now when hee had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and he sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

16 And hee would faine haue filled his belly with the huskes, that the swine ate: e but no man gaue them him.

17 Then hee came to himselfe, and sayd, Howe many hyred seruantes at my fathers haue bread ynough, and I die for hunger!

18 I will rise and goe to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against f heauen, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to bee called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hyred seruants.

20 So hee arose, and came to his father, and when he was yet a great way off, his father sawe him, and had compassion, and ranne and fell on his necke, and killed him.

21 And the sonne sayde vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to bee called thy sonne.

22 Then the father sayd to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shooes on his feete, 23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eate and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and hee was lost, but hee is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Nowe the g elder brother was in the fielde, and when hee came and drewe neere to the house, he heard melodie, and dauncing, 26 And called one of his seruantes, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he sayd vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But hee answered and sayd to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commandement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which had deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fat calfe.

31 And hee sayd vnto him, h Sonne, thou art euer with mee, and all that I haue, is thine. It was meete that wee should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ exhorteth his to wisedom and liberalitie by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reproueth the couetousnes and hypocrisie of the Pharisees. 16 Of the ende and force of the Law. 18 The holy state of marriage. 19 Of the rich man, and Lazarus.

AND hee sayde also vnto his disciples, a There was a certaine rich man, which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him, that he wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and sayd vnto him, Howe is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounts of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward sayde within himselfe, What shall I doe: for my master will take away from me the stewardship? I can not dig, and to beg I am ashamed.

4 I know what I will doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called hee euery one of his masters debters, and sayd vnto the first, Howe much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And hee sayde, An hundreth measures of oyle. And he sayd to him, Take thy writing, and sit downe quickly, and write fiftie.

7 Then sayd he to another, Howe much owest thou? And hee sayde, An hundreth measures a Which iustifie themselues, and know not their owne faults.

b That word is, drachme which is worthe vnto vs after the price of old sterling money, and commeth neere with a Romane penie.

c This declareth that we ought not to desire to haue our portion separate from God, except we will lose all.

d The Greeke worde signifieth to waste all, that a man reserueth nothing to himselfe.

e For no man had giuen vnto him.

f That is, against God.

g God preuenteth by and beareth the grudging of his.

h He was touched with the feeling of his sinne, and therefore was ashamed thereof, and beawie in heart.

i God reproueth the enuie of such as grudge when God receiueth sinners to mercy.

k Thy part which art a Iewe, is nothing diminished by that, that Christ was also killed for the Gentiles: for he accepteth not the person, but feedeth indifferently all them that beleeue in him, with his bodie and blood to life euerlasting.

a Christ teacheth hereby, that likewise as he which is in authoritie and hath riches, if he get friends in his prosperitie, may be relieued in his aduersitie of our liberalitie towards our neighbour shall stand vs in such stead at the day of iudgement, that God will accept it as done vnto him.

measures of wheate. Then he sayd to him, Take thy writing, and write foure score.

8 And the Lord commended [h] the vniust Steward, because he had done wisely. For the children of this world are in their generation wiser then the children of light.

9 And I say vnto you, Make you friends [i] with the riches of iniquitie, that when yee shall want, they may receiue you into euerlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in the least, he is also faithfull in much: and he that is vniust in the least, is vniust also in much.

11 If then yee haue not been faithfull in [d] the wicked riches, who will trust you in the true treasure?

12 And if yee haue not been faithfull in [e] another mans goods, who shall giue you that which is [f] yours?

13 [*] No seruant can serue two masters: for either hee shall hate the one, and loue the other: or els hee shall leane to the one, and dispise the other. Ye cannot serue God and riches.

14 All these things heard the Pharises also which were couetous, and they [g] mocked him.

15 Then he said vnto them, Ye are they, which [h] iustifie your selues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 [*] The Law and the Prophets endured vntill Iohn: and since that time the kingdome of God is preached, and euery man [i] preaseth into it.

17 [*] Now it is more easie that heauen and earth should passe away, then that one tittle of the law should fall.

18 ¶ [*] Whosoeuer putteth away his wife, and marieth another, committeth adulterie: and whosoeuer marieth her that [k] is put away from her husband, committeth adulterie.

19 ¶ There was a [l] certaine rich man, which was clothed in purple, and fine linnen, and fared well and delicatly euery day.

20 Also there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, which was layed at his gate full of sores, 21 And desired to be refreshed with the crummes that fell from the rich mans table: yea, and the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger died, and was caried by the Angels into [m] Abrahams [n] bosome. The rich man also died and was buried.

23 And being in hell in torments, he lift vp his eyes, and sawe Abraham afarre off, and Lazarus in his bosome.

24 Then he cried and said, Father Abraham, haue mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his [o] finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, [p] Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuedst thy [q] pleasures, and likewise Lazarus [q] paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betweene you and vs there is a great [r] gulfe set, so that they which would go from hence to you, cannot, neither can they come from thence to vs.

27 Then he sayd, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house, 28 (For I haue fiue brethren) that he may testifie vnto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham sayd vnto him, They haue Moses and the [s] Prophets: let them [t] heare them.

30 And he sayd, Nay, father Abraham: but if one come vnto them from the dead, they will amend their liues.

31 Then he sayd vnto him, If they heare not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be perswaded, though one rise from the dead againe.

b God who doth here represent the master of the house, doeth rather cõmend the prodigall waste of his goods, and the liberal giuing of the same to the poore, then the straite keeping and hoording of them.

c That is, either wickedly gotten, or wickedly kept, or wickedly spent: and hereby we be warned to suspect riches, which for the most part are an occasion to their possessors of great wickednesse.

d They which cannot well bestow worldly goods, will bestow ill spirituall treasures: and therefore they ought not to be committed vnto them.

e As are riches and such like things, which God hath giuen, not for your selues onely, but to bestow vpon others.

f Christ calleth the gifts which he giueth vnto vs, ours.

k That is, which is not lawfully diuorced.

l By this story is declared, what punishment they shall haue, which liue deliciously and neglect the poore.

m As the fathers in the olde lawe, were sayd to be gathered vnto the bosome of Abraham, because they receiued the fruite of the same with him: so in the newe Testament we say that the members of Christ are ioyned to their head, or gathered vnto him.

n Whereby is signified that most blessed life, which they that die in the faith that Abraham did, shall enioy after this world.

o Christ describeth spirituall things by such maner of speech, as is most proper to our vnderstanding: for our soules haue neither fingers nor eyes, neither are they thirstie, or speake: but the Lord, as it were in a table, painteth forth the state of the life to come, as our capacitie is able to comprehend it.

p In calling him sonne, he taunteth his vaine boasting, who in his life vnreasonable to be the sonne of Abraham: warning vs also hereby howe little glorious titles auaile.

q Which declareth that it is too late to bee instructed by the dead, if in their life time they cannot profite by the liuely word of God.

r As faith commeth by Gods word, so is it maintained by the same. So that we neither ought to looke for Angels from heauen, or the dead to confirme vs therein, but onely the word of God is sufficient to life euerlasting.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ teacheth his disciples to auoyd occasions of offence, 3 one to forgiue another. 5 We ought to pray for the increase of faith. 6 Hee magnifieth the vertue of faith, 10 and sheweth the vnability of man, 11 healeth ten lepers, 20 speaketh of the latter dayes, and of the end of the world.

THen sayd he to his disciples, [*] It cannot be auoided, but that offences will come, but woe be to him by whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a great millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were cast into the sea, then that he should [a] offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to your selues: if thy brother trespasse against thee, rebuke him: and if he repent, forgiue him.

4 [*] And though her sinne against thee [b] seuen times in a day, and seuen times in a day turne againe to thee, saying, It repenteth me, thou shalt forgiue him.

5 ¶ And the Apostles said vnto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord sayd, [*] If ye haue faith, as much as is a graine of mustard seed, and should say vnto this mulberie tree, [c] Plucke thy selfe vp by the roots, and plant thy selfe in the sea, it should euen obey you.

Matt. 18. 7. mar. 9. 42.

a That is, to turne him backe from the knowledge of God, and his saluation.

Matth. 18. 21.

b That is, many times: for by a certaine number he meaneth an vncertaine.

Matth. 17. 20.

c That is, if they had neuer so little of pure and perfect faith.

d Meaning, they should do wonderfull and incredible things.

7 ¶ Who is it also of you, that hauing a seruant plowing or feeding cattell, would say vnto him by and by, when he were come from the field, Goe, and sit downe at table?

8 And would not rather say to him, * Dresse where with I may sup, and gird thy selfe, and serue me, till I haue eaten and dronken, and afterward eate thou, and drinke thou?

9 Doeth he thanke that seruant, because hee did that which was commanded vnto him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye haue done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are [f] vnprofitable seruants: we haue done that which was our duetie to doe.

11 ¶ And so it was when he went to Ierusalem, that hee passed thorow the mids of Samaria and Galile.

12 And as he entred into a certaine towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stoode afarre off.

13 And they lift vp their voyces and said, Iesus, Master, haue mercy on vs.

14 And when he sawe them, he sayd vnto them, * Goe, shewe your selues vnto the [g] Priests. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned backe, and with a loud voyce praysed God, 16 And fell downe on his face at his feet, and gaue him thanks: and he was a Samaritane.

17 And Iesus answered, & said, Are there not ten cleansed? but where are the [h] nine?

18 There are none found that returned to giue God praise, saue this stranger.

19 And he said vnto him, Arise, Goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when hee was demaunded of the Pharises, when the kingdome of God should come, he answered them, and sayde, The kingdome of God commeth not [i] with obseruation.

21 Neither shall men say, Loe here or loe there: for beholde, the kingdome of God is [k] within you.

22 And hee sayd vnto the disciples, The dayes will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 * Then they shall say to you, Beholde here, or beholde there: but goe not thither, neither follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part vnder heauen, shineth vnto the other part vnder heauen, so shall the Sonne of man be in his [m] day.

25 But first must hee suffer many things, and be reproued of this generation.

26 * And as it was in the [n] dayes of Noe, so shall it be in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

27 They ate, they dranke, they married wiues, & gaue in mariage vnto the day that Noe went into the Arke: & the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 * Likewise also, as it was in the dayes of Lot: they ate, they dranke, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built.

29 But in the daye that Lot went out of Sodome, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

30 After these examples shall it bee in the day when the Sonne of man shalbe reuelled.

31 At that day, he that is vpon the [o] house, and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out: and hee that is in the field likewise, let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.

32 * Remember Lots wife.

33 * Whosoeuer will seeke to saue his soule, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose it, [p] shall get it life.

34 * I tell you, in that night there shall be two in one bed: the one shall bee received, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together: the one shalbe taken, and the other shall be left.

36 Two shall be in the field: one shall be received, and another shalbe left.

37 And they answered, and sayd to him, Where, Lord? And hee sayde vnto them, * [q] Where soeuer the body is, thither will also the Eagles resort.

1 By the example of the widow, and the Publicane, Christ teacheth how to pray. 15 By the example of children, he exhorteth to humilitie. 18 Of the way to be saued, and what things let. 29 The reward promised to him. 31 and of the croste. 35 The blinde man receiueth sight.

AND * he spake also a parable vnto them, to this ende, that they ought alwayes to pray, and not to [a] waxe faint,

2 Saying, There was a Iudge in a certaine citie, which feared not God, neither reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widowe in that citie, which came vnto him, saying, ¶ Doe me iustice against mine [b] aduersarie.

4 And he would not for a time: but afterward he sayd with himselfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will doe her right, lest at the last she come and make me weare.

6 And the Lord sayd, Heare what the vnrighteous iudge sayeth.

7 Nowe shall not God auenge his elect, which cry day and night vnto him, yea, though * he suffer long for them?

8 I tell you he wil auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man commeth, shall he finde faith on the earth?

9 ¶ He spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselues that they were iust, and despised other,

10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.

11 The Pharise [d] stood and prayed thus with himselfe, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or euen as this Publicane.

14 I tell you, this man departed to his house iustified, rather then the other: * For euery man that exalteth himselfe, shall be brought low, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

15 ¶ * They brought vnto him also † babes, that he should touch them. And when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Iesus called ‖ them vnto him, and said, Suffer the babes to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for * such is the kingdome of God.

17 Verily I say vnto you, Whosoeuer receiueth not the kingdome of God, as ‖ a babe, he shall not enter therein.

18 * Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to doe, to inherite eternall life?

19 And Iesus said vnto him, Why callest thou me ‖ good? none is good, saue one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, * Thou shalt not commit aduitery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnesse: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he sayde, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Now when Iesus heard that, he sayd vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing. Sell all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come follow me.

23 But when he heard these things, he was very heauie: for he was marueilous rich.

24 And when Iesus saw him sorowfull, he sayde, ¶ With what difficulte shall they that haue riches enter into the kingdome of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a ‖ camel to goe through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 Then sayde they that heard it, And who then can be saued?

27 And he sayde, The things which are vnpossible with men, are ‖ possible with God.

28 ¶ * Then Peter sayde, Loe, we haue left all, and haue followed thee

30 Which shall not receiue * much more in this worlde, and in the world to come life euerlasting.

31 ¶ * Then Iesus tooke vnto him the twelue, and sayd vnto them, Beholde, we goe vp to Ierusalem, and all things shall be fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets.

32 For he shall be deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shall be spitefully intreated, and shall be spitted on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the third day he shall rise againe.

34 But they vnderstoode none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, neither perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

35 ¶ * And it came to passe, that as he was come neere vnto Iericho, a certaine blind man sate by the way side begging.

36 And when he heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they sayd vnto him, that Iesus of Nazareth passed by.

38 Then he cryed, saying, Iesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should hold his peace, but he cryed much more, * Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

40 And Iesus stood still, and commanded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come neere, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And he sayde, Lorde, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Iesus sayde vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.

43 Then immediately he receiued his sight, and followed him, * praysing God: and all the people when they saw this, gaue prayse to God.

NOw when Iesus entred and passed through Iericho,

2 Beholde, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chiefe receiuer of the tribute, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Iesus, who he should be, and could not for the preasse, because he was of a low stature.

4 Wherefore he ran before, and climed vp into a wilde figge tree, that he might see him, for he should come that way.

5 And when Iesus came to the place, he looked vp and saw him, and sayd vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they saw it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge with a ‖ sinfull man.

8 And Zaccheus stoode forth, and sayde vnto the Lord, Beholde, Lorde, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by ‖ false accusation, I restore him foure fold.

9 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, This day is saluation come vnto this * house, forasmuch as he is also become the * sonne of Abraham.

10 * For the Sonne of man is come to seeke, and to saue that which was lost.

11 And whiles they heard these things, he continued and spake a parable, because hee was neere to Ierusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdome of GOD should hastily appeare.

12 He sayd therefore, * A certaine noble man went into a farre countrey, to receiue for himselfe a kingdome, and so to come againe.

13 And he called his ten seruants, and deliuered them ten [d] pieces of money, and sayd vnto them, [e] Occupie till I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, [f] We will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe, when hee was come [g] againe, and had received his kingdome, that hee commaunded the seruants to be called to him, to whome he gaue his money, that hee might know what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased ten pieces.

17 And he sayd vnto him, Well, good seruant: because thou hast bene faithfull in a very little thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased fiue pieces.

19 And to the same he sayd, Be thou also ruler ouer fiue cities.

20 So the other came and sayd, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue layd vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a straite man, thou takest vp that thou laidest not downe, and reapest that thou diddest not sowe.

22 Then he said vnto him, Of thine own mouth will I iudge thee, O euill seruant. Thou knewest that I am a straite man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gauest not thou my money into the banke, that at my comming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And hee sayd to them that stood by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they sayd vnto him, Lord, hee hath ten pieces.)

26 * For I say vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it shall be [h] giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shall be taken from him.

27 Moreouer, those mine enemies, which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, hee went forth [i] before, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 * And it came to passe, when he was come neere to Bethphage, and Bethanie, besides the mount which is called the mount of Olives, hee sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Goe yee to the towne which is before you, wherein assoone as yee are come, yee shall finde a colt tyed, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 [k] And if any man aske you, why yee loose him, thus shall yee say vnto him, Because the Lord hath neede of him.

32 So they that were sent, went their way, and found it as he had sayd vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof sayd vnto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they sayd, The Lord hath neede of him.

35 ¶ * So they brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as hee went, they spred their clothes in the way.

37 And when hee was now come neere to the going downe of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to reioyce, and to praise God with a loude voyce, for all the great workes that they had seene, 38 Saying, Blessed bee the King that commeth in the Name of the Lord: [l] peace in heauen, and glory in the hiest places.

39 Then some of the Pharises of the company sayd vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered and said vnto them, I tell you, that if these should holde their peace, the stones would crie.

41 ¶ * And when he was come neere, he beheld the citie, and wept for it, 42 Saying, * [m] If thou haddest euen knowen at the least in this thy day * those things, which belong vnto thy peace! but now are they * hid from thine eyes.

43 For the dayes shall come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compasse thee round, and keepe thee in on euery side, 44 And shall make thee euen with the ground, and thy children which are in thee, and they shall not leaue in thee a stone vpon a stone, because thou knewest not the time of thy * visitation.

45 ¶ * Hee went also into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde therein, and them that bought, 46 Saying vnto them, It is written, * Mine house is the house of prayer, * but ye haue made it a denne of theeues.

47 And he taught [p] daily in the Temple. And the hie Priests and the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people sought to destroy him.

what authoritie thou doest these things, or who is he that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

3 And he answered and said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

4 The a baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within themselues, saying, If wee shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then beleeued ye him not?

6 But if we shal say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, b Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

9 ¶ Then began he to speake to the people this parable, * A certaine man planted a c vineyard, and d let it foorth to husbandmen: and went into a strange country, for a great season.

10 And at a time he sent a e seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruite of the vineyard, but the husbandmen did beate him, and sent him away emptie.

11 Againe he sent yet another seruant: and they did beate him, and foule intreated him, and sent him away emptie.

12 Moreouer, he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then sayd the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I doe? I will send my beloued Sonne: it may be that they will doe reuerence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned with themselues, saying, This is the heire: come let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore doe vnto them?

16 He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyard to others. But when they heard it, they sayd, God forbid.

17 ¶ And he beheld them, f said, What meaneth this then that is written, * The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head f of the corner?

18 g Whosoeuer shal fall vpon that stone, shall be broken: and on whomsoeuer it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 Then the hie Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceiued that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 * And they h watched him, and sent foorth spies, which should faine themselues iust men to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the gouernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest, & teachest right, neither doest thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truely.

22 Is it i lawful for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

23 But he perceiued their craftinesse, and sayd vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a peny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and sayd Cesars.

25 Then he sayd vnto them, k Giue then vnto Cesar the things which are Cesars, and to God those which are Gods.

26 And they could not reprooue his saying before the people: but they marueiled at his answere, and held their peace.

27 * Then came to him certaine of the Sadducees, (which deny that there is any resurrection) and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and hee died without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and he died childelesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

32 And last of all, the woman died also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she be? for seuen had her to wife.

34 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, The l children of this world marrie wiues, and are maried.

35 But they which shall be counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry wiues, neither are maried.

36 m For they can die no more, forasmuch as they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the sonnes of God, n since they are the children of the resurrection.

37 And that the dead shall rise againe, euen * Moses shewed it besides the bush, when he sayd, The Lord is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob.

38 For he is not the God of the o dead, but of them which liue: p for all liue vnto him.

39 Then certaine of the Pharises answered, and sayd, Master, thou hast well sayd.

44 Seeing Dauid calleth him Lord, how is he then his q sonne?

45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people, he said vnto his disciples,

3 Chriſt commendeth the poore widowe. 6 He forewarneth the deſtruction of Ieruſalem. 8 Of falſe teachers. 9 Of the tokens and troubles to come. 27 Of the end of the world, 37 & of his daily exerciſe.

Mar.12.41.

AND * as he beheld, he ſaw the rich men, which caſt their gifts into the treaſurie,

2 And he ſawe alſo a certaine poore widow, which caſt in thither two mites,

3 And he ſayd, Of a trueth I ſay vnto you, that this poore widow hath caſt in more then they all.

4 * For they all haue of their ſuperfluitie caſt into the offerings of God: but ſhee of her penurie hath caſt in all the liuing that ſhe had.

5 * Now as ſome ſpake of the Temple, how it was garniſhed with goodly ſtones, and with † conſecrate things, he ſayd, † Or, gifts.

6 Are theſe the things that ye looke vpon? the dayes will come, wherein a ſtone ſhall not be left vpon a ſtone, that ſhall not be throwen downe.

7 Then they aſked him, ſaying, Maiſter, but when ſhal theſe things be? & what ſigne ſhall there be when theſe things ſhal come to paſſe?

Ephe.5.6. a 1.Ioh.4.1. b Chriſt then maketh anſwere of that which was more neceſſary for them, and not to the queſtion they demanded. Matt.24.7. mar.13.8.

8 * And he ſaid, b Take heede that yee be not deceiued: for many will come in my Name, ſaying, I am Chriſt, and the time draweth neere: followe ye not them therefore.

9 * And when yee heare of warres and ſeditions, be not afraid: for theſe things muſt firſt come, but the end followeth not by and by.

10 Then ſaid he vnto them, Nation ſhal riſe againſt nation, and kingdome againſt kingdome.

11 * And great earthquakes ſhal be in diuers places, and hunger, and peſtilence, and fearefull things, and great ſignes ſhall there be from heauen.

c This their conſtancie ſhal both be a greater confirmation to the Goſpel, & alſo by their conſtancie the tyranny of their enemies ſhall at length be manifeſt before God and man. Chap.12.12. matt.10.19. mar.13.11.

12 But before all theſe, they ſhal lay their hands on you, and perſecute you, deliuering you vp to the Synagogues, & into priſons, and bring you before Kings and rulers for my Names ſake.

13 And this ſhall turne to you, for a c teſtimoniall.

d For though they were ſo impudent to reſiſt, yet truth euer gaineth the victory. Mar.10.30.

14 * Lay it vp therefore in your hearts, that ye premeditate not what yee ſhall anſwere.

15 For I will giue you a mouth, and wiſdom, where againſt all your aduerſaries ſhal not be able to ſpeake, nor d reſiſt.

e That is, liue ioyfully & bleſſedly euen vnder the croſſe. Mat.24.15. mar.13.14. dan.9.27.

16 Yea, ye ſhall be betrayed alſo of your parents, and of your brethren, and kinſmen, and friends, and ſome of you ſhal they put to death.

17 And ye ſhal be hated of all men for my Names ſake.

18 * Yet there ſhall not one haire of your heads perish.

19 By your patience * poſſeſſe your ſoules.

20 ¶ * And when ye ſee Ieruſalem beſieged with ſouldiers, then vnderſtand that the deſolation thereof is neere.

21 Then let them which are in Iudea, flee to the mountaines: and let them which are in the middes thereof, depart out: and let not them that are in the countrey, enter therein.

22 For theſe be the dayes of vengeance, to fulfill all things that are written.

23 But woe be to them that be with child, and to them that giue ſucke in thoſe dayes: for there ſhall be great diſtreſſe in this land, and f wrath ouer this people.

f Gods wrath againſt this people ſhall appeare by the calamities & plagues wherewith he will puniſh them.

24 And they ſhall fall on the edge of the ſword, and ſhall be led captiue into all nations, and Ieruſalem ſhall be troden vnder foote of the Gentiles, vntill the g time of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

g He meaneth their iniquities to receiue likewiſe their puniſhment afterward. Iſa.13.10. Ezek.32.7. mat.24.29. mar.13.24.

25 * Then there ſhall be ſignes in the Sunne & in the Moone, and in the ſtarres, and vpon the earth trouble among the nations, with perplexitie: the ſea and the waters ſhall roare.

26 And mens hearts ſhall faile them for feare, & for looking after thoſe things which ſhal come on the world: for the power of heauen ſhall be ſhaken, 27 And then ſhall they ſee the Sonne of man come in a cloud, with power and great glory.

28 And when theſe things begin to come to paſſe, then looke vp, & lift vp your heads: * for your h redemption draweth neere.

Rom.8.23.

h The effect of that redemption which Ieſus Chriſt hath purchaſed, ſhall then fully appeare.

29 And he ſpake to them a parable, Behold the fig tree, and all trees, 30 When they now ſhoot forth, ye ſeeing them, know of your owne ſelues, that Sommer is then neere.

31 So likewiſe yee, when yee ſee theſe things come to paſſe, know ye that the kingdome of God is neere.

i For all theſe things came within fifty yeres after.

32 Verely I ſay vnto you, This age ſhal not i paſſe, till all theſe things be done.

33 Heauen and earth ſhall paſſe away, but my words ſhal not paſſe away.

34 Take heede to your ſelues, leſt at any time your hearts be oppreſſed with ſurfetting and drunkennes, and cares of this life, and leſt that day come on you at vnwares.

k To catch and intangle them, wheroſoeuer they be in the world.

35 For as a k ſnare ſhall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

Or, that ye may be made worthy.

36 Watch therefore, and pray continually, that ye may be counted worthy to eſcape all theſe things that ſhall come to paſſe, and that ye may ſtand before the Sonne of man.

37 ¶ Now in the day time he taught in the Temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olines.*

38 And all the people came in the morning to him, to heare him in the Temple.

NOw the a feast of vnleauened bread drewe neere, which is called the Passeouer.
2 And the hie Priests & Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.
3 Then entred Satan into Iudas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelue.
4 And he went his way, and communed with the hie Priests and captaines, howe he might betray him to them.
5 So they were glad, and agreed to giue him money.
6 And he consented, and sought opportunitie to betray him vnto them, whē the people were away.
7 ¶ Then came the day of vnleauened bread when the Passeouer must be sacrificed.
8 And he sent Peter and Iohn, saying, Goe, and prepare vs the Passeouer, that we may eate it.
9 And they sayd to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare it?
10 Then he sayd vnto them, Beholde, when ye be entred into the citie, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the house that he entreth in,
11 And say vnto the goodman of the house, The master sayth vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eate my Passeouer with my disciples?
12 Then he shall shew you a great high chamber trimmed, there make it ready.
13 So they went, and found as he had sayd vnto them, and made ready the Passeouer.
14 And when the houre was come, he sate downe, and the twelue Apostles with him.
15 Then he sayd vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eate this Passeouer with you before I suffer.
16 For I say vnto you, I henceforth I will not eate of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.
17 And he tooke the cup, and gaue thanks, and sayd, Take this, and deuide it among you.
18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruit of the vine, vntill the kingdome of God be come.
19 And he tooke bread, and when he had giuen thanke, he brake it, and gaue to them, saying, g This is my bodie, which is giuen for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.
20 Likewise also after Supper he tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the new h Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.
21 But beholde, the hand of him that betraieth me, is with me at the table.
22 And truely the Sonne of man goeth as it is i appointed: but woe be to that man, by whom he is betrayed.
23 Then they began to enquire among themselues, which of them it should be, that should doe that.
24 ¶ And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.
25 But he sayd vnto them, The kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer them, are called k Gracious lords.
26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the ✠ least: and the chiefest as he that serueth.
27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? is not he that sitteth at table? And I am among you as he that serueth.
28 And ye are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.
29 Therefore I ✠ appoint vnto you a kingdome, as my Father hath appointed to me,
30 That ye may eate, and drinke at my table in my kingdome, and sit on seates, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.
31 ¶ And the Lord sayd, Simon, Simon, beholde, l Satan hath desired you, m to winnow you as wheate.
32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith ✠ fails not: therefore when thou art conuerted, strengthen thy brethren.
33 n And he sayd vnto him, Lord, I am readie to goe with thee into prison, and to death.
34 But he sayd, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crowe this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knewest me.
35 ¶ And he sayd vnto them, o When I sent you without bag, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they sayd, Nothing.
36 Then he sayd to them, But now he that hath a bag, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and he that hath none, let him sell his coate, and p buy a sword.
37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written, must be performed in me, q Euen with the wicked was he numbred: for doubtlesse those things which are written of me, haue an end.
38 And they sayd, Lord, behold, here are p two swords. And he sayd vnto them, It is enough.
39 ¶ And he came out, and went (as he was wont) to the mount of Oliues: and his disciples also followed him.
40 r And when he came to the place, he sayd to them, Pray, least ye enter into tentation.
41 And he gate himselfe from them a-boot a stones cast, and kneeled downe, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this s cup from me: neuertheles, not my will, but thine be done.
43 And there appeared an Angell vnto him from heauen, comforting him.
44 But being in an t agonie, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweate was like drops of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

45 And he rose vp from prayer, and came to his disciples, and found them sleeping for heauinesse.

46 And he sayd vnto them, Why sleepe ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into tentation.

47 ¶ * And while he yet spake, beholde a company, and he that was called Iudas one of the twelue, went before them, & came nere vnto Iesus to kisse him.

48 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Iudas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 Now when they which were about him, saw what would follow, they sayd vnto him, Lord, shall we smite with sword?

50 And one of them smote a seruant of the hie Priest, and stroke off his right eare.

51 Then Iesus answered and sayd, Suffer them thus farre: and he touched his eare, and healed him.

52 Then Iesus sayd vnto the hie Priests, and captaines of the Temple, & the Elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a theefe with swordes and staues?

53 When I was daily with you in the Temple, ye stretched not forth the handes against me: but this is your very houre, and the f power of darkenesse.

54 ¶ Then tooke they him, and led him and brought him to the high Priests house. And Peter followed a farre off.

55 * And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, & were set downe together, Peter also sate downe among them.

56 And a certaine maid beheld him as he sate by the fire, and hauing well looked on him, sayd, This man was also with him.

57 But he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while, another man saw him, and sayd, Thou art also of them. But Peter sayd, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of an houre after, a certaine other affirmed, saying, Verely y men this man was with him: for he is also a Galilean.

60 And Peter sayd, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the cocke crew.

61 Then the Lord turned backe, and looked vpon Peter: and Peter remembred the word of the Lord, how he had sayd vnto him, * Before the cocke crow, thou shalt denie me thrise.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Iesus, mocked him, and stroke him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they smote him on the face, and asked him, saying, * Prophesie who it is that smote thee.

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 * And assoone as it was day, the Elders of the people, and the hie Priests and the Scribes came together, and led him into their Councell, 67 Saying, * Art thou the Christ? tell vs. And he sayd vnto them, If I tell you, ye will not beleeue it.

68 And if also I aske you, ye will not answere me, nor let me goe.

69 x Hereafter shall the Sonne of man sit at the y right hand of the power of God.

70 Then sayd they all, Art thou then the Sonne of God? And he sayd to them, Ye say that I am.

71 Then sayd they, What need we any further witnes? for we our selues haue heard it of his owne mouth.

4 Then sayd Pilate to the hie Priests, & to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching throughout all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knew that he was of Herodes iurisdiction, he b sent him to Herod, which was also at z Ierusalem in those dayes.

10 The hie Priests also & Scribes stoode forth, and accused him vehemently.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleeued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and ranne vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linen clothes layde by themselues, and departed wondering in himselfe, at that which was come to passe.

Mark 16. 12.

13 ¶ And beholde, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about c threescore furlongs, called Emmaus, 14 And they d talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe drew neere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes e were holden, that they could not know him.

17 And he sayd vnto them, What manner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered, and sayd vnto him, Art thou onely a f stranger in Ierusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to passe therin in these dayes?

19 And he sayde vnto them, What things? And they sayd vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet mightie in deede and in woorde before God, and all the people, 20 And how the high Priestes and our rulers deliuered him to bee condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we g trusted that it had beene he that should haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

22 Yea, and certaine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre, 23 And when they found not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which said that he was aliue.

24 Therefore certaine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had sayd, but him they sawe not.

25 Then he sayde vnto them, h O fooles, and slowe of heart to beleeue all that the Prophets haue spoken, 26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And he began at Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew neere vnto the towne which they went to, but he made as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constreyned him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towards night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tary with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sate at table with them, he tooke the bread, i and gaue thankes, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, & they knewe him: but he was taken out of their sight.

32 And they sayd betweene themselues, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which sayd, The Lord is risen in deede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they tolde what thinges were done in the way, and how he was knowen of them in k breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they spake these thinges, Iesus himselfe stode in the mids of them, and sayd vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed and afraide, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he sayd vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Beholde mine handes and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle me, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me haue.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his handes and feete.

41 And while they yet beleeued not for ioy, and wondered, he sayd vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broyled fish, and of an hony combe, 43 And he tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And he sayd vnto them, These are the woordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of me in the Lawe of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures,

46 And sayd vnto them, Thus is it written, & thus it behoued Christ to suffer, and to rise againe from the dead the third day, 47 And that repentance, and remission of sinnes should be preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things.

CHAP. I.

1.14.17 The diuinitie, humanitie, and offices of Ieſus Chriſt. 15 The teſtimonie of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

IN † the beginning was the Woorde, and the Woorde was with a God, and that Woorde was God.
2 The ſame was b in the beginning with God.
3 All things were made by it, and c without it was made nothing that was made.
4 In it was d life, and the life was the e light of men.
5 And the light ſhineth f in the darkneſs, and the darkneſſe comprehended it not.
6 ¶ * There was a man ſent from God, whoſe name was Iohn.
7 The ſame came for a witneſſe, to beare witneſſe of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.
8 He was not that light, but was ſent to beare witneſſe of the light.
9 That was † true light, which lighteth euery man that † commeth into the world.
10 He was in the world, and the world was * made by him: and the world g knew him not.
11 He came vnto h his owne, and his owne receiued him not.
12 But as many as receiued him, to them he gaue i power to be the ſonnes of God, euen to them that beleeue in his Name, 13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the fleſh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 * And the Woord was made k fleſh, and dwelt among vs, (& we * ſaw the glory thereof, as the glory of the onely begotten Sonne † of the Father) * full of grace and trueth.
15 ¶ Iohn bare witneſſe of him, & cryed, ſaying, This was he of whom I ſayd, He that commeth after me, is preferred before me: for he was † before me.
16 And of his fulneſſe haue all we receiued, and l grace for grace.
17 For the Law was giuen by Moſes, but grace and trueth came by Ieſus Chriſt.
18 * No man hath ſeene God at any time: the only begotten ſonne, which is in the m boſome of the Father, he hath * declared him.
19 ¶ Then this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes ſent Prieſtes and Leuites frō Ieruſalem, to aſke him, Who art thou?
20 And he confeſſed and denied not, and ſayd plainely, I * am not the Chriſt.
21 And they aſked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he ſaid, I am not. Art thou the * Prophet? And he anſwered, No.
22 Then ſayd they vnto him, Who art thou, that wee may giue an anſwere to them that ſent vs? what ſayeſt thou of thy ſelfe?
23 He ſaid, I * am the voyce of him that crieth in the wilderneſs, Make ſtraight the way of † Lord, as ſaid the Prophet Eſaias.
24 Now they which were ſent, were of the Phariſes.
25 And they aſked him, & ſayd vnto him, Why baptizeſt thou then, if thou be not the Chriſt, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?
26 Iohn anſwered them, ſaying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not,
27 * He it is that cōmeth after me, which is preferred before me, whoſe ſhoe latchet I am not worthy to vnloſe.
28 Theſe things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan, where Iohn did baptize.
29 ¶ The next day Iohn ſeeth Ieſus cōming vnto him, and ſayth, Behold † Lambe of God, which taketh away the p ſinne of the world.
30 This is he of whom I ſayd, After me commeth a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I knew q him not: but becauſe he ſhould be declared to Iſrael, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.
32 So Iohn bare record, ſaying, I ſaw * the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him.
33 And I knew him not: but he that ſent me to baptize with water, he ſayd vnto me, Vpon whom thou ſhalt ſee the Spirit come downe, and tary ſtill on him, that is he which baptizeth with the r holy Ghoſt.
34 And I ſaw, and bare record that this is the Sonne of God.
35 ¶ The next day, Iohn ſtood againe, and two of his diſciples:
36 And he beheld Ieſus walking by, and ſayd, Behold, the ſ Lambe of God.
37 And † two diſciples heard him ſpeake, and followed Ieſus.
38 Then Ieſus turned about, and ſawe them followe, and ſaide vnto them, What ſeeke ye? And they ſayd vnto him, Rabbi, (which is to ſay by interpretation, Maiſter) t where dwelleſt thou?
39 He ſaid vnto them, Come & ſee. They came and ſawe where hee dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the u tenth houre.
40 And one, Simon Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard * it of Iohn, and that followed him.

CHAP. II.

2 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He driveth the buiers and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He foresheweth his death and resurrection. 23 He converteth many, and distrusteth not.

AND the third day, was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus sayd vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus sayd vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother sayde vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he sayth vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were set there fire waterpots of stone, after the maner of the *purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three ‖firkins a piece.

7 And Iesus sayde vnto them, Fill the waterpots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brimme.

8 Then hee sayd vnto them, Draw out now, and beare vnto the ‖gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for hee knewe not whence it was: but the seruants, which drewe the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegroome,

10 And sayde vnto him, All men at the beginning set forth good wine, and when men haue well dronke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill now.

11 This beginning of ‖miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed forth his glory: and his disciples beleeued on him.

12 After that hee went downe into Capernaum, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not many dayes there.

13 For ‖ Iewes Passeouer was at hand, Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 *And hee found in the Temple those that sold oxen, and sheepe, and doues, & changers of money, sitting there.

15 Then he made a scourge of small cordes, and drane them all out of the Temple with the sheepe & oxen, and powred out the changers money, and ouerthrew the tables, 16 And sayd vnto them that sold doues, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred, that it was written, *The ‖zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and sayd vnto him, What ‖signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and sayd vnto them, *Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Forte and sixe yeres was this Temple in building, & wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But hee spake of the Temple of his ‖body.

22 Assoone therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that hee thus sayd vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the words which Iesus had sayd.

23 Now when hee was at Ierusalem at the Passeouer in the feast, many beleeued in his name, when they sawe his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus ‖did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knew them all,

3 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, hee cannot [a] see the [b] kingdome of God.

4 Nicodemus sayde vnto him, How can a man bee borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Iesus answered, Verily, verily, I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of water and of the Spirite, hee cannot enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: and that that is borne of the spirit, is spirit.

7 Marueile not that I sayde to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The [c] winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it commeth, and whither it goeth: so is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and sayde vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and [d] knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, wee speake that wee [e] know, and testifie that wee haue seene: but ye [f] receiue not our witnesse.

12 If when I tell you [g] earthly things, yee beleeue not, how should ye beleeue, if I shall tell you of heauenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in [h] heauen.

14 [*] And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wildernesse, so must the Sonne of man be [k] lift vp, 15 That whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternall life.

16 [*] For God so loued the worlde, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue euerlasting life.

17 [*] For God sent not his Sonne into the worlde, that hee should [l] condemne the world, but that the world through him might be saued.

18 He that beleeueth in him, shall not be condemned: but hee that beleeueth not, is condemned already, because he beleeueth not in the Name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 [*] And this is the [m] condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loued darkenesse rather then light, because their deedes were euill.

20 For euery man that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither commeth to light, lest his deedes should be reprooued.

21 But hee that doeth [*] truely, commeth to the light, that his deedes might bee made manifest, that they are wrought [‖] according to God.

22 ¶ After these things came Iesus and his disciples into the land of Iudea, and there taried with them, and [*] baptized.

23 And Iohn also baptized in Enon, beside Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question betweene Iohns disciples and the Iewes, about [q] purifying.

26 And they came vnto Iohn, and sayde vnto him, Rabbi, [r] he that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whom [*] thou hast witnessed, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Iohn answered, and sayd, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that [*] I sayd, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the brides grome: but the friend of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegrounds voyce. This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must [s] increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that is come from on high, is aboue all: he that is of the [*] earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: he that is come from heauen, is aboue all.

32 And what hee hath seene and heard, that he testifieth: but no man [t] receiueth his testimonie.

34 For hee whom God hath sent, speaketh the wordes of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by [x] measure.

35 The Father loueth the Sonne, and hath [*] giuen all things into his hand.

15 The woman sayd vnto him, Sir, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.

16 Iesus sayd vnto her, Go, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and sayde, I haue no husband. Iesus sayd vnto her, Thou hast well sayd, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had fiue husbands, and he whom thou now hast is not thine husband: that saydest thou truely.

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the citie, and sayd to the men, 29 Come, see a man which hath told me all things that euer I did: is not hee the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the citie, and came vnto him.

o The Samaritans shewed themselues willing to receiue his doctrine, who being but strangers, and scarcely knowing Christ, are a condemnation to the Iewes, and all others, which neglect Gods word when it is offered.

Leuit.23.3. deut.16.1.

AFter a that, there was a feast of the Iewes, b Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

2 And there is at Ierusalem by c the place of the sheepe, a c poole called in Ebrew b Bethsaida hauing fiue porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blinde, halt, and withered, wayting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angell went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoeuer then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeeres.

6 When Iesus saw him lie, and knew that hee nowe long time had bene diseased, hee sayde vnto him, Wilt thou bee made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before me.

8 Iesus said vnto him, Rise d take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: e it is not lawfull for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he said vnto mee, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, what man is that which said vnto thee, take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And hee that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and said vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: f sinne no more, least a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 ¶ The man departed, and told the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

16 And the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because hee had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because hee had broken the Sabbath, but sayde also that God was g his Father, and made himselfe equal with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and saide vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of himselfe, saue that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoeuer things hee doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, and h sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer hee himselfe doeth, and hee will shewe him greater workes then these, that yee should maruaile.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all i iudgement vnto the Sonne, 23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily I say vnto you, he that heareth my word, and beleeueth in him that sent mee, hath euerlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verily, verily I say vnto you, the houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that k heare it, shall liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in l himselfe, so likewise hath he giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe, 27 And hath giuen him power also to execute m iudgement, in that hee is the sonne of man.

28 Marualle not at this: for the houre shall come in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, n that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge, and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.

31 If I o should beare witnesse of my selfe, my witnesse were not p true.

32 There is another that beareth witnesse of mee, and I know that the witnesse, which he beareth of me is true.

33 q Ye sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witnesse vnto the truth.

34 But I receiue not the record of man: neuertheless, these things I say, that ye might be saued.

35 Hee was a burning, and a shining r candle: and ye would for a season haue reioyced in his light.

AFter these things, Iesus went his way ouer the a sea of Galile, or of b Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they sawe his miracles, which hee did on them that were diseased.

3 Then Iesus went vp into a mountaine, and there he sate with his disciples.

4 Nowe the Passeouer, a * feast of the Iewes, was neere.

5 * Then Iesus lift vp his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, he sayd vnto Philip, Whence shall wee buy bread, that these might eate?

6 (And this he said to proue him: for he himselfe knew what he would doe)

7 Philip answered him, c Two hundred penieworth of breade is not sufficient for them, that euery one of them may take a little.

8 Then sayde vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother.

9 There is a little boy here, which hath fiue barley loaues, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus sayde, Make the people sit downe. (Nowe there was much grasse in that place.) Then the men sate downe in number about fiue thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread, and d gaue thankes, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were satisfied, he sayd vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that * nothing bee lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the fiue barley loaues, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a truth, the Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come and take him to make him a king, hee departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

16 ¶ When euen was nowe come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea, 17 * And entred into a shippe, and went e ouer the sea towardes Capernaum: and now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blew.

19 And when they had rowed about fiue and twentie, or thirtie f furlongs, they saw Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nere vnto the ship: so they were afraid.

20 But hee sayd vnto them, It is I: be not afraid.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the shippe: and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, g people which stood on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other shippe there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone alone.

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias nere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.

24 Now when the people saw that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the h other side of the sea, they sayde vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and sayde, Verily, verily I say vnto you, ye seeke mee not, because ye saw the miracles, but because ye eate of the loaues, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for the meate that endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the Sonne of man shall giue vnto you: for him hath * God the Father * sealed.

28 Then sayd they vnto him, What shall we doe, that we might worke the * workes of God?

29 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, This is the worke of God, that ye beleeue in him, whom he sent.

30 They sayd therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that wee may see it, and beleeue thee? what doest thou worke?

write, as it is * written, He gave them bread from heaven to eate.

32 Then Jesus sayd vnto them, Verily, verily, I say vnto you, o Moses gave you not bread from heaven, but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which commeth downe from heaven, and giveth life vnto the world.

34 Then they sayd vnto him, Lord, evermore give vs this bread.

35 And Jesus sayd vnto them, I am the bread of life: he that commeth to me, shall not hunger, and * he that believeth in me, shall p never thirst.

36 But I sayd vnto you, that ye also have seene me, and believe not.

37 All q that the Father giveth me, shall come to me: and him that commeth to me, I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heaven, not to do mine owne will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every man which seeth the Sonne, and believeth in him, should have everlasting life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Jewes then murmured at him, because he sayd, I am the bread, which is come downe from heaven.

42 And they said, * Is not this Jesus the sonne of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how then saith he, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus then answered, and sayde vnto them, Murmure not among your selves.

44 No man can * come to me, except the Father which hath sent me, r draw him: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the * Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, commeth vnto me, 46 * Not that any man hath seene the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seene the Father.

47 Verily, verily I say vnto you, He that believeth in me, hath everlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 * Your fathers did eate Manna in the wilderneſſe, t and are dead.

50 This is the bread, which commeth downe from heaven, that he which eateth of it, should not die.

51 I am the * living bread, which came downe from heaven: if any man eate of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give, is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 Then the Jewes strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Jesus sayd vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye have * no life in you.

54 Whosoever * eateth my flesh, y drinketh my blood, hath eternall life, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meate in deede, and my blood is drinke in deed.

56 He z that eateth my flesh, y drinketh my blood, * dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, so live I by the Father, and he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heaven: not as your fathers have eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread, shall live for ever.

59 These things spake he in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) sayd, This is an hard saying, who can * heare it?

61 But Jesus knowing in himselfe, that his disciples murmured at this, sayd vnto them, Doeth this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man * ascend vp * where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh * profiteth nothing: the words that I speake vnto you, are spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not: for Jesus knewe from the beginning, which they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he sayd, Therefore saide I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be given vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then sayd Jesus to the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whom shall we goe? Thou hast the words of a eternall life:

69 And we believe, and know that thou art * the Christ, the sonne of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I * chosen you twelve, and * one of you is a deuill?

71 Nowe he spake it of Judas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for hee it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelve.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the [d] Iewes.

14 Now when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, How knoweth this man the ‖ Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

16 Iesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not [e] mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

18 He [f] that speaketh of himselfe, seeketh his owne glory: but he that seeketh his glorie that sent him, the same is true, and no [g] vnrighteousnesse is in him.

19 *Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law? *Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The [h] people answered, and sayde, Thou hast a deuill: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Iesus answered, and sayde to them, I haue done one worke, and yet all [i] marueile.

22 *Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the *fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Lawe of Moses should not be broken, be ye angry with me, because I haue made a man euery whit whole on the Sabbath day?

24 *Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.

25 ¶ Then said some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this he, whom they goe about to kill?

26 And beholde, hee speaketh ‖ openly, and they say nothing to him: doe the rulers knowe in deede that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit wee know this man whence he is: but when the Christ commeth, no man shall know whence he is.

28 ¶ Then cried Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Yee [k] both know me, and know whence I am: yet am I not come of my self, but he that sent me, is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man layd hands on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Now many of the people [l] beleeued in him, and said, When the Christ commeth, will he do mo miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharises and high Priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Iesus vnto them, Yet am I [m] a little while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.

34 *Ye shall seeke me and shall not finde me, and where I am, can ye not come.

35 Then sayde the Iewes among themselues, Whither will he go, that we shall not finde him? Will he go vnto them that are dispersed among the [n] Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he said, Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde me? [o] where I am, can ye not come?

37 Now in the last and *great day of the feast, Iesus stoode and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.

38 He that *beleeueth in me, *as sayeth the Scripture, out of his belly shall flow riuers of water [p] of life.

39 (*This spake he of the Spirit, which they that beleeued in him, should receiue: for the [q] holy Ghost was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet glorified.)

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, said, Of a trueth this is the *Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ: some said, But shall Christ come out of Galile?

42 *Saieth not the Scripture that the Christ shall come of the seede of Dauid, and out of the towne of Beth-lehem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissension among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man layd hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priests and Pharises, and they sayd vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, [r] Neuer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharises, Are ye also deceiued?

48 Doeth any of the [s] rulers, or of the Pharises, beleeue in him?

49 But this people, which know not the Law, are cursed.

AND Iesus went vnto the mount of Oliues.

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, & all the people came vnto him, and he sate downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharises brought vnto him a woman, taken in adultrie, and set her in the middes,

4 And sayd vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 * Now Moses in the Law commanded vs, that such should be stoned: what sayest thou therefore?

6 And this they said to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to * accuse him. But Iesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him, he lift himselfe vp, and said vnto them, * Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe he stouped downe, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being conuicted by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest vnto the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.

10 When Iesus had lift vp himselfe againe, and sawe no man, but the woman, he sayde vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She sayd, No man, Lord. And Iesus sayde, * Neither doe I condemne thee: goe and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I * am the light of the worlde: he that followeth me, shall not walke in darkenesse, but shall haue the † light of life.

13 The Pharises therefore sayde vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not † true.

14 * Iesus answered, and said vnto them, * Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tell [d] whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: * I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Law, * that the testimonie of two men is true.

18 I am [e] one that beare witnesse of my selfe, and the Father that sent me, beareth witnesse of me.

19 Then said they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father. If ye had known me, ye should haue known my Father also.

20 These words spake Iesus in the † treasurie, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then sayde Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your [h] sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then sayde the Iewes, Will he kill himselfe, because he saith, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, [i] Ye are from beneath: I am from aboue: ye are of this world: I am not of this world.

24 I sayd therefore vnto you, That ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye beleeue that I am hee, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then saide they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus saide vnto them, [j] Euen the same thing that I sayd vnto you [k] from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent mee, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They vnderstood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then sayde Iesus vnto them, When ye haue [l] lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye [m] know that I am he, and that I doe nothing of my selfe, but as my father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 ¶ As he spake these things, many beleeued in him.

31 Then sayd Iesus to the Iewes which beleeued in him, If ye continue in my word, ye are verily my disciples, 32 And shall know the truth, and the truth * shall make you free.

33 They answered him, † We be the Abrahams seede, and were neuer bonde to any man: why sayest thou then, Ye shalbe made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, that whosoeuer committeth sinne, is the * seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free in deede.

CHAP. IX.

1 Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blinde men Christ giueth sight.

AND as Iesus passed by, hee sawe a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, *Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the workes of God should be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent mee, while it is b day: the night commeth, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, * I am the light of the world.

6 Assoone as hee had thus spoken, hee c spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anoynted the eyes of the blinde with the clay,

7 And sayd vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, d Sent) He went his way therefore and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when he was blinde, sayde, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some said, This hee: and others said, He is like him: but he himselfe saide, I am he.

10 Therefore they sayd vnto him, Howe were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and sayd, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anoynted mine eyes, and sayde vnto mee, Goe to the poole of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed and receiued sight.

12 Then they sayd vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharises him that was once blind.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, how he had receiued sight. And he sayd vnto them, Hee layd clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then sayde some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others sayde How can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a dissension among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because hee hath opened thine eyes? And he sayd, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom yee say was borne blinde? How doeth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, Wee know that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes hee nowe seeth, wee knowe not: or who hath opened his eyes, e can wee not tell: hee is olde ynough: aske him: he shall answere for himselfe.

cause they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had ordained already, that if any man did confesse that hee was the Christ, hee should bee excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore sayd his parents, He is old enough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that had bene blinde, and sayd vnto him, [e] Giue glory vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered, and said, [f] Whether he be a sinner or no, I can not tell: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

26 [h] Then said they to him againe, What did hee to thee? how opened hee thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue told you alreadie, and yee haue not heard it: wherefore would ye heare it againe? [i] will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, and saide, Be thou his disciple: we be [k] Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: but this man we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and said vnto them, Doubtles this is a maruellous thing, that ye [k] know not whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not [l] sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him heareth he.

32 Since the worlde began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he could haue done nothing.

34 They answered and sayd vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and dost thou teach vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had cast him out: and when he had found him, hee sayde vnto him, Dost thou beleeue in the Sonne of God?

36 He answered and sayde, Who is hee, Lord, that I might beleeue in him?

37 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then hee sayde, Lord, I beleeue, and [m] worshipped him.

39 And Iesus sayde, I am come into [n] iudgement into this worlde, that they which see not, might see: and that they [o] which see, might be made blinde.

40 And some of [p] the Pharises which were with him, heard these things, and sayd vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus sayde vnto them, If ye were blinde, [q] yee should not haue sinne: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sinne remayneth.

VErely, verely I say vnto you, He that entreth not in by the doore into the sheepefolde, but climeth vp another way, he is a theefe, and a robber.

2 But hee that goeth in by the doore, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voyce, and hee [a] calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he hath sent forth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe follow him: for they know his voyce.

5 And they will not follow a stranger, but they flee from him: for they knowe not the voyce of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstoode not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then sayde Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the doore of the sheepe.

8 All, [b] that euer came before mee, are theeues and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the doore: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saued, and shall [c] goe in and goe out, and find pasture.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good shepheard, and [d] know mine, and am knowen of mine.

15 [e] As the father [f] knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my sheepe.

16 [g] Other sheepe I haue also, which are not of this folde: them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voyce: and [r] there shall be one sheepefolde, and one shepheard.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 * Then the Iewes againe tooke vp stones, to stone him.

32 Iesus answered them, Many good workes haue I shewed you from my Father: for which of these workes doe ye stone me?

33 The Iewes answered him, saying, For the good worke we stone thee not, but for blasphemie, and that thou being a man, makest thy selfe God.

34 Iesus answered them, Is it not written in your Law, * I said, ye are l gods?

35 If he called them gods, vnto whom the word of God was giuen, and the Scripture cannot be broken, 36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the worlde, Thou blasphemest, because I saide, I am the Sonne of God?

37 If I doe not the workes of my Father, beleeue me not.

38 But if I doe, then though ye beleeue not me, yet beleeue the workes, that ye may know and beleeue, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Againe they went about to take him: but he escaped out of their hands, 40 And went againe beyond Iordan, into the place where Iohn first baptized, and there abode.

41 And many resorted vnto him, & sayd, Iohn did m no miracle: but all things that Iohn spake of this man, were true.

42 And many beleeued in him there.

CHAP. XI.

43 Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The high Priestes and Pharises gather a counsell against him. 50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

A Nd a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Mary, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that n Marie which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feete with her heare, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, he sayd, This sickenesse is not o vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 ¶ Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, sayd he to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples sayd vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to p stone thee, and goest thou thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not q twelue houres in the day? if a man walke in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after hee sayd vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I goe to make him vp.

12 Then sayd his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, he r shall be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the s naturall sleepe.

14 Then sayd Iesus vnto them plainely, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleeue: but let vs goe vnto him.

16 Then sayd Thomas (which is called t Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

17 ¶ Then came Iesus, and found that hee had lyen in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was neere vnto Ierusalem, about u fifteene furlongs off.)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when shee heard that Iesus was comming, went to meete him: but Marie sate still in the house.

21 Then sayd Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst beene here, my brother had not beene dead.

22 But now x I know also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus sayd vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha sayd vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus sayd vnto her, y I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleeueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whosoeuer liueth, and beleeueth in me, shall neuer die. Beleeuest thou this?

27 She sayd vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleeue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 ¶ And when she had so sayd, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

34 And sayd, Where haue ye layd him? They sayd vnto him, Lord, come and see.

35 And Iesus [i] wept.

36 Then sayd the Iewes, Behold, how he loued him.

37 And some of them sayd, Could not he, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also that this man should not haue died?

38 Iesus therefore againe groned in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layd vpon it.

39 Iesus sayd, Take yee away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already: for he hath been dead foure dayes.

40 Iesus sayd vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou wildest beleeue, thou shouldest see the [l] glory of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was layd. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and sayd, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I said it, that they may beleeue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As he had spoken these things, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come foorth.

44 Then he that was dead, came foorth, bounde hande and foote with bandes, and his face was bounde with a napkin. Iesus sayd vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 ¶ Then many of the Iewes which came to Marie, and had seene the things, which Iesus did, beleeued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharises, and told them what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the [m] high Priests, and the Pharises a counsell, and sayd, What shall we doe? For this man doth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleeue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the high Priest [n] that same yeere, sayd vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

50 Nor yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake he not of himselfe, but being the High Priest [o] that same yeere he prophefied that Iesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation only, but that he should gather together to one the children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together, to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence into a country neere to the wildernesse, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Passeouer was at hand, and many went out of the country vp to Ierusalem before the Passeouer, to [p] purifie themselues.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among themselues, as they stoode in the Temple, What thinke ye that he commeth not to the feast?

57 Nowe both the high Priests and the Pharises had giuen a commandement, that if any man knewe where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

1 Christ anointed Maries feet. 13 The affection of some towards him and the rage of others against him and Lazarus. 25 The contemptible of the crosse. 27 His prayer. 28 The answere of the Father. 32 His death & the fruit thereof. 36 He exhorteth to faith. 40 The blindnesse of some, and the infirmities of others.

THen [a] Iesus six dayes before the Passeouer, came to Bethania, where Lazarus was, which was dead, whom he had raysed from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sate at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Marie a pounde of ointment of spikenard very costly, and anointed Iesus [a] feete, and wiped his feete with her haire, and the house was filled with the sauour of the ointment.

4 Then sayde one of his disciples, euen Iudas Iscariot Simons sonne, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for [b] three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 Nowe he sayde this, not that he cared for the poore, but because he was a theefe, and [c] had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen.

7 Then sayd Iesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying she kept it.

8 For the poore alwayes ye haue with you, but me ye haue not alwayes.

9 Then much people of the Iewes knewe that he was there: and they came, not for Iesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 The high Priests therefore consulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also, 16 But his disciples vnderstood not these things at the first: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembred they, that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things vnto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, bare witnesse that he called Lazarus out of the grave, and raised him from the dead.

18 Therefore met him the people also, because they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 And the Pharises sayde among themselues, Perceiue ye how ye preuaile nothing? Beholde, the ‖ worlde goeth after him.

21 And they came to Philip, which was of Bethsaida in Galile, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Iesus.

22 Philip came and tolde Andrew: and againe Andrew and Philip tolde Iesus.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I haue both glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.

29 Then sayde the people that stood by and heard, that it was a thunder: others sayd, An Angell spake to him.

31 Nowe is the iudgement of this worlde, nowe shall the prince of this worlde bee cast out.

34 The people answered him, We haue heard out of the * Lawe, that the Christ liueth for euer: and how sayest thou, that the Sonne of man must be lift vp? who is this Sonne of man?

39 Therefore could they not beleeue, because that Esaias sayth againe, 43 * For they loued the • prayse of men, more then the prayse of God.

44 And Iesus cryed, and sayd, He that beleeueth in me, beleeueth not in me, but in him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I * am come a light into the worlde, that whosoeuer beleeueth in me, should not abide in darkenesse.

5 After that, he powred water into a bason, & began to wash the disciples feete, and to wipe them with the towell, wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who saith to him, Lord, doest thou wash my feete?

7 Iesus answered and saide vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter saide vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feete. Iesus answered him, If I ᵈ wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

11 For he knewe who should betray him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

21 When Iesus had said these things, he was ᵐ troubled in the spirite, and testified, and said, Verily, verily I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 ⁿ Then the disciples looked one on an other, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Iesus ᵒ bosome, whom Iesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that hee should aske who it was of whom he spake.

25 He then, as he leaned on Iesus breast, sayd vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall giue a sop, when I haue dipped it: and he wet a sop, and gaue it to Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the soppe, ᵖ Satan entred into him. Then sayd Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

30 Assoone then as he had receiued the soppe, he went immediatly out, and it was night.

22 Iudas (not Iscariot) sayde vnto him, Lorde, how is it that thou wilt shewe thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, If a man loue me, he will keepe my words: and my Father will loue him, and we will come vnto him, and dwell with him.

24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not my words: and the word which ye heare, is not mine, but the Father which sent me.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoeuer I haue said vnto you.

27 Peace I leaue with you, my peace I giue vnto you: not as the world giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye haue heard how I said vnto you, I go away, and come againe vnto you. If ye loued me, ye would reioyce, because I said, I go vnto the Father: for my Father is greater then I.

7 If ye had known me, ye should haue known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and haue seene him.

8 Philip said vnto him, Lord, shewe vs thy Father, and it sufficeth vs.

9 Iesus said vnto him, Haue I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seene me, hath seene my Father: howe then sayest thou, Shewe vs thy Father?

10 Beleuest thou not, that I am in the Father, & the Father is in me? the wordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my selfe: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the workes.

11 Beleue me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: at the least, beleue me for the very workes sake.

12 Verily, verily I say vnto you, he that beleeueth in me, the workes that I doe, shall he doe also, and greater then these shall he doe: for I goe vnto my Father.

13 And whatsoeuer ye aske in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.

14 If ye shall aske any thing in my Name, I will doe it.

15 If ye loue me, keepe my commandements.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall giue you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for euer, 17 Euen the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receiue, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him: for he dwelleth with you, and shalbe in you.

18 I will not leaue you comfortlesse: but I will come to you.

19 Yet a litle while, and the world shall see me no more: but ye shall see me: because I liue, ye shall liue also.

20 At that day shall ye know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandements, and keepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, shalbe loued of my Father: and I will loue him, and will shewe myne owne selfe to him.

22 Iudas said vnto him (not Iscariot), Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shewe thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, If any man loue me, he will keepe my wordes, and my Father will loue him, and we will come vnto him, and will dwell with him.

24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not my wordes, and the worde which ye heare is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoeuer I haue told you.

27 Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: not as the world giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye haue heard how I said vnto you, I goe away, and will come vnto you. If ye loued me, ye would verily reioyce, because I say, I goe vnto the Father: for my Father is greater then I.

29 And now haue I spoken vnto you, before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue.

30 Hereafter will I not speake many things vnto you: for the prince of this world commeth, and hath nought in me.

31 But it is that the world may knowe that I loue my Father: and as the Father hath commanded me, so I doe. Arise, let vs goe hence.

CHAP. XV.

6 The fruite of tribulation, & mutuall loue betweene Christ & his members vnder the parable of the vine.
18 Of their common afflictions and persecutions,
26 The office of the holy Ghost, and the Apostles.

I Am the true vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 Euery branch that beareth not fruite in me, he taketh away: and euery one that beareth fruite, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now are ye cleane through the word, which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Abide in me, and I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruite of it selfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine: ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruite: for without me can ye do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in me, and my wordes abide in you, aske what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruite, and be made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loued me, so haue I loued you: continue in my loue.

10 If ye shall keepe my Commandements, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers Commandements, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you that my ioy might remaine in you, and that your ioy might be full.

12 This is my Commandement, that ye loue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hath no man, when any man bestoweth his life for his friendes.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye doe whatsoeuer I command you.

15 Henceforth, call I you not seruants: for the seruant knoweth not what his Master doeth: but I haue called you friendes: for all things that I haue heard of my Father, haue I made knowen to you.

8 And when he is come, he will e reproue the world of ſinne, and of righteouſneſſe, and of iudgement:

12 I haue yet i many things to ſay vnto you, but ye cannot beare them now.

h These things are conteined in the doctrine of the Apoſtles which onely is ſufficiene.

13 Howbeit, when hee is come which is the Spirite of trueth, he will leade you into all trueth: for hee ſhall not ſpeake of himſelfe, but whatſoeuer he ſhall heare, ſhall hee ſpeake, and he will ſhew you the things k to come.

i As touching the ſpirituall kingdome of God: For the Apoſtles knewe not that, till after the reſurrection.

14 He ſhall glorifie me: for he ſhall receiue of mine, and ſhall ſhew it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore ſayd I, that he ſhall take of mine, and ſhew it vnto you.

16 l A little while, and ye ſhall not ſee me: and againe, a little while, and ye ſhall ſee me: for I goe to my Father.

k Mine abſence ſhal not be long: for I wil ſend you the holy Ghoſt, who ſhall remaine with you for euer.

17 Then ſaid ſome of his diſciples among themſelues, What is this that he ſayth vnto vs, A little while, and ye ſhall not ſee me, and againe, a little while, and ye ſhall ſee me, and, For I goe to my Father?

18 They ſayd therefore, What is this that he ſaith, A little while? we knowe not what he ſayth.

19 Now Ieſus knewe that they would aſke him, and ſayd vnto them, Do ye enquire among your ſelues, of that I ſayd, A little while, and ye ſhal not ſee me: and againe, a little while, and ye ſhall ſee me?

20 Verily, verily I ſay vnto you, that ye ſhall weepe and lament, and the world ſhall reioyce: & ye ſhal ſorow, but your ſorow ſhall be turned to ioy.

21 A woman when ſhee trauaileth, hath ſorow, becauſe her houre is come: but aſſoone as ſhe is deliuered of the childe, ſhe remembreth no more the anguiſh, for ioy that a man is borne into the world.

22 And ye now therefore are in ſorow: but I will ſee you m againe, and your hearts ſhall reioyce, and your ioy ſhal n no man take from you.

l I From death I paſſe to glory, and ſo will I endue you with mine heauenly vertue.

23 And in that day ſhall ye aſke me n nothing. * Verily, verily I ſay vnto you, whatſoeuer ye ſhal aſke the Father in my Name, he wil giue it you.

m By the power and vertue of the holy Ghoſt.

p In reſpect of that, that you ſhall obteine, if you aske in faith.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you in parables: but the time will come, when I shall no more speake to you in parables: but I shall shewe you plainely of the Father.

26 At that day shal ye aske in my Name, and I say not vnto you, that I will q pray vnto the Father for you.

27 For the Father himselfe loueth you, because ye haue loued me, * and haue beleeued that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, and came into the world: againe I leaue the world, and goe to the Father.

29 His disciples said vnto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainely, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should aske thee. By this we beleeue, that thou art come out from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do you beleeue now?

32 * Behold, the houre commeth, and is already come, that ye shall be scattered euery man into his owne, and shal leaue me alone: but I am not r alone: for the Father is with me.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that s in mee ye might haue peace: in the world ye shall haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue ouercome the world.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receiue the trueth.

THese things spake Jesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, and sayd, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee.

2 * As thou hast giuen him t power ouer all flesh, that he should giue eternall life to all u them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they know thee to be the onely very God, & whom thou hast sent, Jesus x Christ.

4 I haue y glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

5 And now glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: z thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoeuer thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the words which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, * and haue known surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleeued that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for a the world, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, & I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe them in thy Name, euen them whom thou hast giuen mee, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the b childe of perdition, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, & these things speake I in the world, that they might haue my ioy fulfilled in themselues.

14 I haue giuen them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are c not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepe them from euil.

16 They are not of the world, d as I am not of the world.

17 ‖ e Sanctifie them with thy trueth: thy word is trueth.

18 As thou didst send me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may bee f sanctified through the trueth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleeue in me, through their word, 21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in mee, and I in thee: euen that they may be also one in vs, that the g world may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gauest mee, I h haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one.

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfite in one, & that the world may know that thou hast sent mee, and hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.

24 * Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, be i with mee euen where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst mee before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knowen thee, but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen, that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued mee, may bee in them, and I in k them.

3 *Iudas then after he had receiued a band of men & officers of the high Priests, & of the Pharisees, came thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth and said vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Iesus sayd vnto them, I am he. Nowe Iudas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Assoone then as he had said vnto them, I am he, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them againe, Whom seeke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seeke me, let these go their way.

9 This was that the worde might be fulfilled which he spake, *Of them which thou gauest me, haue I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the high Priests seruant, and cut off his right eare. Nowe the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sword into the sheath: shal I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen me?

12 Then the band and the captaine, and the officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to *d Annas first (for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest *e that same yeere)

14 *And Caiaphas was he, that gaue counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ *Now Simon Peter followed Iesus and another disciple, and that disciple was knowen of the hie Priest: therefore he went in with Iesus vnto the hall of the hie Priest.

16 But Peter stood at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was knowen vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then sayde the mayde that kept the doore vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he sayd, I am not.

18 And the seruants and officers stoode there, which had made a fire of coales: for it was colde, and they warmed themselues. And Peter also stoode among them, and warmed himselfe.

19 ¶ The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake *openly to the worlde: I euer taught in the Synagogue and in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secret haue I sayd nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? aske them which heard me what I sayd vnto them: beholde, they know what I sayd.

22 When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stoode by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witnesse of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶ *Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.

25 *And Simon Peter stoode and warmed himselfe, and they sayde vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it, and sayd, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin, whose eare Peter smote off, sayd, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediatly the cocke crew.

28 ¶ *Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the common hall. Nowe it was morning, and they themselues went not into the common hall, lest they shoulde be *defiled, but that they might eate the Passeouer.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and sayd, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and sayde vnto him, If he were not an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then sayd Pilate vnto them, Take *h ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes sayd vnto him, It is not *i lawfull for vs to put any man to death.

32 It was that the word of Iesus *might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 *So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and sayd vnto him, Art thou the King of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation, and the high Priestes haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, *My kingdome is not of this *k worlde: if my kingdome were of this worlde, my seruants would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Iewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then sayd vnto him, Art thou a King then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the worlde, that I should beare witnes vnto the trueth: euery one that is of the trueth, heareth my voyce.

38 Pilate sayde vnto him, *What is trueth? And when he had sayd that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, and sayd vnto them, I find in him no cause at all.

39 *But you haue a *custome, that I should deliuer you one loose at the Passeouer: will yee then that I loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

40 *Then cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murtherer.

Matth.27.27. mar.15.16,17.

THen * Pilate tooke Iesus and scourged him.

a He thought to haue pacified the furie of the Iewes by some indifferent correction.

2 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And saide, Haile, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rodds.

4 Then Pilate went foorth againe, and said vnto them, Behold, I bring him foorth to you, that ye may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus foorth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, b Beholde the man.

b He spake in mockerie, because Christ called himselfe King.

6 Then when the hie Priestes and officers saw him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, Wee haue a lawe, and by our lawe hee ought to die, because hee made himselfe the c Sonne of God.

c Christ was in deede the Sonne of God, and therfore might iustly call himselfe so without breach of the Law: wherefore their coloured accusation was fully applied.

8 ¶ When Pilate then heard that word, he was more afraid,

9 And went againe into the common hal, and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answere.

10 Then said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto mee? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no d power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore hee that deliuered mee vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

d Hereby he sheweth him, that he ought not to abuse his office and authoritie.

12 From thenceforth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friend: for whosoeuer maketh himselfe a King, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate heard that word, hee brought Iesus foorth, and sate downe in the iudgement seate in a place called the e Pauement, and in Hebrewe, Gabbatha.

e A place somewhat high and raised vp.

14 And it was the preparation of the Passeouer, and about the f first houre: and hee sayde vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

f Which was mid-day.

15 But they cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate sayde vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The high Priests answered, Wee haue no King but Cesar.

16 Then deliuered hee him vnto them to be crucified. * And they tooke Iesus, and led him away.

Matth.27.32. mar 15.21. luke 23.26.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens skulles, which is called in Hebrewe, g Golgotha:

g Which was the place of execution.

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the middes.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nere to the citie: and it was written in h Hebrewe, Greeke, and Latine.

h Because all nations might vnderstand it.

21 Then sayde the high Priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that hee sayd, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the * souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure parts, to euery souldier a part, and his coate: and the coate was without seame, wouen from the toppe throughout.

Matth.27.35. marke 15.24. luke 23.34.

24 Therefore they sayde one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lottes for it, whose it shall be. This was that the i scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, * They parted my garments among them, and on my coate did cast lottes. So the souldiers did these things in deede.

27 Then sayd he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre, the disciple tooke her home vnto him.

k Or, stalked vpon an hyssope stalke.

l It may appeare that the crosse was not hie, seeing a man might reach Christs mouth with an hyssope stalke, which as appeareth, 1. King. 4.33. was the lowest among herbes, as the cedar was highest among trees.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vineger, he sayd, * It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the ghost.

m Mans saluation is perfected by the onely sacrifice of Christ, and all the ceremonies of the Law are ended.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the n Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an o hie day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

n Because the day of the Passeouer fell on the Sabbath day.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

o Which declareth that he was dead in deede, & he rose againe from death to life.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare p pearced his side and foorthwith came there out blood and water.

38 And after these things Ioseph of Arimathea, (who was a disciple of Iesus, but p secretly for feare of the Iewes) beseought Pilate that he might take downe the bodie of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. He came then and tooke Iesus body.

39 And there came also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) and brought of myrche and aloes mingled together about an hundreth pound.

40 Then tooke they the body of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the maner of the Iewes is to burie.

q This honourable burial was as a preparation and entry vnto the resurrection.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a newe sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet layd.

42 There then layde they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparation day, for the sepulchre was neere.

a She departed from home before day, and came thither about the sunne rising, Mar.16.2.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Iesus loued, and sayde vnto them, They haue taken away the Lorde out of the sepulchre, and we knowe not where they haue layde him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, but the other disciple did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And her stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe the linnen clothes lie, 14 When she had thus sayd, shee turned her selfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knewe not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? Shee supposing that hee had bene the gardiner, sayd vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast layd him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus sayth vnto her, Marie. Shee turned her selfe, and sayd vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus sayth vnto her, Touch me not: for I am not yet d ascended to my Father, but go to my brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your e God.

d Because she was too much addicted to the corporall presence, Christ teacheth her to lift vp her minde by faith into heauen, where onely after his Ascension he remaineth, and where we sit with him at the right hand of the father.

19 ¶ The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the doores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stood in the midst, and sayd to them, b Peace be vnto you.

g So that no man opened him the doores, but by his diuine power he caused them to open of their owne accord, as of Peter is read, Acts 5.19. and 12.10.

h Or, all prosperitie: which maner of greeting the Iewes vsed.

20 But when he had so sayde, hee shewed vnto him his handes, and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.

27 After, sayde he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see mine handes, & put forth thine hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithlesse, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and sayde vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus sayde vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene mee, thou beleeuest: blessed are they that haue l not seene, and haue beleeued.

l Because she was too much addicted to the corporall presence, Christ teacheth her to lift vp her minde by faith into heauen, where onely after his Ascension he remaineth, and where we sit with him at the right hand of the father.

30 ¶ And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, that yee might beleeue, that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleeuing yee might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commandeth Peter earnestly to feede his sheepe. 18 He foreweameth him of his death. 25 Of Christs many fold miracles.

AFter these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

Or, lake of Genesareth.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter sayd vnto them, I goe a fishing. They sayd vnto him, We also will goe with thee. They went their way, and entred into a ship straight way, & that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was nowe come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheles the disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

Or, children.

5 Iesus then sayd vnto them, Sirs haue ye any meate? They answered him, No.

6 Then he sayd vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. So they [a] cast out and they were not able at all to draw it, for the multitude of fishes.

a Albeit they knew him not, yet they followed his counsell, because they had all night taken paines in vaine.

7 Therefore sayd the disciple whom Iesus loued vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lorde, he girded his [b] coate to him (for hee was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

b It was some linnen garment, which fishers vsed to weare, which being trussed vnto him, couered his neither parts, and also letted not his swimming.

8 But the other disciples came by ship (for they were not farre from land, but as it were two hundreth cubites) and they drewe the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to lande, they saw hote coales, and fishe layde thereon and bread.

10 Iesus sayd vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon peter stepped foorth and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundreth, fiftie and three: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus sayd vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knew that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, [c] louest thou me more then these? He sayd vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee sayde vnto him, Feede my lambes.

16 He said to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sory because hee sayd to him the third time, Louest thou me: and sayde vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus sayde vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 He sayde vnto him the [d] third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sory because hee sayd to him the third time, Louest thou me: and sayde vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus sayde vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Certily, verily I say vnto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretch foorth thine handes, and another shall [e] gird thee, and lead thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And this spake he, signifying by what death hee should glorifie God. And when he had sayde this, he sayd to him, Followe me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and saw the disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also [f] leaned on his breast at supper, and had sayde, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore sawe him, hee said to Iesus, Lord, what shal this man doe?

22 Iesus sayd vnto him, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this disciple should not die. Yet Iesus sayd not to him, He shall not die: but if I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things and wrote these things, and we know that his testimonie is true.

25 [g] Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, I suppose the worlde could not conteine the bookes that should be written. Amen.

c The Minister cannot wel teach his congregation, except hee loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feede not the flocke.

f But God would not charge vs with so great an heape: seeing therefore that we haue so much as is necessarie, we ought to content our selues and prayse his mercy

The Actes of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGVMENT.

CHrist, after his ascension, performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely mind full of his Church, but would bee the head and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mighty power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the worlde resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the worlde with the sound of his Gospell. And here in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, we may plainely perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppresse and ouerthrowe the Gospell: hee raiseth conspiracies, tumults, commocions, persecutions, slanders, and all kinde of cruelty. Againe wee shall here behold the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to follow their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet nevertheleſſe God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings and tentations of his to a good issue, giving them at it were, in sorow, joy: in bonds freedome: in prison, deliverance: in trouble, quietnesse: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercy of God. Of the grace and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christes flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall poynts of our faith: so that this onely historie in a maner may bee sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

CHAP. I.

7 The words of Christ and his Angels to the Apostles. 9 His ascension. 14 Wherein the Apostles are occupied till the holy Ghost be sent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

THE former treatise, O Theophilus, of al that Iesus began to a doe, and teach,

2 Untill the day, that hee was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghost, had giuen b commandements vnto the c Apostles, whom hee had chosen:

3 To whom also hee presented himselfe alive after that he had suffered, by many infallible tokens, being seene of them by the space of fourtie dayes, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the d kingdome of God.

4 And when hee had e gathered them together, he commanded them that they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the father, f which (sayd he) ye haue heard of me.

5 g For Iohn in deed baptized with water, but ye shall bee baptized with the h holy Ghost within these fewe dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou i at this time restore the kingdome to Israel?

7 And he said vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the k times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But ye shall receiue power of the holy Ghost, when he shall come on you: and ye shall be l witnesses vnto mee both in Ierusalem, and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the m vttermost part of the earth.

9 n And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was o taken vp: for a cloud tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as hee went, behold, p two men stood by them in white apparell, 11 Which also sayd, Yee men of Galile, why stand yee q gazing into heauen? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall r so come, as ye haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Olives, which is neere to Ierusalem, containing a s Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper chamber, where abode both Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartlemew and Matthewe, Iames the sonne of Alphæus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas Iames brother.

14 These all continued with one t accord in u prayer and supplication with the x women, and Mary the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in those dayes Peter stood vp in the middes of the disciples, and sayde, (nowe the number of y names that were in one place, were about an hundreth and twentie)

18 Ye therefore hath purchased a field with the b reward of iniquitie: and when he had thrown downe himselfe headlong, hee brast asunder in the mids, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is knowen vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, in so much that that field is called in their owne language, Aceldama, that is, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, c Let his habitation be voyd, and let no man dwell therein: d also, Let another take his charge.

CHAP. II.

3 The Apostles hauing receiued the holy Ghost, make their hearers astonished. 14 Whom Peter had stopped the mouthes of the mockers, beeseecheth by the visible graces of the holy Spirite that Christ is come. 41 Hee baptiseth a great number that were conuerted. 42 The godly exercise, charitie, and diuers vertues of the faithfull.

a The holy Ghost was sent when much people was assembled in Ierusalem, at the feast, Exo.23.16. Leuit.23.16. Deut.16.9. because the thing might not onely be knowen there, but also through the world.

d This signe agreeth with the thing which is signified thereby.
e To declare the vertue and force that should be in them.
‖Or, in speeche.
f How the Apostles spake diuers languages.
g For they could speake all languages, so that they were able to speake to euery man in his owne language.
‖Or, those that dwelt at Rome.
h Whose ancestors were not of the Iewish natiō, but were conuerted to the Iewes religion, which their children did professe.
i That is, such as were conuerted to the Iewish religion, which were before Paynims & idolaters.
k There is no marke of God so excellent, which the wicked scoffers doe not deride.
‖Or, sweete.

AND when the a day of Pentecost was come, they were b all with one accord in one place.
2 And c suddenly there came a sound from heauen, as of a rushing and mightie d winde, and it filled al the house where they sate.
3 And there appeared vnto them clouen e tongues, like d fire, and it sate vpon each of them.
4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speake with other tongues, as the spirit gaue them ‖ vtterance.
5 And there were f dwelling at Ierusalem Iewes, men that feared God, of euery nation vnder heauen.
6 Now when this was g noised, the multitude came together, and were astonied, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.
7 And they wondered all, and marueil-led, saying among themselues, Beholde, are not all these which speake, of Galilee?
8 Howe then heare wee euery man our owne h language, wherein we were borne?
9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elāmites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Iudea, and of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia,
10 And of Phrygia, and Pamphylia, of Egypt, and of the parts of Lybia, which is beside Cyrene, and ‖ strangers of Rome, and k Iewes, and ‖ Proselytes, 11 Cretes, and Arabians: we heard them speake in our owne tongues the wonderfull works of God.
12 They were all then amazed, and doubted, saying one to another, What may this be?
13 And others k mocked, and said, They are full of new wine.
14 ¶ But Peter standing with the elē-uen, lift vp his voyce, and sath vnto them, Ye men of Iudea, and ye all that inhabite Ieru-salem, be this knowen vnto you, and hearken vnto my words.
15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, since it is but the third houre of the day.
16 But this is that, which was spoken
by the l Prophet * Ioel,
17 And it shall be in the last dayes, saieth
God, I will powre out of my spirit vpon all * flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shall prophesie, and your yong men shall see visions, and your * olde men shall dreame dreames.
18 And on my seruants, and on mine handmaides I will * powre out of my Spi-rite in those dayes, and they shall prophe-sie.
19 And I will shewe wonders in heauen aboue, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood, and fire, and the vapour of smoke.
20 * The ‖ Sunne shall bee turned into darknesse, and the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.
21 And it shall be, * that whosoeuer shall call on the ‖ Name of the Lord, shall bee saued.
22 Yee men of Israel, heare these words,
Iesus of Nazaret, a man approoued of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as yee your selues also know:
23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of m the wicked, being deliuered by the n de-terminate counsell, and ‖ foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:
24 Whom God hath raised vp, and loosed the o sorowes of death, because it was vnpossible that he should be holden of it.
25 For Dauid sayeth concerning him, * I beheld the Lord alwayes before me: for hee is at my * right hand, that I should not bee shaken.
26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreouer also my flesh shall rest in * hope, 27 Because thou wilt not leaue my ‖ soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine holy one to ‖ see corruption.
28 Thou hast shewed mee the p wayes of life, and shalt make me full of ioy with thy countenance.
29 Men & brethren, I may boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarke Dauid, * that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.
30 Therefore, seeing he was a * Prophet, and knewe that God had * sworne with an othe to him, that of the fruite of his loynes hee would raise vp Christ concerning the flesh to set him vpon his throne, 31 Hee knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that * his ‖ soule should not be left in * graue, neither his flesh should ‖ see corruption.
32 This Iesus hath God raised vp, wher-of we all are witnesses.

q He teacheth this remedy to auoyd the wrath and threatnings of God, and to obtaine saluation.
r God caused their wickednesse to set foorth his glory contrary to their mindes.

b By the vertue and power.
c He obtained of his father power to accomplish the promise which he made to his Apostles, as touching the holy Ghost to be sent vnto them, *Psal.*110.1.
d And therefore Christ doeth farre excell Dauid.
e Christ is the onely redeemer vnto whom all powers are subiect and must obey.
f That is, hath appointed as king and ruler: and note, that in all this Sermon Peter speaketh of Christs manhood, as he was dead, buried, risen, and ascended to heauen.
g He speaketh not here of the forme of baptisme, but teacheth that the whole effect therof consisteth in Iesus Christ.
h The visible signes.
i Christ is promised both to the Iewes, and Gentiles, but the Iewes haue the first place.
‖ Or, protested before God, ‖ Or, perfect,

33 Since then that he by the b right hand of God hath bene exalted, and hath c receiued of his Father the promise of the holy Ghost, hee hath shed foorth this which ye now see and heare.
34 For Dauid is not ascended vnto heauen, but he sayth, * The Lorde sayde to my Lord, d Sit at my right hand, 35 Vntill I e make thine enemies thy footestoole.
36 Therefore, let all the house of Israel knowe for a surette, that God hath f made him both Lord, and Christ, this Iesus, whom ye haue crucified.
37 Now when they heard it, they were pricked in their hearts, and sayd vnto Peter and the other Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we doe?
38 Then Peter sayd vnto them, Amend your liues, and g bee baptized euery one of you in the name of Iesus Christ for the remission of sinnes: and yee shall receiue the h gift of the holy Ghost.
39 For the promise i is made vnto you, and to your children, and to all that are afarre off, euen as many as the Lorde our God shall call.
40 And with many other words he ‖ besought, and exhorted them, saying, Saue your selues from this froward generation.
41 Then they that gladly receiued his worde, were baptized: and the same day, there were added to the Church about three thousand ‖ soules.
42 And they continued in the Apostles doctrine, and k fellowship, and l breaking of bread, and prayers.
43 ¶ And feare came vpon euery soule: and many wonders and signes were done by the Apostles.
44 And all that beleeued, were in one place, and had all things m common.
45 And they solde their possessions and n goods, and parted them to all men, as euery one had neede.
46 And they continued dayly with one accord in the Temple, * and o breaking bread ‖ at home, did eate their meate together with gladnesse and singlenesse of heart, 47 Praysing God, and hau fauour with all the people: and the Lorde added to the Church p from day to day, such as should be saued.

2 And a certaine man which was a cripple from his mothers wombe, was caried, whome they layde dayly at the gate of the Temple called Beautifull, to aske q almes of them that entred into the Temple.
3 Who seeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, desired to receiue an almes.
4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with John, sayd, Looke on vs.
5 And he gaue heed vnto them, trusting to receiue some thing of them.
6 Then sayd Peter, Siluer and golde haue I none, but such as I r haue, that giue I thee: In the s Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, rise vp, and walke.
7 And hee tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his feete and ankle bones receiued strength.
8 And he leaped vp, stood, and walked, and entred with them into the Temple, walking and leaping, and praysing God.
9 And all the people saw him walke, and praysing God,
10 And they knew him, that it was hee which sate for the almes at the Beautifull gate of the Temple: and they were amazed, and sore astonied at that which was come vnto him.
11 ¶ And as the creeple which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran amazed vnto them in the porch which is called Solomons.
12 So when Peter sawe it, hee answered vnto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marualle ye at this? or why looke ye so stedfastly on vs, as though by our owne t power or godlinesse, wee had made this man goe?
13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, * the God of our Fathers hath glorified his Sonne Iesus, whome yee betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when hee had iudged him to bee deliuered.
14 * But ye denied the holy one and the iust, and desired a u murtherer to bee giuen you, 15 And killed the Lorde of life, whome God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.
16 And his x Name hath made this man sound, whome yee see, and knowe, through faith in * his ‖ Name: and the faith which is by him, hath giuen to him this disposition of his whole body in the presence of you all.
17 And nowe, brethren, I knowe that through y ignorance yee did it, as did also your z gouernours.
18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his Prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath thus fulfilled.
19 Amend your liues therefore, and turne, that your sinnes may be put away, when the time of refreshing a shall come from the presence of the Lord.
20 And he shal send Iesus Christ, which before was preached vnto you.

CHAP. IIII.

3 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of priſon preach the Goſpel boldly. 10 They confeſſe plainely the Name of Chriſt. 16 They are commanded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good ſucceſſe of the Goſpel. 32 The increaſe, vnitie, and charitie of the Church.

AND as they ſpake vnto the people, the Prieſts and the a Captaine of the temple, and the Sadducees came vpon them,

2 Taking it grieuously that they taught the people, and preached in Ieſus Name the b reſurrection from the dead.

3 And they layde handes on them, and put them in holde, vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the worde beleeued, and the number of the men was about c fiue thouſand.

5 ¶ And it came to paſſe on the morow, that their rulers, and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ieruſalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Prieſt, & Caiaphas, and Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kinred of the hie Prieſts.

7 And when they had ſet them before them, they aſked, By what power, or d in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the e holy Ghoſt, ſayd vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and Elders of Iſrael,

9 Foraſmuch as wee this day are examined of the f good deede done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Be it knowen vnto you all, and to all the people of Iſrael, that by the Name of Ieſus Chriſt of Nazaret, whome ye haue crucified, whome God rayſed againe from the dead, euen by him doeth this man ſtand here before you whole.

11 * This is the ſtone caſt aſide of you g builders, which is become the head of the h corner.

12 Neither is there ſaluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name i vnder heauen, whereby wee muſt be ſaued.

13 Now when they ſawe the boldneſſe of Peter and Iohn, and vnderſtood that they were vnlearned men, and without knowledge, they marueiled, and knewe them, that they had bene with Ieſus:

14 And beholding alſo the man which was healed ſtanding among them, they had nothing to ſay againſt it.

15 Then they commaunded them to goe aſide out of the Councell, and k conferred among themſelues, 16 Saying, What ſhall we doe to theſe men? For ſurely a manifeſt ſigne is done by them, and it is openly knowen to all them that dwell in Ieruſalem: and wee cannot denie it.

17 But that it bee noyſed no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge them that they ſpeake henceforth to no man in this l Name.

18 So they called them, and commaunded them, that in m no wiſe they ſhoulde ſpeake or teach in the name of Ieſus.

19 But Peter and Iohn anſwered vnto them, and ſayd, Whether it bee right in the ſight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For we cannot but ſpeake the things which we haue n ſeene and heard.

21 So they * threatned them, and let them goe, and found nothing how to punish them, becauſe of the people: for all men prayſed God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboue fourtie yeere olde, on whom this miracle of healing was ſhewed.

23 Then aſſoone as they were let goe, they came to their p fellowes, and ſhewed all that the hie Prieſtes and Elders had ſayde vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accord, and ſayd, O Lord, thou art the God which haſt made the heauen and the earth, the ſea, and all things that are in them.

25 Which q by the mouth of thy ſeruant Dauid haſt ſayd, * Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

b Who moued thy heart to sell thy possession? whereas thou turnest part to another vse, as if God did not see thy dissimulation.

c His sinne therfore was so much greater in that he committed it willingly.

d Then no man was compelled to sell his possessions, nor to put his money to the common vse.

e Because & God so disposed it.

f And to mocke him as if he should not haue knowen your craftie fetch, which declared that when men do any thing of an euill conscience, they do not onely pronounce the sentence of damnation vpon themselues, but also prouoke the wrath of God, because they doe prouoke, as it were purposly, whether God be righteous and almightie.

BUt a certaine man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And [a] kept away part of the price, his wife also being of counsel, and brought a certaine part, and laid it downe at the Apostles feete.

3 Then sayd Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldest lie vnto the holy [b] Ghost, & keepe away part of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, [c] appertained it not vnto thee? and after it was sold, was it not in thine owne [d] power? howe is it that thou hast conceiued this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Now whē Ananias heard these words, he fell downe, and gaue vp the ghost. Then great feare came on al them that heard these things.

6 And the yong men rose vp, and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it [e] came to passe about the space of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter said vnto her, Tell me, sold ye the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue yee agreed together, to [f] tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feete of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall cary thee out.

10 Then fell she downe straightway at his feete, & yeelded vp the ghost: & the yong men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on al the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the handes of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the other [a] durst no man ioyne himselfe to them: neuertheless the people [b] magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that beleeued in the Lord, both of men and women, grewe more and more)

15 In so much that they brought the sicke into the streetes, and laid them on beds, and couches, that at the least way the shadow of Peter, when hee came by, might shadowe some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, and them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 ¶ Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the [a] Sadducees) and were full of [b] indignation, 18 And layd handes on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lorde by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and sayd, 20 Goe your way and stand in the Temple, and speake to the people all the wordes of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Councill together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, & found them not in the prison, they returned and tolde it, 23 Saying, Certainely wee founde the prison shut as sure as was possible, and the keepers [a] standing without before the doores: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and shewed them, saying, Beholde, the men that ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they should haue bene stoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Councill, and the chiefe Priest asked them, s That is, Christ.

t This [illegible] was about thirtie yeres before him, of whom Iosephus mentioneth lib. 20. de Antiq. chap.4. that was after the death of Herod the great, when Archelaus his sonne was at Rome at what time Iudea was full of insurrections: so that it is not sure to giue credite to Eusebius in this point.
u Of him maketh mention Iosephus, li.18. where he speaketh of Iudas of Galile, Luke 2.1.
x He grounded vpon good principles, but he doubteth of the cause, neither dare affirme whether it be good or bad: wherein appeareth he was but a worldling.

28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you, that ye should not teach in this Name? and behold, ye haue filled o Ierusalem with your doctrine, and ye would bring this mans p blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and sayd, We ought rather to obey God then q men.

30 The r God of our Fathers hath raised vp Iesus, whom ye slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to be a prince and a s Sauiour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiuenesse of sinnes.

32 And we are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whom God hath giuen to them that obey t him.

33 Nowe when they heard it, they were [illegible] for anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there vp in the Council a certaine Pharisie named Gamaliel, a doctor of the lawe, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a litle space, 35 And sayd vnto them, Men of Israel, take heede to your selues, what ye intend to doe touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp u Theudas boasting himselfe, to whom resorted a number of men, about foure hundreth, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man, rose vp x Iudas of Galile, in the dayes of the tribute, and drew away much people after him: he also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And nowe I say vnto you, Refraine your selues from these men, & let them alone: for if this counsell, or this worke be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it bee of x God, ye cannot destroy it, lest ye be found euē fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commanded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, and let them goe.

41 So they departed from the Councill, reioycing that they were counted worthy to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And daily in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach, and preach Iesus Christ.

3 Seuen Deacons are ordained in the Church, 8 The graces and miracles of Steuen, whom they accuse of falsely.

AND in those dayes, as the number of the disciples grew, there arose a murmuring of the a Grecians towarde the Hebrues, because their widowes were b neglected in the daily ministring.

2 Then the twelue called the multitude of the disciples together, and sayd, It is not meete that we should leaue the word of God to serue the c tables.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke ye out among you seuen men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisedome, which we may appoint to this businesse.

4 And we will giue our selues continually to prayer, and to the ministration of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Steuen a man full of d faith and of the holy Ghost, & e Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a f Proselite of Antiochia.

6 Which they set before the Apostles, and they prayed, and g laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, & the number of y disciples was multiplied in Ierusalem greatly, and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the h faith.

8 Now Steuen ful of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the i Synagogue, which are called Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with Steuen.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisedome, and the Spirit by the which he spake.

11 Then they k suborned men, which said, Wee haue heard him speake blasphemous words against Moses, and God.

12 Thus they mooued the people and the Elders, and the Scribes: and running vpon him, caught him, and brought him to the Councill, 13 And set forth false witnesses, which sayde, This man ceaseth not to speake blasphemous words against this holy place, and the Law.

14 For we haue heard him say, that l this Iesus of Nazaret shal destroy this place, and shall change the ordinances, which Moses gaue vs.

4 Then came hee out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran. And after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this land, wherein ye now dwell,

5 And he gaue him none inheritance in it, no, not the breadth of a foote: yet he promised that he would giue it to him for a possession, and to his seede after him, when as yet he had no childe.

23 Now when he was full fourty yere old, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel.

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

31 And when Moses saw it he wondered at the sight: and as he drew neere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying, 32 I am the l God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold it.

42 Then God turned himselfe away, and * gaue them vp to serue the ‡ host of heauen, as it is written in the booke of the Prophets, *c O house of Israel, haue yee offered to me slaine beasts and sacrifices by the space of fortie yeres in the wildernesse?

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of ‖ witnesse in the wildernesse, as he had appointed, speaking vnto * Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seene.

AND Saul consented to his death, and at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, & they were al scattered abroad through the regions of Iudea and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, ‖ carried Stephen among them, ‖ to be buried, and made great ‖ lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, and entred into euery house, and drewe out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 ¶ Then came Philip into the citie ‖ of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing, and seeing the miracles which hee did.

7 For vncleane spirites crying with a loud voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a certaine man called Simon, which vsed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, That he himselfe was some great man.

10 To whom they ‖ gaue heed from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great ‖ power of God.

11 And they gaue heed vnto him, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But assoone as they beleeued Philip, which preached the things that concerned the kingdom of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe ‖ beleeued also: and was baptized, and continued with Philip, & wondred, when hee saw the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Now when ‖ the Apostles which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the ‖ holy Ghost.

h They had onely receiued the common grace of adoption and regeneration, which are offred to all the faithful in baptisme, & as yet had not receiued the gift to speake in diuers languages & to doe miracles.

17 Then layd they their handes on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon sawe, that through laying on of the Apostles handes the holy Ghost was giuen, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Giue mee also this power, that on whomsoeuer I lay the handes, hee may receiue the holy Ghost.

20 Then sayd Peter vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may bee obtayned with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor [i] fellowship in this businesse: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 [k] Repent therefore of this thy wickednesse, and pray God, that if it bee [l] possible, the thought of thine heart may bee forgiuen thee.

23 For I see that thou art [m] in the gall of [n] bitternesse, and in the bond of iniquitie.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, Pray ye to the Lord for mee, that none of these things which ye haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 ¶ So they, when they had testified, and preached the worde of the Lord, returned to Ierusalem, and preached the Gospell in many townes of the Samaritanes.

26 Then the Angel of the Lorde spake vnto Philippe, saying, Arise and goe toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe from Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is [o] waste.

27 And he arose, & went on: and behold, a certaine [o] Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe Gouernour, who had the rule of al her treasure, and came to Ierusalem to worship:

28 And as he returned sitting in his charet, he read Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit sayde vnto Philip, Go neere & ioyne thy selfe to yonder charet.

30 And Philip ranne thither, and heard him reade the Prophet Esaias, & sayd, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he sayde, How can I, except I had a guide? And he desired Philip, that he would come vp and sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which he read, was this, [p] He was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe dumme before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 [q] In his humilitie his [r] iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shall declare [r] his generation? for his life is taken from the [s] earth.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philip, and sayd, I pray thee of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip [t] opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eunuch said, See, here is water: what doeth let me to be baptized?

37 And Philip sayd vnto him, If thou beleeuest with [u] all thine heart, thou mayest. Then he answered, and said, I beleeue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then he commanded the charet to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And assoone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lorde caught away Philip, that the Eunuch [x] sawe him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philip [y] was found at [z] Azotus, and he walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

4 And hee fell to the earth, and heard a voyce, saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he sayde, Who art thou, Lorde? And the Lord sayd, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against [d] pickes.

12 (And her sawe in a vision a man named Ananias comming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that her might receiue his sight.)

13 Then Ananias answered, Lorde, I haue heard by many of this man, how much euill her hath done to thy Saintes at Ierusalem.

14 Moreouer here her hath authoritie of the hie Priestes, to binde all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord sayd vnto him, go thy way: for he is a [h] chosen vessell vnto mee, to [i] beare my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shewe him, how many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his handes on him, and sayd, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent mee (euen Iesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy sight, and bee filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had bene scales, and suddenly her receiued sight, and arose, and was baptised.

19 And receiued meate, and was strengthened. So was Saul certaine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that hee was the Sonne of God, 21 So that all that heard him, were amased, and sayde, Is not this hee, that destroyed them which called on this Name in Ierusalem, and came hither for that intent, that hee should bring them bounde vnto the hie Priestes?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, [k] confirming that this was the Christ.

23 And after [l] that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

24 But their laying awaite was knowen of Saul: now they [m] watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, he assayed to ioyne himselfe with the disciples: but they were all afraide of him, and beleeued not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, [n] brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, howe he had seene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken vnto him, and how hee had spoken boldly at Damascus in the name of Iesus.

28 And he [o] was conuersant with [p] them at Ierusalem, 29 And spake boldly [p] in the Name of the Lorde Iesus, and spake and disputed with the [p] Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him foorth to [q] Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the palsie.

34 Then sayd Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and [||] make vp thy bed. And he arose immediatly.

35 And [r] all that dwelt at Lydda, and [s] Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa, a certaine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called [t] Dorcas) shee was [||] full of good workes and almes which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and dyed: and when they had [u] washed her, they layd her in an vpper chamber.

38 Now forasmuch as Lydda was neere to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that hee would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose [x] and came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into the vpper chamber, where all [y] widowes stoode by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all foorth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the bodie, and sayd, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, sate vp.

41 Then he gaue her the hand and lift her vp, and called the [z] Saintes and widowes, and restored her aliue.

42 And it was knowen throughout all Ioppa, and many beleeued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that hee tarried many dayes in Ioppa with one Simon a [||] tanner.

5 Now therefore sende men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, hee called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morow as they went on their iourney, and drew neere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the [c] sixt houre.

10 Then waxed he an hungred, & would haue eaten: but while they made some ching ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And he saw heauen opened, & a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, & was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were [d] all maner of foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, & foules of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter, kill, and eate.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time, The things that God hath [e] purified, [f] pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thrise: and the vessell was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which hee had seene, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit sayd vnto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, and [g] doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter went down to the men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayd, Behold, I am he whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they sayd, Cornelius the captain, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

23 Then called [‖] he them in, and lodged them, and the next day, Peter went foorth with them, and certaine brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feete, and [h] worshipped him.

26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my selfe am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye know that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Iewe, to company or come vnto one of an other nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man [‖] polluted, or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue yee sent for me?

30 Then Cornelius sayd, Foure dayes agoe about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And sayde, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the Sea side) who when hee commeth, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediatly, and thou hast well done to come. Now therefore are wee all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and sayd, Of a truth I perceiue, that [*] God is no accepter of persons.

4 Peter sheweth the cause wherefore he went to the Gentiles. 18 The Church approueth it. 21 The Church increaseth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia. 28 Agabus prophesieth dearth to come, 29 and the remedie.

NOw the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard that the Gentiles had also receiued the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they of the circumcision ª contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to ᵇ them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I saw this vision, A certaine vessel comming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

6 Toward the which, when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then behold, immediatly there were three men already come vnto ỹ house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto me, that I should goe with them without doubting: moreouer these fiue brethren came with me, and we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs how he had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter, 14 Ore shall speake wordes vnto thee, wherebi both thou and all thine house shall be saued.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, ª euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembred the worde of the Lord, how hee sayde, ª Iohn baptized with water, but ye shalbe ᵇ baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gaue them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when we beleeued in the Lord Iesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God?

18 When they heard these things, ª they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles graunted ᵇ repentance vnto life.

19 ¶ And they which were ª scattered abroade because of the ‖affliction that arose about Steuen, walked throughout till they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the worde to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the ᶜ Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the ª hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number beleeued and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Ierusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should goe vnto ᵇ Antiochia.

23 Who when hee was come ª had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would ‖cleaue vnto the Lord.

24 For hee was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people ioyned themselues vnto the Lord.

25 ¶ Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when hee had found him, hee brought him vnto Antiochia, and it came to passe, that a whole yeere they were conuersant with the Church, and taught much people, in so much, that the Disciples were first called ᶜ Christians in Antiochia.

27 In those dayes also came Prophets from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stoode vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the ᵇ spirite, that there should be great famine throughout all the world, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples euery man according to his abilitie, ‖ purposed to send succour vnto ỹ brethren which dwelt in Iudea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the handes of Barnabas and Saul.

a Who was called Agrippa the sonne of Aristobulus: he was nephewe vnto Herode the great, and brother of Herodias.

2 And a For they could not yet comprehend this secret which was hid from the Angels themselues, euen from the creation of the world, Ephes 3.8,9. Col.1,26.

b He purgeth his fact before the Church.

b There was an other so named which was the sonne of Alpheus.

c It came then of no zeale nor religion, but only to flatter the people.

d The number being sixteene was diuided by foures to keepe diuers wardes,

2 And he killed Iames the [b] brother of Iohn with the sword.

3 And when hee saw that it [c] pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further to take Peter also (then were the dayes of vnleauened bread.)

4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him, to [d] foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passeouer to bring him forth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betweene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.

Chap.5.19. 7 [a] And beholde, the Angel of the Lorde came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.

e Reade Mark. 6.9. 8 And the Angel sayde vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and binde on thy [e] sandales. And so he did. Then hee sayde vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe mee.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knewe not that it was true, which was done by the Angel, but thought he had seene a vision.

10 Now when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate, that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angel, departed from him.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to himselfe, he sayd, Nowe I knowe for a trueth, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the [f] waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

f For they thought that Herode would haue put him to death, as he had purposed, 12 And as hee considered the thing, hee came to the house of Marie, the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when shee knewe Peters voyce, she opened not the entry doore for gladnesse, but ranne in, and tolde howe Peter stoode before the entrie.

15 But they sayd vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet shee affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then sayde they, It is his [g] Angel.

g For they did know by Gods word, that Angels were appointed to defend the faithfull, and also in those dayes they were accustomed to see such sights.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and sawe him, they were astonied.

17 And hee beckened vnto them with the hand, to holde their peace, and tolde them howe the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he sayd, Goe shew these things vnto Iames and to the brethren: and he departed and went into [h] another place.

h Which was (as I suppose) by reason of the persecution.

18 ¶ Nowe assone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded them to bee led to be punished. And hee went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herod intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and [i] perswaded Blastus the kings chamberlaine, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kings land.

i Both by flattering words, and also by bribery.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode arayed himselfe in royall apparell, and sate on the iudgement seate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voyce of God and not of man.

23 But immediatly the Angel of the Lord smote him, because hee [k] gaue not glory vnto God, so that he was eaten [l] of wormes, and gaue vp the ghost.

k Which hee should haue done if he had punished the flatterers, of whose vanitie he complained, when he was a dying, as Iosephus writeth.

l The vilenesse of the punishment declareth how God detesteth pride, and tyrannie: his grandfather also was eaten of lice.

24 And the word of God [m] grewe, and multiplied.

m The more that tyrantes goe about to suppresse Gods worde, the more doeth it increase.

25 So Barnabas & Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their [n] office, and tooke with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

n Which was to distribute the almes sent from Antiochia, Chap.11.29.

2 Paul and Barnabas are called to preach among the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer. 13 The departure of Marke. 14 Paul preacheth at Antiochia. 42 The fruit of the Gentiles. 46 The Iewes reiected. 48 They that are ordeined to life, beleeue. 52 The fruite of faith.

THere were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine Prophets and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and [a] Manahen, (which had bene brought vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

a This declareth that God calleth of all sorts both hie and lowe.

2 Now as they [b] ministred to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke wherevnto I haue called them.

b The word signifieth to execute a publique charge, as the Apostleship was: so that here is shewed, that they preached and prophecied. Chap.14.26.

3 Then fasted they and prayed, and laid their hands on them, and let them goe.

4 And they after they were [c] sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of GOD in the Synagogues of the Iewes: & they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they found a certaine sorcerer, a false prophet, being a Iew, named Barieſus,

7 Which was with the Deputie Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name name by interpretation) withstood them, and sought to turne away the Deputie from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And sayd, O full of all subtiltie and all mischiefe, thou childe of the deuill, and enemie of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not cease to peruert the streight [c] wayes of the Lord?

11 Nowe therefore beholde, the hand of the Lorde is vpon thee, and thou shalt bee blind, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a myste and a darknesse, and he went about, seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he saw what was done, beleeued, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Nowe when Paul and they that were with him, were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga, a citie of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to [d] Antiochia a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

15 And after the lecture of the Law and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men and brethren if yee haue any worde of [e] exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stoode vp and beckened with the hand, and sayd, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of [f] Egypt, and with an [g] high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the time [h] of fourty yeeres, suffered hee their [i] maners in the wildernesse.

19 And he destroyed seuen nations in the land of Chanaan, and [k] diuided their land to them by lot.

20 Then afterward hee gaue vnto them [l] Iudges [m] about foure hundreth and fiftie yeeres, vnto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a [n] King, and God gaue vnto them [o] Saul, the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Beniamin, by the space of fourtie yeeres.

22 And after he had taken him away, he raised vp [p] Dauid to be their king, of whom hee witnessed, saying, I haue found Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will doe all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seede hath God [q] according to his promise raised vp to Israel the Sauiour Iesus:

24 When [r] Iohn had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his [s] course, hee sayd, [t] Whom ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but behold, there commeth one after mee, whose shoe of his feete I am not worthy to loose.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the [u] worde of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and their rulers, because they [k] knewe him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophets, which are [l] read euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, [x] yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had [y] fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God [z] raised him vp from the dead,

31 And hee was seene many dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And wee declare vnto you, that touching the promise made vnto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he [a] raysed vp Iesus, euen as it is writte in the second Psalme, [b] Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Now as concerning that hee rayled him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath sayd thus, [c] I will giue you the [d] holy things of Dauid which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore hee sayeth also in another place, [e] Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit, Dauid after hee had serued his time by the counsell of God, hee [f] slept, and was layd with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But he whom God rayled vp, saw no corruption.

38 Bee it knowen vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiuenesse of sinnes.

44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole citie together, to heare the word of God.

45 But when the Iewes saw the people, they were full of r enuie, and spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying them, and railing on them.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, "It was necessarie that the worde of God should first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing yee put it from you, and iudge your selues vnworthie of t euerlasting life, lo, we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lorde commaunded vs, saying, "I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be the saluation vnto the end of the world.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lord: and as many as were u ordeined vnto eternall life, beleeued.

49 Thus the word of the Lord was published throughout the whole countrey.

50 But the Iewes stirred certaine a deuout and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the citie, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they * shooke off the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioy, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 God giueth successe to his word. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium and are persecuted. 13 At Lystra they would do sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul which refuse it, and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 22 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience, 23 Appoint ministers, 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

AND it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes and of the Grecians beleeued.

2 But the a vnbeleeuing Iewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lorde, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to bee done by their hands.

4 But the people of the citie were diuided: and some were with the Iewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Iewes with their rulers, to do them violence, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about,

7 And there were preaching the Gospel.

8 ¶ Now there sate a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feete, which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked,

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to bee healed, 10 Sayd with a loude voyce, † Stande vpright on thy feete. And he leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, and Paul Mercurius, because hee was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Iupiters Priest, which was before their citie, brought bulles with b garlands vnto the c gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles Barnabas and Paul heard it, they d rent their clothes, and ranne in among the people, crying, 15 And saying, O men, why doe yee these things? We are euen men e subiect to the like passions that yee be, and preach vnto you, that yee should turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, * which made heauen and earth, and the sea, and all things that in them are.

17 Neuertheless, hee left not himselfe without g witnesse, in that he did good, and gaue vs raine from heauen, and fruitefull seasons, filling our hearts with foode and h gladnesse.

18 And speaking these things, scarse refrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them.

19 Then there came certaine Iewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perswaded the people, † * stoned Paul, and drew him out of the citie, supposing he had beene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the citie, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that citie, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia, 22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming that wee must through many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by i election in euery Church, & prayed, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleeued.

24 Thus they went throughout Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached * the word in Perga, they came downe to Attalia.

26 And thence sailed to Antiochia, * from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that God had done k by them, and how hee had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

1 Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches. 35 Paul and Barnabas preach at Antiochia. 39 And separate company because of Iohn Marke.

THen came downe certaine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, * Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye cannot be saued.

2 And when there was great dissension and disputation by Paul and Barnabas against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of them should goe vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But ſayd they, certaine of the sect of the b Pharises, which did beleeue, rose vp, saying, that it was needefull to circumcise them, and to commaund them to keepe the Law of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And when there had bene great disputation, Peter rose vp, and sayd vnto them, * Ye men and brethren, yee knowe that a good while a goe, among vs God chose out mee, that the Gentiles by my mouth should heare the word of the Gospell, and beleeue.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnesse, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

9 And hee put no c difference betweene vs, and them, after that by faith hee d had * purified their hearts.

10 Now therefore, why e tempt ye God, to * lay a yoke on the disciples necks, which neither our fathers, nor wee were able to beare?

11 But wee beleeue, through the f grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to be saued, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which told what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they held their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 * Symeon hath declared howe God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 * After this I will returne, and will build againe the g Tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I build againe, and I will set it vp,

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lord, and all the h Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, sayeth the Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his works.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, i we trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God,

20 But that wee write vnto them, that they abstaine themselues from k filthinesse of idoles, and l fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood.†

21 For * Moses of old time hath in euery citie them that preach him, seeing hee is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church to send chosen men of their owne company to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas, to wit, Iudas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren, 23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 For as much as we haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and cumbred your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised and keepe the Law, to whom wee gaue no such commandement:

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that haue giuen vp their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 We haue therefore sent Iudas & Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and * to vs, to lay no more burthen vpon you, then these necessary things, 29 That is, that yee abstaine from things offred to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, & from fornication: † from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, & after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioyced for the consolation.

32 And Iudas & Silas being Prophets, * exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had taried there a space, they were let goe in * peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding * Silas thought good to abide there still.†

37 And Barnabas † counselled to take with them John called Marke.

THen came he to Derbe and to Lystra: and beholde, a certaine disciple was there, named * Timotheus, a womans sonne, which was a Jewesse and beleeued, but his father was a Grecian.

2 Of whom the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, reported well.

3 Therefore Paul would that he should goe forth with him, and tooke and [a] circumcised him, because of the Jewes which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went thorowe the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe, ordeined of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Jerusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number dayly.

6 ¶ Now when they had gone thorowout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were [b] forbidden of the holy Ghost, to preach the word in [c] Asia.

7 Then came they to Mysia, and sought to goe into Bithynia: but the Spirit † suffered them not.

8 Therefore they passed thorow Mysia, and came downe to [d] Troas, 9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stoode a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 And after hee had seene the vision, immediatly we prepared to goe into Macedonia, being [e] assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a streight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to [f] Neapolis, 12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe citie in the parts of Macedonia, and [g] whole inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and we were in that citie abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day, we went out of the citie, beside a riuer where they were woont to [h] pray: and we sate downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the citie of the Thyatirians, which worshipped God, heard vs: whose heart the Lord opened, that shee attended vnto the things which Paul spake.

15 And when she was baptized and her household, shee besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house and abide there: and she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to prayer, a certaine mayd hauing * a spirit [i] of diuination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

17 She followed Paul and vs, and cried, saying, These men are the seruants of the most high God, which shewe vnto vs the [k] way of saluation.

18 And this did shee many dayes: but Paul being grieued, [l] turned about, and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Now when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market place vnto the Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the Gouernors, saying, These men which are Jewes, trouble our citie, 21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the Gouernors rent [m] their clothes, and * commanded them to be beaten with rodes.

23 And when they had beaten them sore, they cast them into prison, commanding the Jayler to keepe them surely.

24 Who hauing receiued such commandement, cast them into the [n] inner prison, and made their feete fast in the stockes.

25 Now at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a Psalme vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, and euery mans bands were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when he sawe the prison doores open, he drew out his sword, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had beene fled.

28 But Paul cryed with a loud voyce, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas,

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica, 4 where some receiue him, & others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, & the fruite of his doctrine.

NOw as they passed thorow Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of † Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening & alledging that Christ must haue suffred, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, sayd hee, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleeued, and ioyned in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God, a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, moued with enuy, tooke vnto them certain bagabonds and wicked fellowes, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the citie, & made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drew Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and hee they are,

7 Whom Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is another * King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued ‖ sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also ᵇ more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readines, and ᶜ searched the Scriptures daily, * whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knew, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that ‖ did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirite was stirred in him, when he saw the citie ᵈ subiect to idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, & in the market daily, * with whomsoeuer he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the ᵉ Epicures, and of the ᶠ Stoikes, disputed with him, and some sayd, What will this ‖ babbler say? Others saide, Ye seemeth to be a setter foorth of strange gods (because hee preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

3 Paul laboureth with his handes, and preacheth at Corinthus. 6 He is detested of the Iewes. 8 Is reuiued of many, 9 And comforted of the Lord. 14 Gallio refuseth to meddle with religion. 18 Pauls vow. 21 His saith in the prouidence of God, 22 And care for the brethren. 24 The praise of Apollos.

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Iew, named Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italy, and his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because hee was of the same craft, he abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tentes.)

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grecians.

5 Nowe when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul burned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, he shooke his raiment, and sayd vnto them, Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue.

8 And Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleeued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleeued and were baptized.

9 Then sayd the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shal lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 So he continued there a yeere and sixe moneths, and taught the word of God among them.

12 Now when Gallio was deputie of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio sayd vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euil deed, O yee Iewes, I would according to reason maintaine you.

15 But if it be a question of wordes, and names, and of your Lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I will be no iudge of those things.

16 And hee draue them from the iudgment seate.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians Sosthenes, the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had tarried there yet a good while, he tooke leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him, Priscilla and Aquilla) after that hee had shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 Then hee came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he entered into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes.

20 Who desired him to tary a longer time with them: but he would not consent, 21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needes keepe this feast that commeth, in Ierusalem: but I will returne againe vnto you, if God will. So he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he came downe to Cesarea, he went vp to Ierusalem: and when hee had saluted the Church, he went downe vnto Antiochia.

23 Now when he had tarried there a while, he departed, and went thorow the countrey of Galatia and Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

AND it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed through the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples,

2 And sayd vnto them, Haue ye receiued the a holy Ghost since ye beleeued? And they sayde vnto him, Wee haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.

4 Then sayd Paul, *John verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleeue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were † baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

6 And Paul layd his hands vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer, hee went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the kingdom of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, hee departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schoole of one e Tyrannus.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the Word of the Lorde Iesus, both Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sick, f kerchiefes or g handkerchiefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirites went out of them.

13 Then certaine of ‖ vagabond Iewes, ‖ exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euill spirites, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We h adiure you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Sceua a Iewe, the Priest, about seuen which did this).

15 And the euill spirit answered, and said, Iesus I acknowledge and Paul I know: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whome the euill spirite was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed against them, so that they fledde out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lorde Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeued, came and confessed, and shewed their workes.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious arts, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it i fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the Word of God grew mightily, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed k by the Spirit to passe through Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Ierusalem, saying, after I haue bene there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent hee into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that l way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius, a siluer smith, which made siluer ‖ temples of Diana, ‖ brought great gaines vnto the crafts men:

25 Whom hee called together, with the workemen of like things, and sayde, Sirs, yee know that by this craft m wee haue our goods.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia which were of his friends, sent vnto him desiring him that he would not present himselfe in the common place.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was out of order, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

q And set him in an high place where the people could not come neere him, but whence they might well heare his voyce.

33 And some of their company q drewe forth Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwards. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and would haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knew that hee was a Iew, there arose a shout almost for the space of two houres, of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

r Antiquitie and the couetousnesse of the Priestes brought in this superstition: for it is written that the temple being repaired seuentimes, this idole was neuer changed. Plin. lib. 16. 40. by such delusions the world is most easily abused.

35 Then the towne Clarke, when he had staied the people, said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not, howe that the citie of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image which came downe from r Iupiter?

36 Seeing then that no man can speake against those things, yee ought to be appeased, and to doe nothing rashly.

37 For ye haue brought hither these men, which haue neither committed sacrilege, neither doe blaspheme your goddesse.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius & the craftsmen which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the lawe is open, and there are Deputies: let them accuse one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it may bee determined in a lawfull assembly.

† Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia, 7 Heo celebrateth the Lords Supper, and preacheth. 9 At Troas hee raiseth vp Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ship towards Jerusalem.

NOwe after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the Disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into † Macedonia.

2 And when hee had gone through those parts, and had exhorted them with many words, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried there three moneths because the Iewes layde waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, hee communed a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliue, and they were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ Then wee went foorth to ship, and sailed vnto the citie * Assos, that wee might receiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and would himselfe goe afoote.

14 Nowe when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And wee sayled thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day wee arriued at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because hee would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted to be if he could possibly, at Jerusalem, at the day of † Pentecost.

2 And we found a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, & went aboard, and set forth.
3 And when we had discouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed toward Syria, and arrined at Tyrus: for there the ship vnladed the burden.
4 And when we had found disciples, we taried there seuen daies. And they told Paul [a] through the [b] Spirit, that he should not goe vp to Ierusalem.
5 But when the dayes were ended, we departed and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wiues and children, euen out of the citie: and we kneeling downe on the shore, prayed.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe ye weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.

f Who was the chiefe or superintendent of the Church of Ierusalem.

fied the Lord, & sayd vnto him; Thou seest brother, how many thousand Iewes there are which beleeue, and they are all zealous of the law.

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and sayest, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to liue after the g customes.

22 What is then to bee done? the multitude must needes come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that wee say to thee. Wee haue h foure men, which haue made a vow.

24 Them take, and i purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, that they may * shaue their heads: and all shall know, that those things, whereof they haue bene informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleeue, wee haue written, and determined * that they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselues from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entred into the Temple, * declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntill that an offering should be offered for euery one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they saw him in the Temple) mooued all the people, and k layed handes on him, 28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the lawe, and this place: moreouer, he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath l polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was mooued, & the people ran together: and they tooke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an vproare.

32 Who immediatly tooke souldiers, and m Centurions, and ranne n downe vnto them: and when they saw the chiefe Captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe Captaine came neere and tooke him, and commanded him to bee bound with two chaines, and demaunded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when hee could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when hee came vnto the grees, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bene led into the castle, hee sayd vnto the chiefe captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who sayd, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the * Egyptian, Who before these dayes raised a sedition, & led out into the wildernes foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul sayd, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Iew, and citizen of * Tarsus, a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beseech thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when hee had giuen him licence, Paul stood on the grees, & beckened with the hand vnto the people: & when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

3 Paul rendreth an account of his life and doctrine. 25 He escapeth the whip by reason he was a citizen of Rome.

YE men, brethren, and fathers, heare my defence now towards you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he sayd)

3 I am verily a man, which am a Iewe, borne in * Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought vp in this citie at the a feete of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 * And I persecuted this b way vnto the death, binding & deliuering into prison both men and women,

5 As also the chiefe Priest doth beare me witnesse, and all the state of the Elders: of * whom also I receiued letters vnto the b brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 ¶ And so it was, as I iourneyed and was come neere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voyce saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And hee sayd to me, I am Iesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 Moreouer they that were with me, saw in deede a light, and were afrayd: but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shal I doe, Lord? And the Lord sayd vnto me, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shall be told thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Law, hauing good report of all the Iewes which dwelt there, 13 Came vnto me, and stood, & sayd vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: & that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he sayd, The God of our fathers hath * appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that * Just one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnesse vnto all men, of the things which thou hast seene and heard.

16 Now therefore why tarriest thou? Arise, & be baptized, & wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the * Name of the Lord.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And saw him saying vnto me, Make haste, & get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witnesse concerning me.

19 Then I said, Lord, they know that I * pursued, and beate in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also * stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he sayd vnto me, Depart, for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they heard him vnto this word, but then they lift vp their voyces, and sayd, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meete that he should liue.

23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the ayre, 24 The chiefe Captaine commanded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that he should bee scourged and examined, that hee might knowe wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul sayde vnto the Centurion that stoode by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is a Romane, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went and told the chiefe Captaine, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe captaine came, & said to him, Tell me, Art thou a Romane? And he sayd, Yea.

28 And the chiefe Captaine answered, With a great summe obtained I this burgesship. Then Paul sayd, But I was so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him, which should haue examined him: and the chiefe captaine also was afrayd, after hee knewe that hee was a Romane, and that he had bound him.

30 On the next day, because hee would haue knowen the certaintie wherefore hee was accused of the Iewes, hee loosed him from his bondes, and commanded the hie Priests and all their Councill to come together: and hee brought Paul, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

3 The enforcer of Paul being smiten, and the ouerthrow of his enemies. 11 The Lord encourageth him. 23 And because the Iewes laid waite for him, he is sent to Cæsarea.

AND Paul beheld earnestly the Councill, and sayd, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vntill this day.

2 Then the high Priest Ananias commanded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then sayd Paul to him, God * will smite thee thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Law, and commaundest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then sayd Paul, I [b] knew not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were of the Sadducees, and the other of the Pharises, he cried in the Councill, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and * resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had sayd this, there was a dissension betweene the Pharises and the Sadducees, so that the multitude was diuided.

8 * For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angell, nor spirite: but the Pharises confesse [d] both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharises part rose vp, and stroue, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chiefe captaine, fearing lest Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him vnto the Castle.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lord stood by him, and sayd, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Iewes made an assembly, and bound themselues with an * othe, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were moe then fortie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes and Elders, and sayd, We haue bound our selues with a solemne othe, that we will eate nothing, vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, yee and the Councill, signifie to the chiefe captaine, that hee bring him forth vnto you to morrow, as though ye would knowe some thing more perfectly of him, and we, or euer he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters sonne heard of a Paul doeth not curse the hie Priest, but denounceth sharply the punishment of God which should light vpon him, who vnder pretence of maintaining the Law, doth trangres it, of their laying a waite, he went, and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and sayde, Bring this yong man vnto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So her tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and sayd, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hande, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he sayd, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morow vnto the Counsel, as though they would enquire some what of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them more then fourty men, which haue bounde themselues with an oth, that they will neither eat nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, and waite for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had ✝ shewed him these things.

✝Greeke, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may go to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and two hundreth with dartes, at the third houre of the night,

24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And he wrote an ‡ Epistle in this manner:

‡ This letter was written partly in the fauour of Paul, that his aduersaries might not oppresse him.

26 Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, & rescued him, ♭ perceiuing that he was a Romane.

♭ The Captaine dissembleth to commend his owne diligence: for he did not know that Paul was a Romane before he had rescued him, and giuen him to be straitly examined.

28 And when I would haue knowen the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him foorth into their counsell.

29 There I perceiued that he was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed me, howe that the Iewes laid waite for the man, I sent him straight way to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day, they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned vnto the Castle:

33 Nowe when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the Epistle to the Gouernor, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouernour had read it, hee asked of what ♯ prouince hee was: and when he vnderstood that he was of Cilicia,

♯ By this name the Romanes called euery countrey which they had subdued.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his liff and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix greeteth him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28 and after leaueth him in prison.

NOw after fiue dayes, Ananias the hie Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Orator, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obtayned great quietnesse through thee, and that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most ✝ noble Felix, with all thanks.

✝ For Felix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captaine of the murtherers, and put the Egyptian to flight which raised vp tumults in Iudea, for these the orator praiseth him: otherwise he was both cruell and couetous, reade Iosephus lib. 20. Antiq. cap. 12. & 13. & lib. 2. de bello Iudaico cap. 13.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy courtesie a few words.

5 Certainely we haue found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the world, and a chiefe maintener of the ♮ sect of the ✝ Nazarites:

♮ Or, heresie: for so the wicked termed the true Christian religiō.

✝ Which taught the people to maintein their libertie against the Romanes: and though the accusers approued both this sect, and their doctrine, yet to get Paul punished, they seeme to condemne it.

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therfore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our lawe.

7 But the ‡ chiefe captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

‡ Or, captaine of a thousand.

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckened vnto him that he should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answere for my selfe, forasmuch as I know that thou hast bene of many yeeres a ♮ iudge vnto this ✝ nation,

♮ Or, gouernour: for before this, he ruled Trachonites, Batanea, and Gaulanites.

✝ So that thou art not ignorant of their fashions.

11 Seeing that thou mayest know, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp ‡ to worship in Ierusalem.

‡ Not that his purpose was to worship there, but the Iewes so counsell of others: for he thought to haue won the simple brethren, and to stoppe the enemies mouthes.

12 And they neither found me in the Temple disputing with any man, neither making vprore among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the citie.

13 Neither can they prooue the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way, which they call ♭ heresie, so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Lawe and the Prophets,

♭ Or, found him by the simple brethren, & ✝ As the Scribes and Pharises termed the Christians doctrine, 15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they themselues looke for also, shalbe both of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I endeuor my selfe to haue

22 Except it be for this one voyce, that I cryed standing among them, [*] Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.

23 Now when Felix heard these things, he deferred them, and sayd, when I shall more perfectly know the things which concerne this [‖] way, by the comming of Lysias the chiefe Captaine, I will decide your matter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that he should haue ease, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 ¶ And after certaine dayes, came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a [k] Iewesse, and he called foorth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

26 And as he disputed of righteousnesse, and temperance, and of the iudgement to come, Felix [l] trembled, and answered, Goe thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time, I will call for thee.

27 Yet hoped also that money should haue bene giuen him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

28 When two yeres were expired, Portius Festus came into Felix roome: and Felix willing to [‖] get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for himselfe, 11 And appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa, 23 And is brought forth.

WHen Festus was then come into the Prouince, after three dayes he went vp from Cesarea vnto Jerusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And [a] desired fauour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem: and they laid waite to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, sayd he, which among you are [b] able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickednesse in the man, let them accuse him.

6 ¶ Now when he had tarried among them no more then tenne dayes, he went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sate in the iudgement seate, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Iewes which were come from Jerusalem stoode about him, and layd many, and grieuous complaints against Paul, which they could not proue,

8 Forasmuch as he answered [c] that he had neither offended any thing against the law of the Iewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 Yet Festus willing [‖] to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou goe vp to Jerusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at [d] Cesars iudgement seate, where I ought to be iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with [e] the Councel, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesare? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 ¶ And after certaine dayes, King Agrippa and [f] Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remayned there many dayes, Festus propoled Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whom when I came to Jerusalem, the hie Priests & Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to the death, before that he which is accused haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe, concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay, the day following I sate on the iudgement seate, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whome when the accusers stoode vp, they brought no crime of such things as I suppoled:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne [h] superstition, and of one Jesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aliue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him, whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be iudged of these thinges.

21 But because he appealed to be reserued to the examination of Augustus, I commaunded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morow, sayd he, thou shalt heare him.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approued by rehearsing his conuersation. 25 His modest answere against the iniurie of Festus.

THen Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answere this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Iewes: wherefore, I beseech thee to heare me patiently.

a Forasmuch as hee best vnderstood the religion, he ought to be more attentiue.

b Paul speaketh of this sect according to the peoples estimation, who preferred it as most holy aboue all others: for their doctrine was least corrupt.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly seruing God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O king Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

12 At which time, euen as I went to *Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the hie Priests, 13 At midday, O King, I sawe in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightnesse of the sunne, shine round about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto me, and saying in the Hebrewe tongue, *Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against pricks.

Chap. 9. 4. and 22. 7.

15 Then I sayd, Who art thou, Lord? And he sayd, I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feete: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee,

17 Deliuering thee from the d people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I sende thee, d Of the Iewes.

18 To e open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiuenesse of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

e Although this properly appertaineth vnto God, yet he applieth this vnto his ministers vnto whom he giueth his holy Spirite.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenly vision, 20 *But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe workes worthy amendment of life.

Chap. 9. 22, 26. and 13. 14, 16.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught me in the *Temple, and went about to kill me.

Chap. 21. 30.

22 Neuertheles, I obtained helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moses did say should come,

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that he should bee the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art beside thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But he sayd, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the words of truth and soberneesse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that f none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

f He knew that the Law, and the Prophets were of God, but he did not vnderstand the true applying of the same.

27 O King Agrippa, beleeuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleeuest.

28 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul sayd, I would to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themselues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, nor no of bondes.

32 Then sayde Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue bene loosed, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage, and his company toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arriue.

NOw when it was concluded, that we should sayle into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

a Or, 11.25.

2 And a we entred into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to sayle by the coastes of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friendes, that they might refresh him.

b From Sidon to Myra they should haue sayled North, and by West: but the windes caused them to saile to Cyprus plaine North: thence to Cilicia North & by East, and so to Pamphylia and Myra plaine West.

4 And from thence we launched, b sayled beard by c Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

c Or, Creta.

5 Then sayled we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sayling into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sayled slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sayled hard by d Candie, neere to e Salmone.

b Which was an high hill of Candie bowing to the eastward.

8 And with much adoe sayled beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

c This fast the Iewes obserue about the moneth of October in the feast of their expiation, Leuit. 23.37. So that Paul thought it better to winter there, then to sayle in the deepe of winter which was at hand.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was now ieopardous, because also the f Fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them, d That is, the Northeast winde or euery East wind that is furious and stormie.

10 And sayd vnto them, Sirs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship only, but also of our liues.

e This Ile was West and by South from Candie streight toward the goulfe Syrtes, which were certaine boyling sandes that swallowed vp all that they caught.

11 Neuertheles the Centurion beleeued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lyeth toward the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.

f That is, the Feast of expiation.

13 And when the Southerne wind blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sayled by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called g Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, we let her go, and were caried away.

16 And we ranne vnder a little Ile named h Clauda, and had much adoe to get the boate.

g Or, boate.

17 Which they tooke vp and vsed all helpe, vndergirding the shippe, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the i vessell, and so were caried.

18 The next day when we were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the ship.

h Or cast out the wares.

19 And the third day we cast out with our owne handes the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and sayd, Sirs, yee should haue hearkened to mee, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue k gained this hurt and losse.

k That is, yee should haue saued the losse by auoyding the danger.

22 But now I exhort you to bee of good courage: for there shall bee no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the shippe only.

g They could not then reprout him of rashnes, seeing that this was the ordinance of God.

23 For there stoode by me this night the Angel of s God, whose I am, and whome I serue, h The graces & blessings which God giueth to his children profite many times the enemies, which are vnworthy to receiue the fruite thereof.

24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto l thee all that saile with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, bee of good courage: for I i beleeue God, that it shall bee so as it hath bene tolde me.

i Faith is grounded vpon the word of God,

26 Howbeit, wee must be cast vnto a certaine Iland.

k This sea in Strabos time was taken for all that part, which was about the mountaines called Ceraunij, and so diuideth Italy from Dalmatia, and goeth vp to Venice.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as wee were caried to and fro in the k Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approched vnto them, l Paul would vse such meanes as God had ordeined, lest he should seeme to haue tempted him.

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded againe, and found fiftéens fathoms.

29 Then fearing least they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ancres out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

m He meaneth an extraordinary abstinence, which came of the feare of death, and so tooke away their appetite.

30 Nowe as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ancres out of the foreshippe, n By this Hebrew phrase is meant that they should be in all points safe and sound, 1. Sam. 14.45. 1. King. 1.52. Mat. 10.30.

31 Paul said vnto the Centurion, and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, m ye cannot be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to bee day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue tarryed, and continued n fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your safegarde: for there shall not an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thankes to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meate.

37 And we were in the ship in all two hundreth threescore and fifteene soules.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the shippe, and cast out the wheate into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knewe not the countrey, but they spied a certain creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the shippe.

40 So when they had taken vp the anchres, they committed the shippe vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bonds, and hoysed vp the maine saile vp to the winde, and drew to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place, where two seas met, they thrust in the shippe: and the fore-part stucke fast, and could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

o This declareth the great & barbarous ingratitude of the wicked, which can not be wonne by any benefits.

42 Then the souldiers counsell was o to kill the prisoners: least any of them, when he had swomme out, should flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, stayed them from this counsell, and commaunded that they that could swimme, should cast themselues first into the sea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other, some on boards, and some on certaine peeces of the shippe: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Paul with his companie are gently intreated of the barbarous people. 5 The viper burteth him not. 8 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessarie, he fared forward Rome. 15 Where being received of the brethren, he declareth his busines, 30 And there preacheth two yeers.

AND when they were come safe, then they knewe that the yle was called a Melita.

a Now called Malta,

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no litle kindnesse: for they kindled a fire, and receiued vs euery one, because of the present shower, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of stickes, and layed them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heate, and lept on his hand.

] Or, heape.

4 Now when the Barbarians saw the worme hang on his hand, they sayd among themselues, This man surely is a b murtherer, whom, though hee hath escaped the sea, yet c Vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

b Such is the perverse iudgement of men that they condemne such as they see in any affliction.

c Whom they make a goddesse and called her Dice, or Nemesis.

5 But he shooke off the worme into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when he should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and sawe no inconuenience come to him, they changed their minds, and sayd, That he was a d God.

d Beholde the enuenimie of these infidels, and how much they be out to superstition: for after one rage and error they fall into another.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, and lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was, that the father of Publius lay sicke of the feuer, and of a bloody flixe: to whom Paul entred in, and when he prayed, he layed his handes on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the Ile, which had diseases, came to him and were healed,

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed, they laded vs with things necessarie.

11 Now after three monethes we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintred in the Ile, whose badge was e Castor and Pollux.

e These the Paynims fained to be Iupiters children and gods of the sea.

12 And when we arriued at Syracuse, we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day, the South winde blew, and we came the second day to Putioli, 14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tary with them seuen dayes, and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the f Three] tauernes, whom when Paul saw, hee thanked God, and waxed bolde.

f These places were distant from Rome a dayes iourney, or thereabout.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was g suffered to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

g No doubt the captaine vnderstood both by Festus letters, & also by the report of the vnder captaine, that Paul had committed no fault.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he said vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined me, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrayned to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you, and to speake with you: for the hope of h Israels sake, I am bound with this chaine.

h That is, for Iesus Christs cause, whom they had long looked for as he that should be the redeemer of the world.

21 Then they sayd vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, wee knowe that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the i kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus, both out of the Lawe of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning to night.

i That this kingdome, which was spoken of by the Prophets, was offered vnto them by the comming of Christ.

24 And some were perswaded with the things, which were spoken, and some beleeued not.

25 Therfore when they agreed not among themthemselues, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, to wit, Well spake the holy Ghost by Esaias the Prophet vnto our fathers, 26 Saying, a Go vnto this people, and say, By hearing ye shall heare, and shall not vnderstand, and seeing ye shall see, and not perceiue.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed fatt, and their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes haue they winked, least they should see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and vnderstande with their hearts, and should conuert that I might heale them.

28 Be it knowen therefore vnto you, that this saluation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they shall heare it.

29 And when he had sayd these things, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among themselues.

30 And Paul remained two yeeres full in an house hired vnto himselfe, and receiued all that came in vnto him, 31 Preaching the kingdome of God, and teaching those things, which concerne the Lorde Iesus Christ, with all boldnesse of speech, without let.

k Hereby the hearts of the infidels ought to be mollified, and the weakelings confirmed that they be not offended by the stubbornes of y wicked.

l The Word of God healeth when the vertue of the Spirit is ioyned with it: and it is preached generally, that all men might be inexcusable.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousnesse is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his own corruption could not fulfil the Law, yea, committed most abominably, both against the law of God, and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindfull of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordeined that mans saluation should only stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not only the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust only through faith, & yet afterward receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousnesse by faith. And to the intent that none should thinke that the couenant which God made to him, and his posteritie was not performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ, (which was the blessed seede) or els beleeued not that he was the true redeemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preserue the Iewes: the examples of Ismael and Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promise. The cause whereof is the only will of God: forasmuch as of his free mercy he electeth some to be saued, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias prooueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberall mercy of God, which he at length wil stretch toward the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This ground-worke of faith & doctrine laied, instructions of Christian maners follow: teaching euery man to walke in soundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenesse, reuerencing and obeying the magistrate, exercising charity, putting off the old man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally, S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

3 Concerning his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord (which was made of the f seede of Dauid according to the flesh,

5 By whom wee haue receiued h grace and Apostleship (that obedience might be giuen vnto the faith) in his Name among all the Gentiles,

6 Among whom yee be also the i called of Iesus Christ,

7 To all you that be at Rome beloued of God, called to be Saints: k* l Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

8 First I thanke my God through IESVS Christ for you all, because your faith is published throughout m the whole world.

9 For God is my witnes (whom I serue in my n spirit in the o Gospell of his Sonne) that without ceasing I make mention of you

1.Cor.1.3. gal.1.3. 2.tim.1.2. h The free mercie of God, and prosperous successe in all things. i That is, through all Christian Churches. k Earnestly, and from the heart. l In preaching the Sonne of God, that is, reconciliation and peace through Christ.

10 Alwayes in my prayers, beseeching, that by some meanes one time or other I might have a prosperous iourney by the will of God to come vnto you.

11 * For I long to see you, that I might bestowe among you some spirituall gift, to strengthen you, 12 That is, that I might bee comforted together with you, through our mutual faith, both yours and mine.

13 Nowe my brethren, I would that ye should not bee ignorant, how that I haue oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene * let hitherto) that I might haue some fruite also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men and to the vnwise.

15 Therefore as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospell to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not * ashamed of the Gospell of Christ: for it is the * power of God vnto saluation to euery one that beleeueth, to the Iewe first, and also to the ‖ Grecian.

17 For by it the * righteousnesse of God is reuealed, from faith to faith: as it is written, * The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reuealed from heauen against all * vngodlinesse, and vnrighteousnesse of men, which withholde the truth * in vnrighteousnesse, 19 Forasmuch as that, which may bee knowen of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they should be without excuse:

21 * Because that when they knew God, they * glorified him not as God, neither were thankefull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darknesse.

22 When they professed themselues to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible GOD to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God gaue * them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto vncleannesse, to defile their owne bodies betweene themselues:

25 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, ‖forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their ‖ lust one towarde another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and receiued in themselues such recompence of their errour, as was meete.

28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto a * reprobate minde, to do those things which are not conuenient,

29 Being full of all vnrighteousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, couetousnesse, malitiousnesse, full of enuie, of murther, of debate, of deceite, taking all things in the euill part, whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proude, boasters, inuenters of euill things, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, couenant breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer be appeased, mercilesse.

31 Which men, though they knowe * the ‖ Lawe of God, howe that they which commit such things, are worthy of death, yet not only doe the same, but also * fauour them that doe them.

CHAP. II.

1 Howe sorowfully the hypocrites with Gods iudgement, 7 And comfortably the faithfull. 12 To beat downe all vaine presumption of ignorance, holinesse, and of alliance with God, hee proueth all men to be sinners, 15 The Gentiles by their conscience, 17 The Iewes by the Law written.

THerefore thou art inexcusable, O man, * whosoeuer thou art that ‖ iudgest: for in that that thou iudgest another, thou condemnest * thy selfe: for thou that iudgest, doest the same things.

2 But we know that the iudgement of God is according to * truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that iudgest them which doe such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his bountifulnesse, and * patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifulnesse of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou after thine hardnesse, and heart that cannot repent, * heapest vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of * wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

6 * Who will reward euery man according to his * workes:

7 That is, to them which by continuance in well doing seeke glory, and honour, and immortalitie, eternall life:

8 But vnto them that are contentious and disobey the truth, and obey vnrighteousnesse, shalbe indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish vpon euery soule of man that doeth euil, of the Iewe first, and also of the Grecian:

10 But glory, honour, and peace to euery man that worketh good, to the Iewe first, and also to the Grecian:

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as haue sinned without the Law, shall also perish without the Law: and as many as haue sinned in the Law, shall be iudged by the Law.

13 For not the hearers of the Law are iust before God, but the doers of the Law shall be iustified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which haue not the Law, do by nature the things contained in the Law, these hauing not the Law, are a Law vnto themselues:

15 Which shewe the worke of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witnesse, and their thoughts the meane while accusing, or else excusing one another, 16 In the day when God shall iudge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospell.

17 Behold, thou art called a Iewe, and restest in the Law, and reioycest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and allowest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the Law,

19 And art perswaded that thou thy selfe art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darknesse, 20 An instructer of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the * fashion of knowledge and of the truth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest not thou thy selfe? thou that preachest a man should not steale, doest thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, doest thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, doest thou robbe the temples?

23 Thou that reioycest in the Law, through breaking the Law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 Circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keepe the Law: but if thou be a breaker of the Law, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the righteousnesse of the Law, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfill the Law, iudge thee, which by the letter and circumcision doest transgresse the Law?

28 For he is not a Iewe which is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outwarde in the flesh:

29 But he is a Iewe which is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

19 And perswadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenesse, 20 An instructer of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the l forme of knowledge, and of the trueth in the Law:

CHAP. III.

1 Having granted some prerogatiue to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, 10 He proueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes and Gentiles to be sinners, 21.24 And to be iustified by grace through faith, and not by works, 31 And so the Law to be established.

WHat is then the preferment of the Iewe? or what is the profite of circumcision?
2 Much euery maner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the a oracles of God.
3 For what though some did not beleeue? shall their * vnbeliefe make the ‖ faith of God without effect?
4 God forbid: yea, let God be * true, and * euery man a lyar, as it is written, * That thou mightest bee b iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome, when thou art iudged.

8 And (as wee are blamed, and as some affirme that we say) why doe we not euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.
9 What then? d are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already prooued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are * vnder sinne, 10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one.

Chap.1.17.

21 But now is the * righteousnes of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witnesse of the Law and of the Prophets, 22 To wit, the righteousnes of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleeue.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are i depriued of the glory of God,

24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,

25 Whom God hath set foorth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his k righteousnesse, by the forgiuenesse of sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God, 26 To shewe at this time his righteousnesse, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Lawe? of workes? Nay: but by the l Law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.

29 God, is he the God of the Iewes only, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision m of faith and vncircumcision through faith.

k Or, fidelitie in performing his promise.

l The law of faith is the Gospel which offreth saluation with condition (if thou beleeuest) which condition also Christ freely giueth to vs. So the condition of the Law is (if thou doest all these things) the which onely Christ hath fulfilled for vs.

m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one meanes, & if they will haue any difference, it onely standeth in wordes: for in effect there is none.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17 He declareth that iustification is a free gift, euen by them themselues of whom the Iewes most boasted, as of Abraham and of Dauid, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

WHat shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found a concerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hath wherein to b reioyce, but not with God.

3 For what saith the Scripture? * Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted to him for righteousnesse.

4 Now to him that c worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by debt:

5 But to him that d worketh not, but beleeueth in him that * iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousnesse.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without workes, saying,

7 * Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.

8 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednesse then vpon the f circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousnesse.

10 How was it then imputed? when he was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not whē he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 * After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as the seale of the righteousnesse of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleeue, not being circumcised, g righteousnesse might be imputed to them also,

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the s steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the heire of the world was not giuen to Abrahā, or to his seed, through the h Law, but through the righteousnesse of faith.

14 For if they which i are of the Law, be h heires, faith is made voide, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Lawe causeth l wrath: for where no Law is, there is no m transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to * all the seede, not to that onely which is of the Law: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nations) euen o before God whom he beleeued, who quickneth the p dead, and calleth those things which bee not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham aboue hope, beleeued vnder hope, that he should be the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, * So shall thy seede be.

19 And he q not weake in the faith, considered not his owne bodie, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yere old, neither r the deadnesse of Saras wombe.

20 Neither did hee doubt of the promise of God through vnbeliefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue t glory to God, 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.

23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousnesse,

24 But also * for vs, to whom it shall be imputed for righteousnesse, which beleeue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Who was deliuered to death for our sinnes, and * is raised againe for our iustification.

CHAP. V.

1 He declareth the fruites of faith, 7 And by comparison setteth foorth the loue of God and obedience of Christ, which is the foundation and ground of the same,

THen being iustified by faith, wee haue [a] peace toward God through our Lorde Iesus Christ.

2 [*] By whom also we haue accesse through faith vnto this grace, wherein we stande, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glorie of God.

3 Neither doe we so only, but also we [*] reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth foorth patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not [b] ashamed, because the [c] loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when we were yet of no strength, at his time, died for the [*] vngodly.

7 Doubtlesse one will scarce die for a [d] righteous man: but yet for a [e] good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being now iustified by his blood, wee shall be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when wee were [f] enemies wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, we shal be saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom wee haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men[g] for[a] in much as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time[h] of the Lawe was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses, euen ouer them also that sinned not [h] after the like maner of the transgression of [i] Adam, which was the figure of [k] him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is [l] of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shal they which receiue the aboundance of grace, and of the gift of [m] righteousnes, reigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefite aboundeth toward [n] all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Moreouer the [*] Law entred thereupon, that the offence should [p] abound: nethelesse, where sinne aboūded, there grace aboūded much more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousnesse vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glory in the flesh, but rather seeke to subdue it to the spirit, 3 He sheweth by the vertue and end of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 21 Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousnesse.

WHat shall we say then? Shall wee continue still in sinne, that grace may aboūd? God forbid.

2 How shall we that are dead [a] to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that [*] all we which haue bene baptized into [b] Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 [] We are buried then with him by baptisme into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also should [] walke in newnesse of life.

5 [*] For if we be [c] grafted with him [d] to the similitude of his death, euen so shall we be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the [e] body of sinne might be destroyed, [f] henceforth we should not serue sinne.

7 For he that is dead, is [f] freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall liue also with him, 9 Knowing that Christ being raised frō the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he died, he died once [g] to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to [h] God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that yee are [i] dead to sinne, but are aliue [k] to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall bodie, that ye should obey it in the [l] lustes thereof.

[Or, flesh.]

KNowe ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the [a] Lawe hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 For the [b] woman which is in subiection to a man, is bound by the Lawe to the man, while hee liueth: but if the man bee dead, she is deliuered from the lawe of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, she shall be called an [c] adulteresse: but if the man be dead, she is free from the Lawe, so that shee is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So yee, my brethren, are dead also to the Lawe by the body of Christ, that yee should bee vnto another, euen vnto [d] him that is raised vp from the dead, that wee should bring forth fruite vnto God.

5 For when we were [d] in the flesh, the [e] motions of sinnes, which were by the Lawe, had force in our members, to bring forth fruite vnto death.

6 But nowe we are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead [e] vnto it, wherein we were holden, that we should serue in newnesse of spirite, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 [f] What shall wee say then? Is the Lawe sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the Lawe: for I had not knowen lust, except the Law had said, [g] Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in me all maner of concupiscence: for without the lawe sinne is dead.

9 For I once [h] was aliue, without the lawe: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued, 10 But I died: and the same commandement which was ordeined vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued me, and thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is [i] holy, and the commaundement is holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might [k] appeare sinne, wrought death in mee by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the commandement.

14 For we know that the Lawe [l] is spirituall, but I am carnall, solde vnder sinne.

15 For I allowe not that which I doe: for what I [m] would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I doe then that which I woulde not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I, that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in mee, that is, in my flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with mee: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing, which I would, but the euil, which I would not, that doe I.

20 Now if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Lawe, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Law of God, concerning the [n] inner man:

23 But I see another [p] Lawe in my members, rebelling against the Law of my minde, and leading mee captiue vnto the lawe of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the [q] body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I my selfe in my [r] minde serue the Law of God, but in my [s] flesh the law of sinne.

e Meaning, to sinne our first husband.
f There is nothing more enemie to sinne, then the Law: if so be therefore that sinne rage more by reason thereof, then before, why should it be imputed to the law which discloseth the sleights of sinne her enemie?

1 The assurance of the faithfull and of the fruits of the holy Ghost in them. 3 The weakenesse of the Lawe, and who accomplished it. 4 And wherefore. 5 Of what sort the faithfull ought to be. 6 The fruits of the spirite in them. 17 Of hope. 18 Of patience under the crosse. 28 Of the mutuall loue betwixt God and his children. 29 Of his foreknowledge.

a Though sinne be in vs, yet it is not imputed vnto vs through Christ Iesus, b He answereth the condition, lest we should abuse the libertie. c The power and authoritie of the Spirit, that is, the grace of regeneration. d Whole sanctification is made ours. ‖Or, of no strength. e Christ did take flesh, which of nature was subiect to sinne, which notwithstanding he sanctified euen in the very instant of his conception, and so did appropriate it vnto him that he might destroy sinne in it, 2. Cor. 5. 21. ‖Or, by sinne. f That which the law requireth. g The word comprehendeth all that which is most excellent in man, as will, vnderstanding, reason, wit, &c. ‖Or, if so be. ‖Or, flesh. h The spirit of regeneration, which aboliſheth sinne in our flesh, not all at once, but by degrees: wherefore we must in the meane time call to God through patience. i But to liue after the Spirit. k So he nameth the holy Ghost of the effect, which he causeth in vs, when hee proposeth vs saluation by the lawe with an impossible condition, who also doeth seale our saluation in our hearts by Christes free adoption, that we consider not God now as a rigorous Lord, but as a most mercifull Father. Gala. 4. 5, 6. l So that we haue two witnesses, Gods spirite, and ours, who is certified by the Spirit of God.

NOwe then there is no a condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not b after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the c Lawe of the Spirite of life, which is in d Christ Iesus, hath freed mee from the law of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the lawe, in as much as it was ‖weake, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the e similitude of sinfull flesh, and ‖for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the f righteousnesse of the Lawe might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh fauour the g things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirits, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisedome of the flesh is death, but the wisedome of the spirite is life and peace,

7 Because the wisedome of the flesh is enmitie against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither in deede can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now yee are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, ‖because the Spirite of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sinne: but the h Spirite is life for righteousnesse sake.

11 But if the Spirite of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, hee that raysed vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, wee are debters not to the flesh, to liue after the i flesh:

13 For if yee liue after the flesh, yee shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the spirit of bondage to feare againe: but yee haue receiued the Spirite of k adoption, whereby we crie * Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit l beareth witnesse with our spirit, that wee are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are also m heires, euen the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ, if so be that wee suffer with him, that wee may also be glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not ‖worthy of the glory, which shalbe shewed vnto vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shal be reuealed,

20 Because the n creature is subiect to o vanitie, not of it owne will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope, 21 Because the creature also shall bee deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For wee knowe that euery p creature groneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the q first fruites of the Spirit, euen we doe sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the * redemption of our r bodie.

24 For we are saued by hope: but s hope that is seene, is not hope: for howe can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the spirite also helpeth our infirmities: for we knowe not what to pray as wee ought: but the spirit it selfe maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27 But hee that searcheth the heartes, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirite: for he t maketh request for the Saints, according to the will of God.

28 And we knowe that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he u knew before, he also predestinated to bee made like to the image of his sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whom he predestinated, them also he called, and whom hee called, them also he iustified, and whom hee iustified, them also he glorified.

31 What shall wee then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, howe shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is God that * ‖ iustifieth, 34 Who shall condemne? it is Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hande of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 As it is written, * For thy sake are we ‖killed

m Freely made partakers of the fathers treasures.

38 For I am perswaded that neither death nor life, nor Angels, nor a principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall bee able to separate vs from the b loue of God, which is in Christ Iesus our Lord.

b That is, wherewith God loueth vs in his Sonne Christ Iesus.

f Christ is God.

8 That is, they which are the children of the h flesh, are not the children of God: but the * children of the promise are counted for the seede.

g The Israelites must not be esteemed by their kinred, but by the secret election of God, which is thone the externall vocation.

9 For this is a word of promise, * In this same time will I come, and Sara shall haue a Sonne.

10 Neither he onely felt this, but also * Rebecca when she had conceiued by one, euen by our father Isaac.

i All the only will and purpose of God is the chiefe cause of election, & reprobation: so his free mercy in Christ is an inferiour cause of saluation, & the hardening of the heart an inferiour cause of damnation.

11 For yet the children were borne, and when they had neither done good nor euill (that the purpose of God might remaine according to election, not by works, but by him that calleth)

12 It was sayde vnto her, * The elder shall serue the yonger:

13 As it is written, * I haue loued Iacob, and haue hated Esau.

14 What shall wee say then? Is there vnrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he saieth to Moses, * I will haue mercy on him, to whom I will shew mercy: and will haue compassion on him, on whom I will haue compassion.

16 So then it is not in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the k Scripture saieth vnto Pharao, * For this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shewe my power in thee, and that my Name might bee declared throughout all the earth.

k That is, God in the Scripture. *Exod.*9,16.

18 Therefore he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto me, Why doeth hee yet complaine? for who hath resisted his will?

20 But, O man, who art thou which l pleadest against God? shall the * thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

23 And that he might declare the riches of his glory vpon the vessels of mercy, which he hath prepared vnto glory?

24 Euen vs, whom he hath called, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles,

*Hose.*2.23. 1.*pet.*2.10.

26 And it shall bee, in the place where it was said vnto them, * Ye are not my people, that there they shall be called, The children of the liuing God.

*Hose.*1,10.

27 Also Esaias crieth concerning Israel, * Though the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saued.

*Isa.*10.22,22.

28 l For hee will make his account, and gather it into a short summe with righteousnesse: for the Lord will make a short count in the earth.

l God will make such waste of this people, that the few which shall remaine, shall be a worke of his iustice, and shall set foorth his glory in his Church.

29 * And as Esaias sayd before, Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a seede, we had bene made as n Sodome, and had bene like to Gomorrha.

*Isa.*1.9.

n That is, vtterly lost.

30 What shall wee say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousnesse, haue attained vnto righteousnesse, euen the righteousnesse which is of faith.

31 But Israel which followed the Lawe of righteousnesse, could not attaine vnto the Law of righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Lawe: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone,

*Isa.*8.14 & 28, 16.1. *pet.*2.6. *Psal.*118,22.

33 As it is written, * Behold, I lay in Sion a n stumbling stone, and a rocke to make men fall: and euery one that beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

n Iesus Christ is to the infidels destruction, and to the faithfull life and resurrection.

CHAP. X.

1 After that he had declared his zeale towards them, 3 He shewe h the cause of the ruine of the Iewes. 4 The ende of the Lawe. 5 The difference betweene the iustice of the Lawe, and of faith 17. Whereof faith commeth, and to whom it belongeth. 19 The reiection of the Iewes, and calling of the Gentiles.

BRethren, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

2 For I beare them record, that they haue [a] the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorant of the righteousnesse of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousnesse, haue not submitted themselues to the righteousnesse of God.

4 * For Christ is the [b] ende of the Lawe for righteousnesse vnto euery one that beleeueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousnesse which is of the Lawe, * That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousnesse which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, [c] * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 Or, who shall descend into the deepe, (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saieth it? * The word is neere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the [d] word of faith which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousnesse, and with [e] the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saieth, * Whosoeuer beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoeuer shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shalbe saued.

14 But howe shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleeued? and how shal they beleeue in him, of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautifull are the ‖ feete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Esaias saieth, * Lord, who hath beleeued our [f] report?

17 Then faith is by hearing, and hearing [g] by the word of God.

18 But I demaund, Haue [h] they not heard? * No doubt their [i] sound went out through all the earth, and their words into the ends of the [k] world.

19 But I demand, Did not Israel know God? First Moses saieth, * I will prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nacion I will anger you.

20 * And Esaias is bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long haue I stretched foorth mine hand vnto a ‖ disobedient, and gainesaying people.

c Because we can not performe the law, it maketh vs to doubt, who shall goe to heauen, and to say, Who shall goe downe to the deepe to deliuer vs thence? but faith reacheth vs that Christ is ascended vp to take vs with him, and hath descended into the depth of death to destroy death, and deliuer vs.

4 God hath his Church, although it be not seene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reuealed himselfe to the Gentiles: 18 Whom he warneth to humble themselues. 29 The gifts of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

I Demaund then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which hee [a] knewe before. Knowe yee not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God [b] against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life?

4 But what saith the answere of God to him? * I haue reserued vnto my selfe [c] seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the ‖ election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or else were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obteined that he sought: but the election hath obteined it, and the rest haue bene hardened,

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of ‖ slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

10 Let their eyes be darkned that they see not, and [e] bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaund then, Haue they stumbled, that they [f] should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation commeth vnto the Gentiles, to [g] prouoke them to followe them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the [h] riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office,

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and workes of such as belong to Christ. 19 Not to seeke reuengement.

I Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that yee giue vp your bodies a ‖ liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your b reasonable seruing of God.

2 And fashion not your selues like vnto this world, but be ye changed by the renuing of your minde, that ye may * proue what is the c good will of God, and acceptable, and perfect.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to vnderstand, aboue that which is meete to vnderstand, but that hee d vnderstand according to e sobrietie, as God hath dealt to euery man the * measure of faith.

4 For as wee haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office,

5 So wee being many are one body in Christ, and euery one, one anothers members.

6 * Seeing then that we haue gifts that are diuers, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether wee haue f prophesie, let vs prophesie according to the proportion of f faith:

7 Or an office, let vs waite on the office: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: hee that h distributeth, let him doe it * with simplicitie: hee that ruleth, with diligence: he that ‖ sheweth mercy, with * cheerefulnesse.

9 Let loue be without dissimulation. * Abhorre that which is euill, & cleaue vnto that which is good.

10 * Be affectioned to loue one another with brotherly loue. In giuing honour, goe one before another, 11 Not slouthfull to doe seruice: feruent in spirit: seruing ‖ the Lord.

12 Reioycing in hope, patient in tribulation, * continuing in prayer, 13 * Distributing vnto the necessities of the Saintes: * giuing your selues to hospitalitie.

14 * Blesse them which persecute you: blesse, I say, and curse not.

15 Reioyce with them that reioyce, and weepe with them that weepe.

x That i, prouoked him by his good workes?

y All things are created & preserued of God to set forth his glory.

a In stead of dead beasties, liuely sacrifices in stead of the blood of beasts which was but a shadow, and pleased not God of it selfe, the acceptable sacrifice of the spirituall man, framed by faith to godlines and chastitie.

b That is, true, lawful and spirituall, 1. Pet.2.5. Ephes.5.17. 1.Thes.4.1,3.

c Whatsoeuer is not agreeable to Gods wil, is euill, dissolute and vnperfect.

d Two things are required, if wee will iudge soberly of Gods gifts in vs: the one, that we doe not arrogate to our selues that which we haue not: next, that we bouft not of the gifts, but reuerently vse them to Gods honour.

e That is, soberly, not neglecting Gods gifts, but vsing them to his glory. 1.Cor.12.11. ephes.4.7.

f By prophesying here, he meaneth preaching & teaching, and by office and ministerie, all such offices, as appertaine to the Church, as Elders, Deacons, &c.

g By faith he meaneth the knowledge of God in Christ, with the gifts of the holy Ghost.

h Of the officers some are Deacons, some gouernours, some keepe the poore. Matth.6.2.

m For either thou shalt win him with thy benefite, or els his conscience shall beare him witnesse that Gods burning wrath hangeth ouer him.

20 * Therefore, if thine enemie hunger, feede him: if hee thirst, giue him drinke: for in so doing, thou shalt heape m coales of fire on his head.

21 Bee not ouercome of euill, but ouercome euill with goodnesse.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The obedience to the Rulers. 4 Why they haue the sword. 8 Charitie ought to measure all our doings. 11 An exhortation to innocencie and puritie of life.

LEt * euery soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are ordeined of God.

Wisd.6.3.vii.3.1. 2.pet.2.13,14.

2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shal receiue to themselues n iudgement.

n Not onely the punishment of theologues, but also the vengeance of God.

3 For Princes are not to bee feared for good workes, but for euill. Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? doe well: so shalt thou haue prayse of the same.

o Greeke, a reuenger vnto wrath.

4 For hee is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou doe euill, feare: for he beareth not the sword for nought: for he is the minister of God o to take vengeance on him that doth euill.

p For no priuate man can condemne that gouernement which God hath appointed, without the breach of his conscience: and here he speaketh of ciuill magistrates: so that Antichrist and his cannot wrest this place to establish their tyrannie ouer the conscience.

5 Wherefore yee must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for p conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause ye pay also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying themselues for the same q thing.

q That is, to defend the good, and to punish the euill.

7 * Giue to all men therefore their dutie: tribute, to whom ye owe tribute: custome, to whom custome: feare, to whom feare: honour, to whom ye owe honour.

8 Owe nothing to any man, but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the r Law.

r He meaneth onely the second table.

9 For this, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnesse, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commaundement, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, euen in this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

Exo.20.14. deut.5.18. Leuit.19.18. matt.22.39. gal.5.14.iam.2.8.

10 Loue doeth not euill to his neighbour: therefore is loue the * fulfilling of the Law.

11 And that, considering the season, that it is now time that wee should arise from sleepe: for now is our saluation s nearer then when we beleeued it.

s Before we beleeued, it had bin in vaine to tell vs these things: but now seeing our saluation is neere, let vs take heede that we neglect not this occasion.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hand: let vs therefore cast away the workes of darknesse, and let vs put on the t armour of light.

t That is, honest maners & godly.

13 So that wee walke honestly, as in the day: not in * u gluttonie and drunkennesse, neither in chambering and wantonnesse, nor in strife, and enuying:

Luke.21.34.

u Or, riot.

14 * But put yee on the Lorde IESVS Christ, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfill the lustes of it.

Gal.5.16. 1.pet. 2.11.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The weake ought not to be despised. 10 No man should offend anothers conscience. 15 But one to support another in charitie and faith.

HIm that is weake in the a faith, receiue vnto you, but not b for controuersies of disputations.

a That is, the doctrine of the Gospel.

b Lest he should depart either more ignorant then he came, or els with a greater scruple of conscience.

2 One beleeueth that he may eate of all things: and another, which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.

Iames 4.12.

4 * Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? hee standeth or falleth to his owne c master: yea, hee shall be established: for God is able to make him stand.

c It is the Lords matter, and not thine.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboue an other day, and another man counteth euery day alike: let euery man bee d fully perswaded in his mind.

d We must be assured in our conscience by Gods word in all things that wee doe: that if we be strong, we may know what is our libertie: and if we be weake, we may learne to profite dayly.

6 He that e obserueth the day, obserueth it to the f Lord: and hee that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. Hee that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for hee giueth God thanks: and he that g eateth not, h eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thanks.

e That counteth one day more holy then another.

f Who iudgeth whether he doe well or no.

g Because hee thinketh the meates vncleane by the Law.

7 For none of vs liueth i to himselfe, neither doeth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether we die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or die, we are the Lords.

h Here we must note three things first, that he speaketh of things which of themselues are indifferent, albeit in the Law they were not: next, that he reprooueth not the condemning of the acte, but of the person: thirdly, that he meaneth not the stubburne and malicious, whom he calleth dogs & concision, but the weake and infirme, to whom God as yet hath not reuealed the perfite libertie.

9 For Christ therefore died, and rose againe, and reuiued, that hee might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why dost thou iudge thy brother? or why dost thou despise thy brother? * for wee shall all appeare before the iudgment seate of Christ.

i Both our life and death ought to profite our brother. 2.Cor.5.10. Isa.45.23 phil.2.10.

11 For it is written, * k As I liue, saith the Lord, euery knee shall bowe to mee, and all tongues shall l confesse vnto God.

k This ought particularly appertaineth to God, who is the true life of himselfe, and giueth it to all others.

l And acknowledge me for their God.

12 So then every one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

14 [a] I know, and am perswaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother bee grieued for thy meate, now walkest thou not charitably: [b] destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ died.

16 Cause not your [c] commoditie to be euill spoken of.

17 For the [d] kingdome of God is not meate nor drinke, but righteousnesse, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoeuer [e] in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

19 Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: [f] all things in deede are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

21 [g] It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou [h] faith? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is hee that [i] condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For hee that doubteth, is condemned if he eate, because he eateth not of faith: and whatsoeuer is not of faith, is sinne.

a He preuenteth the obiection which the Christians might vse. 1. Cor. 8. 11.

b Which is the benefite of Christian libertie, by abusing whereof ye cause the weakelings to blaspheme the Gospel, which might seeme to them contrary to Gods wil, and the doctrine of the law.

c God will not reigne ouer his by such obseruations.

d In peace and right conscience. Titus 2. 15. 1. Cor. 8. 13.

e Faith here is taken for a full perswasion of the Christian libertie in things indifferent, as the Apostle ioyneth it in the 14. verse.

f Which hath none euil remorse of conscience in his doing.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 And by the only mercy of God which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 He sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 And requireth the same of them.

WE which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to [a] edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, [b] The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fell [c] on me.

4 For whatsoeuer things are written aforetime, are written for our learning, that wee through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures, might haue hope.

5 Now the God of [a] patience and consolation giue you that ye be [b] like minded one towards another, according to Christ Iesus, 6 That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore, receiue yee one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the [c] glorie of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a [d] minister of the circumcision, for the [e] truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercy as it is written, [f] For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe hee sayeth, [g] Reioyce, yee Gentiles with his people.

11 And againe, [h] Praise the Lord all yee Gentiles, and laud yee him all people together.

12 And againe Esaias saith, [i] There shall be a roote of Iesse, and [k] he that shall rise to reigne ouer the [l] Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ioy, and peace in beleeuing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are ful of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Neuertheles brethren, I haue somewhat boldly, after a sort mused vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen mee of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministring the Gospel of God, that the offring vp of the Gentiles might bee acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore wherof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not [k] speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by mee, to make the Gentiles obedient in words and deede, 19 With the power of signes & wonders, by the power of the spirite of God: so that from Ierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, [a] To whom hee was not spoken of, they shal see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

22 Therefore also I haue been [b] oft let to come vnto you.

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue [c] bene desirous many yeeres agone to come vnto you,

24 When I shall take my iourney into Spaine, I will come to you: for I trust to 26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saints which are at Ierusalem.

27 For it hath pleased them, and their debters are they: for if the Gentiles be made partakers of their spirituall things, their duetie is also to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue sealed them this fruite, I will passe by you into Spaine.

29 And I know when I come, that I shall come to you with abundance of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

30 Also brethren, I beseech you for our Lord Iesus Christes sake, and for the loue of the spirite, that ye woulde striue with me by prayers to God for me,

31 That I may be deliuered from them which are disobedient in Iudea, and that my seruice which I haue to doe at Ierusalem, may be accepted of the Saints,

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

AFter that S. Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeere and a halfe, he was compelled by the wickednesse of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glory, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian religion. Against these euils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reprooueth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, & exhorteth them to concord and humilitie, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heauenly wisdome of the Gospel, which cannot be perswaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is reuciled by Gods Spirite, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this saluation may not bee attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein S. Paul behaued himselfe skilfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heed that they bee not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he had declared by manifest signes that he neuer sought his owne glory, neither yet how he might liue, but onely the glory of Christ: which thing at his comming he would declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine-glorious braggers, who sought themselues onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproued and vnpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infidels, fornication, & such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duetie of mariage, of discord and dissention among the maried, of virginitie, and second mariage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole service, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, he warneth them to haue respect to their weake brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindered, and their consciences wounded, which thing, rather then he would doe, he would neuer vse that liberty which God had giuen him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfewill, was the cause of those great euils, hee admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glory in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to follow Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spirituall gifts, which God hath giuen to maintaine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to persеuere in the loue of Christ, and well doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

knit together in one mind, and in one iudgement.

11 For it hath bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you by them that are of the house of h Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Nowe this I say, that euerie one of you sayeth, I am Pauls, and I am *Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christes.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were ye baptized k into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but * Crispus, and l Gaius, 15 Least any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the houshold of Stephanas: furthermore know I not, whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent mee not to m baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with * n wisedome of wordes, o least the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs, which are saued, it is the * power of God.

19 For it is written, * I will destroy the wisedom of the wise, and will cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the p Scribe? where is the q disputer of this worlde? hath not God made the wisedome of this world foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the world by wisedom knew not God in the wisedome of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a * signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisedome,

23 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, we preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisedom of God.

25 For the r foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weaknes of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not many wise men s after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weake things of the world, to confound the mighty things.

28 And vile things of the world, & things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things t which are not, to bring to nought things u that are,

29 That no x flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But yee are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs * wisedom, and righteousnesse, and sanctification, and redemption,

CHAP. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the sects and authours thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his saluation to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware erroneous doctrines. 11 Christ is the foundation of his Church. 16 The dignitie and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithfull.

AND I could not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spirituall men, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto a babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not meate: for yee were not yet able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For yee are yet carnall: for where as there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are yee not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye beleeued, and as the Lord gaue to euery man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watered, but God gaue the increase.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and he that watereth are b one, * and euery man shall receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For wee together are Gods c labourers: ye are Gods husbandrie, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to mee, as a skilfull master builder, I haue layde the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let euery man d take heede how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is layd, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man builde on this foundation, gold, siluer, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble, 13 Euery mans worke shall be made manifest: for the e day shall declare it, because it shall be reuealed by the f fire: and the fire shall trie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that hee hath built vpon, abide, he shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, hee shall s lose, but he h shalbe i safe himselfe: neuertheless yet as it were by the fire.

16 * Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe. If any man among you seeme to be wise in this worlde, let him be a foole, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisedome of this worlde is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, * He catcheth the wise k in their owne craftinesse.

20 * And againe, The l orde knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man ! reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it bee Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death: whether they bee things present, or things to come, euen all are yours, 23 And ye Christs, and Christ Gods.

a Being ingrafted in Christ by faith, we begin to moue by his Spirit, and as we profit in faith, wee grow vp to a ripe age. And here let him take heede that teacheth, lest for milke he giue poison: for milke and strong meate in effect are one, but onely differ in maner and forme.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 Hee appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Beating downe their glory which hindered them to praise that, which they dispraysed in him. 16 He sheweth what hee requireth on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

LEt a man so thinke of vs, as of the a ministers of Christ, and dispolers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the dispolers, that euery man be found faithfull.

3 * As touching me, I passe very little to be iudged of you, or ‡ mans iudgement: no, I iudge not mine b owne selfe.

4 For I c knowe nothing by d my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but he that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore * iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall euery man haue praise of God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applyed vnto mine owne selfe and Apollos for your sakes, that ye might learne * by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swell not against another for any mans cause.

7 For who e separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou hadest not receiued it?

8 Now ye are full: now ye are made rich; ye reigne as Kings without vs, and would to God ye did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs the last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gasing stocke vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are [h] fooles for Christes sake, and ye are wise in Christ: we are weake, and ye strong: ye are honourable, and we are despised.

11 Unto this houre we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place, 12 And labour, working with our owne hands: we are reuiled, and yet we bleese: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 We are euil spoken of, and we pray: we are made as the filth of the worlde, the off scouring of all things vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you, 15 For though ye haue ten thousand [i] instructors in Christ, yet haue ye not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lord, which shall put you in [k] remembrance of my wayes in Christ as I teach euery where in euery Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, [l] if the Lorde will, and will knowe, not the speech of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the [k] kingdome of God is not in word, but in [l] power.

21 What will ye? shall I come vnto you with a rodde, or in loue, and in the spirite of meekenesse?

CHAP. V.

1 He reproueth sharpely their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Willing them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace puritie, 9 And flee wickednesse.

IT is heard certainely, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the [a] Gentiles, that one should haue his fathers wife.

h Meaning, hee that is fully perswaded that he hath no necde, cation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? p care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the q Lord being a seruant, is the Lords free man: likewise also hee that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 * Ye are bought ‖ with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein he was called, therein abide r with God.

25 Now concerning ‖ virgins, I haue no s commaundement of the Lorde: but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be ‖ faithfull.

26 I suppose then t this to be good for the present a necessitie: I meane, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marrie, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue x y trouble in the flesh: but I x spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, ‖ hereafter that both they which haue wiues, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that z weepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this worlde, as though they vsed it not: for the e fashion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the a world, how he may please his wife ‡.

34 There is a difference also betweene a virgine and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lorde, that shee may be e holy, both in body and in spirite: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your owne commoditie, not to f tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that, which is honest, and that ye may cleaue fast vnto the Lorde without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgine, if shee passe the flowre of her age, and a needs so require, let him doe what he wil, he sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuertheless, he b that standeth stirme in his heart, that hee hath no neede, but hath c power ouer his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that hee will keepe his virgine, he doeth well.

38 So then hee that giueth her to marriage, doeth well, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doeth d better.

39 The wife is bound by the e Lawe, as long as her husband ‖ liueth: but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to marry with whom she will, onely in the Lord.

40 But she is more blessed, if shee so abide, in my iudgement: * and I thinke that I haue also the spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He rebuketh them that vse their liberty to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue them toward such as be weake.

AND as touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, wee knowe that wee all haue a knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Nowe, if any man thinke that hee knoweth any thing, hee knoweth nothing yet as he ought to knowe.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is ‖ knowen of him.

4 Concerning therefore men sacrificed vnto idoles, wee know that an idole is b nothing in the worlde, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many c lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all things, and wee in him: and * one Lorde Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and wee by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some hauing d conscience of the idole, vntill this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh not vs acceptable to God: for neither if we eate, haue wee the e more: neither if we eate not, haue wee the lesse.

9 But take heede least by any meanes this ‖ power of yours bee an occasion of falling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weake, be f ‡ boldened to eate those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the ‡ g weake brother perish, for whome Christ died.

12 Nowe when yee sinne so against the brethren, and wounde their weake conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 * Wherefore if meate offend my brother, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

i For the fathers will depend eth on his children in this point: in so much as he is bound to haue respect to their infirmitie, neither can hee iustly require of them singlenes, if they haue not that gift of God so to liue.

k For now you haue no iust cause against me, seeing that I preached the Gospel freely vnto you.
l Seeing he is charged to preach he must willingly and earnely follow it: for if he doe it by constraint, he doth not his duety.
m That I be not chargeable to them vnto whom I preach, seeing that they think that I preach for gaines.

A M I not an Apostle? am I not free? haue I not seene Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my worke in the Lord?
2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for yet are ye a seale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.
3 My defence to them that b examine me, is this,
4 Haue wee not power to eate, c and to drinke?
5 Haue we not power to d leade about a wife being a e sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the ‖ brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?
6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power f not to worke?
7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?
8 Say I these things according to man? sayeth not the Law the same also?
9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, g Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take g care for oxen?
10 Either sayeth he it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt it is written, that he which eareth, should eare in hope: and that he that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.
11 h If we haue sowen vnto you spirituall things, is it a great thing if we reape your carnall things?
12 If others with you bee partakers of this h power, are not wee rather? neuertheless, we haue not vsed this power: but ‖ suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.
13 Do ye not know, that they which minister about the holy things, eate of the things of the Temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers i with the altar?
14 So also hath the Lord ordeined, that they which preach the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel.
15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my k reioycing vaine.
16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is layed vpon me, and woe is vnto mee, if I preach not the Gospel.
17 For if I doe it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I doe it against my will, l notwithstanding, the dispensation is committed vnto me.
18 What is my reward then? verely that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ m free, that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.
19 For though I bee free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the more.
20 n And vnto the Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the n Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Law:
21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Law (when I am not without Law as pertaining to God, but am in the Lawe through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law.
22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne the weake: I am made o all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.
23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.
24 Know ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiueth the price? so runne, that ye may obtaine.
25 And euery man that proueth masteries, p abstaineth from all things: and they doe it to obteine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.
26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainely: so fight I, not as one that beateth the aire.
27 But I beate downe my q bodie, and bring it into subiection, lest by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be r reproued.

CHAP. XI.

He rebuketh the abuse which were crept into their Church, 4 As touching prayer, or prophesying, 18 And ministring the Lords Supper, 23 Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

BE *ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.

2 Now, brethren, I commend you, that ye remember ‖ all my things, and keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.

3 But I will that ye know, that Christ is the *head of euery man: & the man is the womans head: and God is Christs head.

4 Euery man *praying, or ‖ prophesying hauing any thing on his head, *dishonoureth his head.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or *prophesieth bare headed, dishonoureth her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be ‖ shorne or shauen, let her be couered.

7 For a man ought not to couer his head: forasmuch as hee is the *‖ image and glorie of God: but the woman is the *glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 *For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue *power on her head, because of the *Angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the *Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 Iudge in your selues, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God vncouered?

16 But if any man lust to be contentious, we haue no such customе, neither the Churches of God.

17 ¶ Nowe in this that I declare, I praise you not, that yee come together, not with profite, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I beleeue it to be true m in some part.

19 For there must bee n heresies euen among you, that they which are approoued among you, might be knowen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lordes supper.

21 For euery man when they should eat, taketh his owne supper afore, and one is hungrie, and another is drunken.

22 Haue yee not houses to eate and to drinke in: despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the o Lorde that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 o And when he had giuen thankes, he brake it, and sayd, Take, eate: this is my body, which is p broken for you: this doe ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same maner also he tooke the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the newe Testament in my blood: this doe as oft as yee drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as yee shall eate this bread, and drink this cup, ye shew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoeuer shall eate this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lord q vnworthily, shalbe guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 o Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eate of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because hee discerneth not r the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many f sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tary one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 The diuersitie of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to be vsed to the edifying of Christes Church. 12 As the members of mans body serue to the vse one of another.

NOw concerning spirituall gifts, brethren, I would not haue you a ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and were caried away vnto the b dumbe idoles, as ye were c led.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man d speaking by the d Spirite of God, calleth e Iesus execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lorde, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

7 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to f profite withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirite the word of wisedome, and to another the word of g knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is giuen h faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another k the operations of great workes: and to another, l prophesie: and to another, m the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues, and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 o And all these things worketh euen the selfe same spirite, deuiding to euery man seuerally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are wee all baptized into i one body, whether wee be Iewes or Grecians, whether wee be bond, or free, and haue drunke all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were al one member, where were the body?

20 But nowe are there many members, yet but o one body.

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no neede of thee: nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no neede of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to bee n more feeble, a The Corinthians hauing notable gifts, seemed to haue forgotten, of whom, and for what ende they had receiued them.

b Which could not heare your prayers.

c By Satans suggestion. Marke 9.39.

d As no man that hath the spirit of God, can blaspheme Christ, and worshippe idoles: so none can acknowledg Christ for Lord and God without the same spirit. John 13.13. chap. 8.6. phil. 2.11.

e To wit, the Church, which is the whole body.

f That is, the vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

k To vse both the doctrine and the persons. Rom. 12.3. ephes. 4.7.

l That we might be one body with Christ, and the whole Church one Christ: of the which coniunction, baptisme and the Lords Supper are effectuall signes: for by baptisme wee are regenerate into one spirit, and by the Lords supper we are incorporate into Christs body to be gouerned by the same Spirit.

m And therefore whatsoeuer the diuersitie is, yet the profite ought to bee common, and seruе to the edification of the Church.

are necessarie.

23 And vpon those members of the body, which we thinke most vnhoneſt, put we moſt e honeſtie on: and our vncomely parts haue more comelineſſe on.

24 For our comely parts neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honor to that part which lacked,

25 Least there ſhould be any diuiſion in the body: but that the members ſhould haue the ſame care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member ſuffer, all ſuffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Chriſt, and members q ‖for your part.

28 * And God hath ordeined ſome in the Church: as firſt Apoſtles, ſecondly Prophets, thirdly teachers, then them that doe miracles: after that, the giftes of healing, r helpers, ſ gouernors, diuerſitie of tongues.

29 Are all Apoſtles? Are all Prophets? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the giftes of healing, doe all ſpeake with tongues? doe all interpret?

31 But ‖deſire you the beſt gifts, and I will ſhew you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

Becauſe loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he ſetteth forth the nature, office and prayſe thereof.

THough I ſpeake with the tongues of men and a Angels, and haue not loue, I am as ſounding braſſe, or a tinckling cymball.

2 And though I had the gift of prophetie, and knew all ſecrets, and all knowledge, yea, if I had b all faith, ſo that I could remoue c mountaines, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue ſuffereth long: it is bountifull: loue enuieth not: loue doeth not boaſt it ſelfe: it is not puffed vp:

5 It diſdaineth not: it ſeeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the trueth:

7 It ſuffereth all things: it believeth d all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth d all things.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, though that prophepings be abolished, or the tongues ceaſe, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For e we know in f part, and we ‖prophecie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, ſhall be abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I ſpake as a childe, I vnderſtood as a child, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childiſh things.

12 For nowe wee ſee g through a glaſſe darkely: but then ſhall wee ſee face to face. Nowe I knowe in part: but then ſhall I know euen as I am ‖knowen.

13 And now abideth faith, hope and loue, euen theſe three: but the h chiefeſt of theſe is loue.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 He exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other ſpirituall giftes, 5 But chiefly prophecying. 34 He commandeth women to keepe ſilence in the Church, 40 And ſheweth what good order ought to be obſerued in the Church.

FOlow after loue, and couet ſpirituall gifts, and rather that ye may a prophecie.

2 For he that ſpeaketh a ſtrange tongue, ſpeaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man b heareth him: howbeit in the c ſpirit he ſpeaketh ſecret things.

3 But he that prophecieth, ſpeaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 He that ſpeaketh ſtrange language, edifieth d himſelfe: but he that prophecieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that ye all ſpake ſtrange languages, but rather that ye prophelled: for greater is he that prophecieth, then hee that ſpeaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you ſpeaking diuers tongues, what ſhall I profite you, except I ſpeake to you, either by e reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?

7 Moreouer, things without life which giue a ſounde, whether it be a ‖ pipe or an harpe, except they make a diſtinction in the ſoundes, how ſhall it be knowen what is piped or harped?

8 And alſo if the trumpet giue an vncertaine ſound, who ſhall prepare himſelfe to battell?

9 So likewiſe you, by the tongue, except ye vtter words that haue ſignification, how ſhall it be vnderſtood what is ſpoken? for ye ſhall ſpeake in the f ayre.

10 There are ſo many kindes of voyces (as it commeth to paſſe) in the world, and none of them g is dumme.

11 Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I ſhal be vnto him that ſpeaketh, a Barbarian, and he that ſpeaketh, ſhall be a Barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen ſo, foraſmuch as yee couet ſpirituall giftes, ſeeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that ſpeaketh a ſtrange tongue, pray, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a ſtrange tongue, my ſpirit i prayeth: but mine vnderſtanding is without k fruite.

g That is, they may be able to be vnderſtood.

h He condemneth the Corinthians of barbarouſneſſe in that thing, wherby they thoughte haue attained to the greateſt prais of eloquence.

i And doeth his part.

k Not in reſpect of him that prayeth, but in reſpect of the Church, which is nothing edified thereby.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the ſpirit, but I will pray with the vnderſtanding alſo: I will [1] ſing with the ſpirit, but I will ſing with the vnderſtanding alſo.

16 Elſ, when thou bleſſeſt with the ſpirit, howe ſhall hee that occupieth the roome of the vnlearned, ſay, [m] Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, ſeeing he knoweth not what thou ſayeſt?

17 For thou verily giueſt thankes well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I ſpeake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to ſpeake [n] fiue wordes with mine vnderſtanding that I might alſo inſtruct others, then tenne thouſand wordes in a ſtrange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not * children in vnderſtanding, but as concerning malicioufneſſe be children, but in vnderſtanding bee of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, [o] By men of other tongues, and by other languages will I ſpeake vnto this people: yet ſo ſhall they not heare me, ſaith the Lord.

22 Wherefore ſtrange tongues are for a [p] ſigne, not to them that beleeue, but to them that beleeue not: but prophecying ſerueth not for them that beleeue not, but for them which beleeue.

23 If therefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and al ſpeake ſtrange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleeue not, will they not ſay, that ye are out of your wittes?

24 But if all propheſie, and there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlearned, [q] hee is rebuked of [r] all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And ſo are the ſecrets of his heart made manifeſt, and ſo he will fall downe on his face and worſhip God, and [s] plainely that God is in you indeede.

26 What is to bee done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a Pſalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things bee done vnto edifying.

27 If any man ſpeake a ſtrange tongue, let it be by two, or at the [t] moſt by three, and that by courſe, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe ſilence in the Church, which ſpeaketh languages, and let him ſpeake to himſelfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets ſpeake, two, or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuealed to another that ſitteth by, let the firſt holde his peace.

31 For yee may all propheſie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the * ſpirits of the Prophets are ſubiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confuſion, but of peace, as wee ſee in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 * Let your women keepe [u] ſilence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to ſpeake: but they ought to be ſubiect, as alſo the * Law ſaieth.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aſke their husbands at home, for it is a ſhame for women to ſpeake in the Church.

36 [x] Came the word of God out from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himſelfe to bee a Prophet, or [y] ſpirituall, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 [z] And if any man bee ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, couet to propheſie, and forbid not to ſpeake languages.

40 Let all things bee done honeſtly and by order.

1 Or, giue thankes by ſinging.

m One onely made the prayers, and the reſt of the people followed in heart his words, and when he had prayed, they all ſayd, Amen, ſignifying that they beleeued aſſuredly that God would graunt their requeſts.

5 * And that hee was ſeene of Cephas, then of the [c] twelue.

7 After that hee was ſeene of Iames: then of all the Apoſtles.

8 * And laſt of all hee was ſeene alſo of me, as of one borne out of due time.

d For he was but the inſtrument and miniſter, and giueth the whole glorie to God.

I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more aboundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleeued.

12 ¶ Nowe if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there bee no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching [e] vaine, and your [f] faith is also vaine.

15 And wee are found also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whom he hath not raysed vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead bee not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is [g] vaine: ye are yet in your [h] sinnes.

18 And so they which are asleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life [i] only we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But nowe is Christ risen from the dead, & was made the [k] first [l] fruites of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in [k] Christ shall [l] all be made aliue, 23 But euery man in his [m] owne order: the first fruits is Christ, afterward, they that are of Christ, at his comming shal rise againe.

24 Then shalbe the ende, when hee hath [n] deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when he hath put downe al rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must reigne [o] till hee hath put all his enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemie that shalbe destroied, is death.

27 [p] For hee hath put downe all things vnder his feete. (And when he saith that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe bee subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be [q] all in all.

29 Else, what shall they doe which are baptized [r] for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are wee also in ieopardie euery houre?

31 [s] By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus after the [t] maner of men, what aduantage hath it me, if the dead be not raised vp? [u] let vs eate and drinke: for to morowe wee shall die.

33 Bee not deceiued: [x] euill speakings corrupt good maners.

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, Howe are the dead raised vp? and with what body come they forth?

36 O foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall bee, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a body at his pleasure, euen to euery seede his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one [y] flesh of men, and another flesh of beastes, and another of fishes, and another of birdes.

40 There are also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heauenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the [z] sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sowen in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sowen in [a] dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sowen in weakenesse, and is raised in power.

44 It is sowen a naturall body, and is raised a [b] spirituall body: there is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 As it is also written, The first man [c] Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a [d] quickening Spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first made which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthly: the second man is the Lord [e] from heauen.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the [f] image of the earthly, so shall we beare the image of the heauenly.

50 This say I, brethren, that [g] flesh and blood cannot inherite the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 Beholde, I shewe you a secret thing, We shall not all sleepe, but we shall all bee [h] changed, e Christes death is not effectuall, except he rise from death.

f For if Christ be swalowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.
g As mortification and remission of sinnes depend on Christes death: so our quickening and restoring to life stand in his resurrection.
h You are not forgiuen nor sanctified.
i Or, onely for this lifes sake. Col.1.18.ver.15 k As by the offering of the first fruit the whole fruit is sanctified, so by Christ which is the first that is raysed, all haue assurance of the resurrection.

l To wit, the faithfull. 2.Thes.4.15.
m Christ as he is man and head of the Church, is sayd to be subiect to God: but in respect of the world, is king of heauen & earth. This kingdom standeth in gouerning the faithfull, & ouercomming the aduersaries, euen death the chiefest: which done, Christ being perfected with all his members, shall as he is man, and head of the Church, with his fellow heires deliuer his kingdom, and be subiect to God, with whom & the holy Ghost in Godhead he is equall. Psal.110.1.acts 2.34,35.heb.1.13.& 10.13.Psal.8.6.heb.2 8.
n We shall be perfectly fulfilled with his glory and felicitie.
o That is, as dead, and becaple they were but newly come to Christ, would be baptised before they dyed.
p Except these things be true of Christes Kingdom, & his subiection, what shal become of them whom the Church daily baptizeth, for to destroy death in them, which is the end of Baptisme, & so they to rise againe?
q I take to witnesse all my sorowes wherein I may iustly reioyce in the Lord, that I haue sustained them among you.

54 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitie, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, *Death is swalowed vp into victorie.

55 †*O death, where is thy sting? O graue, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sinne: and the [d] strength of sinne is the Law.

He putteth them in remembrance of the gathering for the poore brethren at Hierusalem. 13 We must persuere in faith, in the loue of Christ and our neighbour. 15 After his commendations he wisheth to them all prosperitie.

Acts 11.29.& 12.15.rom.12.13 Acts 18.23.

COncerning * the gathering for the Saints, as I haue ordered in the Churches * of Galatia, so doe ye also,

2 [a] Euery first day of the weeke, let euery one of you put aside by himselfe, and lay vp as God hath prospered him, that then there be no gathering when I come.

3 And when I am come, whosoeuer yee shall allow [b] by letters, them will I send to bring your liberalitie vnto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meete that I go also, they shall goe with me.

5 Now I will come vnto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia)

6 And it may bee that I will abide, yea, or winter with you, that ye may bring me on my way whithersoeuer I goe.

7 For I will not see you now in my passage: but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I wil tary at Ephesus vntil Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and [c] effectuall is opened vnto me: but there are many aduersaries.

10 ¶ Now if Timotheus come, see that he be [d] without feare with you: for hee worketh the worke of the Lord, euen as I doe.

11 Let no man therefore [e] despise him: but conuey him forth [f] in peace, that he may come vnto mee: for I looke for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he will come when he shall haue conuenient time.

13 ¶ Watch ye: stand fast in the faith: quite you like men, and be strong.

14 Let all your things be done in [g] loue.

15 Now, brethren, I beseech you (yee knowe the house of Stephanas, that it is the [h] first fruites of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselues to minister vnto the Saintes)

16 That ye be [i] obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs and labour.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for they haue [j] supplied the want of you.

18 For they haue comforted my ‖ spirite and yours: acknowledge therefore such men.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla with the Church that is in their house, salute you greatly in the Lord.

20 All the brethren greete you. Greete ye one another with an * holy [m] kisse.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine owne hand.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS nothing can be written either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle, written by Saint Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them farre passing all naturall affections: which did not only not profite all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbornesse, and contemne the Apostles authoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begun among them. First therefore he wisheth them well in the Lord, declaring that that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were necessary schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, he should haue bene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former Epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euident both in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that hee was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authoritie, he confuteth their arrogant brags, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idlarry, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorow which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercy and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel & the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas he contrarywise sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth such as rebell against his authoritie, that hee will declare by liuely example that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great profite that commeth to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnesse, that he deferred his comming contrary to his promise, he proueth his constancie, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

PAUL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by ᵃ the will of God, and our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus with all the Saints which are in all ᵇ Achaia:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 ᶜ Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, 4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the ᵈ sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation abounded through Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation, and ᵉ saluation, which is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as wee know that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, we would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how wee were pressed ᶠ out of measure passing strength, so that we altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we ᵍ receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God, which raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so ʰ great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom wee trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs, 11 ⁱ So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thankes may be giuen by many persons for vs.

12 For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godly pureneſſe, and not in fleshly wisedome, ᵏ but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to you wards.

13 For we ˡ write none other things vnto you, then that ye read, or els that ye acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the end.

14 Euen as ye haue acknowledged vs partly, that wee are your ᵐ reioycing, euen as ye are ᵐ ours, in the ᵐ day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue had a double grace.

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to bee led toward Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnes? or mind I those things which I minde, ⁿ according to the flesh, that with me should bee ᵒ Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

18 Yea, ᵖ God is faithfull, that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is, by mee, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was ᵒ Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are ᵒ Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glory of God through vs.

21 And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs.

22 Who hath also ᵠ sealed vs, ᵗ hath giuen the ᵘ earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

e As God onely worketh all things in vs: so doeth he also our saluation by his free mercy, and by such meanes as he hath here left in this life for vs to be exercised in.

f Hereby hee sheweth his owne infirmitie, that it might appeare how wonderfully Gods graces wrought in him, many dangers of death.

23 Nowe I call God for a recorde vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

u In that I say I came not because I would spare you, I meane not that I haue authoritie to alter true religion, or to binde your consciences, but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you.

24 Not that wee ᵗ haue dominion ouer your faith, but we are helpers of your ioy: for by ˣ faith ye stand.

x And faith is not in subiection to man.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towards them, 7 Requiring likewise that they would be fauourable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine, 17 Confuting thereby such quarell pickers as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the ouerthrow of his doctrine.

BVt I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauinesse.

a Which was giuen to Satan, but now dothrepent.

2 For if I make you sory, who is he then that should make me glad, but ʸ same which is made ᵃ sory by me?

b Which made you and him sory in my former epistle.

3 And I wrote ᵇ this same thing vnto you, least when I came, I should take heauines of them, of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

c After this adulterer did repent and amend, Paul did so vtterly cast off all sorow, that he denieth that in maner he was any whit sory.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should be made sory, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

d And so should increase his sorowe which I would diminish.

5 And if any haue caused sorowe, the same hath not ᶜ made me sory, but partly (least I should ᵈ more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

e The adulterer, which interteined his mother in lawe.

7 So that now contrariwise yee ought rather to forgiue him, and comfort him, least the same ᵉ should be swalowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse.

f That at my intercession you would declare, by the publike consent of the Church that you imbrace him againe as a brother, seeing he was excommunicate by the common consent.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you would ᶠ confirme your loue towards him.

g That is, truely, and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether yee would be obedient in all things.

h By our rigorous punishing.

10 To whom yee forgiue any thing, I forgiue also: for verely if I forgaue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your sakes forgaue I it in the ᵍ sight of Christ, 11 Lest Satan should ʰ circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

12 ¶ Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christs Gospel, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest ‖ in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of the, ⁊ went away into Macedonia.

i From this place vnto the 6. Chap. 11. he intreateth onely of the ministers, saue he sometime interlaceth that which appertaineth to the whole Church, as Chap. 3. 7 and 18. verses, and not onely to the ministers.

14 ⁱ Now thanks be vnto God, which alwaies maketh vs ᵏ to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

15 For wee are vnto God the sweete sauour of Christ, in them that are saued, and in them which perish.

k In working mightily by vs, he maketh vs partakers of his victory and triumph, 16 To the one wee are the ˡ sauour of death, vnto death, ᵐ and to the other the sauour of life, vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things?

l The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which onely consider Christes death as a common death, and be therat offended, or els thinke it folly: and bringeth againe life to them, who in his death behold their life. Rom. 1. 16. Rom. 16. 18. chap. 4. 2.

m That is, which preach for gaine, and corrupt it to serue mens affections.

17 * For wee are not as many, ᵐ which make merchandise of the word of God: but as of sinceritie, but as of God in the sight of God speake we ‖ in Christ.

‖ Or, through Christ, or of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth which hee preached. 6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false apostles, 7.13 Hee maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

DO we begin to praise our selues againe? or need we as some other, Epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

a Meaning, himselfe, Timotheus, and Siluanus.

2 Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is vnderstood and read of all men,

3 In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ ᵇ ministred by vs, and written, not with inke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in ᶜ tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

b Who were Gods pen.

c The hardnesse of mans heart, before he be regenerate, is as a stonie table, Ezek. 11. 19 and 36. 26. but being regenerate by the spirit of God, it is as soft as flesh, that the grace of the Gospel may be written in it, as in new tables, Ierem. 31. 31, 32, 33.

4 And such trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing as of our selues: but our sufficiencie is of God.

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the new Testament, not of the ᵈ letter, but of the ᵉ Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the ᶠ Spirit giueth life.

d Whose minister Moses was.

e Which Christ gaue.

f Meaning, the spiritual doctrine, which is in our hearts.

7 If then the ministration ᵍ of death written with letters, and ingrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moses for the ʰ glory of his countenance (which glory is done away)

g Thus he nameth the Law, in comparison of the Gospel.

h After that God had spoken with him, and giuen him the Law.

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministerie of ⁱ condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of ᵏ righteousnesse exceede in glorie.

i For the Lawe declareth all men to be vnder condemnation.

k Meaning, of the Gospel, which declareth that Christ is made our righteousnesse.

10 For men that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

l In preaching the Gospel. Exod. 34. 33.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shal that which remaineth, be glorious.

m Moses shewed the Law as it was couered with shadowes, so that the Iewes eyes were not lightened, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the ende thereof: against the Gospel shineth foorth the glory of God cleerely, not couering our eyes, but driuing the darkenesse away from them.

12 Seeing then that wee haue such trust, we vse ˡ great boldnesse of speach.

13 * And wee are not as Moses, which ᵐ put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the ende of of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the olde testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is laide ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheles, when their heart shall be turned to the Lorde, the vaile shalbe taken away.

17 Now the [n] Lord is the [*] Spirite, and where the spirit of [p] Lord is, there is libertie.

18 But we all beholde as in a [o] mirrour the glory of the Lorde with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glorie to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

n Christ is our mediator and authour of the new Testament, whose doctrine is spirituall, and giueth life to the Law.
Iohn 4.24.
o In Christ, who is God manifested in the flesh, we see God the Father as in a most cleare glasse.

CHAP. IIII.

1 How declareth his diligence and roundnesse in his office. 8 And that which his enemies tooke for his disaduantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which he endured, hee turneth to his great aduantage, 11, 17 Shewing what profite commeth thereby.

THerefore, seeing that we haue this ministerie, as wee haue receiued mercie, [a] we faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the [b] clokes of shame, and [*] walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the [c] god of this world hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospell of Christ, which is the [d] image of God, should not shine vnto them.

5 For wee preach not our [e] selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God that [*] commanded the light to shine out of darkenesse, is hee which hath shined in [f] our hearts, to giue the [g] light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we haue this [b] treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

8 Wee are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not ouercome of pouertie.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where wee beare about in our body the [i] dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For wee which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

a For any trouble or affliction, b Meaning such shifts and pretences as become not them that haue such a great office in hand. Chap.2.17.
c To wit, Satan, Iohn 12,31, and 14.13. Eph.6.12
d In whom God doeth shew himselfe to be seene: and here Christ is called so in respect of his office.
e As they which preach for gaine, or els which rather seeke to be seene and knowen, then to edifie. Gene.1,3.
f Which are your seruants.
g That we hauing receiued light should communicate the same with others, and therefore Christ calleth them the light of the world, Matth 5.14.
h Albeit the ministers of the Gospel be contemptible as touching their person, yet the treasure which they cary is nothing worse or inferiour. i Al the faithfull, and chiefly the Ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ: and also that the members should bee conformable to Christ their head, yet by the mightie power of Christ, who ouercame death, they are made conquerours.

12 So then [k] death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And because we haue the same [l] Spirit of faith, according as it is written, [*] I beleeued, and therefore haue I spoken, wee also beleeue, and therefore speake, 14 Knowing that hee which hath rayled vp the Lord Iesus, shall [m] raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plentious grace by the thankesgiuing of [n] many, may redound to the praise of God.

16 Therefore wee faint not, but though our outward man [‖] perish, yet the inward man is [o] renued daily.

17 For our [p] light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre most excellent and an eternall weight of glory:

18 While wee looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene: for the things which are seene, are temporall: but the things which are not seene, are eternall.

k By our death you haue life: so that the fruite of your afflictions commeth to you.
l The same faith by the inspiration of the holy Ghost.
Psal.116.10.
m In deliuering vs from these dangers, which is as it were a restoring from death to life.
n That I being deliuered and restored to you againe, may not onely my selfe giue God thanks for this infinite benefite of deliuerance, but also you all, which are both partakers of mine affliction and comfort, may abundantly set forth his glory. ‖Or, be corrupted. o Groweth stronger. p Which is so called in respect of the euerlasting life.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the vtilitie that commeth by the crosse. 4 How we ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 By whom, 9 And for what ende. 14. 19 Hee setteth forth the grace of Christ, 20 And the office of ministers, and all the faithfull.

FOr we know that if [a] our earthly house of this tabernacle be destroyed, wee haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with hands, but eternall in the heauens.

2 For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen.

3 ‖ Because that if we be clothed, we shal not be found [*] naked.

4 For in deede wee that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burthened, ‖ because wee would not be vnclothed, but would bee clothed vpon, that mortalitie might be swallowed vp of life.

5 And hee that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the [*] earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway [b] bold, though we know that whiles we are [c] at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For wee [d] walke by faith, and not by sight)

8 Neuertheles, wee are bolde, and loue rather to remoue out of the body, and to [e] dwell with the Lord.

9 Wherefore also wee couet, that both [d] dwelling at home, and remouing [e] from home, we may be acceptable to him.

10 [*] For we must all appeare before the [f] iudgement seate of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are done in his body, according to that hee hath done, whether it be [g] good or euill.

11 Knowing therefore the [g] terrour of the a After this body shalbe dissolued, it shalbe made incorruptible and immortall.

‖Or, wherein.
Chap.1.22.
b Not onely quiet in minde, but also ready to sustaine all dangers: being assured of the good successe thereof.
‖Or, strangers in the body.
c For here onely we beleeue in God, and see him not.
d In this body.
e Out of this body, to heauen.
Rom.14.10.
f That is, either glory or shame.
g His fearefull iudgement.

h He proueth the dignitie of his ministerie by the fruite and effect thereof, which is to bring men to Christ.
i By imbracing the same faith which we preach to others.
k As they, which more esteemed the outward shew of wilesome and eloquence, then true godlinesse.
l As the aduersaries said, which could not abide to heare them praised.
m Our follie serueth to Gods glory.
n Therefore whosoeuer giueth place to ambition or vaineglory, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.
o As the onely faithfull doe in Christ.
p According to the estimation of the world: but in heis guided by the Spirite of God.
q We doe not esteeme, nor commend Christ himselfe nowe, as he was an excellent man: but as he was the Sonne of God partaker of his glory, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and do you thinke, that I will flatter my selfe or any man in setting foorth his gifts? Yea, when I praise my ministerie, I commend the power of God: when I commend our worthy factes, I praise the mighty power of God set foorth by vs vormes & wretches.
r Let him be regenerate, and renounce himself, th all the rest is nothing. Iso.43.19.reuel.21.5.
s Therefore without Christ we cannot enjoy the life euerlasting, nor come to God.
t That is, a sacrifice for sinne.
u By imputation, when we shall bee clad with Christs iustice.

the Lord, we b perswade men, and we are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioice of vs, that ye may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the k face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether wee be l out of our wit, we are it m to God: or whether we be in our right mind, we are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because we thus iudge, that if one be dead for all, then were n all dead, 15 And he died for all, that they o which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselues, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 Wherefore, henceforth knowe we no man p after the flesh, yea though wee had knowen Christ after q flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a r new creature. s Olde things are passed away: behold, all things are become newe.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himself by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was t in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Nowe then are wee ambassadors for Christ: as though God did beseech you through vs, we pray you in Christes stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For hee hath made him to bee u sinne for vs, which knewe no sinne, that wee should bee x made the righteousnesse of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

1 An exhortation to Christian life, 11 And to beare him like affection, as hee doeth them: 14 Also to keepe themselues from all pollution of idolatrie both in body and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

WE then exhorting you as workers together beseech you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

2 For he sayth, a I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: beholde nowe the b accepted time, behold now the day of saluation.

3 We giue no occasion of offence in any thing, that our ministerie should not be c reprehended.

4 But in all things wee approoue our selues as d the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours,

6 By e watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindnesse, by the f holy Ghost, by g loue vnfained,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousnesse on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by euill report, and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true:

9 As vnknowen, and yet knowen: as dying, and behold, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

10 As sorowing, and yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our h mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

12 Ye are not kept straite in vs, but yee are kept straite in your owne i bowels.

13 Nowe for the same recompence, I speake as to my children, k Bee you also enlarged.

14 l Be not vnequally yoked with the infidels: for m what felowship hath righteousnesse with vnrighteousnesse? and what communion hath light with darkenesse?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath the beleeuer with the infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idols? n for ye are the Temple of the o liuing God: as God hath sayd, p I will dwel among them, and walke there: and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 q Wherefore, come out from among them, and separate your selues, sayth the Lord: and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

18 r And I wil be a Father vnto you, and ye shall be my sonnes and daughters, sayth the Lord Almighty.

2 c Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: wee haue consumed no man: wee haue d defrauded no man.
3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue sayde before, that ye are in our hearts, to die and liue together.
4 I vse great boldnesse of speech toward you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.
5 For when wee were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on euery side, fightings e without, and terrours within.
6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:
7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent mind to mee-ward, so that I reioiced (much) more.
8 For though I made you sorrie with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same Epistle made you sory, though it were but for a season.
9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sorie, but that ye sorowed to repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.
10 * For godly sorow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorow causeth death.
11 For beholde, this thing that yee haue beene g godly sory, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what h clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what i punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are pure in this matter.
12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care towarde you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.
13 Therefore wee were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his k spirite was refreshed by you all.
14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not beene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in trueth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.
15 And his l inward affection is more abundant toward you, when he remembreth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.
16 I reioyce therefore that I may m put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, he exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saints, commending their good beginning.
23 After he commendeth Titus, and his fellowes vnto them.

WE doe you also to wit, brethren, of the a grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,
2 Because in great triall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouertie b abounded vnto their rich liberalitie.
3 For to their power, (I beare recorde) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing:
4 And prayed vs with great instance that we would receiue the c grace, and fellowship * of the ministring which is toward the Saints.
5 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,
6 That we should exhort Titus, that as he had begun, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.
7 Therefore, as yee abound in euery thing, in faith and worde, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so see that ye abound in this grace also.
8 This say I not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore prooue I the naturalnesse of your loue.
9 For yee know the grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ, that hee being rich for your sakes became poore, that ye through his pouertie might be made rich.
10 And I shewe my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to d will, a yeere agoe.
11 Now therefore performe to doe it also, that as there was a readines to will, euen so yee may performe it of that which yee haue.
12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, & not according to that he hath not.
13 Neither is it, that other men should bee eased and you grieued,
14 But vpon like condition, at this time your e abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be f equalitie:
15 As it is written, * Hee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.
16 And thankes bee vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.
17 Because he accepted the g exhortation, yea, he was so carefull, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.
18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is h in the Gospel throughout all the Churches,
19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to bee a fellow in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glory of the same Lorde, and declaration of your prompt mind)
20 Auoiding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs, 21 * Prouiding for i honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.
22 And

a This benefit of God appeared in two things, first, that the Macedonians being in so great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others: and next, that being in great poeerty were very liberall towards others.
b So that a most abundant riuer of riches flowed out of their pouertie.
c So he calleth their liberalitie, either because they were the bestowers of Gods graces, or because they receiued them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to see to the distribution thereof. (chap. 9.12.
d Euery man may doe good that hath abilitie thereunto: but to will, and haue a mind to doe good, commeth of perfect charitie.
e That as you helpe others in their need, so others shall relieue your want.
f That both you and others, as occasion shal serue, may relieue the godly according to their necessities. Exod. 16.18.
g And willingly offred himselfe to gather your almes.

i His well doing is approued before God and man.

a Least they should giue but little, distrusting to inpouerishing themselues thereby, he sheweth that God will so blesse their liberall hearts, that both they shall haue ynough for themselues, and also to helpe others withall.
b That ye may doe good and helpe others at all times. Psal. 112.9.
c Dauid speaketh of that man which feareth God, and loueth his neighbour.
d Besides that by their liberalitie God shall be praised, they also commende God by their prayers vnto whom they haue respect, yea, and others shal seeing them, as being endued with excellent gifts of God. Or, greatly affectioned toward you.

22 And we haue sent with them our brother whom we haue oft times prooued to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper to youward: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the a glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew towarde them, and before the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioycing that wee haue of you.

a That is, by whom Christs glory is greatly aduanced.

CHAP. IX.

1 The cause of Titus and his companions coming to them. 6 He exhorteth to giue almes cheerefully. 12 Shewing what fruit will come thereof.

FOr as touching the ministring to the Saints, it is superfluous for mee to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yeere agot, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Nowe haue I sent the brethren, least our reioycing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that yee (as I haue sayd) be readie:

4 Least if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I meede not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your benevolence appointed afore, that it might be readie, and come as of benevolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly, or of necessitie: * For God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that yee alwayes hauing a all sufficiencie in all things, may abound in euery b good worke.

9 * As it is written, c He hath sparsed abroad, and hath giuen to the poore: his benevolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also he that findeth seede to the sower, will minister likewise bread for food, and multiply your seede, and increase the fruits of your benevolence, 11 That on al parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God.

12 For the ministration of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thanksgiuing of many vnto God,

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministration praysе God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for you liberall distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And by d their prayer for you, ‖ desiring after you greatly for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thankes therefore be vnto God for his vnspeakeable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 and sheweth what his power is, 13. And how he vseth it.

NOw I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenesse, and gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, am a base, but am bolde towarde you being absent:

2 And this I require you, that I neede not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked b according to the flesh.

3 Neuertheless, though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ.

6 And hauing readie the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himself that he is Christes, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christs, euen so are we Christs.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, c saith he, are sore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speech is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in worde by letters when wee are absent, such will we be also in deede, when we are present.

12 For wee dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which praise themselues: but they vnderstand not that they d measure themselues with themselues, and compare themselues with themselues.

13 But wee will not reioice of things, which are out of the measure, but according to the e measure of the line, which God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For we stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though wee had not attayned vnto you: for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching the Gospell of Christ;

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you, according to our line abundantly, a These wordes his backbiters vsed thinking thereby to diminish his authoritie, as vers. 10.

16 And

b As though we boasted of our selues by a carnall affection.

c Meaning certain man among them, which thus spake of Paul.

d Hee that measureth any thing must haue some line or measure to mease by, and not to measure a thing by it selfe. So these boasters must measure themselues by their worthy acts: and if they will compare with others, let them shew what cities, and people they haue wonne to the Lord: for who will praise that souldier, which onely at the table can finely talke of warres, and when he commeth to the brunt, is neither valiant nor expert?

Epist. 4. 7.

f God gaue the whole world to the Apostles to preach in, so that Paul here meaneth by the line, his portion of the countreys where he preached. Iere.9.24. 2.cor.1,31.

16 And to preach the Gospel in those regions which are beyond you: not to reioyce in another mans line, that is, in the things that are prepared already.

17 * But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For he that prayseth himselfe, is not allowed, but he whom the Lord prayseth.

CHAP. XI.

1 He declareth his affection toward them. 5 The excellencies of his ministerie, 9 And his diligences in the same. 13 The forches of the false Apostles. 16 The peruerse iudgement of the Corinthians. 22 And his owne prayses.

a He calleth the praysing of himselfe dotage, to the which thing the arrogancie of the false Apostles compelled him, who sought nothing else, but to ouerthrow the Church by diminishing the authoritie of his ministerie.

WOuld to God ye could suffer a litle my * foolishnesse, and in deede * ye suffer me.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly iealousie: for * I haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:

3 * But I feare least as the * serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your mindes should be corrupt from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

4 For if he that commeth preacheth an other * Iesus then him whom we haue preached: or if ye receiue another * spirite then that which ye haue receiued: either another Gospel, then that ye haue receiued, ye might well haue suffered him.

5 Verily I * suppose that I was not inferiour to the very chiefe Apostles.

6 And though I be * rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifest to the vtmost, in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that ye might be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I * robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and had neede, I was * not slouthfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I should not * bee grieuous to you.

10 b The trueth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shall not bee shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire * occasion, that they might be found like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

b To speake in mine owne commendation.

c The minister marieth Christ and his Church as husband and wife by the preaching of the Gospel. Gene.3.4.

e More excellent gifts of the spirit by other mens preaching.

f They did not preach Christ more purely then I did: for in this behalfe I was nothing inferiour to the chiefest Apostles.

g That is, vse no worldly eloquence.

h Other Churches relieued me.

i He did not onely labour with his handes for his liuing, but in his extreme powertie preached diligently without burdening any man, or else wearing slout hall to do his doctrie to euery man. Chap.12.13. Actes 20.34.

k Let not the trueth of Christ be thought to be in me, if I suffer my ioy to be shut vp, which I haue conceiued of Grecia.

l To slander my ministerie, if I should receiue wages.

13 For such false * apostles are deceitfull workers, and transforme themselues into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no maruell: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his * ministers transforme themselues, as though they were the ministers of righteousnesse, whose ende shall be according to their workes.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or else take me euen as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a litle.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the * Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce * after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

19 For yee suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For ye suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man smite you on the face.

21 p I speake as concerning the reproch: as though that wee had bene * weake: but wherein any man is bolde (I speake foolishly) I am bolde also.

22 They are Ebrewes, * so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I:

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I * speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes aboue measure: in prison more plenteously: in * death oft.

24 Of the Iewes * fiue times receiued I fourtie stripes * saue one.

25 * I was thrise * beaten with rodders: I was * once stoned: I suffered thrise * shipwracke: night and day haue I bene in the deepe sea.

26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nacion, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the citie, in perils in wildernesse, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, 27 In wearinesse and painefulnesse, in watching often, in hunger, and thirst, in fasting often, in colde and in nakednes.

28 Beside the things which are outward, I am cumbred daily, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weake, and I am not weake? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needes reioyce, I will reioyce of mine * infirmities.

his boasting vpon the Corinthians. 14 He foreweth what good will be bewroth them, 20 And protesteth to come vnto them.

IT is not expedient for me no doubt, to reioyce: for I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

2 a I knowe a man b in Christ aboue fourteene yeere agone, (whether hee were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the b third heauen.

3 And I knowe such a man (whether in the body or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was taken vp into paradise, and heard c words which cannot be spoken, which are not possible for man to vtter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a foole: for I will say the trueth, but I refraine least any man should thinke of me aboue that he seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And least I should bee exalted out of measure, through the aboundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto d mee a pricke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lorde e thrise, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weakenesse. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore f I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christes sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: yee haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferiour vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The tignes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it wherein yee were inferiours vnto other Churches, * except that I haue not beene g slouthfull to your hinderance? forgiue me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the b third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be slouthfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestowe and will be bestowed for your g soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But bee it that I charged you not: h yet forasmuch as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired i Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked we not in the selfe same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Againe, thinke ye that we excuse our selues vnto you? we speake before God in Christ. But we do all things, dearely beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare, least when I come, I shall not finde you such as I would: and that I shall be found vnto you * such as ye would not, and least there be strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backbittings whisperings, swellings, and discord.

21 I feare least when I come againe, my God * abase me among you, and I shall bewayle many of them which haue sinned alreadie, and haue not repented of the vncleanesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 How threatneth the obstinate, 5 And declareth what his power is by their owne testimonie, 10 Also hee sheweth what is the effect of this Epistle. 11 After hauing exhorted them to their duetie, he wisheth them all prosperitie.

THis is the * third time that I come vnto you. * In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall euery word stand.

2 b I tolde you before, and tell you before: as though I had bene present the second time, so write I now being absent, to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare,

3 Seeing that yee seeke experience of Christ, that speaketh in me, which towarde you, is not weake, but is mightie in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning his * infirmitie, yet liueth hee through the power of God. And wee no doubt are weake in him: * but wee shall liue with him, through the power of God towarde you.

5 * Proue your selues whether yee are in the faith: examine your selues: know ye not your owne selues, howe that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Nowe I pray vnto God, that ye doe none euill, not that wee should seeme approued, but that yee should doe that which is honest: though we be as * reprobates.

The second Epistle to the Corinthians, written from Philippi, a citie of Macedonia, and sent by Titus and Lucas.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Galatians, after they had bene instructed by Saint Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false Apostles, who entring in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Lawe must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that hee prooueth that the graunting thereof, is the ouerthrow of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authoritie, but spake of himselfe, hee prooueth both that he is an Apostle ordeined by God, and also that hee is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, proouing that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the end thereof is come: Wherefore men ought now to imbrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the grennes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffred themselues to be seduced by the false Apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Lawe were necessarie to saluation, 8 And detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 Hee sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to bee equall with the chiefe Apostles.

d That is, to be partakers of the saluation offered freely by Christ.

e For what is more contrary to our free iustification by faith, then the iustification by the Law, or our workes? therfore to ioyne these two together is to ioyne light with darkenesse, death with life, and doeth vtterly ouerthrow the Gospel.

PAul *an Apostle (not a of men, neither by b man, but by Iesus Christ, and God the Father which had raised him from the dead)

2 And all the brethren which are with mee, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

8 But though that wee, or an f Angell from heauen preach vnto you otherwise then that which wee haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

9 As wee sayde before, so say I now againe, If any man preach vnto you otherwise then that yee haue receiued, let him be accursed.

11 *Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after h man.

h That is, doctrine inuented by man, neither by mans authoritie doe I preach it.

k That is, of the Lawe of God, which was giuen to the ancient fathers.

15 But when it l pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 How sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that hee is nothing inferiour to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that he hath reproued Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After he commeth to the principal scope, which is to proue that iustification onely commeth of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the works of the Law.

THen fourteene yeres after, I went vp again to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also, a Paul nothing doubted of his doctrine: but because many reported that he taught contrary doctrine to the other Apostles, (which rumours hindered the course of the Gospel) he indeuoured to remedy it, and to proue that they consented with him. Actes 15.2. b Greeke, without profite.

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospel ouer the vncircumcision, was committed vnto mee, as the Gospel ouer the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For hee that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcision, was also mightie by mee toward the Gentiles)

9 And when Iames, and Cephas, and Iohn knew of the grace that was giuen vnto mee, which are counted to be pillars, they gaue to mee and to Barnabas the f right hands of fellowship, that wee should preach vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision,

10 * Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him g to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from Iames, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I saw that they went not the ‡ right way to the truth of the Gospel, I sayd vnto Peter before all men, If thou being a Iew, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, why h constrainest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Iewes?

15 Wee which are Iewes by nature, and not i sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Law, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: euen wee I say, haue beleeued in Iesus Christ, that wee might bee iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law, no ‖ flesh shall be iustified.

17 * If then while wee seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are found k sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God ! forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I haue destroyed, = I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I through the Law am dead to the Law, and that I might liue vnto God, I am * crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet * not I now, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the ρ flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued mee, and giuen himselfe for me.

6 Yea rather as Abraham beleeued God, and it was • imputed to him for righteouſneſſe.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the ſame are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreſeeing, that God would iuſtifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Goſpel vnto Abraham, ſaying, * In thee ſhall all the Gentiles be bleſſed.

9 So then they which bee of faith, are bleſſed with faithfull Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the f workes of the Lawe, are vnder the curſe: for it is written, * Curſed is every man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iuſtified by the Law in the ſight of God, it is evident: * for the iuſt ſhall liue by faith.

12 And the g Law is not of faith: but * the man that ſhall doe thoſe things, ſhall liue in them.

13 Chriſt hath redeemed vs from the curſe of the Lawe, when he was made a curſe for vs (for it is written, * Curſed is every one that hangeth on tree)

14 That the bleſſing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Chriſt Ieſus, that wee might receiue the h promiſe of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I i ſpeake as men doe, * Though it be but a mans couenant, when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or k adoeth any thing thereto.

16 Nowe to Abraham and his ſeede were the promiſes made. Hee ſayeth not, And to the ſeedes, as ſpeaking of many: but, And to thy ſeede, as of one, which l is Chriſt.

17 And this I ſay, that the Lawe which was foure hundreth and thirtie yeeres after, cannot diſanull the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in reſpect of Chriſt, that it ſhould make the promiſe of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more by the promiſe, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promiſe.

19 Wherefore then ſerueth the Lawe? It was added becauſe of the = tranſgreſſions, till the ſeede came vnto the which the promiſe was made: and it was ordained by * Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of • one: but God is • one.

21 Is the Law then againſt the promiſe of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Lawe giuen which could haue giuen life, ſurely righteouſneſſe ſhould haue bene by the Lawe.

22 But the Scripture hath * concluded q all vnder ſinne, that the promiſe by the faith of Ieſus Chriſt ſhould be giuen to them that beleeue.

h Wheen ye received the Gospel, ye were idolaters: therefore it is shame for you to refuse libertie, and become seruants, yea, and seeing the Iewes desire to be out of their tutelship.

i Not in deede, but in opinion.

k The Galatians of Painims beganne to be Christians, but by false apostles were turned backward to beginne anewe the Iewish ceremonies, and so in stead of going forward toward Christ, they ranne backward from him.

l Ye obserue dayes, as Sabbaths, newe moones, &c. ye obserue moneths, as the first and seuenth moneth: ye obserue times, as Easter, Whitsuntide, the feast of Tabernacles: ye obserue yeres, as the Iubile, or yeere of forgiuenesse, which beggerly ceremonies are most pernicious to them which haue receiued the sweete libertie of the Gospel, and thrust them backe into superstitious slauery.

m So friendfull to me, as I am affectioned toward you.

n For I pardon you, if you repent.

8 But then, when yet h knewe not God, ye did seruice vnto them, which by i nature are not gods.

9 But now seeing yee knowe God, yea, rather are knowen of God, how turne k yee againe vnto impotent and beggerly rudiments, whereunto l from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?

10 Ye obserue l dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeeres.

11 I am in feare of you, least I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 Be ye as m I: for I am euen as you: brethren, I beseech you: yee haue not hurt n me at all.

13 And yee knowe, how through o infirmitie of the flesh I preached the Gospell vnto you at the first.

14 p And the triall of mee which was in my flesh, ye despised not, neither abhorred: but ye receiued mee as an q Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.

15 What was then your felicitie? For I beare you record, that if it had bene possible, yee would haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the trueth?

17 They are ielous ouer you r amisse: yea, they would exclude s you, that yee should altogether loue them.

18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you, 19 My litle children, of whom I trauaile in birth againe, vntill Christ be t formed in you.

20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doubt of you.

21 Tell mee, yee that will be vnder the Law, doe ye not heare the Law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, u one by a seruant, and u one by a free woman.

23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and hee which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.

24 By the which things another thing is meant: for these mothers x are the two Testaments, the one which is x Agar of mount Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in y Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and she is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is aboue, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, * Reioyce thou barren that bearest no children: breake foorth, and crie, thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hath many mo children, then she which hath an husband.

28 * Therefore, brethren, we are after the maner of Isaac, children of the promise.

29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is now.

30 But what saith the Scripture? * Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not bee heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the z free woman.

CHAP. V.

2 He laboureth to draw them away from circumcision, 17 And sheweth them the battell betwixt the spirit and the flesh, and the fruits of them both.

S Tand fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and bee not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

2 * Behold, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be a circumciled, Christ shall profite you nothing.

3 For I testifie againe to euery man, which is circumciled, that hee is bound to keepe the whole Law.

4 Yee are * abolished from Christ, whosoeuer are iustified by the Law, ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit b waite for the hope of righteousnesse through faith.

6 For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision auaileth any thing, neither vncircumcision, but faith which worketh by loue.

7 Ye did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the c trueth?

8 It is not the perswasion of him that d calleth you.

9 * A litle e leauen doeth leauen the whole lumpe.

10 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that ye will be none other wise f minded: but he that troubleth you, shal beare his condemnation, whosoeuer he be.

11 And brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the g slaunder of the Crosse abolished.

12 Would to God they were euen cut off, which doe disquiet you.

13 For brethren, yee haue bene called vnto libertie: onely vse not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

14 For h all the Lawe is fulfilled in one worde, which is this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

15 If yee bite and deuoure one another, take heede least yee be consumed one of another.

16 Then I say, * Walke in the i Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

17 For the h flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not vnder the Law.

19 Now the workes of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, vncleannesse, wantonnesse,

20 Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, variance, zeale, wrath, contentions, sects,

21 Enuying, murther, drunkennesse, reuelling, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I haue also told you in time past, that they which commit such things, shall not inherite the kingdome of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is loue, ioy, peace, long suffering, gentlenesse, goodnesse, faithfulnesse, 23 Meekenesse, temperance: against such there is no Law.

24 And they that are Christs, haue crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we liue in the Spirit, let vs also walke in the Spirit.

26 Let vs not be desirous of vaine glorie, prouoking one another, enuying one another.

13 For they themselues which are circumcised, keepe not the Lawe, but desire to haue you circumcised, that they might reioyce [k] in your flesh.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHile Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which hee had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, hee assureth them of saluation, because they were thereunto predestinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to this eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospell, the knowledge of the which mysterie hee prayeth God to confirme towarde them. And to the intent they should not glorie in themselues, hee sheweth them their extreme miserie wherin they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom the promises were not made, and yet, by the free mercy of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therfore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfect vnderstanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewise to be mindfull of so great benefits, neither to be mooued with the false apostles, which seeke to ouerthrow their faith, and tread vnder foote the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counsell of God: who by this meanes onely preserueth his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, forasmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring foorth most plentifull fruites, as innocencie, holinesse, with all such offices appertaining to godlinesse. Last of all, he declareth not onely in generall, what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, whas things concerne every mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his saluation, 4 Hee sheweth that the chiefe cause of their saluation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good will toward them, giuing thankes and praying God for their faith. 21 The maiestie of Christ.

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 *Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all a spirituall blessing in heauenly things in Christ, a As with the knowledge of God in Christ, with faith, hope, charitie, & other gifts.

[Or, places. 2.Tim.1.9.

b This election to life euerlasting, can neuer be changed: but in temporall offices which God hath appointed for a certaine space, when the terme is expired, he changeth his election, as we see in Saul and Iudas. Col.1.22.

5 Who hath predestinate vs, to be c adopted through Iesus Christ vnto himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will,

c When Christs iustice is imputed ours.

6 To the *praise of the glory of his grace, wherewith he hath made vs accepted in his beloued,

7 By whō we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiuenesse of sinnes, according to his rich grace:

8 Wherby he hath bene aboundant toward vs in all wisdome & vnderstanding,

9 And hath opened vnto vs the mysterie of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed d in him, d Whereas we were not the naturall children, he restoried vs by grace, and made vs his children.

10 That in the dispensation of ỹ fulnesse of the times, hee might gather together in one e all things, both which are in heauen and which are in earth, euen in Christ:

e The principall end of our election, is to praise & glorifie the grace of God.

11 In whom also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will,

12 That f we, which first trusted in Christ, should be vnto ỹ praise of his glory:

f That is, in Christ.

13 In whom also ye haue trusted after that ye heard the word of truth, euen the Gospel of your saluation, wherein also after that ye beleeued, ye were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is ỹ earnest of our inheritance, g vntill the redemption of the possession, purchased vnto the praise of his glory.

g By this he meaneth ỹ whole body of the Church, which he diuideth into them which are in heauen, and them which are in earth: also the faithful which remaine in earth stand of the Iewes & Gentiles. h To wit, the Iewes. i Though we be redeemed from the bondage of sinne by the death of Christ, Rom.6.22. yet we hope for this second redemption which shal be when we shall possesse our inheritance in the heauens, wherof we haue the holy Ghost for a gage, as Chap.4.30.

15 Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lorde Iesus Christ the Father of glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisedome, and reuelation through the knowledge of h him,

18 That the eyes of your vnderstanding may be lightened, that ye may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatnesse of his power towarde vs, which beleeue, *according to the working of his mighty power,

20 Which hee wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and i set him at his right hand in the heauenly places, l Made him gouernour of all things both in heauen and in earth: so that Christs body is now onely there, or els it should not be a true body, and his ascension should be but a fantasticall thing, and onely imagined. Tpsl.8.6. heb. 2. 8.

21 Farre aboue all principalitie, & power, and might, and domination, and euery name that is named, not in this world only, but also in that that is to come,

22 *And hath made all things subiect vnder his feete, and hath appointed him ouer all things to be the head to the Church, m This is the great loue of Christ toward his Church, that he counteth not himselfe perfect without vs which are his members: and therefore the Church is called Christ, as 1.Cor.12.12.13.

23 Which is his bodie, euen the m fulnesse of him that filleth all in all things.

CHAP. II.

5 To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the only cause of saluation, 11 He sheweth them what maner of people they were before their conuersion, 18 And what they are now in Christ.

b Not by creation, but by Adams transgression, & so by birth.

4 But God which is rich in mercie, through his great loue wherewith hee loued vs,

5 Euen when wee were dead by sinnes, hath quickened vs c together ‖ in Christ, by whose grace ye are saued, c Both Iew and Gentile. ‖ Or, with Christ.

6 And hath [d] raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly places in Christ Iesus,

7 That hee might shewe in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnesse toward vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are ye saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gift of God, 9 Not of workes, least any man should boast himselfe.

10 For we are [e] his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, which God hath ordained, that we should walke in them.

11 Wherefore [f] remember that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called [g] vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands, 12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliants from the common wealth of Israel, and were [h] strangers from the couenants of promise, and had no hope, and were ‖ without God in the world.

13 But nowe in Christ Iesus, yee which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the [i] stop of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his [k] flesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandements which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in himselfe, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one [l] bodie by his ‖ crosse, and slay hatred thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were afarre off, & to them that were neere.

18 [m] For through him we both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Nowe therefore ye are no more strangers and forreiners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the houshold of God,

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles & Prophets, Iesus Christ himselfe being the chiefe corner stone,

21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord, 22 In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

FOr this cause, I Paul am the [a] prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye haue heard of the [b] dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen me to youwards,

3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mysterie vnto mee (as I wrote [c] aboue in few words,

4 Whereby when yee read, yee may know mine vnderstanding in the mystery of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was [d] not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reuealed vnto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should be inheriters also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto me [e] through the working of his power.

8 [f] Vnto me the least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the [g] Gentiles the vnsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the felowship of the [h] mysterie is, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent that now vnto [i] principalities & powers in heauenly places might be knowen [k] by the Church the manifold wisedome of God, 11 According to the eternall purpose, which hee wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord.

12 By whom we haue boldnesse and entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 (Of whom is named the whole [l] family in [m] heauen and in earth)

16 That he might grant you according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened by his spirit in the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwel in your hearts by faith, that ye, being rooted and grounded in loue,

18 May be able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the [n] breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that yee may bee filled with all [o] fulnesse of God.

20 [p] Vnto him therefore that is able to doe exceeding abundantly aboue all that we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in [q] vs,

5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,

7 * But vnto euery one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the [f] gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he sayth, * When hee ascended vp on high, he led captiuitie captiue, and gaue gifts vnto men.

9 (Nowe, in that he ascended, what is it but that hee had also descended first into the lowest partes of the earth?

10 Hee that descended, is euen the same that ascended, farre aboue all heauens, that he might fill [g] all things)

11 * He therefore gaue some to be Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Euangelists, and some Pastours, and Teachers,

12 For the [i] gathering together of the Saints, for the worke of the ministery, [k] and for the edification of the body of Christ,

13 Till we all meet together (in the vnitie of faith and knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a [l] perfect man, & vnto the measure of the age of the fulnesse of Christ, 14 That we henceforth bee no more children, wauering and caried about with euery wind of doctrine, by the deceit of men, and with craftinesse, whereby they lay in waite to deceiue.

15 But let vs followe the trueth in loue, and in all things grow vp into him, which is the [m] head, that is, Christ, 16 By whom all the body being coupled and knit together by euery ioynt, for the furniture thereof (according to the effectuall power, which is in the measure of euery part) receiueth increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in loue.

17 This I say therefore and testifie in the Lord, that ye henceforth walke not as * other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their [n] mind,

20 But ye haue not so learned Christ,

22 That is, * that ye cast off, concerning the conuersation in time past the [s] olde man, which is corrupt through the deceiuable lustes,

23 And be renewed in the spirite of your mind,

24 * And put on the newe man, which [t] after God is created in righteousnesse, and true holines.

THE ARGVMENT.

PAul being warned by the holy Ghoſt to goe to Macedonia, planted firſt a Church at Philippi a citie of the ſame countrey: but becauſe his charge was to preach the Goſpell vniuerſally to all the Gentiles, he trauailed from place to place, till at the length he was taken priſoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians being aduertiſed, ſent their miniſter Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the ſtate of the Church, cauſed him to write this Epiſtle, wherein he commended them that they ſtoode manfully againſt the falſe apoſtles, putting them in mind of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his impriſonment make them not to ſhrinke: for the Goſpell thereby was confirmed and not diminiſhed: eſpecially he deſireth them to flee ambition, and to imbrace modeſtie, promiſing to ſend Timotheus vnto them, who ſhould inſtruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himſelfe would alſo come vnto them, adding likewiſe the cauſe of their miniſters ſo long abode. And becauſe there were no greater enemies to the croſſe then the falſe apoſtles, he confuteth their falſe doctrine, by prouing onely Chriſt to be the ende of all true religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, ſo that his death is our life, and his reſurrection our iuſtification. After this followe certaine admonitions both particular and generall, with teſtification of his affection toward them, and thankefull accepting of their benevolence.

[d] When you ſhall receiue the crowne of glory.

7 As it becommeth mee ſo to iudge of you all, becauſe I haue you in remembrance, [e] that both in my bonds, and in my defence and confirmation of the Goſpel, you al were partakers of my [f] grace.

[f] Of this peculiar benefit to ſuffer for Chriſts ſake.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Jeſus Chriſt.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That ye may diſcerne things that differ one from another, that yee may bee pure, and [g] with out offence, vntill the day of Chriſt,

[Or, lie in bonds.]

[h] By Chriſt.

12 ¶ I would yee vnderſtood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Goſpel.

13 So that my bonds in [i] Chriſt are famous throughout all the [k] iudgement hall, and in all other places, 14 In ſo much that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bonds, and dare more frankely ſpeake the [l] word.

15 Some preach Chriſt, euen through enuie and ſtrife, and ſome alſo of good will.

16 The one part preach Chriſt of contention and not purely, ſuppoſing to adde more affliction to my bands:

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am ſet for the defence of the Goſpel.

18 What then? yet Chriſt is preached all maner wayes, whether it be [m] vnder a pretence, or ſincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I know that this ſhall turne to my ſaluation, through your prayer, and by the help of the Spirit of Jeſus Chriſt, 20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I ſhall be aſhamed, but that with all conſtancie, as alwaies, ſo nowe Chriſt ſhall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Chriſt is to me both in life, and in death aduantage.

o To liue in the flesh is to liue in this brittle body, till we be called to liue euerlastingly: but to liue according to the flesh, or to be in the flesh, signifie, to be destitute of the Spirit, and to be plunged in the filthie concupiscences of the flesh. ‖Or, body. *Ephes.4.1. 22 And whether to o liue in the flesh, were profitable for me, and what to chuse, I know not.

23 For I am greatly in doubt on both sides, desiring to be loosed and to be with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Neuertheles, to abide in the ‖flesh, is more needefull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioy of your faith, 26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Iesus Christ for me, by my comming to you againe.

27 *Onely let your conuersation bee, as it becommeth the Gospell of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or els bee absent, I may heare of your matters that ye ‖continue in one spirite, and in one minde fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

p The more that tyrants rage against ‖ Gospel, the more manifestly they declare that they runne to their owne destruction: and againe, constant perseuerance for Christes sake is an euident signe for saluation.

28 And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which is to them a p token of perdition, and to you of saluation, and q that of God.

q God sheweth by this meanes of bearing the crosse who are his, and who are not. ‖Or, Christs cause.

a If you so loue me, that you desire my comfort. b From the consent of willes and mindes he proceedeth to the agreement in doctrine, that there might be full and perfect concord. Rom.12.10.

IF there bee therefore any a consolation in Christ, if any comfort of loue, if any fellowship of the Spirite, if any compassion and mercie,

2 Fulfill my ioy, that ye be like minded hauing the same loue, being of one accord, and of one b iudgement,

3 That nothing be done through contention or vaine glory, but that in meekenesse of minde *euery man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Looke not euery man on his owne things, but euery man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same mind be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus,

6 Who c being in the forme of God, thought it no d robberie to be equall to God:

7 *But he made himselfe of no reputation, and tooke on him the e forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, and was found in f shape as a man.

8 *He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

9 Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him, and giuen him a Name about euery Name, 11 *And that euery tongue should confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lorde, vnto the glorie of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloued, as ye haue alwayes obeyed me, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, so h make an end of your owne saluation with i feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, euen of his k good pleasure.

14 Doe all things without *murmuring and reasonings,

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the sonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughtie and crooked nation, among whom yee shine, as *lights in the world,

16 l Holding forth the m word of life, that I may reioice in the day of Christ, that I haue not runne in vaine, neither haue laboured in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be n offered vp vpon the sacrifice, and seruice o of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus to send *Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 *For all p seeke their owne, and not that which is Iesus Christs.

22 But ye knowe the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, hee hath serued with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send straight as I know how it will go with me.

24 And I trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessarie to sende my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellow souldier, your messenger, and he that ministred vnto me such things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heauinesse, because ye had heard, that he had bene sicke.

27 And no doubt he was sicke, very neere vnto death: but God had mercie on him, and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should haue sorrow vpon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye should see him againe, yee might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lorde with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

30 Because that for the q worke of Christ hee was neere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill that seruice which was lacking on your part towarde mee.

MOreouer, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. It grieueth me not to write a the same things to you, and for you it is a sure thing.

2 Beware of b dogs: beware of euil workers: beware of the c concision.

3 For wee are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirite, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence d in the flesh:

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that hee hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, much more I:

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the Church: touching the righteousnesse which is in the Law, I was vnrebukeable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto me, the same I counted losse for Christes sake.

8 Yea, doubtlesse I thinke all things but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lorde, for whom I haue counted all things losse, and doe iudge them to bee dongue, that I might winne Christ,

9 And might be e found in him, that is, not hauing mine owne righteousnesse, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, euen the righteousnes which is of God through faith,

10 That I may know him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and be made conformable vnto his death,

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the f resurrection of the dead:

12 g Not as though I had already attained to it, either were already perfect: but I follow, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am h comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behind, and endeuour my selfe vnto that which is before,

14 And follow hard toward the i marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as k be l perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be otherwise minded, God shall reueale euen the m same vnto you.

16 Neuertheles, in that whereunto wee are come, let vs proceede by one rule, *that we may minde one thing.

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may bee fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby he is able euen to subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to be of honest conuersation, 15 And thanketh them, because of the prouision that they made for him being in prison, 21 And so concludeth with salutations.

THerefore, my brethren, beloued and longed for, my ioy and my crowne, so continue in the Lord, ye beloued.

2 I pray Euodias, and beseech Syntiche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.

3 Yea, and I beseech thee, faithful yokefellow, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the *q booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient mind be knowen vnto all men. The Lord is r at hand.

6 *Be nothing carefull, but in all things let your requests bee shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication, with giuing of thankes.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shal s preserue your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoeuer things are true, whatsoeuer things are honest, whatsoeuer things are iust, whatsoeuer things are pure, whatsoeuer things pertaine to loue, whatsoeuer things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any praise, thinke on these things,

9 Which ye haue both learned and receiued, and heard and seene in me: those things doe, and the God of peace shall bee with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last yee are t reuiued againe to care for me, wherein not withstanding ye were careful, but ye lacked opportunitie.

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this Epistle S. Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectuall, and true Christ, and the fained, counterfait, and imagined Christ, whom the false apostles taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine, which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefit toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoeuer good thing can bee desired, standeth onely in Christ, whom onely we embrace by the Gospel. But forasmuch as the false brethren would haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, hee toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whom all things are but meere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meates, externall holinesse, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, hee vtterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

3 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increase of their faith. 13 Heshewith vnto them the true Christ, and discouereth the counterfeit Christ of the false apostles. 25 He approueth his authoritie and charge, 28 And of his faithfull executing of the same.

1 PAul an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

‖ Which was a citie of Phrygia.

2 To them which are at Colosse, Saints and faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We giue thankes to God euen the Father of our Lorde Jesus Christ, alwayes praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith h in Christ Jesus, and of your loue toward all Saints, h For without Christ there is no faith to be saued by, but onely a vaine opinion.

5 For the hopes sake, which is laid vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the word of truth, which is the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day that ye heard and truely knew the grace of God,

7 As yee also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisedome and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words:

5 * For though I be absent in the b flesh, yet am I with you in the c spirit reioycing, and beholding your order, and your stedfast faith in Christ.

8 Beware least there bee any man that spoyle you through d philosophie, and vaine deceit, through the traditions of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 * For in him dwelleth all the fulnesse of the e Godhead ‖ bodily.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all ‖ principalitie and power:

THE

The firſt Epiſtle of Paul to the Theſſalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that the Theſſalonians had bene well inſtructed in the faith, perſecution (which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Goſpell) aroſe, againſt the which although they did conſtantly ſtand, yet S. Paul (as moſt carefull for them) ſent Timothie to ſtrengthen them, who ſoone after admoniſhing him of their eſtate, gaue occaſion to the Apoſtle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be conſtant in faith, and to ſuffer whatſoeuer God calleth them vnto for the teſtimonie of the Goſpel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be ſo purged, that ſome cockle remaine not among the wheate, ſo there were among them wicked men which by mouing vaine and curious queſtions to ouerthrow their faith, taught falſely, as touching the point of the reſurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly inſtructeth them what to thinke, earneſtly forbidding them to ſeeke curiouſly to knowe the times, willing them rather to watch, leaſt the ſudden comming of Chriſt come vpon them at vnawares: and ſo after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

1 He thanketh God for them, that they are ſo ſtedfaſt in faith and good workes. 6 And receiue the Goſpell with ſuch earneſtneſſe, 7 That they are an example to all others.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timothe vnto the Church of the Theſſalonians, which is in [a] God the Father, and in the Lord Ieſus Chriſt: Grace be with you and peace from God our father, and from the Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

2 [] We giue God thankes alwayes for you all, making [] mention of you in our prayers.

3 Without ceaſing, remembring your [b] effectuall faith, and [c] diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lorde Ieſus Chriſt, in the ſight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that yee are elect of God.

5 For our [d] Goſpell was not vnto you in worde onely, but alſo in power, and in the holy Ghoſt, and in much aſſurance, as ye know after what maner wee were among you for your ſakes.

6 And yee became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with [e] ioy of the holy Ghoſt,

7 So that yee were as [‖] enſamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you ſounded out the worde of the Lorde, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely: but your faith alſo which is towarde God, ſpread abroad in all quarters, that wee needе not to ſpeake any thing.

9 For they [f] themſelues ſhewe of vs what maner of entring in wee had vnto you, and howe ye turned to God from idoles, to ſerue the [g] liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heauen, whom he raiſed from the dead, euen Ieſus which deliuereth vs from the [h] wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they ſhould not faint vnder the croſſe, 2 Hee commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And theirs in obeying. 18 Hee excuſeth his abſence, that hee could not come and open his heart to them.

FOr yee your ſelues knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in [a] vaine,

2 But euen after that wee had ſuffered before, and were ſhamefully intreated at [*] Philippi (as yee know) wee were bold [b] in our God, to ſpeake vnto you the Goſpell of God with much ſtriuing.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by vncleanneſſe, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Goſpell ſhould be committed vnto vs, ſo wee ſpeake, not as they that [c] pleaſe men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did wee euer vſe flattering wordes, as yee know, nor coloured couetouſneſſe, God is record.

6 Neither ſought we prayſe of men, neither of you, nor of others,

7 When wee might haue bene [‖] chargeable, as the Apoſtles of Chriſt: but wee were gentle among you, euen as a [d] nource cherifheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue deale vnto you, not the Goſpell of God onely, but alſo our owne ſoules, becauſe ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For yee remember, brethren, [*] our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, becauſe wee would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Goſpel of God.

10 Ye are witneſſes, and God alſo, howe holily and iuſtly, and vnblamebly wee behaued our ſelues among [e] you that beleeue.

11 As yee know how that wee exhorted you, and comforted, and beſought euery one of you (as a father his children)

12 That yee [*] would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cauſe alſo thanke wee God without ceaſing, that when yee receiued of vs the worde of the preaching of God, ye receiued it not as the word of men, but as it is in deede the word of God, which alſo worketh in you that beleeue.

14 For brethren, yee are become followers of the Churches of God, which in [f] Iudea are in Chriſt Ieſus becauſe yee haue alſo ſuffered the ſame things of your owne

4 For verily when wee were with you, we tolde you before that wee should suffer tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and ye know it.
b His great affection toward the small flocke.
5 Euen for this cause, when b I could no longer forbeare, I sent him that I might know of your faith, least the c tempter hath tempted you in any sort, and that our labour hath bene in vaine.
c Meaning, Satan.
6 But nowe lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith and loue, and that yee haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you.
7 Therefore, brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction, and necessitie through your faith.
d If ye remaine constant in faith & true doctrine, I shal thanke that all mine afflictions be so many pleasures, & shall be restored from death to life.
8 For nowe are wee d aliue, if ye e stande fast in the Lord.
e If you persecute in faith. Rom.1.10. and 15.23.
9 For what thankes can we recompense to GOD againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith wee reioyce for your sakes before our God, f We must daily grow from faith to faith.
10 Night and day * praying exceedingly that wee might see your face, and might f accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?
11 Nowe God himselfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ, guide our iourney vnto you.
12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abound in loue one towarde another, and towarde all men, euen as wee doe toward you:
13 * To make your hearts stable, and vnblameable in holinesse before God euen our Father, at the comming of our Lorde Iesus Christ with all his Saints.
Chap.5.23, 1.Ser.1.8.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to holinesse, 6 Innocencie, 9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Describing the end of the resurrection.

MOreouer then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Iesus, that a ye increase more and more, as ye haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to walke, and to please God.
a And as it were ouercome your selues.
2 For ye know what b commandements we gaue you by the Lord Iesus.
b The Greeke word signifieth such commandements as one receiueth from some man to giue them in his name to others. Rom.12.2. ephes.5.17.
3 * For this is the will of God euen your sanctification, c and that yee should abstaine from fornication.
c That is, that you should dedicate your selues wholy vnto God.
4 That euery one of you should knowe how to possesse his d vessell in holinesse and honour.
d That is, his body which is prophaned by such filthinesse. 1.Cor.6.8.
5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:
6 * That no man oppresse or defraude his brother in any matter: for the Lorde is auenger of all such things, as wee also haue told you before time, and testified.
1.Cor.1.2.
7 * For God hath not called vs vnto vncleannes, but vnto holinesse.
e By these precepts of godly life it appeareth what were the commandements which Paul gaue vnto them.
8 He therefore that despiseth these things, despiseth not man, but God who hath euen giuen * vnto vs his holy Spirit.
1.Cor.7.40. Iohn 13.34. and 15.12.1.Iohn 2.8.and 4.21.
9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye needе not that I write vnto you: * for yee are taught of God to loue one another.
2.Thes.3.7.
10 Yea, and that thing verily ye doe vnto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but wee beseech you brethren, that ye increase more and more,
f And not be idle.
11 * And that ye studie to be quiet, and to meddle with your owne businesse, and to worke with your f owne handes, as we commanded you.
g As strangers and infidels.
12 That yee may behaue your selues honestly toward them that g are without, and that nothing be h lacking vnto you.
h But that yee may be able by your diligence to supply your want and necessitie.
13 ¶ I would not brethren, haue you ignorant concerning them which are asleepe, that ye i sorow not euen as other which haue no hope.
i He doeth not condemne all kind of sorow, but that which proceedeth of infidelitie.
14 For if we beleeue that Iesus is dead, and is risen, euen so them which sleepe in k Iesus, will God bring with him.
k Or, haue continued constantly in the faith of Christ.
15 For this say wee vnto you by the * worde of the Lorde, * that we which liue, and are remaining in the comming of the Lord, shall not preuent them which sleepe.

18 Wherefore, comfort your selues one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 He enformeth them of the day of iudgement and comming of the Lord, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regard such as preach Gods word among them,

BVt of the [a] times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you.

2 For your selues know perfectly, that the [b] day of the Lord shall come, euen as a theefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, and safetie, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the [b] trauaile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenesse, that that day should come on you, as it were a theefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkenesse.

6 Therefore let vs not [c] sleepe as doe other, but let vs [d] watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the [a] day be sober, putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obteine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ,

10 Which died for vs, that whether wee wake or [f] sleepe, wee should liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Now we beseech you, brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and [g] admonish you, 13 That ye haue them in singular loue for [h] their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 Wee desire you brethren, admonish them that are vnruly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weake: bee patient toward all men.

15 [i] See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer followe that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 [k] Reioyce euermore.

17 [l] Pray continually.

18 In all things giue thanks: for this is the wil of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

19 Quench not the [b] Spirit.

20 Despise not [l] prophecying.

21 Try all things, and keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine from all appearance of euill.

23 Now the very God [m] of peace sanctifie you throughout: and I pray God that your [n] whole spirit and soule and body, may bee kept blamelesse vnto the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

24 [o] Faithfull is hee which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kisse.

27 I charge you in the Lord, that this Epistle bee read vnto all the brethren the Saints.

28 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you, Amen.

a So much the more we ought to beware of all dreames and fantasies of men, which wearie themselues and others in searching out curiously the time that the Lord shall appeare, alleaging for themselues a vaine prophesie, and most falsly ascribed to Elias, that 2000. yeeres before the Law, 2000. vnder the Law, and 2000. after the Law, the world shall endure. Matt.24.44. 2.pet.3.10.reuel. 3.3.and 16.15.

b That is, suddenly and vnlooked for.

c Here sleepe is taken for contempt of saluation, when men continue in sinnes, and will not awake to godlinesse.

d And not bee ouercome with the cares of the world. e That is, lightened by the Gospel. Isa.59.17. ephes.6.17. f Here it is taken onely to die, and is meant of the faithfull.

g As the flocke is bound to loue the shepheard, so it is his duetie to teach them, and exhort them in true religion.

h Where this cause ceaseth, that they worke not: the honour also ceaseth, and they must be expelled as wolues out of the flocke. Pro.17.13 & 20. 22.mar.5.39.rom. 12.17. 1.pet.3.9.

i Haue a quiet minde and conscience in Christ, which shall make you reioyce in the midst of sorowes. Rom.5.3. 2.cor.6 10. Luke 18.1 ecclus. 18.22. col.4.2.

k God that hath giuen his Spirit to his elect, will neuer suffer it to be quenched, but hath reuciled by what meanes it may be maintained, that is, by such exhortations as these, and by continuall increase in godlinesse. l The preaching of the word of God. Chap.5.12,13. 1.cor.1.8. m Then is a man fully sanctified and perfect, when his minde thinketh nothing, his soule, that is, his vnderstanding and will, couet nothing, neither his body doeth execute any thing contrary to the will of God, 1.Cor,1.9.

The first Epistle vnto the thessalonians written from Athens.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

LEast the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because hee went to other places rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience & other fruits of faith, neither to be mooued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, he willeth them to correct such sharpely, as liue idlely of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

1 He thanketh God for their faith, loue, and patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruite shall come thereof.

PAVL and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ:

2 Grace be with you, & peace from God our father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 [a] Wee ought to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euery one of you toward another aboundeth, a 1.Thes.2.13.

4 So that wee our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your a patience, and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffer,

5 Which is a b token of the righteous * iudgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs * when the Lord Iesus shall shewe himselfe from heauen with his c mighty Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rendring vengeance vnto them that do not know God, and which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

9 Which shall be punished with d euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power,

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to bee made marueilous in all them that beleeue (because our testimonie toward you was beleeued) in that day.

11 Wherefore, wee also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthie of his calling, and fulfil e all the good pleasure of his goodnesse, and the f worke of faith with power, 12 That the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may bee g glorified in you, and yee in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

a Which proceedeth of your faith as a most notable fruite.
b The faithful by their afflictions see as in a cleere glasse, the end of Gods iust iudgement, when as they shall reigne with Christ which haue suffred with him, and the wicked shall feele his extreme wrath and vengeance. Iude 6. 1.Thes.4.16.
c By whom he declareth his might.
d As God is euerlasting, so shall their punishment be euerlasting: and as he is most mighty of power, so shall their punishment be most sore.
e The free benevolence of Gods goodnesse, comprehendeth his purpose, his predestination and vocation: the worke of faith conteineth our iustification, to the which God addeth glorification: and all these he worketh of his meere grace through Christ.
f Faith is Gods wonderful worke in vs. g As the head with the body.

CHAP. II.

3 Hee sheweth them that the day of the Lord shall not come, till the departing from the faith come first, 9 And the kingdome of Antichrist, 15 And therefore hee exhorteth them not to be deceiued, but to stand stedfast in the things that hee hath taught them.

NOwe, we beseech you, brethren, by the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,

2 That ye be not suddenly mooued from your minde, nor troubled, neither by a spirit, nor by b word, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

3 *Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day shall not come, except there come a c departing first, and that that d man of sinne be disclosed, even the sonne of e perdition,

4 Which is an aduersarie, and exalteth himselfe against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that hee sitteth as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

6 And now ye know what f withholdeth that he might be reuealed in his time.

7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth already g worke: onely hee which h now withholdeth, shall let, till he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall the wicked man bee reuealed, * whom the Lord shall consume with the i Spirite of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightnesse of his comming,

9 Euen him whose k comming is by the working of Satan, with all power & signes, and lying wonders,

10 And in all deceiueablenesse of vnrighteousnesse, among them that l perish, because they receiued not the loue of the trueth, that they might be saued.

11 And therefore God shall send them strong delusion, that they should beleeue lies, 12 That al they might be damned, which beleeued not the trueth, but had m pleasure in vnrighteousnesse.

13 But wee ought to giue thanks alway to God for you, brethren n beloued of the Lord, because that God hath o from the beginning chosen you to saluation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of p trueth, 14 Whereunto he called you by q our Gospel, to obtaine the glory of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast and keepe the r instructions, which ye haue bene taught, either f by word, or by our Epistle.

16 Nowe the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, euen the Father which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs euerlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in euery word and good worke.

a As false reuelation, or dreames.
b Which are spoken or written. Ephes.5.6.
c A wonderfull departing of the most part from the faith.
d This wicked Antichrist comprehendeth the whole succession of the persecuters of the Church, and al that abominable kingdome of Satan, wherof some were beares, some lions, or her leopards, as Daniel describeth them, and is called the man of sinne, because he setteth himselfe vp against God.
e Who as he destroyeth others, so shall he be destroyed himselfe.
f Because the false apostles had perswaded after a sort the Thessalonians, that the day of the Lord was neere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible dissipation before: and therefore rather to prepare themselues to patience then to rest and quietnesse: for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Gospel should be preached throughout all, Matt.24.14.
g To wit, priuily, and is therefore called a mysterie, because it is secret.

k Meaning, the whole time that he shall remaine.
l Satans power is limited that he cannot hurt the elect to their destruction.
m Delited in false doctrine.
n The foundation of our election is the loue of God: the sanctification of the Spirit, and beleeuing the trueth are testimonies of the same election.
o Before the foundation of the world.
p And Gospel.

r That is, the doctrine, 1.Thes.2.2. Chap.3.6.
f That is, by my preaching of the Gospel.

CHAP. III.

1 He desireth them to pray for him, that the Gospel may prosper, 6 And giueth them warning to reproue the idle, 16 And so wisheth them al wealth.

FUrthermore, brethren, * pray for vs, that the word of the Lord may haue free passage, and bee glorified, euen as it is with you,

2 And that wee may bee deliuered from vnreasonable and euill men: for all men haue not a faith.

3 But the Lord is faithfull, which will stablish you, and keepe you from b euill.

4 And we are perswaded of you through the Lord, that ye both doe and will doe the things which we c command you.

5 And the Lord guide your hearts to the loue of God, and the waiting for of Christ.

Ephes.6.18,19. col.4.3.
a Although they boast themselues thereof.
b From the sleights of Satan.
c By the word of God.

6 We

6 We commaund you, brethren, in the Name of our Lorde Iesus Christ, that ye withdrawe your selues from every brother that walketh inordinately, and not after the [d] instruction, which hee receiued of vs.

7 For ye your selues knowe how ye ought to follow vs: for wee behaued not our selues inordinately among you,

8 Neither tooke wee bread of any man for nought: but wrought with labour and trauaile night and day, because wee would not be chargeable to any of you.

9 Not but that we had authoritie, but that we might make our selues an ensample vnto you to follow vs.

10 For euen when we were with you, this wee warned you of, that if there were any, which would not worke, that hee should not eate.

11 For wee heard, that there are some which walke among you inordinately, and worke not at all, but are busie bodies.

12 Therefore they that are such, wee commaund and exhort by our Lorde Iesus Christ, that they worke with quietnesse, and eate their owne bread.

13 And ye brethren, bee not wearie in well doing. Galat.6.9.

14 If any man obey not our sayings, note him by a letter, and haue no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Matth.18.17. 1.Cor.5.9.

15 Yet count him not as an [f] enemie, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Nowe the Lorde of peace giue you peace alwayes by all meanes. The Lorde be with you all.

[e] Then by the meane of God some ought to liue idlely, but ought to giue himselfe to some vocation, to get his liuing by, and to doe good to others.

¶ The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN writing this Epistle, Paul seemeth not onely to haue respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law, they knew not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, he so confesseth his vnworthinesse, that he sheweth to what worthinesse the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willeth prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles witnesseth. And forasmuch as God hath left ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whom the mysterie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion, men shall teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie in admitting nor in iudging any: also what is the duetie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnesse, of rich men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware of false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

1 How exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing bee taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie, and edification are the end thereof, 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

PAVL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the [h] commaundement of God our Sauiour, and of our Lord Iesus Christ [i] our hope,

2 Vnto Timotheus [k] my naturall sonne in the faith: Grace, mercie, and peace from God our Father, and from Christ Iesus our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so doe, that thou mayest commaund some, that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neither that they giue heede to [l] fables and genealogies, which are endlesse, which breede questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

5 For [m] the end of the [n] commaundement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfained.

6 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine tanging.

7 They would be Doctors of the Lawe, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, neither whereof they affirme.

8 And we know that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a [o] righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to [p] sinners, to the vnholy, and to the prophane, to murtherers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers, [h] By ordinance. Colos.1.27. Acts 16.1.

[k] Chap.4.7. 2.Tim.2.1. Chap.4.4.

[l] Tit.1.14. Chap.4.4.

[m] Rom.13.10.

[n] Because these questionists preferred their curious fables to all other knowledge, and beautified them with the Law, as if they had bene the very Law of God, S. Paul sheweth that the end of Gods Law is loue, which cannot be without a good conscience, neither a good conscience without faith, nor faith without the word of God: so their doctrine which is an occasion of contention is worth nothing. [o] Or, of the Lawe. Rom.7.12.

[p] Whose hearts Gods Spirit doeth direct to doe that willingly which the Law requireth: so that their godly affection is to them as a Lawe without [q] their constraint.

[q] Such as onely delight in sinning.

k He beasteth foorth into these godly affections, considering Gods great mercie toward him.
l It appeareth that the vocation of Timothie was approued by notable prophesies which then were reuealed in the primitiue Church, as Paul and Barnabas by the oracle were appointed to goe to the Gentiles. Chap.6.12.
m That is, sound doctrine, the Church.

10 To whoremongers, to buggerers, to *menstealers, to lyars, to the periured, and if there be any other thing, that is contrary to wholesome doctrine,
11 Which is according to the glorious Gospel of the *blessed God, which is committed vnto me.
12 Therefore *I thanke him, which hath made me strong, that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for hee counted me faithfull, and put me in his seruice:
13 When before I was a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and an oppressor: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it ignorantly through vnbeliefe.
14 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with [k] faith and [i] loue, which is in Christ Iesus.
15 This is a true saying, & by all meanes worthy to be receiued, that *Christ Iesus came into the world to saue sinners, of whom I am chiefe.
16 Notwithstanding, for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ should first shewe on me all long suffering vnto the ensample of them, which shall in time to come beleeue in him vnto eternall life.
17 [k] Now vnto the king euerlasting, immortall, inuisible, vnto God onely wise, be honour and glory for euer, and euer, Amen.
18 This commandement commit I vnto thee, sonne Timotheus, according to the [l] prophesies, which went before vpon thee, that thou by them shouldest *fight a good fight, 19 Hauing [m] faith and a good conscience, which some haue put away, and as concerning faith haue made shipwracke.
20 Of whome is Hymeneus, and Alexander, *whom I haue [n] deliuered vnto Satan, that they might learne not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth to pray for all men, 4 Wherefore, 8 And howe. 9 As touching the apparell and modestie of women.

I Exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giuing of thanks be made for [a] all men,
2 For [b] kings, and for all that are in authoritie, that wee may leade a quiet and a peaceable life, in all godlinesse and honestie.
3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Sauiour, 4 *Who will that [c] all men shalbe saued, and come vnto the knowledge of the truth.
5 For there is one God, and one [d] Mediatour betweene God and man, which is the *man Christ Iesus,
6 Who gaue himselfe a [e] ransome for all men, to be a [h] testimonie in due time,
7 *Whereunto I am ordeined a preacher and an Apostle (I speake the truth in Christ, and lye not) euen a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and veritie.
8 I will therefore that the men pray, euery where lifting vp [i] pure handes without wrath, or doubting.
9 *Likewise also the women, that they aray themselues in comely apparell, with shamefastnes and modestie, not with [k] broyded haire, or golde, or pearles, or costly apparell,
10 But (as becommeth women that professe the feare of God) with good works.
11 Let the women learne in silence with all subiection.
12 I permit not a woman to [l] teach, neither to vsurpe authoritie ouer the man, but to be in silence.
13 For *Adam was first formed, then Eue.
14 *And Adam was [m] not deceiued, but the woman was deceiued, and was in the *transgression.
15 Notwithstanding, through bearing of children she shalbe saued, if they continue in faith, and loue, and holinesse with modestie.

1 Here teacheth him what doctrine he ought to flee, 6.8. 11 And what to follow, 15 And wherein he ought to exercise himselfe continually.

4 For euery creature of God is good, and nothing ought to be refused, if it be receiued with thanksgiuing.

5 For it is * sanctified by the worde of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Iesus Christ, which hast beene nourished vp in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, which thou hast continually followed.

7 * But cast away prophane, & old wiues fables, and exercise thy selfe vnto godlinesse.

8 For d bodily exercise profiteth little: but * godlinesse is profitable vnto all things, which hath the promise of the life present, and of that that is to come.

9 This is a true saying, & by all meanes worthy to be receiued.

10 For therefore we labour and are reproued, because wee trust in the liuing God, which is the f Sauiour of all men, specially of those that beleeue.

11 These things commaund and teach.

12 k Let no man despise thy youth, but bee vnto them that beleeue, an ensample, in word, in conuersation, in loue, in s spirit, in faith, and in pureneſſe.

REbuke not an Elder, but exhort him as a Father, and the yonger men as brethren,

2 The elder women as mothers, the yonger as sisters, with all pureneſſe.

3 * Honor widowes, which are widowes in deede.

4 But if any widow haue children or nephewes, let b them learne first to shew godlinesse toward their owne house, and to recompence their kindred: for that is an honest thing, and acceptable before God.

5 And she that is a widow c in deed, and left alone, trusteth in God, & continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But shee that liueth in pleasure, is d dead while she liueth.

7 These things therefore command, that they may be blamelesse.

8 If there be any that prouideth not for his owne, and namely for them of his household, he denieth the faith, and is worse then an infidell.

9 Let not a widowe bee taken into the number vnder threescore yeere old, that hath bene the wife of * one husband, 14 I will therefore that the yonger women marrie, and beare children, & gouerne the houſe, and giue none occaſion to the aduerſarie to ſpeake euill.

15 For certaine are already turned backe after Satan.

16 If any faithfull man, or faithfull woman haue widowes, let them miniſter vnto them, and let not the Church bee charged, that there may bee ſufficient for them that are widowes indeede.

17 ¶ The Elders that rule well, are worthy of * double honour, ſpecially they which labour in the word and doctrine.

And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, hee declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessary affaires, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnes and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine that hee had taught him, 12 Whereof his bondes and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesphorus.

PAul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, a according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, * whom I serue from mine b elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfeined faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou c stirre vp the gifte of God which is in thee, by the putting on of d mine handes.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of e feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lord, neither of mee his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saued vs and called vs with an * holy calling, not according to our * workes, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Jesus before the * worlde was,

10 But is now made manifest by the f appearing of our Sauiour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel, 11 * Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whom I haue beleeued, and I am perswaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true patterne of the wholesome wordes, which thou hast heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That h worthy thing, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, i all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sort are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercie vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him that he may finde mercie with the Lord at that day, and in how many things hee hath ministred vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

1 How exhorteth him to bee constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of God: counsel touching the saluation of his, 19 And the marke thereof.

THou therefore, my sonne, bee strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of mee, k by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithfull men, which shalbe able to * teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth himselfe with l the affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

6 The husbandman m must labour before he receive the fruits.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lorde giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ made of the seede of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel:

22 Flee also from the lustes of youth, and follow after righteousnesse, faith, loue, and peace, with them that [k] call on the Lord with pure heart.

26 And ‖that they may come to amendment out of the snare of the deuill, which are taken of him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 He propheseth of the perilous times, 5 Setteth out hypocrites in their colours, 12 Sheweth the state of the Christians, 14 And how to auoide dangers, 16 Also what profite commeth of the Scriptures.

THis knowe also, that in the [a] last dayes shall come perilous times,

2 For [a] men shall be louers of their owne selues, couetous, boasters, proude, cursed speakers, disobedient to parents, vnthankefull vnholy,

3 Without naturall affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, despisers of them which are good,

4 Traitours, headie, high minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,

5 Hauing a shewe of godlinesse, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from such.

6 For of this sort are they which [b] creepe into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and ledde with diuers lustes,

7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the trueth.

8 [c] And as Iannes and Iambres withstoode Moses, so doe these also resist the trueth, men of [d] corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall preuaile no longer: for their madnesse shall be euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.

10 ¶ But thou hast fully knowen my doctrine, manner of liuing, [e] purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience, 11 Persecutions, and afflictions which came vnto me at [f] Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Lystri, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lorde deliuered me.

12 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Iesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 But the euill men and [g] deceiuers shal waxe worse and worse, deceiuing and being deceiued.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and art perswaded thereof, knowing of whome thou hast learned them:

15 And that thou hast knowen the holy Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.

16 [h] For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teach, to improoue, to correct and to instruct in righteousnesse, 17 That the [i] man of God may be absolute, being made perfect vnto all good workes.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth Timotheus to be feruent in the word, & to suffer aduersitie, 6 Maketh mention of his owne death, 9 and biddeth Timothy come vnto him.

I Charge thee therefore before God, and ‖before the Lord Iesus Christ, which shall iudge the quicke and dead at his appearing, and in his kingdome,

2 Preach the worde: be instant, [a] in season and out of season: improue, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come, when they will not suffer wholesome doctrine: but hauing their eares itching, shall after their owne lustes get them an heape of teachers,

4 And shall turne their eares from the trueth, and shalbe giuen vnto [b] fables.

5 But watch thou in all things: suffer aduersitie: doe the worke of an Euangelist: make [e] thy ministerie fully knowen.

6 For I am now ready to be [d] offered, and the time of my ‖ departing is at hand.

7 I haue fought a good fight, and haue finished my course: I haue kept the faith.

8 For henceforth is layde vp for me the crowne of righteousnesse, which the Lorde the righteous Iudge shall giue mee at that day: and not to me onely, but vnto all them also that loue his appearing.

9 Make speed to come vnto me at once.

10 For Demas hath forsaken mee, and hath imbraced this present world, and is departed vnto Thessalonica. Crescens is gone to Galatia, Titus vnto Dalmatia.

11 *[f] Only Luke is with mee. Take Marke and bring him with thee: for hee is profitable vnto me to ministerie.

12 And Tychicus haue I sent to Ephesus.

13 The [f] cloake that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the bookes, but specially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppersmith hath done mee much euill: the Lord [g] reward him according to his workes.

15 Of whome be thou ware also: for hee withstood our preaching sore.

16 At my first answering [h] no man assisted me, but all forsooke me: I pray God, that it may not be layd to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lorde assisted mee, and strengthened mee, that by mee the preaching might be fully knowen, and that all the Gentiles shoulde heare, and I was deliuered out of the mouth of the [i] Lion.

18 And the Lorde will deliuer mee from euery [k] euill worke, and will preserue mee vnto his heauenly kingdome: to whome be ‖ praise for euer and euer, Amen.

Chap.1.16.

The second Epistle written from Rome vnto Timotheus the first Bishop elected of the Church of Ephesus, when Paul was presented the second time before the Emperour Nero.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHen Titus was left in Creta to finish the doctrine which Paul had there begunne, Satan stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to ouerthrow the gouernment of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition would haue thrust in themselues to be pastours: others, vnder pretext of Moses Law brought in many trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to chuse, chiefely requiring that they be men of sound doctrine, to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and among other things he noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holinesse in meates and such outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertaine to euery mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or else doeth not obey, he willeth him to be auoyded.

CHAP. I.

5 Hee aduertiseth Titus touching the gouernement of the Church. 7 The ordinance and office of ministers. 12 The nature of the Cretians and of them which liue abroad Iewish fables and inuentions of men.

‖ Or, minister. a That is, to preach the faith, to increase their knowledge, to teach them to liue godly, that at length they may attaine eternall life. b Hath willingly, and of his meere liberalitie promised without foreseeing our faith or works as a cause to moue him to his free mercie. Rom.16.25.ephes.3.9.col.1.26.2.tim.1.9,10.1.pet.1.20. Gal.1.1. c Which both giueth life, and preserueth life. d In respect of faith, which was common to them both, so that thereby they are brethren: but in respect of ministerie, Paul begate him as his sonne in faith.

PAul a seruant of God, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, according to the [a] faith of Gods elect, and the knowledge of the trueth, which is according to godlines,

2 Vnder the hope of eternall life, which God that cannot lye hath [b] promised before the *[c] world began:

3 But hath made his word manifest in due time through the preaching, which is *committed vnto me, according to the commandement of God our [c] Sauiour:

4 To Titus my naturall [d] sonne according to the common faith, grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Sauiour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to redresse the thinges that remaine, and shouldest ordeine elders in euery citie, as I appoynted thee,

6 *If any [e] bee vnreproueable, the husband of one wife hauing faithfull children, which are not slandered of ryot, neither are disobedient.

7 For a Bishop must be vnreproueable as [f] Gods steward, not ‖ froward, not angry, not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre,

8 But harborous, one that loueth ‖ goodnesse, wise, [g] righteous, [h] holy, temperate,

9 Holding fast the faithfull word according to doctrine, that he also may be able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and improoue them that say against it.

10 For there are many disobedient and vaine talkers and deceiuers of minds, chiefly

1.*Tim.*3.2. e That is, without all infamie, whereby his authority might bee diminished. f Who hath the dispensation of his gifts. ‖ Or, selfewilly. ‖ Or, good men. g Toward men. h Toward God.

i Which were not onely the Iewes, but also the Hebionites and Corinthians heretikes, which taught that the Law must be ioyned with Christ.

k He calleth Epimenides the Philosopher or Poet, whose verse he here reciteth, a Propher, because the Cretians so esteemed him: and as Laertius writeth, they sacrificed vnto him, as to a God, forasmuch as he had a marueilous gift to vnderstand things to come: which thing Satan by the permission of God hath opened to the infidels from time to time, but it turneth to their greater condemnation. 1.Tim.1.4.Rom.14.20.

l Forasmuch as they stay at things of nothing, and passe not for them, that are of importance, and so giue themselues to all wickednesse.

chiefly they of the l Circumcision,

11 Whose mouthes must be stopped, which subuert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucres sake.

12 One of themselues, euen one of their owne k prophets sayd, The Cretians are alwayes lyars, euill beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witnesse is true: wherefore rebuke them sharpely, that they may be sound in the faith, 14 And not taking heed to * Iewish fables and commaundements of men, that turne from the truth.

15 Vnto the pure * are all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and vnbeleeuing, is nothing pure, but euen their mindes and consciences are defiled.

16 They professe that they knowe God, but by l workes they denie him, and are abominable and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee commendeth vnto him the wholesome doctrine, and telleth him how he shall teach all degrees to behaue themselues, 11 Through the benefite of the grace of Christ.

BVt speake thou the things which become wholesome doctrine,

2 That the elder men bee sober, honest, discreete, sound in the faith, in loue, and in patience:

3 The elder women likewise, that they bee in such behauiour as becommeth holinesse, not false accusers, not giuen to much wine, but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the yong women to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children,

5 That they be discreete, chaste, b keeping at home, good, and * subiect vnto their husbands, that the worde of God bee not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 Above all things shew thy selfe an ensample of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integritie,

8 And with the wholesome word, which cannot be reprooued, that he which withstandeth, may be ashamed, hauing nothing concerning you to speake euill of.

9 * Let seruants be subiect to their masters, and please them in all things, not answering againe,

10 Neither pikers, but that they shew all good faithfulnesse, that they may adorne the doctrine of God our sauiour in all things.

11 * For the grace of God, that bringeth c saluation vnto all men, hath appeared,

12 And teacheth vs that we should denie vngodlinesse, and worldly lustes, and that we should liue soberly, and righteously, and godly in this present world,

13 Looking for the blessed hope, and appearing of the glory of the mighty God, and of our Sauiour Iesus Christ, 14 Who gaue himselfe for vs, that hee might redeeme vs from all iniquitie, and purge vs to be a d peculiar people vnto himselfe, zealous of good workes.

15 These things speake, and exhort, and rebuke with all e authoritie. See that no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Of obedience to such as be in authoritie. 9 He warneth Titus to beware of foolish and vnprofitable questions, 12 Concluding with certaine priuate matters, 15 And salutations.

PVt them in remembrance that they * a be subiect to the principalities and powers, and that they be obedient, and ready to euery good worke,

2 That they speake euill of no man, that they be no fighters, but soft, shewing all meekenesse vnto all men.

3 * b For wee our selues also were in times past vnwise, disobedient, perished, seruing the lustes and diuers pleasures, liuing in malicious nesse and enuie, hatefull, and hating one another,

4 But when the bountifulnesse and loue of God our Sauiour toward man appeared,

5 * Not c by the workes of righteousnes, which wee had done, but according to his mercie he saued vs, by the d washing of the new birth, & the renewing of the holy Ghost,

6 Which hee shedde on vs abundantly through Iesus Christ our Sauiour,

7 That we, being iustified by his grace, should be made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldest affirme, that they which haue beleeued in God, might be carefull to shewe foorth good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

9 * But stay foolish questions, & genealogies, & contentions, & brawlings about the Law: for they are vnprofitable and vaine.

10 e Reiect him that is an heretike, after once or twise admonition, 11 Knowing that he that is such, is f peruerted, and a sinneth being damned of his owne selfe.

12 When I shall send Artemas vnto thee, or Tychicus, bee diligent to come to mee vnto Nicopolis: for I haue determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas b the expounder of the Law, and Apollos on their iourney diligently, that they lacke nothing.

14 And let ours also learne to shew forth good workes for necessarie vses, that they be not vnfruitfull.

15 All that are with mee, salute thee. Greete them that loue vs in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGVMENT.

ALbeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witnesse, and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the basenesse of his matter, he flieth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments prouing the duetie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 Hee reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgiue his seruant Onesimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

PAVL a prisoner of Iesus Christ, & our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend & fellow helper,
2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow souldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:
3 Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.
4 I * giue thankes to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,
5 (When I heare of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, and toward all Saints)
6 That the a fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitful, and that whatsoeuer good thing is in you, b through Christ Iesus, may be knowen.
7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, ỹ Saints c hearts are comforted.
8 Wherefore, though I be very bolde in Christ to commaund thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.
10 I beseech thee for my sonne * Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,
11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me,
12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is mine owne bowels,
13 Whom I would haue reteined with mee, that in thy stead hee might haue ministred vnto me in the bonds of the Gospel.
14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefite should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.
15 It may be that he therefore d departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer, 16 * Not now as a seruant but aboue a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, specially to me: how much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?
17 If therefore thou count our things f common, receiue him as my selfe.
18 If hee hath hurt thee, or owed thee ought, that put on mine accounts.
19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompense it, albeit I doe not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.
20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my e bowels in the Lord.
21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.
22 Moreouer also prepare mee lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shall be giuen vnto you.
23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner h in Christ Iesus, 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow helpers.
25 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGVMENT.

FOrasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowen, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the authour thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, although we know not with what pen he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby hee principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an ende: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophesies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and hee the Lord: but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priests were but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the 7. Chap. verse 11. vnto the 12. Chap. verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chapter vers. 18. to the twentie and fiue verse of the same Chapter: yea & is the King to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 25. to the beginning of the last Chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the old fathers, we must constantly stantly beleeue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisedome, and governed by his power, we may stedfastly and courageously persevere euen to the end, in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that wee may both be thankefull to God, and dutifull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 aboue the Angels, 7 and of their office.

AT sundry times and in diuers manners a God spake in the olde time to our Fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these b last dayes hee hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whom hee hath made heire of all things, c by whom also he made the worlds,

3 * Who being the brightnesse of the glorie, and the d engraued forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mightie word, hath by himselfe e purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hand of the maiestie in the highest places,

4 And is made so much more excellent then the f Angels, inasmuch as hee hath obtained a more excellent name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels sayd he at any time, * Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee? and againe, I * will be his Father, and he shall be my Sonne?

6 And againe when hee bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the worlde, hee sayth, * And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he sayth, * He maketh the h Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the Sonne he sayth, * O God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the i scepter of thy kingdom is a scepter of righteousnes.

9 Thou hast loued righteousnes, and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath k anointed thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy fellowes.

10 And, * Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou doest remaine: and they all shall waxe old as doeth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels sayd he at any time, * Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footestoole?

14 Are they not all ministring spirites, sent foorth to minister, for their sakes which shall be heires of saluation?

WHerefore we ought diligently to giue heede to the things which wee haue heard, lest at any a time wee should let them slip.

2 For if the b worde spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompense of reward,

3 How shall we escape, if wee neglect so c great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lorde, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by d them that heard him,

4 * God bearing witnesse thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will?

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the e world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But * one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, f What is man that thou shouldest be mindfull of him? or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him?

7 Thou madest him a litle inferiour to the Angels: thou crownedst him with z glorie and honour, and hast set him aboue the workes of thine hands.

8 * Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that he hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him. h But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

9 But we see Iesus k crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a litle inferiour to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace hee might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that hee brought many children vnto glorie, that he should consecrate the l Prince of their saluation through m afflictions.

11 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all n of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, * I will declare thy Name vnto my o brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing prayses to thee.

a God, who is euer constant, and mercifull to his Church, declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundry sorts: but now last of all he hath fully declared all trueth to vs by his Sonne.

b So that now we may not credite any new reuelations after him.

c He intreateth here of Christ, both as touching his person, which is very God, and very man, by whom all things are made, & also as touching his office, whereby he is King, Propher, and Priest. Wisd.7.26.

14 Forasmuch then as the children were partakers of flesh and blood, hee also himselfe likewise tooke part with them, that hee might destroy s through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuill,

15 And that hee might deliuer all them, which for feare of t death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

16 For hee in no sort tooke the s Angels, but he tooke the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore t in all things it became him to bee made like vnto his brethren, that he might be mercifull, and a faithfull high Priest in things concerning God, that hee might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee requireth them that be obedient vnto the worde of Christ, 3 Who is more worthy then Moses. 12 The punishment of such as will harden their hearts, and not beleeue, that they might haue eternall rest.

Num.12.7.

d Moses was but part of the house, that is, of the Church whereof the pastors are the liuely stones, but Christ builded it, and laid the stones: therefore he deserueth more prayse.

e That is, Christ: for Christ is the foundation, and head of his Church: he is our brother, and Lord: he is the Sonne of God, and very God, working all things by his owne power.

Num.14.37.

[Or, bodies and members.

THerefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, a consider the Apostle and high Priest of our b profession, Christ Iesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed c him, euen as d Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses, in as much as hee which hath builded the house, d hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, and he that hath built all things is e God.

5 Now Moses verily was faithfull in all his house, as a seruant, for a witnesse of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose f house wee are, if wee holde fast the confidence, and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost saieth, g To day if ye will heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the s prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildernesse,

9 Where your fathers tempted me, proued me, and sawe my workes fourtie yeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and sayde, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, h If they shall enter into my i rest.

12 Take heede, brethren, lest at any time there bee in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called k To day, least any of you bee hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if wee keepe sure vnto the l ende, the ‖ beginning, where with we are vpholden, 15 So long as it is sayde, To day if yee heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked m him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was hee displeased fourtie yeeres? was hee not displeased with them that sinned, * whose ‖ carkeises fell in the wildernesse?

18 And to whom sware hee that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So wee see that they could not enter in, because of vnbeliefe.

CHAP. IIII.

2 The worde without faith is vnprofitable. 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishment of vnbelieuers. 12 The nature of the worde of God.

LEt vs feare therefore, lest at any time by forsaking the promise of entring into his rest, any of you should seeme to bee depriued.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospel preached, as also vnto them: but the worde that they heard, profited not them, because it was not ‖ mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleeued, doe enter into rest, as hee sayde to the other, * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If a they shall enter into my rest: although b the workes were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therinto, and they to whom it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeliefes sake:

7 Againe hee appoynted in c Dauid a certaine day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is sayd, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if d Iesus had giuen them rest, then would he not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remayneth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For hee that is entred into his rest, e hath also ceased from his owne workes, a He compareth the preaching of the Gospel, as it were, to wine, whereof if we will taste, that is, heare and vnderstand with profite, we must temper or mixe it a faith.

Psal.95.11.

b Although that God by his rest, after the creation of his workes, signified the spirituall rest of the faithfull, yet he sware to giue rest in Chanaan, which was but a figure of the heauenly rest, and dured but for a time.

‖ Or, concerning whom we speake.
l Therefore when we heare his word we must tremble, knowing thereby that God soundeth our hearts.

as God did from his.

11 Let vs study therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 For the worde of God is liuely, and mighty in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and g entreth through, euen vnto the diuiding asunder of the h soule and the i spirite, and of the ioynts, and the marowe, and is a discerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and open k vnto his eyes, ‖ with whom we haue l to doe.

14 Seeing then that wee haue a great hie Priest, which is entred into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of nede.

CHAP. V.

5 He compareth Iesus Christ with the Leuiticall Priests, shewing wherein they either agree, or disagree. 11 Afterward he reproueth the negligence of the Iewes.

a He sheweth that man can haue none accesse to God without an hie Priest, because that of him selfe he is prophane and sinfull.
b Which were of things without life.
c As of beasts, which are killed.
d That is, of sinners.

e Who was both Priest and King.
f When he liued in this world.
g He meaneth that most earnest prayer which Christ prayed in the garden, where he swear drops of blood.
h Being in perplexitie, and fearing the horrors of death.
i He digresseth till hee come to the beginning of the 7. chap.

FOr euery high Priest is taken from among men, and is a ordeined for men, in things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both b giftes and c sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them d that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that he also is compassed with infirmitie,

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 * And no man taketh this honour vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but hee that sayd vnto him, * Thou art my sonne, this day begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As hee also in another place speaketh, * Thou art a Priest for euer after • the order of Melchi-sedec.

7 Which in the f dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with s strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard h in that which he feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned hee obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the cuthour of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an hie Priest after the order of Melchi-sedec.

11 i Of whom wee haue many things to say, which are hard to bee vttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time yee ought to bee teachers, yet haue yee neede againe that we teach you the first ‖ principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue neede of k milke, and not of strong meate.

13 For euery one that vseth milke, is inexpert in the l word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wits exercised to discerne both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

1 He proceedeth in reproouing them, & exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be stedfast and patient, 18 for as much as God is sure in his promise.

THerefore leauing the doctrine of the a beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation b of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of c baptismes, and laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we doe d if God permit.

4 * For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, e of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they • crucifie againe to themselues the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that commeth oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbes meete for them by whom it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briers, is reprooued, and is neere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which yee haue shewed toward his Name, in that yee haue ministred vnto the Saints, and yet ministre.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shew the same diligence, to the f full assurance of hope vnto the ende, 12 That yee be not slouthfull, but followers of s them, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he sware by himselfe, 14 Saying, * Surely I wil abundantly blesse thee and multiply thee marueilously.

15 And so after that hee had taried patiently, he enioyed the promise.

16 For men verily sweare by him that is greater then themselues, and an othe for confirmation is among them an endeof all strife.

17 So God willing more [b] abundantly to shewe vnto the heires of promise the stablenesse of his counsell, bound himselfe by an othe,

18 That by [i] two immutable things, wherein it is impossible that God shoulde lie, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to hold fast the hope that is set before vs,

19 Which we haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure and stedfast, and it [k] entreth into that which is within the [l] vaile, 20 Whither the forerunner is for vs entred in, euen Iesus that is made an high Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

[b] Because of mans wickednes, which will not beleeue God except he sweare.
[i] Gods word and othe are two things in him vnchangeable.
[k] He returneth to the comparisō betweene Christs Priesthood and the Leviticall, which he had begun in the vij Chapter.
[l] Which is heauen, whither Christ is gone before to prepare vs place.

CHAP. VII.

1 He compareth the Priesthood of Christ vnto Melchisedec, 11 Also Christs Priesthood with the Leuites.

FOr this Melchi-sedec [a] was king of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as he returned from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousnesse: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is King of peace,

3 Without [a] father, without mother, without kinred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither ende of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Now consider howe great this man was vnto whom euen the [b] Patriarke Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoyles.

5 For verily they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthood, haue a [c] commaundement to take according to the Lawe, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they [d] came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kinred is not counted among them, [e] receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men that die, receiue tithes: but there hee receiued them, of whome it is witnessed, that he [f] liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tithes, payd tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchi-sedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had beene by the Priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder it the Lawe was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest shoulde rise after the order of Melchi-sedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthood bee changed, then of necessitie must there bee a change of the [g] Law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lorde sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchi-sedec, there is risen vp another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Lawe [h] of the carnall commaundement, but after the power of the endelesse life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the commaundement that went afore, is disanulled, because [i] of the weakenes therof, and vnprofitablenesse.

19 For the Lawe made nothing perfite, but [k] the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, wherby we draw neere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe:

21 But this, hee is made with an othe by him that sayd vnto him, * The Lorde hath sworne, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec)

22 By so much is Iesus made a suretie of a better [l] Testament.

23 And among them many were made Priestes, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath an [m] euerlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, he is able also [n] perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needed not daily as those high Priestes to offer vp sacrifice, * first for his owne sinnes, & then for the peoples: for that did he [o] once, when he offered vp himselfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men high Priestes, which haue infirmitie: but the worde of the othe that was [p] since the Law, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

[a] So called because that Moses maketh no mention of his parents or kinsfolkes, but as he had bin suddenly sent of God into the world to be a figure of Christ our euerlasting Priest and shortly taken out of the world againe: so Christ as touching his humanitie had no father, and concerning his diuinity, no mother.
[b] That is, the chiefe of fathers. Num.18.21. deu. 18.1,2 iosh.14.4.
[c] The Leuites had commaundement to receiue that which Abraham gaue freely to Melchi-sedec.
[d] Were begotten of Abraham.
[e] The Leuites receiued tithes of their brethren, but Melchi-sedec of Abraham the Patriarke: therefore his Priesthood is more excellent then the Leuiticall.
[f] Because there is no mention of his death.
[g] The Law and the Priesthood are both of one condition: so that both Aarons and Moses office pertaine to Christ, which is Priest and Lawmaker.
[h] Which stood in outward and corporall ceremonies. Psal.110.4. chap.5.6.
[i] For the Law hath no vertue nor profite, till a man be come to Christ.
[k] Or, it was an introduction of a better hope.
[l] Or, couenant.
[m] Therefore all others are blasphemous, that either make themselues his successors, or pretend any other sacrifice.
[n] The fruit of his Priesthood is to saue, & that fully and perfectly, not by supplying that that wanteth, but by taking away the Law, which is vnperfect by reason of our infirmities. Leuit.16.6.
[o] And cannot without blasphemie be said to be offered againe, or els by any creature: for none could offer him, but himselfe.
[p] Note that it was first made after the Law was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternall one he was then reuealed to the world.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He prooueth the abolishing of all of the Leuiticall Priesthood, as of the old Couenant by the spirituall and euerlasting Priesthood of Christ, 8 And by the new Couenant.

NOwe of the things which wee haue spoken, this is the summe, that wee haue such an high Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the throne of the Maiestie in heauens,

2 And is a minister of the [a] Sanctuarie,

[a] That is, heauen.

b Which is the body of Christ.
c For els it should be corruptible.
d He proueth that Christs body is the true Tabernacle, and that hee must needes be made man, to the intent that he might haue a thing to offer, which was his body.
Exod. 25.40. Actes 7.44.

and of the true b Tabernacle, which the Lord pight, and not c man.

3 For d euery high Priest is ordained to offer both gifts & sacrifices: wherfore it was of necessity, that this man should haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seeing there are Priests that according to the Law offer gifts,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne ‖ shadow of heauenly things, as Moses was warned by God, when hee was about to finish the Tabernacle. * See, sayd he, that thou make all things according to the e paterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our hie Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, in as much as he is the Mediator of a better ‖ Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bene faultlesse, no place shoulde haue bene sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them he sayeth, * Behold, the dayes will f come, sayeth the Lord, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda a new Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hand, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they b continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saieth the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I wil make with the house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, and I will bee their God, and they shall be my people:

11 And they shall not i teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will bee mercifull to their vnrighteousnesse, and I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that hee saith a new Testament, hee hath abrogate the olde: now that which is disannulled and waxed olde, is readie to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Lawe are abolished 11 by the oblation and perfection of Christs sacrifice.

THen the first ‖ Testament had also ‖ ordinances of religion, and a * worldly Sanctuarie.

2 For the first * Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the holy places.

3 And after the b second vaile was the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlayd rounde about with golde, wherein the golden potte which had Manna was, and * Aarons rod that had budded, and the * Tables of the Testament.

5 * And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the ‖ Mercie seate: of which things wee will not nowe speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordered, the Priestes went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the * high Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which he offered for himselfe, and for the ‖ ignorances of the people.

8 Wherby the holy Ghost this signified, that the c way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that could not make ‖ holy, concerning the conscience, him that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stoode in meates and drinkes, and diuers washings, and d carnall rites, vntill the time of e reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect a Tabernacle, not made with handes, that is, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred hee in once vnto the b holy place, i and obteined eternall redemption for vs.

13 * For if the b blood of bulles and of goates, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the i flesh,

14 How much more shall the * blood of Christ, which through the eternall spirite offred himselfe without spot to God, purge your conscience from m dead workes, * to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediator of the new Testament, that through * death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the n former Testament, they which were called might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must be the death of him that made the Testament.

17 * For the o Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is aliue.

but Christ the true and eternall Priest offered his owne blood, which was most holy and pure: the Leuiticall Priest offered yeerely, and therefore did onely represent the true holinesse: but Christ by one only sacrifice hath made holy for euer all them that beleeue.

o He prooueth that Christ must die, because the couenant or Testament is of none effect without the death of the Testator.
p Without the death of beasts that were sacrificed, which signified that Christ would passe his Fathers wrath with his blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to the people, according to the Law, he tooke the blood of calues and of goates, with water and purple wull and hyssope, and sprinckled both the booke, and all the people, 20 * Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer, hee sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministring vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heauenly things should be purified with such things: but the heauenly things themselues are purified with better ‖ sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places that are made with hands, which are ‖ similitudes of the true Sanctuarie: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs,

25 Not that he should offer himselfe * often, as the high Priest entred into the holy place euery yeere with other blood, 26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the foundation of the worlde) but now in the ende of the world hath hee appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shall once die, and after that commeth the iudgement, 28 So * Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of ‖ many, & vnto them that looke for him, shall he appeare the second time * without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

1 The old Lawe had no power to cleanse away sinne, 10 but Christ did it with offering of his body once for all: 22 An exhortation to prayse the goodnes of God thankefully with patience and stedfast faith.

FOr the * Law hauing the shadow of good things to ‖ come, and not the very ‖ image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices which they offer yeere by yeere continually, ‖ sanctifie the commers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue been offred, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere.

4 For it is impossible that the blood of buls and goates should * take away sinnes.

5 ‖ Wherefore when he ‖ commeth into the world, he saieth, * Sacrifice and offring thou wouldest not, but a ‖ body hast thou prepared me.

6 In burnt offrings, and sinne offrings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I said, Loe, I come (In the beginning of the * booke it is written of me,) that I should doe thy will, O God.

8 Aboue when he sayd, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offrings, and sinne offrings, thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law)

9 Then sayd he, Loe, I come to doe thy will, O God. he taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, euen by ‖ offring of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

11 And euery Priest appeareth daily ministring, and oft times offereth one maner of offring, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offred one sacrifice for sinnes, * sitteth for euer at the right hand of God, 13 And from henceforth tarieth * till his enemies be made his footestoole.

14 For with one offering hath * he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had said before, 16 * This is the Testament that I will make vnto them, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their heart, and in their minds I will write them.

17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where ‖ remission of these things is, there is no more * offering for sinne.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Iesus we * may be bold to enter into the holy place,

20 By the new, and * liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh;

21 And seeing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God, 22 Let vs draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, ‖ sprinkled in our hearts from an euill conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs keep the profession of our hope, without wauering (for he is faithfull that promised)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes, 25 Not forsaking the felowship that we haue among our selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because ye see that the * day draweth neere.

26 * For if we sinne ‖ willingly after that wee haue receiued the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes, 27 But a fearefull looking for of iudgement, and violent fire, which shall deuoure the aduersaries.

39 But we are not they which withdraw our selues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conseruation of the soule.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is, and a commendation of the same. 6 Without faith we cannot please God. 16 The steadfast beliefe of the fathers in old time.

NOw faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not seene.

2 For by it our Elders were wel a reported of.

3 *Through faith we vnderstand that the world was a ordered by the word of God, so that ꝑ things which we see, are not made of things, which b did appeare.

4 By faith Abel *offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, c by the which he obteined witnes that he was d righteous, God testifying of his gifts: by the which faith also, he being dead, yet e speaketh.

5 By faith was *f Enoch taken away, that he should not see death: neither was he found: for God had taken him away: for before he was taken away, he was reported of, that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is vnpossible to please him: for he that commeth to God, must beleeue that God is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seeke him.

7 By faith *Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not seene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the sauing of his houshold, through the which Arke he condemned the world, & was made heire of the righteousnesse, which is by faith.

8 By faith *Abraham, when he was called, obeied God, to go out into a place, which he should afterward receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he abode in the land of promise, as in a strange countrey, as one that dwelt in tents with Isaac and Jacob heires with him of the same promise.

10 For hee looked for a citie hauing a h foundation, whose builder & maker is God.

11 Through faith *Sarra also receiued strength to conceiue seede, & was deliuered of a child when shee was past age, because shee iudged him faithfull which had promised.

12 And therefore sprange there of one, euen of one which was i dead, so many as * the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of the sea shore which is innumerable.

13 All these died in faith, and k receiued not the promises, but saw them l a farre off, and beleeued them, and receiued them thankfully, & confessed that they were m strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainely that they seeke a countrey.

15 And if they had bene mindfull of *that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leysure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is, an heauenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith *Abraham offered vp Isaac, when he * was tried, and he that had receiued the promises, offered his onely begotten sonne.

18 (To whom it was said, "In Isaac shal thy seede be called.)

19 For he considered that God was able to raise him vp euen from the dead: from whence he receiued him after a sort.

20 By faith, *Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith, *Jacob when he was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Joseph, and "leaning on the end of his staffe, worshipped God.

22 By faith *Joseph when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, & gaue commandement of his bones.

23 *By faith Moses when he was borne, was hid three moneths of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child, neither feared they the Kings * commaundement.

24 By faith *Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter,

25 And chose rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, then to enioy the ꝑ pleasures

‖ Or, so easily compasseth vs about. b As being our marke.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against of sinners, least yee should be wearied, and faint in your mindes.

4 Yee haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striuing against sinne.

c Which by reason of our concupiscence assaileth vs on all sides. *Prou.*3.11. *Reuel.*3,19.

5 And yee haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children, *My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lorde, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loueth, hee chasteneth: and he scourgeth euery sonne that hee receiueth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God offereth himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whom the father chasteneth not?

d He concludeth that they which refuse the crosse, deny to be of the number of Gods children, but are bastards.

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are yee bastards, and not csonnes.

c Which haue naturally begotten vs.

9 Moreouer wee haue had the fathers of our cbodies which corrected vs, & wee gaue them reuerence: should we not much rather bee in subiection vnto the Father of fspirits, that we might liue?

f As he doeth create our spirits without any wordly meane, so he doeth instruct and maintaine them by the wonderful vertue of his Spirit.

10 For they verily for a few daies chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profite, that wee might bee partakers of his holinesse.

g Their hairing partly declared their slowenesse, & partly their inconstancie in doctrine: therefore they were in danger to be punished, *Rom.*12.18.

11 Now no chastising for the present seemeth to bee ioyous, but greeuous: but afterward, it bringeth the quiet fruite of righteousnesse, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your handes which hang downe, and your weake knees, 26 Whose voyce then shooke the earth, and now hath declared, saying, Yet once more will I shake, not the earth onely, but also heauen.

27 And this worde, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things which are shaken, as of things which are made with hands, that the things which are not shaken, may remaine.

11 b For the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the Holy place by the hie Priest for sinne, are c burnt without the campe.

12 Therefore euen Iesus, that hee might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let vs goe foorth therefore out of the campe, bearing his reproch.

14 d For here haue wee no continuing citie: but we seeke one to come.

15 Let vs therefore by him offer the sacrifice of prayse alwayes to God, that is, the e fruite of the lippes, which confesse his Name.

16 f To do good, and to distribute, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

17 Obey them that haue the ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue accounts, that they may doe it with ioy, and not with griefe: for that is vnprofitable for you.

18 Pray for vs: for we are assured that we haue a good conscience in all things, desiring to liue honestly.

19 And I desire you more what the more earnestly, that yee so doe, that I may be restored to you more quickly.

22 I beseech you also, brethren, suffer the words of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in few words.

23 Know that our brother Timotheus is deliuered, with whom (if he come shortly) I will see you.

24 Salute all them that haue the ouersight of you, and all the Saints. They of Italie salute you.

faith, but to declare a true faith by liuely fruites, to auoyd ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and loue their neighboors, to beware of swearing, to vtter their faults when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

2 He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, 6 To beet feruent in prayer with stedfast beliefe, 17 To looke for all good things from aboue, 21 To forsake all vice, and thankefully to receiue the word of God, 22 Not onely hearing it, and speaking of it, but to doo thereafter in deede. 27 What true religion is.

IAmes a seruant of God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ, to the twelue Tribes which are scattered abroad, saluation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when ye fall into diuers ‖ tentations,

3 * Knowing that the a trying of your faith bringeth foorth patience.

4 And let patience haue her b perfect worke, that ye may bee perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke c wisedome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reprocheth no man, and it shall bee giuen him.

6 * But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde and caried away.

7 Nether let that man thinke that hee shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A ‖ wauering minded man is vnstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is * exalted:

10 Againe hee that is rich, in that he is made lowe: for as the flower of the grasse shall he * vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beautie of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man fade away in all his ‖ wayes.

12 * Blessed is the man, that endureth tentation: for when he is tried, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when he is ‖ tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot bee tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But euery man is tempted, when hee is drawen away by his owne concupiscence, and is entised.

15 Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth foorth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth foorth death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren.

17 Euery good d giuing, & euery perfect gift is from aboue, & commeth downe from the Father of lights, with whom is no variablenesse ‖ neither shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne will begate hee vs with the word of trueth, that we should be as the first fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, * let euery man be h swift to heare, slow to speake, and ‖ slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doth not accomplish * the righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluitie of maliciousnesse, and receiue with meekenesse the word that is * grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 * And be ye doers of the word, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the word, and doe it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his naturall face in a * glasse.

24 For when hee hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediatly what maner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect Law of liberty, and continueth therein, hee not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed ‖ in his deede.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion & vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherlesse and widowes in their aduersitie, and to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, 5 But to regard the poore as well as the rich, 8 To be louing and mercifull, 14 And not to boast of faith, where no deedes are: 17 For it is but a dead faith, where goods workes follow not.

MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ * in respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a golde ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footestoole,

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euill ‖ thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not * God chosen the poore of this world: that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which hee promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the rich oppresse you by tyrannie, and doe not they draw you before the iudgement seates?

7 Doe not they blaspheme the * worthie Name after which ye be named?

8 But if ye fulfill the * royal law according to the Scripture, which saieth, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

9 * But if ye regard the persons, ye commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressors.

12 So speake ye, and so doe, as they that shall be iudged by the f Law of libertie.

13 For there shalbe iudgement mercilesse to him that sheweth no mercie, and mercie g reioyceth against iudgement.

14 What auaileth it, my brethren, though a man saith he hath h faith, when he hath no workes? can the faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister bee * naked and destitute of daily foode, 16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee giue them not those things which are needfull to the body, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast i the faith, and I haue workes: shewe me thy faith out of thy k workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through works, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith l wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made m perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saieth, * Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that of works a man is n iustified, and not o of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not * p Rahab the harlot iustified through works, when she had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen q so the faith without works is dead.

d S. Paul to the Romanes and Galatians, disputeth against them, which attributed iustification to works: and here S. Iames reasoneth against them, which vtterly condemne works: therefore Paul sheweth the cause of our iustification, and Iames the effects: there is to declare how we are iustified: here how we are knowen to be iustified: there works are excluded as not the cause of our iustification: here they are approoued as effects proceeding therof: there they are denied to goe before them that shall be iustified: and here they are sayd to follow them that are iustified. e Luke 3.11. f 1. i Here deedes are considered as ioyned with true faith. k So that faith was not idle. l The more his faith was declared by his obedience and good works, the more was it knowen to men to be perfect, as the goodnesse of a tree is knowen by her good fruite, otherwise no man can haue perfection in this world: for euery man must pray for remission of his sinnes, and increase of faith. Gen.15.6. rom.4.3. gal.3.6. m Is so knowen and declared to men. o Of that barren and dead faith whereof ye boast. Iosh.2.1. p Meaning hereby all them that were not Iewes, and were receiued to grace. q Wherefore we are iustified onely by that liuely faith, which doeth apprehend the mercy of God toward vs in Iesus Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 He forbiddeth al ambition to seeke honour about our brethren. 3 He describeth the properties of the tongue. 15.16. And what difference there is betwixt the wisedome of God, and the wisedome of the world.

MY brethren, bee not a many maisters, knowing that we shall receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things wee b * sinne all. * If any man sinne not in c word, hee is a perfite man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Beholde, wee put bits into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and wee turne about all their body.

4 Beholde also the ships, which though they bee so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whithersoeuer the gouernour listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great things: behold, howe great a d thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a e world of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and e setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beasts, and of birds, and of creeping things, and things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame, It is an vnruly euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God euen the father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send foorth at one place swete water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bring foorth olives, either a vine figs? so can no fountaine make both salt water and swete.

13 Who is a wiseman and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his works in meekenesse of wisedome.

14 But if yee haue bitter enuying, and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither bee liars against the trueth.

15 This wisedome descendeth not from aboue, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuilish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all maner of euill works.

17 But the wisedome that is from aboue, is first f pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to bee intreated, full of mercie and good fruites, without g iudging, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the h fruite of righteousnesse is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hauing shewed the cause of al wrong and wickednesse, and also of all graces and goodnesse, 4 He exhorteth them to loue God, 7 And submit themselues to him, 11 Not speaking euill of their neighbours, 13 But patiently to depend on Gods prouidence.

and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

3 Ye aske & receiue not, because yee aske amisse, that yee might consume it on your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and b adulteresses, know ye not that the amity of the world is the enmitie of God? * Whosoeuer therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh himselfe the enemie of God.

5 Do ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The c spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore saith, * God resisteth the proude, and giueth grace to the humble.

7 * Submit your selues to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw neere to God, and he will draw neere to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purge your hearts, yee wauering minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, and d sorow ye, and weepe: let your laughter bee turned into mourning, and your ioy into heauinesse.

10 * Cast downe your selues before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.

11 Speake not euill one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or hee that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Lawe, and * condemneth the Lawe: and if thou condemnest the Lawe, thou art not an obseruer of the Lawe, but a e iudge.

12 There is one f Lawgiuer, which is able to saue, and to destroy. * Who art thou that iudgest another man?

13 Goe to now yee that say, g To day or to morow wee will goe into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gaine,

14 (And yet yee cannot tell what shall be to morow. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and afterward vanisheth away)

15 For that ye ought to say, * If the Lord will, and, If wee liue, wee will doe this or that.

16 But now ye reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

17 Therefore, h to him that knoweth how to doe well, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

6 Ye haue condemned & haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Bee patient therefore, brethren, vnto the comming of the Lorde. Beholde, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruite of the earth, and hath long patience for it, vntill he receiue the f former and the latter raine.

8 Be yee also patient therefore, and stedie your hearts: for the comming of the Lorde draweth neere.

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

HE exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselues, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnal affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heauenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reuealed to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holinesse of life. And to the intent this faith should not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole world, hee declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that hee should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, hee entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue themselues. And because it is appointed for all that are godly, to suffer persecutions, hee sheweth them what good ende their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all, he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselues, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to bee modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercy of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7 And how faith must be tried, 10 That the saluation of Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of olde, 13 Hee exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, forasmuch as they are now borne anew by the worde of God.

PETER an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to [a] the strangers that dwel here and there throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to [b] the foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirit, [c] through obedience and sprinkling of the bloode of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 [d] Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotte vs againe vnto a [e] liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in [f] heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the [g] last time:

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though now for a season (if need require) ye are in heauinesse, through manifold tentations,

7 That the triall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it bee tried with fire) might bee found vnto your prayse, and honour, and glorie, at the [h] appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom ye haue not seene, and yet loue him, in whom now, though ye see him not, yet doe you beleeue, and reioyce with ioy vnspeakable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the [i] end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the spirite which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glorie that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was reuealed, that [k] not vnto themselues, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which [l] haue preached vnto you the Gospell by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to behold.

13 Wherefore, [m] gird vp the [n] loynes of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the [o] reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former [p] lustes of your ignorance:

15 But as hee which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in [q] all maner of conuersation, 16 Because it is written, [r] Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call him Father, which without [s] respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans [t] worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as siluer and golde, from your vaine conuersation, receiued by the traditions of the [u] fathers,

19 [x] But with the precious bloode of Christ, as of a lambe vndefiled, and without spot,

20 Which was [y] ordeined before the foundation of the world, but was declared in the [z] last times for your sakes,

21 Which by his meanes doe beleeue in God that rayled him from the dead, and gaue him glorie, that your faith and hope might

THE ARGVMENT.

THe effect of the Apostle here, is to exhort them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stand to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men, moueth them to holinesse of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, and increasing his gifts in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he being now almost at deaths doore, exhorteth them to approoue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things (as hee had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eies toward heauen, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witnesse, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to bee the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And least they should promise to themselues quietnes by professing the Gospel, he warneth them both of troubles which they should sustaine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose maners & trade he liuely setteth forth as in a table: admonishing the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to behold presently the day of his comming, and to preiudge themselues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuch as the power of God hath giuen vs all things pertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lustes, 10 To make their calling sure with good works, & fruits of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true Sonne of God as he himself had seene vpon the mount.

SImon Peter a seruant and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obteined like precious faith with vs by the * righteousnesse of our God and Sauiour Iesus Christ:

a In that he declareth himself to be a faithfull seruant and faithfull in accomplishing his promise by Christ,

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,

3 According as his b godly power hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto * life and godlines, c through the knowledge of him that hath called vs ‖ vnto glory and vertue:

b He speaketh of Christ as hee is God and Sauiour.

c That is, saluation.

4 Whereby most great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, d by them ye should be partakers of the e godly nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the world through lust.

d The summe of our saluation and religion is to be led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.

‖Or, through his glory.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer f vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that wee flee the corruption of the world or as Paul writeth, are dead to sinne and are not in the flesh.

6 And

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlinesse:

7 And with godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse: and with brotherly kindnesse, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shalbe idle, nor vnfruitfull in the knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For hee that hath not these things, is blind, and g cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling & election h sure: for if yee doe these things, yee shall neuer i fall.

11 For by this meanes an entring shall be ministred vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdom of our Lord and Sauiour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwaies in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be stablished in the present truth.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this k tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance, 14 Seeing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath l shewed me.

15 I will endeuour therefore alwaies, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For wee followed not * deuised fables, when wee opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his maiestie:

17 For hee receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, * This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice wee heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the m holy mount.

19 We haue also a more sure n word of the Prophets, to the which yee doe well that ye take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the o day dawne, and the * day starre arise in your hearts.

20 * So that yee first know this, that no prophesie in the scripture is of p any priuate m interpretion.

21 For the prophesie came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

He propheseth of false teachers, & sheweth their punishment.

BUt * there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable sectes, euen denying the Lord that hath bought them, and bring vpon themselues swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their] damnable waies, by whom the way of truth shall be euill spoken of.

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained wordes make ᵃ marchandise of you, whose iudgement long agone is not farre off, and their damnation slepeth not.

4 For if God spared not the * Angels that had sinned, but cast them downe into hell, and deliuered them into chaines of darknesse, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared the old world, but saued * Noe the eight person a preacher of righteousnesse, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly,

6 And * turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrhe into ashes, condemned them and ouerthrew them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after should liue vngodly,

7 * And deliuered iust Loth vexed with the vncleanly conuersation of the wicked,

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deeds.)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of tentation, and to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to bee punished:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleanesse, and despise the gouernement, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, * giue not a rayling iudgement against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as ᵇ brute beastes, led with sensualitie, made to be taken, and destroyed, speake euill of those things which they know not, and shall perish through their owne corruption,

13 And shall receiue the wages of vnrighteousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue delectously for a season. Spots they are and blots, c delighting themselues in their deceiuings, in feasting with you,

14 Hauing eies full of aduoutrie, and that cannot cease to sinne, beguiling vnstable soules: they haue hearts exercised with couetousnes, cursed children,

15 Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of * Balaam, the sonne of Bosor, which loued the wages of vnrighteousnesse, 16 But he was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the dumbe Asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the foolishnesse of the prophet.

17 These are wels without water, and * cloudes caried about with a tempest, to whom the blacke darknesse is reserued for euer.

18 For in speaking swelling wordes of vanitie, they beguile with wantonnesse through the lustes of the flesh them that were

3 He sheweth the imperfit of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7 After what sort the end of the world shalbe. 8 That they prepare themselues thereunto. 16 Who they are which abuse the writings of S. Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures, 18 Concluding with eternall thanks to Christ Iesus.

THis second Epistle I nowe write vnto you, beloued, wherewith a I stirre vp, and warne your pure mindes,

2 To call to remembrance the wordes, which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauiour.

3 *This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lusts,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his comming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they b willingly knowe not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Wherefore the c world that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are nowe are kept by the same word in store, and reserued vnto fire against the day of iudgement, & of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloued, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lorde, *as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slacknesse) but is patient towards vs, and *d would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 *But the day of the Lord will come as a theefe in the night, in the which ‖ heauens shall passe away with a noise, & the elements shall melt with heate, and the earth with the workes that are therein, shalbe burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore ‖ all these things must be dissolued, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlinesse, 12 Looking for, & hasting vnto the comming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire, shalbe dissolued, and the elements shall melt with heate?

13 But we looke for *new heauens, and a newe earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that ye looke for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in e peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 *And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisedom giuen vnto him wrote to f you,

16 As one, that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are g hard to be vnderstood, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable ‖ peruert, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seeing ye know these things before, beware least yee be also pricked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for euermore. Amen.

f Albeit his epistles were written to peculiar Churches, yet they conteine a generall doctrine apperteining to al men.

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

AFter that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, howe that our whole saluation doth consist onely in Christ, lest that any man should thereby take a boldnesse to sinne, hee sheweth that no man can beleeue in Christ, vnlesse he doth endeuour himselfe to keepe his commandements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, and to trie the spirits. Last of all, he doth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP. I.

2 True witnesse of the euerlasting worde of God. 7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne.

THat which was a from the beginning, which wee haue b heard, which we haue seene with our eyes, which we haue looked vpon, and our hands haue handled of the worde of life,

2 (For the life appeared, and wee haue seene it, and beare witnesse, and shew vnto you the eternall life, which was d with the Father, and appeared vnto vs)

3 That, I say, which wee haue seene and heard, declare wee vnto you, that yee may also haue fellowship with vs, and that our fellowship may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

a That is, Christ, God eternall.

b That is, Christ being man.

c Which giueth life and had it in himselfe, Iohn 1.4.

d Before all beginning.

e The effect of the Gospel is, that all we being ioyned together in Christ by faith, should be the sonnes of God.

our

our fellowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write we vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 This then is the message, which wee haue heard of him, & declare vnto you, that God * is [f] light, and in him is no darkenesse.

6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in [g] darkenesse, we lie, and doe not truely:

7 But if we walke in the light as hee is in the light, wee haue fellowship [h] one with another, and the * blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 * If we say that we haue no sinne, wee deceiue our selues, and trueth is not in vs.

9 If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithfull and iust, to forgiue vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnesse.

10 If wee say we haue not sinned, wee make him a liar, and his [i] word is not in vs.

John 1.12.

[f] The fruits of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or not: for God being the very puritie and light, will not haue fellowship with them which lie in sinne and darkenesse.

[g] In an euil conscience, and without the feare of God.

[h] That is, Christ with vs, and we with our selues. Heb. 9.14. 1. pet. 1.19. reuel. 1.5. 1. King. 8.46. 2. chron. 6. 36. prou. 20.9. eccle. 7.22.

[i] If we be not ashamed, earnestly and openly to acknowledge our sinnes before God to be sinners. [Or, doctrine.]

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our aduocate. 10 Of rebellion, and how it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an * Aduocate with the Father, Iesus Christ the Iust.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of [b] the whole world.

3 And herby we are sure that we * know him, if we keepe his commandements.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandements, is a liar, and the trueth is not in him.

5 But hee that keepeth his word, in him is [d] the loue of God perfect in deede: herby we know that we are in him.

6 * He that saith hee remayneth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new [j] commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement which ye haue had from the * beginning: the [l] olde commandement is the word, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe, a newe commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenesse vntill this time.

10 * He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euil in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, and walketh in darkenesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenesse hath blinded his eyes.

[a] Christ is not onely aduocate and atonement for the office of intercession and redemption are ioyned together.

[b] That is, of them which haue embraced the Gospel by faith in all ages, degrees, and places: for there is no saluation without Christ.

[c] That is, by faith and so obey him: for knowledge cannot be without obedience.

[d] Whereby he loueth God: so that to loue God is to obey his word.

[Or, doctrine.]

[e] When the Law was giuen.

[f] Loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, is the old commandement taught in the Law: but when Christ saith, So loue one another as I haue loued you, he giueth a new commandement onely as touching the forme, but not as touching the matter or substance of the precept. Chap. 3. 23.

12 [k] Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiuen you for [l] his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you yong men, because ye haue ouercome the [m] wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue knowen the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, yong men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue ouercome the [m] wicked.

15 Loue not the [n] world, neither [o] things that are in the world. If any man loue the * world, the loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the [p] flesh, the [q] lust of the eyes, and the * pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 * They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this commeth so passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an * ointment from him, that is [r] holy, & ye haue knowen all things.

21 I [s] haue not written vnto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lye is of the trueth.

22 Who is a lyar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is * Christ? he same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Whosoeuer denieth the Sonne, the same [t] hath not the Father.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternall life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anointing which yee receiued of him, dwelleth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same * anointing teacheth you of al things, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shal abide [u] in him.

28 And now, [x] little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

29 If yee knowe that hee is righteous, knowe yee that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

[g] He nameth all the faithfull children, as he being their spirituall Father, attributing to olde men knowledge of great thing, to young men strength, to children obedience and reuerence to their gouernours.

[h] For Christes sake.

[i] Or, the deuill.

[k] As it is aduersarie to God. Iames 4.4.

[l] To liue in pleasure.

[m] Wantonnesse.

[n] Ambition and pride.

[o] Which seemed to haue bene of our number, because for a time they occupied a place in the Church.

[p] The grace of the holy Ghost.

[q] Which is Christ.

[r] In this Epistle which I now write vnto you.

[s] He that taketh away or diminisheth either of the natures in Christ, or hee that confoundeth or separateth them, els he that putteth not difference betweene the person of the Sonne, and also he that beleeueth not to haue remission of sinnes by his only sacrifice, denyeth Christ to be the true Messias.

[t] Then the infidels worship not the true God.

[u] But he that confesseth the Sonne, hath also the father.

[x] Christ communicateth himselfe and his ministers vnto you, and teacheth you by the holy Ghost [Or, in Christ.] [u] By this name hee meaneth the whole Church of Christ in generall.

CHAP.

CHAP. III.

1 The singular loue of God toward vs, 7 And how we ought to loue one another.

BEhold, what loue the father hath shewed on vs, that wee should be [a] called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are wee the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when [b] he shall appeare, we shall be [c] like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as [d] he is pure.

4 Whosoeuer [e] committeth sinne, transgresseth also the lawe: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye know that he appeared that he might [f] take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoeuer abideth in him sinneth not, whosoeuer sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath knowen him.

7 Litle children, Let no man deceiue you: he that doeth righteousnesse, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 [g] He that [h] committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuil sinneth from the [i] beginning: for this purpole appeared the Sonne of God, that he might loose the workes of the deuill.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for [k] his seede remaineth in him, neither can he [l] sinne, because hee is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowen, and the children of the deuill: whosoeuer doeth not righteousnesse, is not of God, neither he that [m] loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the message, that ye heard from the beginning, that we should [n] loue one another.

12 Not as [o] Cain which was of the wicked, and slewe his brother: and wherefore slewe he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Maruell not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 Wee knowe that we are translated from death vnto life, because wee [p] loue the brethren: [q] He that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and ye know that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 [r] Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that hee layde downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 [s] And whosoeuer hath this worldes good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My litle children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in deede and in truth.

19 For thereby wee knowe that we are of the trueth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our [t] heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 [u] And whatsoeuer wee aske, we receiue of him, because we keepe his commandements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 [x] This is then his commaundement, That wee beleeue in the Name of his sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commandement.

24 [y] For hee that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and hee in him: and hereby wee knowe that hee abideth in vs, euen by the spirit which hee hath giuen vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God may be knowen from the spirit of errour. 17 Of the loue of God and of our neighbour.

DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery spirit, but trie the [a] spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shal ye know the spirit of God, Euery spirite that confesseth that Iesus [b] Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome yee haue heard, howe that he should come, and [c] now already he is in the world.

4 Litle children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then [d] he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the worlde, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, [e] hee that knoweth God, [f] heareth vs: hee that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby know we the spirit of trueth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: For God is loue.

9 [g] In this [h] appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his only begotten Sonne into the worlde, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a [i] reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 [k] No man hath seene God at any time. If we loue one another God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby knowe wee that we dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And wee haue seene and doe testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to bee the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer [l] confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

17 Herein is the love perfect in vs, that we should have boldnes in the day of iudgement: for as he is, euen so are we in this world.

18 There is no [k] feare in love, but perfect love casteth out feare: for feare hath paine: and hee that feareth, is not perfect in love.

19 [l] We love him, because he loued vs first.

20 If any man say, I love God, and hate his brother, he is a lyar: for [l] howe can hee that loueth not his brother whom hee hath seene, love God whom he hath not seene?

21 * And this commandement have wee of him, that he which loueth God, should love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1. 10. 13 Of the fruites of faith. 14. 20 The office, authoritie, and diuinitie of Christ. 21 Against images.

WHosoeuer believeth that Iesus is the Christ, is [a] borne of God, and every one that loueth him which begate, loueth him which is begotten of him.

2 In this we know that we love the children of God, when we love [b] God, and keepe his commandements.

3 For this is the love of God, that wee keepe his commandements: and his * commandements are not [c] grievous.

4 For all that is borne of God overcommeth the world: and this is the victory that overcommeth the world, even our faith.

5 * Who is it that overcommeth the world, but he which believeth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by [d] water [e] and blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the [f] spirit, that beareth witnesse: for the spirit is [g] truth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare record in earth, the spirite, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God, which hee testified of his Sonne.

10 * He that believeth in the Sonne of God, hath the witnesse [h] in himselfe: he that believeth not God, hath made him a lyar, because hee believed not the record, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne hath life: and hee that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things have I written vnto you, that believe in the Name of the Sonne of God, that ye may knowe that ye have eternall life, and that yee may believe in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance, that wee have in him, * that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

15 And if we knowe that hee heareth vs, whatsoever we aske, wee knowe that we have the petitions that we have desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne, that is not vnto death, let him aske & he shall give him life for them that sinne not [i] vnto death. * There is a sinne [i] vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 [k] We know that whosoeuer is borne of God, [k] sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, [k] keepeth himselfe, and the * wicked * toucheth him not.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world * lieth in wickednesse.

20 But wee knowe that the Sonne of God is * come, and hath given vs a minde to knowe him, which is true: and wee are in him that is true, that is, in his Sonne Iesus Christ: this same is very [p] God, and eternall life.

The second Epistle of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certaine Ladie, 4 Reioycing that her children walke in the truth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto love, 7 Warneth them to beware of such deceivers as deny that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. 8 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to have nothing to do with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Sauiour.

THe Elder to the elect Ladie, and her children, whom I love in [a] the truth: and not I onely, but also all that have knowen the truth,

2 For the truths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lorde Iesus Christ the sonne of the Father, with [b] truth and love.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I founde of thy children walking [c] in truth, as we have receiued a commandement of the Father.

5 And now beseech I thee Lady, (not as writing a new commaundement vnto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we * loue one another.

6 And this is the love, that wee should walke after his [‖] commandements. This commaundement is, that as yee have heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceivers are entred into the world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a deceiver and an Antichrist.

Rom.16.17.

neither bid him, f God speede.
11 For he that biddeth him, God speede, is partaker of his euill deedes. Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet I would not write with paper and inke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.
12 The sonnes of thine ‖elect sister greete thee, Amen.

The third Epistle of Iohn.

3 Hee is glad of Gaius that hee walketh in the trueth, 8 Exhorteth them to bee louing vnto the poore Christes in their persecution, 9 Sheweth the vnkinde dealing of Diotrephes, 12 And the good report of Demetrius.

THe Elder vnto the beloued Gaius whom I loue in the trueth.
2 Beloued, I wish chiefly a thou prosperedst and faredst well, as thy soule prospereth.
3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the trueth.
4 I haue no greater ioy then this, that is, to heare that my sonnes walke in * veritie.
5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully whatsoeuer thou doest to the brethren, and to b strangers,
6 Which bare witnesse of thy loue before the Churches, Whom if thou bringest on their iourney, as it c beseemeth according to God, thou shalt doe well,
7 Because that for his Names sake, they went forth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.
8 We therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the trueth.
9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them receiueth vs not.
10 Wherefore if I come, I will declare his deedes which hee doeth, prating against vs with malicious words, and not therewith content, neither hee himselfe receiueth the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.
11 Beloued, followe not that which is euill, but that which is good: he that doeth well, is of God: but he that doeth euill, hath not ‖ seene God.
12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: yea, and we our selues beare record, and yee knowe that our record is true.
13 I haue many things to write: but I will not with inke and pen write vnto thee.
14 For I trust I shall shortly see thee, and wee shall speake mouth to mouth. Peace bee with thee. The friends salute thee. Greete the friends by name.

a That is, in godly conuersation, as they which haue both the knowledge and feare of God.
b By keeping hospitalitie.
c If thou furnishest them with necessaries toward their iourney, knowing that the Lord saieth, He that receiueth you, receiueth me,

‖Or, knoweth.

The generall Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGVMENT.

SAint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heed of deceiuers, which goe about to draw away the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willeth them to haue no societie with such, whom he setteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally he comforteth the faithfull and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

IVDE a seruant of Iesus Christ, e brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified a of God the Father, and b reserued to Iesus Christ:
2 Mercie vnto you, and peace, and loue be multiplied:
3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needefull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that yee should earnestly * contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was d once giuen vnto the Saints.
4 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of old * ordained to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnesse, and * denie God the onely Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.
5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuch as yee once knewe this, howe that the Lord, after that hee had deliuered the people out of Egypt, * destroyed them afterward which f beleeued not.
6 The * Angels also which kept not their first ‖estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath reserued in euerlasting chaines vnder darkenesse vnto the g iudgement of the great day.
7 As * Sodome and Gomorrhe, and the cities about them, which in like maner as they did, committed fornication, and followed h strange flesh, are set forth for an ensample, and suffer the vengeance of eternall fire.

a The faithfull are sanctified of God the Father in the Sonne by the holy Ghost.
b That he should keepe you, Iohn 17.6.
c Against the assaults of Satan and hereticks.
d That ye should keepe it for euer.
e He confirmeth their heart against the contemners of religion and apostates, shewing that such men trouble not the Church at all aduentures, but are appointed thereunto by the determinate counsell of God.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these i dreamers also defile the flesh, and despise gouernment, and speake euill of them that are in authoritie.
9 Yet k Michael the Archangel, when he stroue against the deuill, and disputed about the body of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but said, l The Lord rebuke thee.

The Reuelation of ‖ Iohn the Diuine.

‖ Or, declared to Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holy Ghost would as it were gather into this most excellent Booke a summe of those prophesies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the comming of Christ, adding also such things as should bee expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set foorth the diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things he reproueth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: howe that the hypocrites which sting like Scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed. But the lambe Christ shall defend them, which beare witnesse to the trueth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set foorth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited: and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length hee shall bee destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall giue prayse to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a season God will permit this Antichrist, and strumper, vnder colour of faire speech and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: wherefore he aduertiseth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoyd this harlots flatterie and brags, whose ruine without mercy they shall see, and with the heauenly companies sing continuall prayses: for the Lambe is married: the word of God hath gotten the victory: Satan that along time was vnited, is nowe cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrariwise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enjoy perpetuall glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

1 The cause of this reuelation. 3 Of them that reade it. 4 Iohn writeth to the seuen Churches. 5 The Maiestie and office of the sonne of God. 20 The vision of the Candlesticks and starres.

THE Reuelation of IESVS CHRIST which [b] GOD gaue vnto him, to shewe vnto his seruantes things which [c] must shortly bee done: which hee sent, and shewed by his Angel vnto his seruant Iohn,

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Iesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that heare the wordes of this [d] prophesie, and keepe those things which are written therein: for the time is at [e] hand.

4 Iohn, to the [f] seuen Churches which are in Asia, Grace be with you & peace from him, which [g] is, and which was, & which is to come, & from the [h] seuen spirites which are before his throne,

5 And from Iesus Christ, which is a [i] faithfull witnesse, and [k] the first begotten of the dead, and Prince of the kings of the earth, vnto him that loued vs, and washed vs from our sinne in his [l] blood,

6 And made vs [m] Kings and Priests vnto God, euen his father, to him be glorie and dominion for euermore, Amen.

7 Behold, he commeth with [n] clouds, and euery eye shall see him: yea, euen they which [o] pearced him through: and all kindreds of the earth shall waile ‖ before him. Euen so Amen.

8 I [p] am [q] Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, Which is, and Which was, and Which is to come, euen the Almightie.

9 I Iohn euen your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the yle called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 And I was rauished in spirite on [r] the Lords day, and heard behinde mee a great voyce, as it had bene of a Trumpet, 11 Saying, I am [s] Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and that which thou seest, write in a booke, and sende it vnto the [t] seuen Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamus, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardi, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 Then I turned backe to see the [u] voice that spake with mee: and when I was turned, I saw [x] seuen golden candlesticks, 13 And in the middes of the seuen candlesticks, one like vnto the [y] Sonne of man, clothed with a garment [z] downe to the feete, and girded [a] about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and haires were [b] white as white wooll, and as snowe, and his eyes were as a [c] flame of fire,

15 And his feete like vnto ‖ fine [d] brasse, burning as in a furnace: and his [e] voyce as the sound of many waters.

16 And hee had in his right hande seuen [f] starres: & out of his mouth went a [g] sharpe two edged sword: and his face shone as the sunne shineth in his strength.

17 And when I sawe him, I fell at his feete as [h] dead: then he layd his right [i] hand vpon me, saying vnto mee, Feare not: I am the [k] first and the last,

18 And am alyue, but I was dead: and behold, I am alyue for euermore, Amen: and I haue the [l] keyes of hell and death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall come [m] hereafter.

20 The mysterie of the seuen starres which thou sawest, [n] in my right hand, and the seuen golden candlesticks, is this, The seuen starres are the [o] Angels of the seuen Churches: and the seuen candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

He exhorteth foure Churches 5 To repentance, 10 To perseuerance, patience and amendment, 5-14.20.23. Aswell by threatnings, 7.10.17.26. As promise of reward.

VNto the [a] Angell of the Church of Ephesus write, these things saith hee that [b] holdeth the seuen starres in his right hand, and [c] walketh in the middes of the seuen golden candlesticks.

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and howe thou canst not forbeare them which are euill, and hast examined them which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them lyars.

3 And thou hast suffered, and hast patience, and for my names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Neuertheles, I haue somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first [d] loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, & doe the first works: or els I will come against thee shortly, and will remoue thy [e] candlestick out of his place except thou amend.

t All townes and countries whence Gods worde and good liuing is banished, are the throne of Satan, and all those places where the word is not preached sincerely, nor maners aright reformed.

u In the very heate of persecution and slaughter of the Martyrs, they continued in the pure faith, and therefore are commended after a sorte.

x All such are like counsellers to Balaam, which for lucre perswade to idolatry or whoredome. Num. 23.14. and 25.1.

y And not common to all.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the workes of the s Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 Let him that hath an eare, heare, what the Spirit sayth vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the tree of h life, which is in the middes of the Paradise of God.

8 ¶ And vnto the i Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, These things saith he that is first, and last, which was dead, and is k aliue.

9 I knowe thy workes and l tribulation, and pouertie, (but thou art m rich) and I know the blasphemie of them, which say they are Iewes, and are n not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: beholde, it shall come to passe, that the o deuill shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be p tryed, and ye shall haue tribulation q ten dayes: bee thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit sayeth to the Churches. He that ouercommeth shal not be hurt of the r second death.

12 And to the Angel of the Church which is at Pergamus write, Thus sayeth hee which hath the sharpe s sworde with two edges, 13 I knowe thy workes and where thou dwellest, euen where Satans t throne is, and thou keepest my Name, and hast not denyed my faith, u euen in those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a fewe things against thee, because thou hast there them that maintaine the x doctrine of y Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

15 Euen so hast thou them, that maintaine the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate, 16 Repent thy selfe, or else I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sworde of my mouth.

17 ¶ Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirite sayth vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the Manna that is y hid, and will giue him a z white stone, and in the stone a a new name written, which no man knoweth saming he that receiueth it.

18 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things sayeth the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like fine brasse.

19 I know thy workes and thy loue, and b seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that they are moe at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a fewe things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman c Iezabel, which calleth her selfe a Prophetesse, to teach and to deceiue my seruants, to make them d commit fornication, and to eate meates sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent them of their workes.

23 And I will kill her e children with death: and all the Churches shall knowe that I am he which f search the raines and hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according vnto your workes.

24 And vnto you, I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, As many as haue not this learning, neither haue knowen the g deepenesse of Satan (as they speake) I will put vpon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye haue already, hold fast till I come.

26 For he that ouercommeth and keepeth my workes vnto the end, to him will I giue power ouer nations, 27 * And he shall rule them with a rod of yron: and as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken.

28 Euen as I receiued of my Father, so will I giue him the morning starre.

29 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit sayeth to the Churches.

z Such a stone was wont to be giuen vnto them that had gotten any victorie or prise, in signe of honour, and therefore it signifieth here a token of Gods fauour & grace: also it was a signe that one was cleared in iudgement.

5 He that ouercommeth, ſhall bee clothed in white aray, and I will not put out his name out of the [c] Booke of life, but I will confeſſe his name before my Father, and before his Angels.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſaith vnto the Churches.

7 ¶ And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is of Philadelphia, Theſe things ſayeth hee that is Holy and True, which hath the [d] key of Dauid, which openeth and no man ſhutteth, and ſhutteth and no man openeth,

8 I knowe thy workes: behold, I haue ſet before thee an open [e] doore, and no man can ſhut it: for thou haſt a little ſtrength, and haſt kept my word, and haſt not denied my Name.

9 Beholde, I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which call themſelues Iewes and are not, but doe lie: behold, I ſay, I will make them that they ſhall come and [f] worſhip before thy feete, and ſhall know that I haue loued thee.

10 Becauſe thou haſt kept the word of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of tentation, which will come vpon all the world, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Beholde, I come ſhortly: holde that which thou haſt, that no man take thy [g] crowne.

12 Him that ouercommeth, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and hee ſhall goe no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the Name of the citie of my God, which is the newe Ieruſalem, which commeth downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſaith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, Theſe things ſayeth [h] Amen, the faithfull and true witneſſe, the [i] beginning of the creatures of God, 15 I knowe thy workes, that thou art neither colde nor hot: I would thou werest cold or hot.

16 Therefore, becauſe thou art luke warme, and neither colde nor hot, it will come to paſſe, that I ſhall ſpewe thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou ſayeſt, I am [k] rich and increaſed with goods, and haue [l] neede of nothing, and knoweſt not howe thou art wretched and miſerable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counſell thee to buy of me gold tried by the fire, that thou mayeſt bee made rich, and white rayment, that thou mayeſt bee clothed, and that thy filthie nakednesſe doe not appeare: and [m] anoynt thine eyes with eye ſalue, that thou mayeſt ſee.

19 As many as I loue, I [n] rebuke and chaſten: bee [o] zealous therefore and amend.

20 Beholde, I ſtand at the doore, and knocke. If any man heare my voyce and open the doore, I will come in vnto him, and will ſup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, will I graunt to ſit with mee in my [p] throne, euen as I ouercame, and ſit with my Father in his throne.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſaith vnto the Churches.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The viſion of the Maieſtie of God. 2 He ſeeth the throne and one ſitting vpon it, 8. and 24. ſeates about it with 24. elders ſitting vpon them, and foure beaſtes praiſing God day and night.

AFter this I looked, and behold, a [a] doore was open in heauen, and the firſt voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with mee, ſaying, Come vp hither, and I will ſhewe thee things which muſt be done hereafter.

2 And immediately I was rauiſhed in the ſpirit, and beholde, a throne was ſet in heauen, and one ſate vpon the throne.

3 And [b] hee that ſate, was to looke vpon like vnto a Iaſper ſtone, and a Sardine, and there was a rainebow round about the throne in ſight like vnto an Emerauld.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twentie ſeates, and vpon the ſeates I ſawe [c] foure and twentie Elders ſitting, clothed in white rayment, and had on their heads crownes of gold.

5 And out of the throne [d] proceeded [e] lightnings, and thunderings, and voyces, and there were ſeuen lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the ſeuen ſpirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a [f] ſea of glaſſe like vnto a chriſtal: and in the [g] midſt of the throne, and round about the throne were foure [h] beaſtes full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the firſt beaſt was like a lion, and the ſecond beaſt like a calfe, and the third beaſt had a face as a man, and the fourth beaſt was like a flying Eagle.

8 And the foure beaſtes had each one of them ſixe wings about him: and they were full of eyes within, and they ceaſed not day nor night, ſaying, [i] Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and which is, and which is to come.

9 And when thoſe beaſtes gaue glory, and honour, and thanks to him that ſate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

10 The foure and twentie Elders fell downe before him that ſate on the throne, & worſhipped him, that liueth for euermore, and caſt their crownes before the throne, ſaying,

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 8.14. And therefore the foure beastes, the 24. Elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and doe him worship, 9 For their redemption and other benefites.

a A similitude taken of earthly princes, which iudge by bookes and writings: and here it doeth signifie all the counsels, and iudgements of God, which are onely knowen to Christ the sonne of Dauid, verse 5.

b That is, many.

Gen.49.9.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne, a Booke written within, and on the backeside, sealed with b seuen seales,

2 And I sawe a strong Angel, which preached with a loud voyce, Who is worthy to open the Booke, and to loose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders sayd vnto me, Weepe not: beholde, the *Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obteined to open the Booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beasts, and in the middes of the Elders, stood a c Lambe, as though hee had bene killed, which had d seuen hornes, and e seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the Booke, the foure beastes, and the foure and twentie Elders f fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the g prayers of the Saints.

9 And they sung a newe song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast h redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our GOD *Kings and Priests, and wee shall i reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, and there were *thousand thousands, 12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthy is the *Lambe that was killed, to receiue power, and riches, and wisedome, and strength, and honour, and glorie, and prayse.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and al that are in them, heard I saying, Prayse, and honour, and glorie, and power bee vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts said, Amen, and the foure and twentie Elders fell downe, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

e This vision confronteth the power of our Lord Iesus which is the Lambe of God that taketh away the sinne of the world.

d That is, manifold power.

e Signifying the fulnesse of the spirit which Christ powreth vpon all.

f The Angels honour Christ: he is therefore God.

g This declareth how the prayers of the faithfull are agreeable vnto God, reade Actes 10.4. and chap.8.3.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the fiue seales, and many things follow the opening thereof, so that this containeth a generall prophesie to the end of the world.

AFter, I beheld, when the Lambe had opened one a of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beastes say, as it were the b noyse of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and loe, there was a c white horse, and hee that d sate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering, that he might ouercome.

3 And when hee had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was e red, and power was giuen to him that f sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when hee had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, a a blacke horse, and he that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beastes say, A h measure of wheate for a i peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when hee had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and beholde, a k pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and ||Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when hee had opened the l fift seale, I sawe vnder the altar m the soules of them that were killed for the word of God, and for the testimonie which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true! doest not thou iudge and auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was sayd vnto them, that they should rest for a little season vntill their fellowe seruants, and their brethren that should be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when hee had opened the fift seale, and loe, there was a great n earthquake, and the o sunne was as blacke as blacke cloth of haire, and the p moone was like blood.

a The opening of the seale is the declaration of Gods will, and the executing of his iudgements.

b Signifying, that there were marueilous things to come.

c The white horse signifieth innocencie, victorie, and felicitie, which should come by the preaching of the Gospel.

d He that rideth on the white horse, is Christ.

e Signifying the cruell warres that ensued when the Gospell was refused.

f Who was Satan.

g This signifieth an extreme famine and want of all things.

h The Greeke word signifieth that measure which was ordinarily giuen to seruants for their portion or stint of meate for one day.

i Which amounted about foure pence halfepeny.

k Whereby is meant sickenesse, plagues, pestilence, and death of man and beast.

||Or, the graue.

l The continuall persecution of the Church noted by the fift seale.

m The soules of the Saints are vnder the altar, which is Christ, meaning that they are in his safe custodie in the heauens.

n Which signifieth the change of the newe doctrine, which is the greatest cause of motions, and troubles that come to the world.

o That is, the brightnesse of the Gospel.

p The traditions of men.

q The Church miserably defaced with idolatrie, and afflicted by tyrants,

1 Doctors and preachers that depart from the truth.
f The kingdome of God is hid, and withdrawen from men, and appeareth not.
t Realmes, kingdomes and persons, that did seeme to bee as stable in the faith as mountaines. Isa.2.19.hose.10. Luke 23.30.
u Such men afterward, of what estate soeuer they bee, shall be desperate, and not able to susteine the weight of Gods wrath, but shall continually feare his iudgements.

13 And the ſ starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, as a figge tree casteth her greene figs, when it is shaken of a mighty winde.
14 And t heauen departed away, as a ſcrole when it is rolled, and euery mountaine and Ile were mooued out of their places.
15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaines, and the mightie men, and euery bond man, and euery free man, hid themſelues in dennes, and among the rockes of the mountaines,
16 And ſayd to the x mountaines & rocks, * Fall on vs, and hide vs from the preſence of him that ſitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe.
17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can ſtand?

CHAP. VII.

4. 9 He ſheth the ſeruants of God ſealed in their foreheads out of all nations and people, 15 which though they ſuffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaines of liuing water, 17 and God ſhall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

AND after that, I ſaw foure angels ſtand on the foure corners of the earth, holding the foure a windes of the b earth, that the windes ſhould not blow on the earth, neither on the c ſea, neither on any d tree.
2 And I ſawe another ‖ Angel come vp from the Eaſt, which had the ſeale of the liuing God, and he cried with a loud voice to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the ſea,
3 Saying, * Hurt ye not the earth, neither the ſea, neither the trees, till we haue ſealed the ſeruants of our God in their foreheads.
4 And I heard the number of them, which were ſealed, and there were ſealed an hundreth and foure and fortie thouſand of all the tribes of the children of Iſrael.
5 Of the tribe of Iuda were ſealed twelue thouſand. Of the tribe of Reuben were ſealed twelue thouſand. Of the tribe of Gad were ſealed twelue thouſand.
6 Of the tribe of Aſer were ſealed twelue thouſand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were ſealed twelue thouſand. Of the tribe of Manaſſes were ſealed twelue thouſand.
7 Of the tribe of Symeon were ſealed twelue thouſand. Of the tribe of b Leui were ſealed twelue thouſand. Of the tribe of Iſſachar were ſealed twelue thouſand.
8 Of the tribe of i Joſeph were ſealed twelue thouſand. Of the tribe of Beniamin were ſealed twelue thouſand.
9 After theſe things I beheld, and loe, a great multitude, which no man could number of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, ſtoode before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long k white robes, and l palmes in their hands.
10 And they cried with a loud voice, ſaying, m Saluation commeth of our God, that ſitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.
11 And all the Angels ſtood round about the throne, and about the Elders, & the foure beaſts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worſhipped God, 12 Saying, Amen. Praiſe and glory, and wiſdome, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.
13 And one of the Elders ſpake, ſaying vnto mee, What are theſe which are arayed in long white robes? & whence came they?
14 And I ſayd vnto him, Lorde, thou knoweſt. And he ſayd to me, Theſe are they, which came out of great tribulation, and haue waſhed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in the n blood of the Lambe.
15 Therefore are they in the preſence of the throne of o God, and ſerue him day and p night in his Temple, and hee that ſitteth on the throne, will dwell among them.
16 * They ſhal q hunger no more, neither thirſt any more, neither ſhal the ſunne r light on them, neither any heat.
17 For the ſ Lambe, which is in the mids of the throne, ſhall gouerne them, and ſhall leade them vnto the t liuely fountaines of waters, and u God ſhal wipe away al teares from their eyes.

1 The Spirit is compared to winde, and the doctrine alſo: and though there be one ſpirit and one doctrine, yet foure are here named in reſpect of the diuerſitie of the foure quarters of the earth where the Goſpel is ſpread, and for the foure writers thereof, and the preacher of the ſame thorow the whole world.
b Meaning, the men of the earth.
c That is, the iſlands.
d Signifying all men in generall, whocan no more liue without this viuifull doctrine, then trees can bloſſome and beare, except the white blowe vpon them. ſ or, Chriſt.
e God preuenteth the dangers and euils, which otherwiſe woulde ouerwhelme the elect.
f Thoſe that are ſealed by the Spirit of God, and marked with the blood of the Lambe, and lightned in faith by the word of God, ſo that they make open profeſſion of the ſame are exempted from euill.
g Though that this blindneſſe be brought into the worlde by the malice of Satan, yet the mercies of God reſerue to himſelfe an infinite number which ſhall bee ſaued; both of the Iewes and Gentiles through Chriſt. h He omitteth Dan, and putteth Leui in, whereby is meaneth the twelue tribes.

k In ſigne of puritie.
l In token of victorie and felicitie.
m All that are ſaued, attribute their ſaluation vnto God onely and to his Chriſt, and to none other thing.
n There is no puritie nor cleanneſſe, but by the blood of Chriſt only, which purgeth our ſinnes, and ſo maketh vs white.
o That is, of the Maieſtie of God the Father, the Sonne and the holy Ghoſt.
p Meaning continually: for elſe in heauen there is no night. Iſa.49.10.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The ſeuenth ſeale is opened: there is ſilence in heauen. 6 The foure Angels blow the trumpets, and great plagues follow vpon the earth.

AND when he had opened the a ſeuenth ſeale, there was b ſilence in heauen about halfe an houre.
2 And I ſawe the ſeuen Angels, which ſtood c before God, and to them were giuen ſeuen trumpets.
3 Then another Angel came & ſtood before the altar hauing a golden cenſer, and a Vnder the firſt ſeale hee touched in generall the corruption of the doctrine: but vnder the ſeuenth he ſheweth the great danger thereof, and what troubles, ſectes, and hereſies haue beene and ſhalbe brought into the Church thereby.

b That the hearers might be more attentiue.
c He ſheweth the only remedie in our afflictions, to wit, to appeare before the face of God by the meanes of Ieſus Chriſt, who is the Angel, the ſacrifice, and the Prieſt which preſenteth our prayers, which remaine yet in earth, before the throne, and diuine Maieſtie of God.

much odours was giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with [d] fire of the altar, and cast it into the [e] earth, and [f] there were voyces, and thunderings, and lightnings, & earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpets, prepared themselues to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel [g] blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the thirde part of [h] trees was burnt, and all greene [i] grasse was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great [k] mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the thirde part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of [l] ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell [m] a great starre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the thirde part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the [n] waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the [o] Sunne was smitten, and the thirde part of the [p] moone, and the third part of the [q] starres, so that the third part of them was [r] darkened: and the day was smitten, and the thirde part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying thorowe the middes of heauen, saying with a lowde voyce, [s] Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the soundes to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpets.

d He meaneth by fire the grace of God, whereby we are purged and made cleane, Isa.6.6.
e He powreth the graces of the holy Ghost into the hearts of the faithfull.
f When this grace is declared, maruellous rebellions arise against it by reason of the wicked, which can neither abide to heare their sinnes touched, nor mercie offered.
g That is, proclaimeth warre against the Church, and troubles by false doctrine, and so admonisheth them to watch.
h That is, the most part of men were seduced.
i Euen the very elect were sore tried and proued.
k Diuers sects of heretikes were spread abroad in the world.
l Meaning, the shipmasters, and so them that had any gouernment.
m That is, some excellent minister of the Church, which shall corrupt the Scriptures.
n Which here signifie false and corrupt doctrine.
o That is, of Christ, who is the sonne of Iustice, meaning, that men by boasting of their works and merits, obscure Christ, and tread his death vnder fete.
p That is, of the Church.
q Of the ministers and teachers, which haue not taught as they ought to doe.
r These are plagues for the contempt of the Gospell.
s Horrible threatnings against the infidels and rebellious persons.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fift and sixt Angell blew their trumpets: the starre falleth from heauen. 3 The beasts come out of the smoke. 12 The first woe is past. 14 The foure Angels that were bound, are loosed. 18 And the third part of men is killed.

AND the fift Angell blew the trumpet, and I sawe [a] a starre which was fallen from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the [b] key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And hee opened the bottomlesse pitte, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the [c] smoke of a great fornace, and the Sunne and the aire were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d] Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen [e] power, as the [f] scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt thee grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree:
but onely those [g] men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commaunded that they should not [h] kill them, but that they should bee [k] vexed fiue moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that commeth of a [l] scorpion, when hee hath stung a man.

6 [m] Therefore in those dayes shall men [n] seeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 [o] And the forme of the locusts was like vnto [p] horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heades were as it were [q] crownes like vnto golde, and their facts [r] were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the [s] haire of women, and their [t] teeth was as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had [u] habergions, like to habergions of yron: and the sound of their [x] wings was like the sound of charets when many horses run vnto battell.

10 And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were [y] stings in their tailes, and their power was to hurt men fiue mo-neths.

11 And they haue a king ouer them, which a That is, the bishops and ministers, which forsake the word of God, and so fall out of heauen, and angels of darkenesse.

b This authority chiefly is committed to the Pope, in figne whereof he beareth the keyes in his armes.
c Abundance of heresies and errours, which coner with darkenesse Christ and his Gospell.
d Locusts are false teachers, heretikes, and worldly subtile Prelates, with Monkes, Friers, Cardinals, Patriarks, Archbishops, Bishops, Doctours, Batchelers, and Masters which forsake Christ, to maintaine false doctrine.
e False and deceiuable doctrine, which is pleasant to the flesh.
f That is, secretly to persecute, and to sting with their taile as scorpions doe: such is the fashion of the hypocrites.
g For the false prophets can not destroy the elect, but such as are ordeined to perdition.
h That is, the infidels, whome Satan blindeth with the efficacie of error, 2. Thess. 2. 11.
i Though the elect be hurt, yet they cannot perish.
k The elect for a certaine space, and at times are in troubles: for the grashoppers endure but from Aprill to September, which is fiue moneths.
l For at the beginning the sting of their conscience seemeth as nothing, but except they soone seeke remedie, they perish. Isa.2.19. hos.10.8. luke 23.30. ebap.6.16.
m Such is the terrour of the vnbeleeuing conscience, which hath no assurance of mercie, but feeleth the iudgement of God against it, who men embrace errour, and refuse the true simplicitie of Gods word Wisd.16.9.
n Which signifieth that the Popes clergie shall be proud, ambitious, bolde, stout, rash, rebellious, stubborne, cruell, lecherous, and authors of warre and destruction of the simple children of God.
o They pretend a certaine title of honour, which indeed belongeth nothing vnto them, as the Priestes by their crowne and strange apparell declare.
p That is, they pretend great gentlenesse and loue: they are wise, politique, subtile, eloquent, and in worldly craftinesse passe all in all their doings.
q That is, effeminate, delicate, idle, trimming themselue to please their lusts.
r Signifying their oppression of the poore, and cruelty against Gods children.
s Which signifieth their hardnesse of heart, and obstination in their errours, with their assurance vnder the protection of worldly princes.
t For asthough they had wings, so are they lifted vp aboue the common sort of men, and esteemed most holy, and doe all things with rage and fiercenesse.

z Which is Antichrist the Pope, king of hypocrites, and Satans Ambassadour.

y That is, destroyer: for Antichrist the sonne of perdition destroyeth mens soules with false doctrine, and the whole world with fire and sword.

z Which was the voyce of Christ, sitting on the right hand of the Father.

a Meaning, the enemies of the East countrey, which should assist the Church of God, as did the Arabians, Saracens, Turks & Tartarians.

b This signifieth the great readinesse of the enemies.

c Which signifieth their false doctrine and hypocrisie.

d And therefore were iustly destroyed, Psal. 115.4. and 135.15.

is the z Angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrew, is y Abaddon, & in Greeke he is named Apollyon.

12 One woe is past, and beholde, yet two woes come after this.

13 ¶ Then the first Angel blew the trumpet, & I heard a z voice from the foure hornes of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the first Angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the foure a Angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the foure Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an b houre, at a day, at a moneth, and at a yeere, to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twentie thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierie habergions, and of Iacinth, and of brimstone, & the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: & out of their mouthes went foorth fire and smoke, and brimstone.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, & of the smoke and of the brimstone which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their c mouthes, and in their tailes: for their tailes were like unto serpents, and had heads, wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, d repented not of the workes of their handes that they should not worship devils, & e idols of golde, and of silver, and of braſſe, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor go.

21 Also they repented not of their murder, and of their sorcerie, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAP. X.

1 The Angel hath the booke open. 6 He sweareth there shall be no more time. 9 He giueth the booke vnto Iohn, which eateth it vp.

AND I sawe another mightie a Angel come downe from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and the b rainebow upon his head, and his face was as the c sunne, & his d feete as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a litle e booke open, and he put his right foot upon the sea, and his left on the earth,

3 And cried with a f loude voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seuen g thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seuen thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: but I heard a voice from heauen, saying unto me, h Seale up those things which the seuen thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I saw stand upon the sea, and upon the earth, lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And sware i by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, & the sea, and the things which therein are, that time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the voice of the seuenth Angell, when he shall begin to blowe the trumpet, euen the k mysterie of God shal be finished, as hee hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heauen, spake unto l me againe and sayd, Goe and take the litle booke which is open in the hand of the m Angel, which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 So I went unto the Angel, and sayd to him, Giue me the litle n booke. And he said unto me, * Take it, and e eate it up, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth as sweete as hony.

10 Then I tooke the litle booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as p sweet as hony: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he sayd unto me, Thou must prophesie q againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many kings.

e That is, the Church of God. f Which declareth that in delpight of Antichrist the Gospel should be preached through all the world: so that the enemies shall be astonied. g The whole graces of Gods Spirit beat themselues against Antichrist, Dan. 12.4. h Beleeue that is written: for there is no need to write more for the vnderstanding of Gods children.

i That is, by God whom Christ by his diuinitie is equall.

k The faithfull shall vnderstand, and see this mysterie of the last iudgement, the damnation of Antichrist and infidels, and also the glory of the iust at the resurrection.

l As S. Iohn vnderstood this by reuelation, so is the same reuciled to the true preachers, to discouer the Pope and Antichrist.

m Meaning Christ.

n That is, the holy Scriptures which declareth that the Minister must receiue them at the hand of God, before he can preach them to others.

Ezek. 3.1. o Which signifieth that the ministers ought to receiue the word into their hearts, and to haue graue and deepe iudgement, and diligently to studie it, and with zeale to vtter it. p Signifying, that albeit that the minister haue consolation by the word of God, yet shall he haue sore & grieuous enemies, which shalbe troublesome vnto him. q Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this booke after his death should be as a preaching vnto all nations.

CHAP. XI.

1 The Temple is measured. 3 Two witnesses raised vp by the Lord, are murthered by the beast, 11 But after restored to glory. 15 Christ is exalted. 16 and God praised by the xxiiii. Elders.

THen was giuen me a reede, like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise and a mete the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But b the court which is without the Temple cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy c citie shall they tread vnder foot d two and fourtie moneths.

3 But I will giue power vnto my e two witnesses, and they shall prophecie a Which declareth that Christ Iesus will build his Church and not haue it destroyed: for he measureth out his spirituall Temple.

b The Iewish Temple was diuided into three parts: the body of the Temple which is called the court, wherinto euery man entred: the holy places whet the Leuites were: and the holiest of all, wherinto the high Priest once a yere entred: in respect therefore of these two latter, the first is sayd to be cast out, because as a thing prophane it is neglected when the Temple is measured, and yet the aduersaries of Christ boast that they are in the Temple, and that none are of the Temple but they.

c That is, the Church of God. d Meaning, a certaine time: for God hath limited the times of Antichrists tyranny. e By two witnesses he meaneth all the preachers that should build vp Gods Church, alluding to Zerubbabel and Iehoshua, which were chiefly appointed for this thing, and also to this saying, In the mouth of two witnesses shall euery word.

f Signifying a certaine time: for when God giueth strength to his ministers, their persecutions seeme as it were but for a day or two.

g In poore and simple apparell.

h Whereby are signified the excellent graces of them which beare witnesse to the Gospell.

i Who hath dominion ouer the whole earth.

k By Gods word, whereby his ministers discomfit the enemies.

l They denounce Gods iudgement against the wicked, that they cannot enter into heauen.

m Which is to declare and procure Gods vengeance.

n That is, the Pope, which hath his power out of hell, and commeth thence.

o He sheweth howe the Pope gaineth the victorie, not by Gods word, but by cruell warre.

p Meaning, the whole iurisdiction of the Pope which is compared to Sodome for their abominable sinne, and to Egypt because the true libertie to serue God is taken away from the faithfull, and Christ was condemned by Pilate, who representeth the Romane power which should be tormented by heating the truth preached.

q The infidels are enemie to the godly.

r Which shall be at the last resurrection.

s For it seemed that Antichrist had chased them out of the earth.

t Of the power of Antichrist.

u When they shall vnderstand by Gods worde the glory of his, and the punishment of his enemies, they shall fall from the Pope, and glorifie God.

x Albeit Satan by the Pope, Turke, and other instruments troubleth the world neuer so much, yet Christ shall reigne.

y Iesus Christ.

z This declareth the office of the godly, which is to giue God thankes for the deliuerance of his, and to praise his iustice for punishing of his enemies.

a Signifying the destruction of the enemies.

b Which signifieth the destruction of the enemies.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the Dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victory is gotten, to the comfort of the faithfull.

a In this third vision is declared how the Church, which is compassed about with Iesus Christ the sonne of righteousnes, is persecuted of Antichrist.

b The Church treadeth vnder foote whatsoeuer is mutable and inconstant, with all corrupt affections and such like.

c Which signifieth God and his word.

d The Church euer with a most feruent desire longed that Christ should be borne, and that the faithfull might be regenerate by his power.

e The deuill and all his power which burneth with furie.

f For hee is the prince of this worlde, and almost hath the vniuersall gouernement.

g By his flatteries and promises hee gaineth many of the excellent ministers and honourable persons, and bringeth them to destruction.

h Which is Iesus Christ the first borne among many brethren, who was borne of the Virgine Marie, as of a speciall member of the Church. Psalme 2. 9.

i The Church was remooued from among the Iewes to the Gentiles, which were as a barren wilderneſſe, and so it is persecuted to and fro.

k Iesus Christ and his members, as Apostles, Martyrs, and the rest of the faithfull.

l For the Dragon was depriued of all dignitie, and had no more place in the Church.

euen cast into the earth, and his Angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loude voyce, saying, Now is saluation in heauen, and strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the word of their testimonie, and they [m] loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and ye that dwel in them. Woe to the [n] inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that hee hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that hee was [o] cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought foorth the man childe.

14 But to the woman were giuen two wings of a great Eagle, that shee might flie into the wildernesse, into [p] her place where shee is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time, from the presence [o] the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that he might cause her to bee caried away of the flood.

16 But the [q] earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swalowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the [r] remnant of her seed, which keepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christ.

18 And I stood on the sea sand.

m They put their liues in danger so oft as needs required.
n Meaning them that are giuen to the world and fleshly lusts.
o And was ouercome of Christ, when he fought against his members.
p Which the Lord had appointed for her.
q God giueth meanes to his Church to escape the furie of Satan, making his creatures to serue to the support thereof.
r Satan was not able to destroy the head nor the body, and therefore sheweth his rage against the members.

CHAP. XIII.

v. 8 The beast deceiueth the reprobate. 2. 4. 12 And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The priuiledge of the beasts marke.

AND I saw a [a] beast rise out of the sea, hauing [b] seuen heads, and [c] ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were tenne crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I saw, was like a [d] leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the [e] dragon gaue him his power, & his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I saw one of his [f] heads as it were wounded to death, but his [g] deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they [h] worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuē vnto him a mouth, that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to doe [i] two and fourtie moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to [k] ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery [l] kinred and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worship him, whose [m] names are not [n] written in the booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine [o] from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie, hee shall goe [o] into captiuitie: if any kil with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: here is the patience, and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I beheld another beast comming vp out of the [p] earth, which had two [q] hornes like the Lambe, but hee [r] spake like the dragon.

12 And hee did all that the first [s] beast could doe before him, and hee caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first [t] beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [u] he did great wonders, so that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men,

14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the [x] sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the [y] image of the beast, which had the wound of a sword, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a [z] spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should [a] speake, and should cause that as many as would not [b] worship the image of the beast, should bee killed.

16 And he made all, both small and great, rich and poore, free and bond, to receiue a Here is the description of the Romane empire which standeth in crueltie and tyrannie.

b Meaning Rome, because it was first gouerned by seuen Kings or Emperours after Nero, and also is compassed about with seuen mountaines.
c Which signifie tenne prouinces.
d By these beastes are signified the Macedonians, Persians and Caldeans, whom the Romanes ouercame.
e That is, the deuill.
f This may be vnderstood of Nero, who moued the first persecution against the Church, and after slew himselfe, so that the familie of the Cæsars ended in him.
g For the Empire was established againe by Vespasian.
h By receiuing the statutes, ordinances, decrees, ceremonies, and religion of the Romane Empire.
i Antichristes time and power is limited.
k In their bodies, not in soule.
l He meaneth that vniuersall departing where of S. Paul speaketh to the Thessalonians.
m Antichrist hath no power ouer the elect.
n As God ordained from before all beginning, and all the sacrifices were as signes and sacraments of Christs death.
o They which led soules captiues goe themselues into captiuitie.
p As the kingdome of Christ is from heauen, and bringeth men thither: so the Popes kingdome is of the earth, & leadeth to perdition, and is begun and established by ambition, couetousnes, deceitfulnesse, craft, treason and tyrannie.
q Which signifie the Priesthood & the kingdome, and therefore he giueth in his armes two keyes, and hath two swordes caried before him. So Boniface the eight which first ordeined the Iubile, shewed himselfe one day in apparell as a Pope, and the next day in harnesse as the Emperour, and the two hornes in the Bishops mitre are signes thereof.
r He spake deuilish doctrine, accused Gods worde of imperfection, set vp mans traditions, and spake things contrary to God and his worde.
s For the Pope in ambition, crueltie, idolatrie and blasphemie did followe and imitate the ancient Romanes.
t Brought them to idolatrie, and astonished them with the name of that holy Empire (as hee termeth it.)
u The man of sinne, according to the operation of Satan shall bee with all power, signes and miracles of lyes, 2. Thess. 2, 9. 10.
x Before the whole Empire which representeth the first beast, and is the image thereof.
y For the first Empire Romane was as the paterne, and this second Empire is but an image and shadow thereof.
z For except the Pope confirme the authoritie of the king of Romanes, he is not esteemed worthy to be made Emperour.
a The same things which the Pope, or false prophets instruct him in.
b Receiue the ordinances and decrees of the seate of Rome, and to kisse the villains foote, if he were put thereunto.

c Whereby he renounceth Christ: for as faith, the word, and the Sacraments are the Christians markes: so this Antichrist will accept none 17 And d that no man might buy or sell, saue hee that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisedome. e Let him that hath wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the number e of a man, and his number is sixe hundreth threescore and sixe.

but such as will approue his doctrine: so that it is not enough to confesse Christ, and to beleeue the Scriptures, but a man must subscribe to the Popes doctrine: moreouer their chrismatories, greasings, vowes, othes, and shauings are signes of this marke, in so much as no nation was accepted that had not many of these marked beasts. d He that is not sealed with Antichrists marke, cannot be suffered to liue among men. e Such as may be vnderstood by mans reason: for about 666. yeeres after this reuelation, the Pope or Antichrist began to be manifest in the worlde: for these characters χξϛ signifie 666: and this number is gathered of the small number, λατεινος, which in the whole make 666. and signifieth Lateinus, or Latin, which noteth the Pope or Antichrist, who vseth in all things the Latin tongue, and in respect thereof hee contemneth the Hebrewe and Greeke, wherein the word of God was first and best written: and because Italy in olde time was called Latinum, the Italians are called Latini, so that hereby he noteth of what countrey chiefly he should come.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The notable company of the Lambe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospel. 8 Another the fall of Babylon. 9 And the third warneth to flee from the beast. 13 Of their blessednesse which die in the Lord. 18 Of the Lords harueste.

a Iesus Christ ruleth in his Church to defend and comfort it, though the beast rage neuer so much: and seeing Christ is present euer with his Church, there can be no vicar: for where there is a vicar, there is no Church.

b Meaning a great and ample Church.

c Which was the marke of their election, to wit, their faith.

d Signifying that the nuber of the Church should be euer, & that they should spoke boldly, & aloud, and so glorifie the Lord.

e None can praise God, but the elect whom he hath bought. f By whore some: and vnder this vice he comprehendeth all other: but this is chiefly meant of idolatrie, which is the spirituall whoredome. g For their whole delight is in the Lambe Iesus, and they loue none but him. h Which declareth that the faithfull ought to liue iustly and holily, that they may be the first fruites, and an excellent offring of the Lord. i Forasmuch as their sinnes are pardoned, and they are clad with the iustice of Christ. k By this Angell are meant the true ministers of Christ which preach the Gospel faithfully,

THen I looked, and loe, a a Lambe stoode on mount Sion, and with him an b hundreth, fourtie and foure thousand, hauing his fathers c name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voyce from heaven, as the sound of many d waters, & as the sound of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes,

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne and before the foure beasts, and the Elders, and no e man could learne that song, but the hundreth fourtie and foure thousande, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they which are not f defiled with women: for they are virgins: these follow the Lambe g whithersoeuer hee goeth: these are bought from men, being the h first fruits vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouthes was found no guile: for they are without i spot before the throne of God.

6 ¶ Then I saw another k Angel flie in the middes of heaven, hauing an euerlasting Gospell, to preach vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation, and kinred, and tongue, and people,

7 *Saying with a loude voyce, l Feare God, and giue glory to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made * heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angell, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, m Babylon the great citie: for thee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the n wrath of her fornication.

9 ¶ And the third Angel followed them, saying with a loud voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the * pure wine, which is powred into the cup of his wrath, and hee shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, & whosoeuer receiueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of p Saints: here are they that keepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voyce from heaven, saying vnto mee, Write, q Blessed are the dead, which hereafter die in the r Lorde. Euen so sayeth the spirite: for they rest from their labours, and their works follow them.

14 ¶ And I looked, and beyold, a white s cloude, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angell came out of the Temple, crying with a loude voyce to him that sate on the cloude, * Thrust in thy sickle, and reape: for the time is come to reape: for the harueste of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloude, * thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the Temple which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the t altar, which had power ouer fire, and cryed with a loude crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, and said, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sic-m Signifying Rome: forasmuch as the vices which were in Babylon are found in Rome in greater abundance, as persecution of the Church of God, oppression and slauerie, with destruction of the people of God, confusion, superstition, idolatrie, impieties and as Babylon the first Monarchie was destroyed, so shall this wicked kingdome of Antichrist haue a miserable ruine, though it bee great and seemeth to extend throughout all Europa.

n By the which fornication God is prouoked to wrath: so that he suffereth many to walke in the way of the Romish doctrine to their destruction.

o That is, of his terrible iudgement.

p The faithfull are exhorted to patience.

q For they are deliuered from the horrible troubles which are in the Church, & rest with God. ‖ Or, for the Lords cause. r Which are ingrafted in Christ by faith, which rest and stay only on him, and reioyce to be with him for immediately after their death they are receiued into ioy. s Signifying that Christ shall come to iudgement in a cloude, euen as he was seene to goe vp. Ioel 3.13. mat.13 39. t The ouerthrow of the people is compared to an harueste, Hai. 19.5. also to a vintage, Iere.6.9.

u This is spoken familiarly for our capacitie, alluding vnto an husbandman who suffereth himselfe to be aduertised by his seruants when his harueste is ripe, and not that Christ hath neede to bee tolde when hee should come to iudgement for the comfort of his Church, and destruction of his enemies. x This was Christ who is also the Priest, and sacrifice.

y That is, a certaine place appointed, and not in the heauen.
z By this similitude hee declareth the horrible confusion of the tirants and infidels, which delight in nothing but warres, slaughters, persecutions and effusion of blood.

CHAP. XV.

1 Seuen Angels haue the seuen last plagues. 3 The song of them that ouercome the beast. 7 The seuen vials full of Gods wrath.

[a] AND I saw an other [a] signe in heauen, great and marueilous, [b] seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a [c] glassie sea mingled with fire, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God,

3 And they sung the song of [d] Moses the [e] seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great & marueilous are thy workes, Lord God Almightie: iust and true are thy [f] wayes, King of Saints.

4 [g] Who shall not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name? for thou onely art holy, and all nations shal come and worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and beholde, the temple of the tabernacle of testimonie was open in heauen.

6 And the seuen Angels came out of the temple, which had the seuen plagues, clothed in pure and [h] bright linnen, and hauing their [i] breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the [k] foure beasts gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glorie of God, and of his power, and no man was able to [l] enter into the Temple, till the seuen plagues of the seuen Angels were fulfilled, a This is the fourth vision, which conteineth the doctrine of Gods iudgements for the destruction of the wicked and comfort of the godly.

b Meaning an infinite number of Gods ministers, which had infinite maners and sorts of punishments.
c Signifying, this brickle & inconstant world mixt with fire, that is, troubles and afflictions, but the Saints of God ouercome them all, and sing diuine songs vnto God, by whose power they get the victorie.

k God giueth vs full entry into his Church by destroying his enemies: for the Saints cannot clearely knowe all Gods iudgements before the full end of all things.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Angels powre out their vials full of wrath. 6 And what plagues follow thereof. 15 Admonition to take heede and watch.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seuen Angels, Goe your wayes, and powre out the seuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first went, and powred out his vial vpon the earth: and there fell a noysome and a grieuous [a] sore vpon the men, which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel powred out his vial vpon the sea, and it became as the [b] blood of a [c] dead man: and euery liuing thing died in the sea.

4 And the third Angel powred out his vial vpon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they became [d] blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the [e] waters say, Lord, thou art iust, Which art, and Which wast, and Holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthie.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuary say, Euen so, Lord God almightie, [f] true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his vial on the Sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with [g] heate of fire,

9 And men boyled in great heate, and [h] blasphemed the name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glory.

10 And the fifth Angel powred out his vial vpon the throne of the [i] beast, and his kingdome waxed darke, and they [k] gnewe their tongues for sorow,

3 The discription of the great whore. 8 Her finnes & punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe.

THen there came a one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come, I will shew thee the damnation of the great b whore that sitteth vpon many c waters,

2 With whom haue committed fornication the kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are dronke with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wildernesse in the Spirit, and I sawe a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured d beast, full of names of e blaspheamie, which had seuen heads, and ten hornes.

4 And the f woman was arayed in purple and scarlet, and gilded with golde, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of gold in her hand, full of g abominations, and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, h A mysterie, great Babylon, the mother of whore hornes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I sawe the woman dronken with the blood of Saints, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I sawe her, I wondred with great maruaile.

7 Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore maruellest thou? I will shewe thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seuen heads, and ten hornes.

a Which was Christ Iesus who wil take vengeance on this Romish harlot.

b Antichrist is compared to an harlot, because he seduceth the world with vaine wordes, doctrines of lies, and outward appearance.

c Meaning diuers nations and countreys.

d The beast signifieth the ancient Rome: the woman that sitteth thereon, the new Rome which is the Papistrie, whose cruelties and bloodshedding is declared by scripture.

e Full of idolatrie, superstition and contempt of the true God.

f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with the whole body of his filthie creatures, as is expounded, Verse 18. whose beastie onely standeth in outward pompe and impudencie, and craft like a strumpet. g Of false doctrines and blaspheamies. h Which none can know to auoid, but the elect.

8 The i beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the minde that hath wisdome. The seuen heads are k seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also l seuen Kings.

10 Fiue are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when hee commeth, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the m eight, and is one of the seuen, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shall receiue power, as Kings at one houre with the beast.

13 n These haue one minde, and shall giue their power and authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shal fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall o ouercome them: * for hee is Lord of Lords, and King of Kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And hee sayd vnto mee, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the p tenne hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shal hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eate her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath q put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to doe with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the kings of the earth.

i This is the Romane Empire, which being fallen into decay, the whore of Rome vsurped authoritie, and proceeded from the deuill: and thither shall returne.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condemne her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shal see the smoke of her burning,

10 And shall stand a farre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

23 And the light of a candle shal shine no more in thee: & the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for thy ᵗ merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantments were deceiued all nations.

13 On the East part there were three gates, and on the Northside three gates, on the Southside three gates, and on the West side three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reede to measure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay foure square, and the length is as large as the breadth of it, and he measured the citie with the reede, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred, fourtie and foure cubites, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Iasper: and the citie was pure golde like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie was garnished with all maner of precious stones, the first foundation was Iasper: the seconde of Saphir: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emeraude:

20 The fift of a Sardonix: the first of a Sardius: the seuenth of a Chrysolite: the eight of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topas: the tenth of a Chrysoprasus: the eleuenth of a Iacinth: the twelfth an Amethist.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euery gate is of one pearle, and the streete of the citie is pure golde, as shining glasse.

22 And I sawe no Temple therein: for the Lord God almightie and the Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 And the citie hath no neede of the sunne, neither of the moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 And the people which are saued, shall walke in the light of it: and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour vnto it,

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shalbe no night there.

26 And the glory and honour of the Gentiles shalbe brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none vncleane thing, neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination or lyes: but they which are written in the Lambes Booke of life.

Phil. 4. 3. chap. 3. 5. and 20. 12.

AND he shewed mee a pure [a] riuer of water of life, cleare as christall, proceeding out of the throne of GOD, and of the Lambe.

2 In the [b] middes of the streete of it, and of either side of the riuer, was the tree of life, which bare twelue maner of fruites, and gaue fruite euery [c] moneth: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale [d] the nations with.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shall be in it, and his seruants shall serue him,

4 And they shall see his face, and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 [e] And there shalbe no night there, and they neede no candle, neither light of the Sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 And hee sayde vnto me, These wordes are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angell to shewe vnto his seruaunts the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Beholde, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke.

8 And I am Iohn, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, [f] I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angell, which shewed mee these things.

9 But hee sayd vnto me, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worshippe God.

10 And he sayd vnto me, [g] Seale not the wordes of the prophesie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is vniust, let him be vniust still: and he which is filthie, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him bee righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And beholde, I come shortly, and my reward is with mee, [h] to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am [i] Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first, and the last.

14 Blessed are they, that doe his commandements, that their right may bee in the [k] tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without shall bee dogges and enchanters, and whoremongers, and murtherers, and idolaters, and whosoeuer loueth or maketh [l] lies.

16 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the roote and the [m] generation of Dauid, and the bright morning [n] starre.

17 And the Spirite and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, [o] Come: And let him that is [p] a thirst, come: and [q] let whosoeuer [r] will, take of the water of life freely.

18 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke, [s] If any man shall adde vnto these things, God shal adde vnto him the plagues, that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the booke of this prophesie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, and from those things which are written in this booke.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, [t] Surely, I come quickely. Amen. Euen so [u] come, Lord Iesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

a He alludeth to the visible paradise, to set forth more sensibly the spirituall: and this agreeth with that which is written, Ezek. 47.1.

b Meaning, that Christ who is the life of his church, is common to all his, and not peculiar for any one sort of people.

f Now this is the second time that he suffered himselfe to be caried away with the excellencie of the persons which is to admonish vs of our infirmitie and readinesse to fall, except God strengthen vs miraculously with his Spirite.

g This is not then as the other prophesies which were commanded to be hid till the time appointed, as in Daniel 12.4. because that these things should be quickly accomplished, and did now beginne.

p Seeing the Lord is at hand, wee ought to be constant and reioyce, but wee must beware we esteeme not the length or shortnesse of the Lords comming by our owne imagination, 2. Pet. 3.9.

q This declareth the earnest desire that the faithfull haue to be deliuered of these miseries, and to be ioyned with their head Christ Iesus.
